Long and Short

By TOM RIORDAN

A couple of weeks back, there was a story about Margaretta Brisbin retiring as bookkeeper for the Tecumseh School System.

One of the items which was noted in the yarn by our Dorothy Grigg was that during Margaretta's tenure, the annual budget for public education in Tecumseh has blossomed.

In 1949, the figure totaled $180,000.

For 1965, just 16 years later, the schools require $1.5 million to keep the doors open and the greenboards in tip-top shape, not to mention paying an army of teachers and maintaining a tremendous, multi-building plant.

Obviously, here is big business.

Now, we get around to the whole point of this opus.

The fellow who carries the burden of seeing that things work out OK in the schools from day to day and month to month, Supt. James McDowell, some time ago announced his retirement [illegible]

That certainly seems like a long ways off. But if you've looked around lately, you may have noticed summer is fleeting and before long those pesky snow shovels will have to come out.

And who will ever forget that winter the midwest enjoyed a while back—but now the tack wanders.

★

THE QUESTION for those who considers our schools, is, "Who takes over when Mr. McDowell departs?"

For all I know, the school board may have been pondering this a long time, but it's difficult to imagine with all the current problems they have to wrestle with at each of their regular meetings.

So, here comes my two cents worth on the subject.

Before I wander in — where probably angels dare not tread — let one pearl of wisdom be offered. It is simply everyone who has ever been inside a school fancies himself as an expert on the subject. That covers quite a gang of folks. You will find no exception here.

My observation would be that our board start its search now for a new superintendent.

Since the Tecumseh System is big and growing larger, it calls for a man well established as an administrator, who may have already put in half a dozen years in such a post in another city.

It's important that he come in as a stranger to Tecumseh—but not to top-flight performances in the academic and administrative field.

This is going to mean a fat salary and the board should think only in these terms.

One of the new superintendent's long suits must be public relations, the ability to communicate his ideas — whether popular or unpopular — with the general public, his faculty and students.

Candidates of this stature don't grow on trees and that's why I feel the board should start the search immediately.

Falling Bike Rack Hurts Youngster

Douglas Geissler, nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Geissler, of 507 Herrick Park Drive, will spend the next five or six months in a body cast as the result of an accident on the Herrick Park School playground July 8.

Douglas was trying to get a bicycle rack down in proper position after it had been placed on end, when it fell on him. Younger children were playing in the area.

He was taken to the University Medical Center, Ann Arbor where his condition is improving every day.

Physicians told his parents that they hope to place him in the cast Friday. Doug is suffering from three fractured lumbar vertabrae.

Products Workers' Insurance Forms Are Available

Tecumseh Products Company employees who require insurance forms during the vacation period from Aug. 9-20 may obtain them.

The Insurance Office at Gate 1 will be open between the hours of 8 a.m. and 12 noon daily.

The office will not be open in the afternoon.

Teachers' Pay Raised to $4,900 Next Year

By JIM LINCOLN

A step to be competitive in keeping and hiring teachers was taken Monday night when the School Board raised the base salary for teachers to $4,900.

The hike of $150 is the second boost granted by the board this year. Beginning salaries were $4,700 for the 1964-65 term, but late this spring a $50 raise, effective for the next term, was approved.

Supt. James McDowell has repeatedly pointed out to the board that the Tecumseh schools were behind other school salaries and would have a difficult time filling instruction posts for 1965-66. Four vacancies still exist.

The board has been in an awkward situation of wanting to hike teachers' salaries in the past, but unable to do so due to lack of funds.

An unexpected grant of one mill from the county plus more state aid and increased enrollment have resulted in available funds for bigger salaries.

While the minimum salary is now $4,900, the maximum was also raised to $6,900. A teacher with a masters degree can receive as much as $7,400.

The local schools are still beneath Adrian, which starts its teachers out at $5,000. Most of the larger schools in the state begin at $5,200 or more.

St. Elizabeth has a teachers' salary scale beginning at $4,800 with $200 annual increments, like the public schools here.

Teachers at Monday's meeting favored raising the base over increasing the pay to be given to teachers for outside experience. Their request was for a $5,000 base salary.

Besides granting teacher salary raises Monday night, the School Board granted pay hikes to secretaries and custodians.

The amounts approved were less than half of those requested, and total cost per year is $4,900. Cost for raising salaries for instruction was approximately $12,500.

Other expenditures approved Monday night were:

$1,200 for elementary classroom furniture.

$8,000 for junior high furniture and equipment.

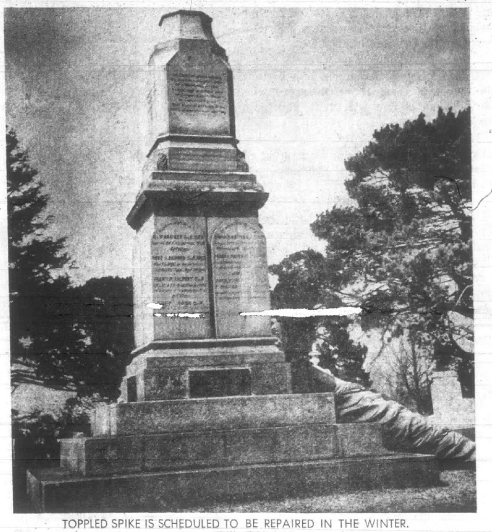
$1,500 for renovation of the junior high stage and library.

$2,635.45 for purchase of 19 band instruments.

The cost of placing counselors on a 39-week schedule will be taken out of the teaching budget, and a folding door in a high school [illegible] come out of the book fund.

Wrestling and cross country sports were approved with the cost coming from the gate receipts.

A proposal to up mileage allowances for travel between schools from 8c to 10c per mile was turned down.



TOPPLED SPIKE IS SCHEDULED TO BE REPAIRED IN THE WINTER.

DON PURKEY AND DAVE FALING

Oil Companies See Three Local Changes

Three business changes, including formation of a new Tecumseh corporation, have taken place during the past week in the distribution of fuel oil and petroleum products to homes, businesses and farms.

Don Purkey and Dave Faling have joined to form Lenawee Fuels, Inc.

They purchased the Leonard Oil bulk plant on Allen Rd., just north of Tecumseh, from Harry Richards.

Mr. Faling, formerly with Cities Service, has 13 years' experience, and Mr. Purkey has eight years' experience with Mobil.

They will employ another driver and operate three trucks, distributing Pure Oil products.

Harold Easton, owner and operator of a Mobil service station, has now taken over the distribution of Mobil bulk products.

He has operated the station here for the past 20 years, and worked four years previously for Harold Wilson. He will retain his station.

Last week, Cities Service announced its name change to CITGO and that Gale Hooton, 32-year veteran in the oil business, will be its new agent. Mr. Hooton also will continue operating his service station.

Dr. Phelan Appointed to Board

Dr. Donald L. Phelan, Tecumseh dentist, was appointed by the School Board Monday night to succeed Herbert Simpson on the board.

Mr. Simpson, elected last year to a four-year term, moved last month to Wolf Lake, which is in the Onsted school district.

Dr. Phelan is a graduate of Michigan State University with a major in geology, and from the dentistry college at the University of Detroit.

Post Office Upkeep Is Not City's Job

By PHIL PIERSON

The responsibility for the upkeep of the new post office building and the surrounding grounds is not the responsibility of the Tecumseh Post Office Department until they move into the new building according to Postmaster Jack Metcalf.

Mr. Metcalf's response came as a result of the criticism the department has been hearing recently about the uncut grass and weeds around the new building.

"We will be leasing the building, and until we move into it, the responsibility for its upkeep as well as the grounds, are the lessor's and not ours," Mr. Metcalf said.

Mr. Metcalf said that the Post Office Department has not paid any money to the owner of the building yet, and won't until the building is completed and they are able to move into it.

"There is no expense at all to the department until we move in," Mr. Metcalf said.

There are only a few minor things to be done on the building before it is ready to be used according to Mr. Metcalf.

"We will lease the building as soon as it is completed," Mr. Metcalf said.

"Right now the department is doing everything it can in an effort to get the building completed."

The building has been inspected by the regional engineer who made a list of the corrections to be made before it can be approved.

When the construction company doing the work finishes making the corrections, the post office will be ready for use.

Three Streets To Be Resurfaced

Asphalt or bituminous concrete is scheduled for portions of three city streets this week.

Cal Zorn, city manager, says Ayling-Cunningham is expected here Friday or Monday to lay the base on sections of N. Maumee, E. Logan and N. Ottawa.

The top or finish portion of the asphalt is planned for September.

Seal coating of some city streets will start as soon as the summer's curb and gutter program is completed, about the middle of August.

Meyers Industries Gets Contracts from Government

Meyers Industries, Inc., has been awarded two government contracts for construction of aluminum tops for jeeps and other open army vehicles.

Otto Meiers says the company is making two different types with the government contracts amounting to $155.00.

Employment at the plant is now 45 and an increase is anticipated.

Meyers Industries is a separate company from Meyers Aircraft, which was sold last month to Rockwell-Standard of Pittsburgh.

Jolly Farmers To Have Guest

Shamsul Huq of E. Pakistan, who is a member of the farm leader exchange group visiting in the county, will be present as a guest of Raynor VanValkenburg at the July 16 meeting of the Jolly Farmers Farm Bureau.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Feight will be hosts for the 8:30 p.m. meeting. Cake, cookies and Jello will be served.

Change Proposed for School Hours

Another change in school hours for 1965-66 appear certain, although the School Board delayed any action until the August meeting.

New hours now proposed are kindergarten through the sixth grade, 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. and grades seven through 12, 7:45 to 2:30.

It is the third change suggested for the next term.

Lack of buses has forced the Tecumseh schools to juggle their hours in order to transport all eligible students. It requires 14 buses to handle the secondary students, and all 19 buses for the elementary students.

A request was made at Monday night's board meeting to transport St. Elizabeth seventh and eighth grade pupils with the public school elementary students.

Fr. Thomas Collins and James Robideau told the board they normally do not operate split sessions and would like to operate the Catholic elementary school at one session.

Norval Bovee, assistant superintendent in charge of transportation, told the visitors he was not even sure the schools could handle all the elementary pupils at one time with 19 buses, let alone taking on some seventh and eighth graders.

The board was unable to assure Fr. Collins and Mr. Robideau that their older pupils could be transported.

Tornado Lowers Monument

By LILLIAN LUCE

TIPTON — The Palm Sunday tornado did the first damage ever recorded to the Civil War Monument located in the Tipton Cemetery.

The Monument stood 33' before the storm hit, but has been reduced to only its foundations as the spike was blown off.

With 33 names on it, the monument is scheduled to be repaired this winter while the ground is frozen.

Dedicated 99 years ago July 4, the monument has been the center of activities every Memorial Day.

The base is 11' x 11' with three steps leading to the inscriptions which have recently been replaced by metal plaques bearing the names of the men who served from this township in Lenawee County.

★

STILL INTACT, the base contains inscriptions that are still visible. Some of them read:

"These died that the nation might live, and that representative government be perpetuated, and personal rights secured," on the north side.

The east side reads:

"Erected July 4, 1866 by the citizens of Franklin as a memorial to the brave and patriotic men who represented them in battle and gave their lives in defense of our common country."

On the south side the inscription says:

"Preserve the union of the state cemented by our prayers, our tears and our blood."

★

THE INSCRIPTION on the west side reads:

"Union and Liberty, one and inseparable, now and forever."

Orson Knight designed the monument that has set an example for other communities to honor their War dead.

From the date of its birth, the Monument had stood unscathed until the tornado hit, 100 years and two days after Appomatox.

Meyers Sale Announced

The sale of Meyers Aircraft, manufacturer of single engine airplanes here for the past 26 years, to Rockwell-Standard Corporation of Pittsburgh, was announced Monday.

Principal objective in the sale was the Meyers 200, a fast stock model plane which just recently won the 1965 Pendleton 100 International race in California for the third straight year.

Purchase of the company last month included the rights to the plane, now to be called the Aero-Commander-200, and all production equipment here.

Buildings, land not included.

Al Meyers, designer of the plane and president of Meyers Aircraft, will serve as general manager for what is now the Tecumseh Division of Aero-Commander, Inc.

Aero-Commander, Inc., is a subsidiary of Rockwell-Standard and produces single, twin-engine and jet planes at Bethany, Okla.

Officials here expect the operation to be moved to a different location in the future. Plans of Rockwell - Standard regarding plane production here, however, are unknown.

The Meyers 200, now Aero-Commander-200, can exceed 200 miles per hour with a range of over 1,300 statute miles. Sale price is $29,500.

MODERN WINDOW-WALLED FACADE IS FEATURE OF CLINTON'S NEW POST OFFICE.

Clinton Post Office Opens

By MAXINE CALHOUN

CLINTON — "We'll have three times [illegible] Postmaster Robert Mohr said Tuesday, as he was getting ready to move into the new Clinton post office building.

All post office business will be transacted in the new building beginning Thursday.

Located just east of the present post office, the new window-wall and brick structure will contain almost 3,000 square feet of work space and lobby.

Some of the present equipment will be moved and there will be some new equipment to make for more efficient handling of the mail.

There are 448 lock boxes in the present building. The new one will have 540 with room for many more as the need arises.

To facilitate the mail sorting by postal employees and for the convenience of lock box customers, an effort will be made to keep [illegible] of the boxes in the same order as they are now.

Present employees at the Clinton post office include two full time clerks, two temporary clerks, one rural mailman and a substitute for the rural route.

There is a covered loading dock in the back and a handy parking area for several cars in front of the new building.

It is expected that a formal dedication of the new post office will be held by September, Mr. Mohr said.

Democratic Picnic Will Be August 8

Barbecued Beef will be served at the annual Second Congressional District Democratic Picnic Aug. 8, beginning at noon at the Triple R Ranch, 6845 Devils Lake Hwy.

Among the honored guests are:

Weston E. Vivian, United States Congressman from the second Congressional District; Adelaide Hart, vice-chairman of the State Democratic Party; State Representative James Tierney; State Representative Charles Gray; and Secretary of State James Hare.

Adults may purchase tickets at the gate for $2, children under 12 are admitted free.

Canoeists Delayed, Arrive Here Safely

An extended fishing trip by a Navy veteran and a 10-year-old boy caused considerable anxiety in Tecumseh Sunday afternoon.

Joe Bartenslager, 22, and Loren Naugle, 10, both of Tecumseh, set out in a canoe on the River Raisin from Clinton at 10:30 a.m. Sunday and were scheduled to arrive in Tecumseh around 5 p.m.

When they didn't show up by 5:30, alarm was raised and the Tecumseh police, the Lenawee County sheriff's department and the sheriff's boat patrol were alerted.

At 6:40 the pair finally arrived safely in Tecumseh. They had planned to drift along the river and do some fishing along the way.

However, they were delayed by debris blocking their path caused from the Palm Sunday tornado.

They reported that several times they had to leave the canoe to free it from tree trunks and other debris in the river.

Their fishing was almost as bad as their canoe trip as they reported they only caught one fish.

Our Readers Write

To the Editor:

We enjoyed the excellent display of fireworks on the Fourth of July. I wonder if a program of vocal and instrumental numbers with a patriotic theme, offered by our local young people, would not be a worthy addition to the evening's entertainment.

Two Attend Music Camp

Stephen VanValkenburg of 7764 N. Adrian Hwy., and Vicki Hannah of 311 S. Wyandotte St., Tecumseh, are attending the 14th Annual Summer Music Camp through July 24 on the campus of Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo.

In addition to regular classes in choir, orchestra, band, music, literature, theory, conducting and applied music, the students will have a busy schedule of social activities, concerts and university-sponsored events.

Highlighting the two-week camp session will be the final Music Camp concert for families and friends on July 24 at 2:30 p.m. in the University Student Center ballroom.

Directing the music camp activities will be Leonard Meretta, professor of music at WMU. Assisting him will be Jerry L. Smith, graduate assistant, who will conduct the vocal ensembles.

Government Club Will Meet Tonight

Mrs. Harold Wilson will be hostess at her home at 1010 Red Mill Dr. for the meeting of the Citizens for Good Government Club at 7:30 p.m., July 15.

There will be a short meeting and a presentation of the records, "Essence of Americanism".

Anyone interested is welcome to attend.

Reverend Porteous at Albion College

The Rev. Donald C. Porteous, pastor of the First Methodist Church, is the business manager for the Michigan Area Leadership School being held this week at Albion College.

This is the second year Rev. Porteous has held this position and will do so for one more session in 1966.

The Leadership School offers 10 courses to interested persons throughout the entire state from both the Detroit and Michigan Conferences.

This year's registrations included about 10 missionaries as well as persons from South Dakota, Tennessee, and other areas.

Upon his return this weekend Rev. Porteous will conduct the Sacrament of Holy Communion during the Sunday morning worship program.

This Sunday, as the previous ones in July, the Sunday School children will attend the morning worship service until the conclusion of the children's sermon.

At that time they retire to their classrooms and conclude their studies at 11 a.m. This is for grades one through six.

Youths Killed

Two young employees of Wickes Lumber Co., were killed Tuesday morning when their car was struck by a Wabash passenger train at the E. Main St. railroad tracks in Milan.

Killed were Allan Herrick, 19, of Milan and Henry Koback Jr., 19, also of Milan.

They were on their way to work and apparently didn't see the train as they started across the tracks. There are no gates at the crossing, only a warning bell.

Four-Car Accident in Town Saturday

Four cars were involved in an accident late Saturday afternoon at the intersection of E. Chicago Blvd. and Ottawa St. with one driver taken to Herrick Hospital with minor injuries.

The mishap occurred when Clair E. Maynard, 18, of 3048 Pleasant Dr., bumped the rear of a car riven by James O. Wallace, 18, of 9236 Carson Hwy., glanced off and struck two other automobiles.

The third car was operated by Richard Lee McKenzie, 21, of Onsted, and the fourth motorist, north of the intersection on N. Ottawa, was Marvin J. Watkins, 67, of 112 S. Oneida St.

Maynard was taken to the hospital. His car was towed away by a wrecker, and he was cited for failure to have his car under control.

A resume of other accidents:

July 9 — Theresa Ann Jenks, 32, Toledo and Hollis D. Sutton, 17, Hillsdale, at E. Chicago Blvd. and Maumee. Sutton was charged with an improper turn. Nancy Jenks, 12, was taken to Herrick Hospital with minor injuries.

July 10 — Clifford G. MacBay, Sr., 46, Temperance, damaged sign and camper while parking on E. Chivago Blvd.

July 10 — Ronald A. Lawson, 7338 Billmeyer Rd., reported car damaged while parked at the swimming pit.

July 13 — Kermit R. Briner, 32, Paul's Trailer Park, and Ronald E. Braden, 16, of 122 S. Ottawa St., at intersection of W. Logan and N. Evans Sts. Braden, a student driver, allowed car to drift back and bump Briner vehicle. There was very little damage and no citation was issued.

Soaring Champ Is Dean Svec

The 1965 National Soaring Champion is Dean Svec of Bedford, Ohio.

Seven contest days including speed and distance tasks sent the 69 contestants as far south as Louisville, Ky. — north to Lansing, west to Coldwater and on [illegible] day, east to Brunswick, Ohio.

The highest total points went to Hans-Werner Grosse of Luebeck, Germany, but only an American can win the title of U. S. Champion so Svec in second place is the holder of that coveted title for 1965.

Svec is a member of the Adrian Soaring Club, co-sponsors of the event with the Adrian Area Chamber of Commerce.

Though he has been soaring for eight years and contended in three Nationals, this is the first time Svec has been in the top 10 finalists. Svec is also a power plane and helicopter pilot.

★

THE LAST DAY'S task (July 8) really challenged the competitors. Assigned a distance task to Lansing, Marshall, and back to Adrian (193 miles) then permitted to fly free distance in the direction of their choice, the pilots had little trouble to Lansing.

But rain in the area of Marshall caused 14 to land. Twenty eight completed the flight to Adrian and Hans-Werner Grosse flew an additional 123 miles to Brunswick, Ohio, to capture 1,000 points for the day.

George E. Moffat, Elizabeth, N. S., who led for six [illegible] days, elected to fly south after returning to Adrian and was able to go only 37 additional miles, ending in third place.

Svec flew 105 miles past Adrian along the Lake Erie coast line, to land in second place and win the title of U. S. Soaring Champion.

★

THE 32ND U. S. National Soaring Championships attracted contestants from 20 states, Germany and Switzerland.

Rene Comte of Switzerland was unable to compete for his sailplane was held aboard ship in New York due to a dock strike. Comte arrived in Adrian July 5, after trying for three weeks to get his contest craft off the boat.

When the strike is over, Comte plans to return to Adrian and try the soaring conditions in the area before returning home.

The greatest distance made during the contest was 284 miles by Grosse. The best speed 44 miles per-hour.

LIEUT. WILLIAM BROWN

Lieut. Brown Is Casualty in Viet Nam

Navy Lieut. William Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Brown, of 706 W. Chicago Blvd. was killed July 8 in Chu Lai, South Viet Nam, the first Tecumseh casualty of the Viet Nam conflict.

He was acting as naval advisor to the Marine Corps at the time of his death.

The Brown family were long time residents of Ypsilanti where Lieut. Brown was graduated from Roosevelt High School.

He attended the Naval Academy at Annapolis and graduated in 1959.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown have lived in Tecumseh for three years and their son frequently visited them here. His last visit preceded his leaving for Viet Nam was April 1.

He was stationed at the Da Nang Marine Base for a month and skippered junks along the coast of the South China Sea.

The body is being returned to the U. S. but arrangements have not been made for funeral services.

Weatherwise the summer of 1965 is supposed to be the most favorable of the 20th Century. This is the year for sports enthusiasts, do-it-yourselfers and outdoor fiends to really live it up, so enjoy yourselves.

One important caution — on your way to the lake, to the ball field, to the lumber yard or hardware or on your vacation, watch that foolish driver.

One can be the perfect motorist and still be clobbered unless he is alert to the possibilities of what other drivers may do.

A safe driver does not make the highway safe but a road full of safe drivers, that's the plan at path we are all searching for. Let's promote it by exercising special caution and courtesy.

Officers' Training Day Held at First Methodist

Mrs. Victor Hopeman, a former officer in the Ann Arbor District Women's Society of Christian Service, opened the Officers' Training Day held Monday afternoon in the First Methodist Church with a Christian Social Concerns message.

Using numerous selections from the Book of Psalms, Mrs. Hopeman stressed the thought that the whole creation is a universe with one mind, one will and one purpose and that the law of nature is in reality the law of God.

Since man never can get outside of the universe he must exist for God and so, explained Mrs. Hopeman, we cannot divide the sacred and the secular.

Everything we do in a service to man is likewise a service to God.

She concluded with the statement that true religion integrates all of man's activities and thus we must dedicate our whole selves no matter how little that may seem.

FIELDS OF PLAY

By PHIL PIERSON

PONY LEAGUE

► Butch Quinn held G & J to one hit as he pitched his TPW team to a 3-0 shutout win.

Mike Herbert did the pitching for G & J and only allowed five hits and for three innings was locked in a scoreless duel with Quinn.

The scoring all came in the top of the fourth for TPW. With one out, Doug Haeussler singled and moved to second when Charley Fitch drew a walk.

After the next batter struck out, John Kennedy singled to load the bases. Dennis Marsh then singled to left to drive in the first one and two more came home on the only error of the game committed by G & J.

G & J's only real threat came in the sixth inning but was stopped on a good defensive play by TPW second baseman David Ward.

G & J catcher Lenny Lewis hit a smash that caromed off Kennedy to second baseman David Ward whose throw to the plate just nipped Herbert who was trying to score on the play.

The other hits for TPW were acquired by Quinn and John Bryan.

► TPW edged the Eagles, 5-4, as John Kennedy tied his own league record of 16 strike outs in one game.

Kennedy allowed only three hits and also helped his pitching cause with a double in the first inning to drive home the first run of the ball game.

The Eagles managed to tie up the game in the [illegible] when they notched their first run of the game.

With two runs in the fourth, TPW went back on top, 3-1. Then the Eagles came back with one run in the fifth and two in the sixth to take the lead for the first time, 4-3.

TPW won the game in the bottom of the seventh when they put together a two-run rally.

PONY LEAGUE
TPW	7	3
G&J	6	4
Britton	5	4
Eagles	6	5
VFW	5	6
Indians	1	8

Kennedy opened the inning with a walk and promptly stole second base. He took third on an error and scored on a wild pitch, to tie the score, 4-4.

Catcher Dennis Marsh, who had gotten on base via the error, then scored the winning run when Dave Ward singled.

Ron Bowen and Jim Whitney had the other hits for TPW as they managed only four hits off the losing pitcher Jim Mobley.

Mobley got two of his team's three hits with Mark Wegner getting the other one.

► VFW clobbered the Indians, 10-2, as they pounded out nine hits in the win.

Lamar Rufner led the assault off losing pitcher Rick Calzada with 3-for-3.

Other leading hitters for VFW were Dave Lord with two safeties, and Steve Dalton with a triple.

Mike Decker struck out four batters and scattered five hits in picking up the pitching win for VFW.

Tom Horton led the Indians' batting attack with 3-for-3 including two triples.

VFW won the game in the second inning when they scored three times, but they went on to score once more in the third, three times in the fourth and twice in the fifth.

► Four G&J errors in the fifth inning that allowed four Indian runners to score, proved the difference as the Indians registered their first win of the season, 4-3.

The Indians picked up only three hits off losing pitcher Dennis Lewis, singles by Bruce Des Ermia, Stephen Kring and Bob McCombs.

Winning pitcher Greg Wise only allowed two hits, singles by Lewis and Don Donahon, and fanned six batters.

G&J made five errors in the game, four in the fatal fifth, and that made the difference between victory and defeat.

► Lamar Rufner of VFW fanned 14 batters en route to a 7-5 win over Britton.

VFW's leading hitters were Mike Decker with 3-for-4, Ron Randolph and catcher Tom Aiuto with 2-for-4.

Rick Maska took the loss on the mound for Britton. Maska allowed seven hits and struck out nine hitters.

Ron Findley stole the hitting honors for the game with four hits in four at-bats. Jerry Korican added a pair of hits for Britton.

► Pounding out 15 hits, the Eagles beat VFW again, but this time the score wasn't nearly as close.

The Eagles scored 10 times before VFW was able to push across their only three runs in the seventh inning to make the final score 10-3.

Winning pitcher Mike Fowler had a no-hitter until the seventh inning when John Drake and losing pitcher Mike Decker hit singles in VFW's three-run rally.

For the Eagles, catcher Gary Fairbanks had a single and a triple. Jim Mobley rapped a single and two doubles; Mark Wegner added three singles; Bill Puffer and Fowler each had a pair of singles; and Dan Anderson, Glen Davis and Gerry Girbach each had one single for the total of 15 hits.

The winning runs were scored in the third inning. Fairbanks opened with a single and took second when Mobley walked.

Both runners scored on Puffer's single. Fowler was safe on an error with Puffer taking second base.

The latter then stole third and came home with what proved to be the winning run when catcher Tom Aiuto's throw went through the third baseman, attempting to tag Puffer.

► Britton edged the Indians, 8-7, in an error-filled game that saw a total of 14 misplays committed by both teams.

Jim Skelton was the winning pitcher with Tom Schroeder doing the catching.

Rick Calzada took the loss for the Indians and John Wall did the catching.

Rick Brown, Ron Findley and Ed Hamilton were the leading hitters for victorious Britton.

Bruce DesErmia, with a triple and single, and Tom Horton, with a double and single, were the hitting stars for the Indians.

► The Eagles beat VFW, 3-1, although they managed only one hit off losing pitcher Lamar Rufner.

Rufner walked five men, two of whom scored on errors to give the Eagles the win.

Bill Puffer slammed a lead-off double in the second inning for the only hit off Rufner. Puffer went to third on a passed ball and scored on a wild throw to the third baseman for the winning run of the game.

Mark Wegner was the winning pitcher as he gave up four hits and struck out nine batters.

Catcher Steve Dalton had a pair of singles for VFW. Rufner added another single and Mike Decker also had a single for the four hits off Wegner.

CUB MAJORS

► TPE Credit Union stopped the Jaycees, 6-2, behind the two-hit pitching of Mark Decker.

Decker's catcher, Mike Tilton, provided the winning run of the game when he stole home with the bases loaded.

TPE's hits were racked up by Tilton with two and Bob Beevers, Craig Brown and Sam Whitney with one each.

Steve Vargo took the loss for the Jaycees getting relief help from Dave Gurtzweiler. Pete Speerstra did the catching for both hurlers.

► Kiwanis stopped Falings Cities Service, 6-1, on the pitching of Alex Gibson and the hitting of Rich Schuyler.

Gibson struck out 13, walked two and gave up only two hits in gaining the mound victory.

Schuyler had two doubles and a single and had three RBI's for Kiwanis.

Jim Freshcorn knocked in two other runs for Kiwanis with two singles in three at-bats.

Craig Van Camp did the catching for Kiwanis.

► The Indians topped the Red Sox, 5-2, on the one-hit pitching of Johnny Merz.

Merz fanned 17 batters, one under the maximum of 18 for a six inning game, and had a no-hitter going until the sixth when the Red Sox' Duane Carpenter led off with a double.

The losing pitcher was Mike Murphy.

Joe Mitchell paced the Indian hitters with two safeties in four at-bats.

Mike Gilpin did the catching for Merz, and Brian Des Ermia was the backstop for the Red Sox.

► The battery brother combination of Steve Tilton, pitching, and Mike Tilton, catching, proved too much for Faling's Cities Service as their TPE Credit Union team dumped them, 7-4.

Steve gave up only four hits and struck out 11 batters in gaining the mound win.

Mike led the batting assault against Falings with 2-for-2.

Mike Matteson added 2-for-3, Craig Brown 1-for-3, Doug Wheeler and Steve Tilton 1-for-2, and Sam Whitney 1-for-4 to account for TPE's eight hits.

Lewis Rebottaro and Mervin Maynard did the pitching for Faling's with Brad Schaffrodt doing the catching. Rebottaro took the loss.

The only double play of the game was made by Falings in the fifth inning.

► Scoring in every inning but the first, the Giants scalped the Indians, 17-9.

The Giants had only five hits and the Indians four, but there were 26 walks issued to account for most of the scoring.

For the first two frames, the game was relatively tame with the score knotted at 1-1.

Then the Giants broke through for five runs in the third and another in the fourth. The Indians, however, were not out of it as they scored once in the third and tied the score with five runs in their half of the fourth.

That was the last time the game was close as the Giants scored six times in the fifth and four times in the sixth.

Jim Sessoms was the winning pitcher with Tom Huber doing the catching.

Joey Mitchell started for the Indians and was relieved by David Hemphill in the fifth. Hemphill took the loss. Mike Gilpin did the catching for both hurlers.

Ken Baker was the big hitter for the Giants with a double and a single. Huber added a double and a walk.

► Mike Matteson gave up four hits as his TPE Credit Union team downed the Tecumseh Police, 8-3.

TPE got six hits in the game, two by Craig Brown and one each by Jeff Parker, Doug Wheeler, Steve Tilton and catcher, Mike Tilton.

Steve Tilton scored the winning run when he doubled, took third on an error and came home on a fielder's choice.

Robin Hatch and Richard Limes did the pitching for the Police.

Hatch took the loss with Mike Clement doing the catching for the two hurlers.

► Bob Reed gave up only two hits and faced only 19 batters, one over the limit for a six inning game, as the Tecumseh Police defeated Union, 2-0.

Two Union runners were cut down trying to steal home by the combination of Reed and Catcher Mike Clement.

The Police scored their first run in the fourth inning on a single by Guy Manwaring. Reed homered in the sixth for the other Police run.

► Dan Gunder fired a no-hitter as his Rotary team defeated Faling's Cities Service, 2-1.

Gunder struck out eight and walked three, but until the sixth it looked as though he might lose the game 1-0 even though he hadn't allowed a base hit.

Faling scored their run in the fourth and carried the lead into the bottom of the last inning.

Jack Greenfield walked to open the final frame for Rotary and went to second on a passed ball.

Greenfield then scored on a wild throw to the plate on Gary Alcock's pop single and Alcock's followed him across with the winning run.

In addition to his fine pitching, Gunder also collected two hits in two at-bats. Vern Bennett went 2-for-3 for Rotary.

Darrell Zorn did the backstopping for Faling.

► Kiwanis scored eight runs in the first inning and rolled to a 21-6 victory over the Jaycees.

Winning pitcher Rich Schuyler was also the batting leader with three doubles and a single in four at-bats.

Alex Gibson had two doubles and two singles in five at-bats as Kiwanis rapped out 16 hits.

Schuyler struck out 13 batters with the help of his catcher, Craig Van Camp.

► Kiwanis nipped Rotary, 5-4, as winning pitcher Alex Gibson fanned 17 batters.

Gibson also drove in the winning run in the tight game with a single in the fifth inning to score Rich Smith who had walked and went to second on a passed ball.

Rich Schuyler had 1-for-3 for Kiwanis and knocked in two runs.

Jack Greenfield was the losing pitcher although he gave up only two hits and fanned nine batters.

Greenfield also paced his team at the plate with two hits in three at-bats.

CUB MINORS

► The Braves won another ball game as they stopped the Dodgers, 12-7, by scoring runs in every inning.

Rodney Cole was the winning pitcher as he allowed only three hits and struck out eight hitters.

At the plate, Cole had 3-for-4, Arlon Bozeman had 3-for-4 and David Biscupski added 2-for-3, as the Braves pounded out 12 hits off losing pitcher Tom Gittings.

Kellous Williams scored the winning run in the fourth inning when, after doubling, he scored on a single by catcher Bob Miller.

Gittings struck out five batters in the losing cause with Glenn Posky doing the catching.

► With 10 runs in the first inning, the Braves were never headed as they swamped the Tigers, 23-2.

Winning pitcher Jim Robideau spun a no-hitter against the Tigers and fanned 17 batters. The two runs came as a result of the nine walks he issued in the game.

Jack McCarley led the Brave attack with 4-for-4 including a homerun in the fifth inning.

Arlon Bozeman had 3-for5 and Robideau chipped in with 2-for-2.

Bob Miller was the catcher in Robideau's near flawless performance.

The losing battery was Gary Agnew, pitcher, and Mark Slaugh, catcher.

The engagement of Carol Jean Campbell to James Baker is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Campbell, 704 Clark St. Mr. Baker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baker of Springville. Carol was graduated from Tecumseh High School and is employed at Aget Mfg., Adrian, as a secretary. Her fiance is a graduate of Onsted High School and is employed at the Hubbard Apiary in Springville. The wedding will take place Sept. 25.

GM Will Make 6 Safety Items Standard Gear

DETROIT — General Motors has announced that all of its 1966 model passenger cars will include a number of safety items as standard equipment.

Standard on all General Motors 1966 cars will be:

► Rear seat belts
► Padded instrument panel
► Back-up light
► Outside left-hand rear-view mirror
► Dual-speed windshield wiper and washer
► Padded sun-visor.

GM Chairman Frederic G. Donner and President James M. Roche, in announcing the new standard safety equipment, said the program "continues the evolutionary improvement in safety carried out over the years by incorporating as standard equipment a number of items previously available as options."

Saturday callers of Mrs. Grace Moore were her niece, Mrs. E. J. Mitchell and grandson, Earl, of Orange Park, Fla., Mrs. Knight and sons Edward and Stanley Jr. of Madison Heights.

Three Teams Tie for First in Tourney

There was a three-way tie for first place in the Baby Calcutta Best-Ball Tournament at the Tecumseh Country Club Sunday.

The teams of Peter Easter and Bob Hoekstra, Fred Randall and Paul Gallland, and Ralph Dabe and Bob Dickinson all tied for first place with a best-ball 68.

Mr. Randall and Mr. Dabe tied for the low gross with a 78. Mr. Randall went out in 37 and came in with 41. Mr. Dabe shot 36 on the front nine and 40 on the back nine.

Mr. Randall's 37 is the new low score for the front nine since the new holes were opened.

There were 24 two-man teams entered in the tournament. The results of the other leading finishers are:

Second — Al Caesar and Walt Daniels	67
Third — Ed Komorowski and M. Bredernitz	69
Art Geisenhaver and Virgil Tucker	69
Bob Bowers and Bob Aten	69
Paul Clauda and Dick Eggleston	69
Leroy Tyler and M. Downing	69
Ned Rosacrans and Jim Spooner	69

Reception

TIPTON — A wedding reception was held Thursday evening in the First Baptist Youth House in Tecumseh honoring Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Carter, whose marriage was July 4 in the First Presbyterian Church in Plymouth, O.

Mrs. Harry Travis cut and served the wedding cake. Miss Kathryn Carter presided at the punch bowl.

Assisting at the serving table were Mrs. Thomas Brooks, Mrs. Donald Daniels and Mrs. Raynor Hardy. Mrs. Glenn Fisher was in charge of the guest book.

One hundred guests extended congratulations to the newlyweds.

Pee Wee and Junior Girls' Softball

In the girl's Pee Wee League last week, the Bikinis again chased the Tecumseh Chiefs off their warpath, trouncing them 37 to 12 on Tuesday and 26 to 12 on Thursday. The latter with the new rule that no team can score more than 10 runs in any one inning in effect.

On Tuesday for the winners, four girls enjoyed a perfect day at the plate and Peggy Aebersold pounded out three home runs, while Julie Murphy and Elaine Aebersold contributed two, and teammate Pam Felton had one.

On Thursday, 11 Bikinis had a perfect day and Pam Felton once again hit a home run and was outstanding also in the field.

The Champion Grubbies were victorious over the Things 20 to 10. Jackie Rodgers was the winning pitcher while Margaret Bolden suffered the loss.

The outstanding player was Kathy Baugh who connected for a grand slam home run. Jackie Rodgers and Becki Roost each had a homerun.

The Toads defeated the Champion Grubbies 7 to 5. Shelley Mengerink enjoyed a perfect day at the plate. Homerun hitters were Linda Baxter and Mary Jo Nykodym.

BOY'S PEE WEE LEAGUE
Hebb's Wildcats	6	1
Kennel's Sluggers	4	3
Mensing's Mustangs	3	4
Edward's Tigers	1	6

Due to the holiday and the rain our playing week was shortened this past week. Hebb's Wildcats squeaked by Kennel's Sluggers 10 to 9 and Mensing's Mustangs defeated Edward's Tigers 7 to 6.

Playgrounds

The total attendance on the playgrounds this week was 183. A checked tournament was held on Friday.

The following children were winners on the various playgrounds:

Marc Graff, Randy Macham, John Rathke, Marty Harper, Mike Tilton and Bill Knapp.

John Rathke was the winner from all the playgrounds and Randy Macham was runner-up.

Many of the children dressed like hobos on Friday. Some brought their lunches in a paper bag or an old handkerchief which was attached to a stick. The hobos enjoyed watermelon with their lunch.

Next week will feature Olympic Week. Mock track meets will be held at the various playgrounds.

Tecumseh Beaten in Girls Softball

Adrian stopped Tecumseh, 12-9, in the Southeastern Girls Softball League.

Loretta Vogel and Emily Manwaring led the Tecumseh girls at the plate with 3-for-4 performances in a losing cause.

Loretta also made an excellent double play in the field.

The losing pitcher was Beth O'Neil with Carol Hand doing the catching.

The Michigan Cooperative Extension Service held more than 110,000 educational meetings during 1964 with a total attendance of over two million.

What Is Meant By Ethical Pharmacy...

Ethics are described as principles of morality, and the science of good. Applied to Pharmacy, it is to practice the best of that which is known, and to exclude the questionable.

We perform these functions carefully. We are proud of the fact that our patrons, Doctors and patients, alike, consider that we comply with the high principles and practices that designate an Ethical Pharmacy.

Announces the appointment of HAROLD EASTON for delivery of Fuel Oil and other Industrial and Fleet Petroleum Products

SEE HAROLD EASTON FOR MOBIL

Over 20 years, 24 to be eact, is the number of years Harold Easton has been associated with the Mobil Oil Company. For the past 20 years he has owned a Mobil service station in downtown Tecumseh. This experience has given him unsurpassed knowledge — and complete confidence — in Mobil products. During the next few days, hundreds and hundreds of Tecumseh and area families will be hearing from Harold and his plans for delivery service of Mobil fuel oil and industrial and fleet petroleum products. Headquarters for Mobil in this area will continue to be Easton's Friendly Service, which he will operate along with distribution of Mobil products to your home, farm and business.

For more years than some of us care to remember, Mobil has been a regular conversation word — gas, oil or any other petroleum product — for hundreds and hundreds of Tecumseh and area families. This familiarity with Mobil was built over the years, not overnight. A great portion of its splendid reputation in this area, resulted, we know, from the prompt, friendly service given to you by a fellow Mobil representative, Harold Easton. He's the man to see now for your Mobil fuel oil and your industrial and fleet petroleum products. A change has been effected, but Mobil patrons can be assured that there will be no interruption of service . . . and, of course, no change in the quality of the product you're used to enjoying. The Mobil Oil Company is proud to have Harold as its consignee here, its representative in charge of serving local and area families with the company's products. The Company sincerely hopes that your experience with our products over the past years will not change, and you enjoy many, many more years with Mobil.

Pakistan Farmers To Visit for Week

By CHRISTINE FAIRBANKS

BRITTON — Eight Pakistan farmers will arrive in Lenawee County Wednesday to spend a week studying American farming methods and how Americans live.

Each of the men will stay with a county family for the week. Host families in the Britton area are:

Mr. and Mrs. James Squires, 8447 Ridge Road, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Spohr, 4507 Palmer Road and Mr. and Mrs. Raynor VanVankenburg of rural Tecumseh.

The visit to Lenawee is part of a two-month tour of the United States, during which the men will visit 10 states and Washington, D. C.

They arrived in Washington June 4 where they were met by Ruby Yeutter of Clayton, local representative of the sponsoring organization and herself a participant to India in 1962.

The Farm Leader Exchange is sponsored by "Farmers and World Affairs," which is a non-profit, educational organization, founded in 1956 by farm leaders and Ray Newton, now Executive Secretary Emeritus, to promote peace through mutual understanding.

★

FARM LEADERS from developing countries such as India, Pakistan, the United Arab Republic and Venezuela spent six to eight weeks in the United States, mostly in a series of one-week visits with American farm families in various parts of the country.

They get acquainted with the American people, learn something about American agricultural processes and farm organizations, learn what farms in a free society can achieve.

"Farmers and World Affairs" works primarily in cooperation with the national farm organizations to help the American farmer become better informed and more concerned with taking an active part in building a world of peace and freedom.

★

FWA is sponsored by voluntary contributions. It does not engage in legislative activity, or take sides politically. The farmers it serves are encouraged to work for world peace through their own farm organizations.

Local activities planned for the visitors while they are in Lenawee county include a tour Thursday of the Dundee Cement plant, the Atomic Power Reactor Development Company at Lagoona Beach and the Anderson Fertilizer Company at Riga.

Saturday they will be the guests of the Fertile Acres Farm Bureau at a picnic at the Allen Wagenschutz farm north of Britton.

Monday they will see the Detroit Union Produce Terminal and tour the Ford Motor Company.

From here, the group leaves for Ohio July 20, then back to Washington for evaluation meetings with Departments of State and Agriculture staff.

The trip concludes with a visit to New York City and the World's Fair, and from New York the visitors depart for their homes in Pakistan.

Britton, Ridgeway Churches Are United

BRITTON — "The greatest difficulty in our world today is that we are a divided world, and the greatest need of the people is unity."

So spoke Bishop Marshall Reed when he addressed the large coigregation at the special service Sunday, when the Britton and Ridgeway Methodist churches were formally united into one church.

This was the culmination of several years of effort on the part of the congregations of both churches as well as the pastor, the Rev. Robert A. Mitchinson.

Bishop Reed, who stated that he had first preached in the Ridgeway church in 1912 when he was a sophomore at Albion College, went on to say that this was a more significant service than many people realize, as it is a further step toward the goal of greater unification of Methodist churches.

"The way of peace can come only through the spirit and heart of the people, and we must live the commandment 'Love ye one another'."

Bishop Reed is presently retired and lives at Onsted.

Dr. Joseph Edwards, Ann Arbor District Superintendent, was also present and addressed the group at the service.

Special guests were the Rev. and Mrs. Albert B. Johns from Romulus and the Rev. and Mrs. Lorne Carter of Monroe, former ministers.

Fourteen new members were received into the church. Those who were received by profession of faith were:

Mrs. Howard Haas, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Schultz, Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Dunham, Gary and Linda Dunham, William Preston, Gary and Pamela Judkins, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Johnson and Allen Bower. Meryl Eaton was received by transfer.

A ham dinner at the Britton High School cafeteria was served to 170 people following the service.

Leon Kanner Will Leave for Uruguay on Saturday

By CHRISTINE FAIRBANKS

BRITTON — Leon Kanner, the exchange student from Uruguay who has been living the past six months in Britton, it slated to leave Michigan July 17.

He is overall favorably impressed with America, but says Americans live much faster and work harder than his people, who he feels pay much more attention to the arts and cultural activities.

Leon is a friendly, personable young man and a good representative for Uruguay to send to America. His home is in Montevideo, where his father is a real estate agent.

His stay here with the Franklin Fergus family was sponsored by the Youth for Understanding organization, which has its national headquarters in Ann Arbor.

Leon studied English for eight years before coming to the United States. He says:

"I glad I decided to study English."

He feels that the time has gone swiftly since he first arrived, and would like to stay longer. He states he is not homesick, but is anxious to see his family again.

★

LEON WAS ASKED his impressions of certain facets of American life, and his candid answers were interesting. Of school, he said:

"[illegible] is too easy here. At home the students prepare for two months for exams, which last a week or more, and no one can advance until he passes the exam. Sometimes you have to try several times.

"Here, too many poor students slide through, and the poor student often gets the same credit as a good student," Leon said.

The teachers are more friendly and personally interested in the students, Leon finds; at home he says they are more aloof.

The high school he attended has 5,000 students in the two top grades, which could account for the lack of personal interest.

The young people and their activities were similar, but with some differences noted by Leon.

Here, again, the "kids," as he referred to them, know each other so well, because most of them have been together since kindergarten.

He got a big kick out of the pep meetings and the cheerleaders, as they do not have these in Uruguay. Hardly anyone goes to the student games, he said.

Hard to believe in Britton! Also, most of the teen-agers activities are not school sponsored, as so many of them are here.

★

LEON STILL PREFERS his own version of "home-cooking" to American food, which he finds difficult to get used to. He did make one exception, however, he says he "loves" the pies.

LEON KANNER

American people in general have been kind and friendly to him Leon feels. His only criticism was that Americans are "too typical," or in other words, too much like one another and all want to do the same things, especially the teenagers.

In Uruguay, he says there are more individualists, whereas Americans all seem to want to be of the same mold, have the same things, go to the same places, wear the same kind of clothes.

Leon enjoyed himself very much on a recent trip to New York where he toured the city by himself. He went to the World's Fair, but stated he liked the United Nations best of all, and made two trips there.

★

HE HAS ALSO liked meeting other exchange students from other countries who are living in nearby towns.

When asked about hs future plans, Leon stated that when he returns home he will complete his last year of high school, and then expects to go to college to become an Agricultural Engineer.

His home address is:

Leon Kanner

Colonia 1768 Ap. [illegible]

Montevideo, Uruguay

He invites the "kids" to write to him, and says "thanks and farewell" to all his friends in Britton.

Shirley Squires, Joan Check Return Home from MSU

BRITTON — Joan Check and Sherry Squires have recently returned from attending Session 1 of the Communication Arts Institute held at Michigan State University.

The girls stayed in Landon Hall and attended classes in various buildings on the campus. They were there for two weeks.

Joan, who was editor of the 1966 Brittonian, the high school yearbook, was enrolled in the yearbook section of the institute. Sherry, editor of the Reflector, the school paper, was enrolled in the duplicated newspaper section.

Lectures and classwork were held in the mornings with laboratory work in the afternoon.

The yearbook lab group began the Record, a small yearbook for the institute. The duplicated newspaper group published two newspapers. Sherry was chosen as editor for the second paper.

A noon banquet on the last day brought the session to a close. At the banquet, outstanding achievements were acknowledged in the various fields of study.

Classifications of High Honors, Honors, and Honorable Mention were awarded. Miss Squires received Honors in the duplicated newspaper field.

The girls were sent to the institute with money from the Journalism Fund. This money is earned by selling Reflectors and other activities during the school year, including writing the Britton news for The Tecumseh Herald.

BRITTON BRIFFS

By CHRISTINE FAIRBANKS

Mrs. Lawrence Ash flew to Bradenton, Fla., last Tuesday and returned home by car with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson. The Johnsons will be spending the summer with the Ash family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fairbanks and daughter Tammy returned home Sunday evening from a few days trip in Michigan. While gone, they went through the Kellogg plant at Battle Creek, and spent a day at Mackinac Island.

Hugh Keel of San Diego, Calif., were recent visitors of Mrs. Wilbur Youngiove and Thelma Youngiove.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Arft were Mr. and Mrs. Harold McNaughton of Pleasant Ridge.

Kathleen O'Hara returned to her home in Ann Arbor Sunday after spending three weeks with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Seagert and daughter Linda spent several days with their son Richard at Clinton, Iowa. They toured the DuPont plant where Richard is employed as a chemist.

They also visited Clinton Municipal Airport, where Richard made his first solo flight that day after taking only seven and a half hours flight instruction.

Sandra Beal Is Honored at Shower

BRITTON — Sandra Beal was feted Sunday afternoon at a miscellaneous bridal shower in honor of her approaching marriage to Fred McCrate.

The shower was given for her by Mrs. Ronald Frayer, Mrs. Bernard Waterbury, Mrs. Gerald Benedict, Mrs. Jerry Benedict and Mrs. Lee Benedict in the Frayer home.

A corsage of pink and white mums was presented to Sandra. Games were played, and prizes of a matched set of kitchen utensils, each wrapped in a kitchen towel or dishcloth, were awarded.

The utensils went to the guest of honor and the game winner kept the "wrapping."

Door prizes were won by Mrs. Charles Benedict and Mrs. Dale Popelar.

Guests were present from Ypsilanti, Chelsea, Toledo and Britton. Light refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Party Is Success for Band Boosters

BRITTON — The Stanley Party which was sponsored last week by the Band Boosters was most successful, it was reported today.

The earnings for the Band Boosters totaled over $65, and may go higher as some delayed orders are still coming in.

This will be almost enough for one complete uniform, which costs around $80.

37 Attend Potluck Picnic

BRITTON — A potluck picnic held in the Britton Village Park recently was attended by 37 members of the Emmanuel Lutheran Ladies Guild and their children.

After the dinner, action games were played by the ladies and the children, with prizes awarded to the winners.

Mrs. Clarence Schroeder, Mrs. Wesley Gilmore, Mrs. Franklin Schroeder, Mrs. Fred Miller and Mrs. Melvin Schroeder planned and hosted the event.

Later in the afternoon, the ladies held a stork shower for Mrs. Lee Cox.

The Rev. George Kind of Hannibal, Wis., is visiting a few weeks with the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Mitchinson and family.

Special School Board Meeting Is Held July 6

BRITTON — The Board of Education of Britton-Macon Area Schools held a special meeting July 6, when new member Clarence Schroeder was sworn into office by Superintendent William Saxton.

Election of officers was held, with the following men selected: Douglas Palmer, president; James Squires, treasurer; and William Bearinger, secretary.

The treasurer's bond was set at $15,000 and the employee liability bond set at $5,000.

It was voted to hold the regular board meetings the second Wednesday of each month, beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the high school office.

Bills amounting to $2,241.40 were reviewed and discussed, and the motion was made that they be paid.

The next regular meeting will be July 14.

Picnic Luncheon Features Joint Circle Meeting

BRITTON — The Sunshine and Priscilla Circles combined for a picnic luncheon meeting last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Joseph Hall.

Twenty ladies and children enjoyed lunch in the spacious backyard of the Hall home. Short meetings and a social hour followed the meal.

There will be no meetings in August, and the September meeting will be the Women's Fellowship, which is all four circles combined.

Verl Sanch Awarded Service Pin

Verl Sanch, of 386 N. Main, Britton, received a 10-year service award from the Michigan Animal Breeders Cooperative (MABC) at a dinner held in Adrian July 8.

Mr. Sanch was one of four MABC technicians to receive awards at the dinner. The others were:

Ralph Peterson of Jackson, 15 years; Ed Burns of Manitou Beach, 15 years; and William Wietenhagen of Adrian, 15 years.

MABC technicians from the area attended the dinner with their wives.

Resident Honored at Open House

BRITTON—Mrs. Belva Weichner, former Britton resident and teacher, was the guest of honor at an open house last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Thelma Youngiove.

Mrs. Weichner, who now lives in Corvallis, Ore., was only here for a short time as she was traveling through Michigan.

Eighteen ladies enjoyed reminiscing with Mrs. Weichner. Refreshments were served to the group by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Clarence Arft.

Plans To Offer Swim Lessons

BRITTON — Mrs. Fred Lewis, nee Connie Kahle, of 12740 Ridge Road is planning a series of swimming lessons for children from five years through adults in her home pool.

Classes are $1 a lesson, for 10 lessons, held for one hour a day for 10 days. There will be a demonstration for parents at the end of each session.

Students may begin any Monday starting July 19. Classes will be limited to five or six children.

Bonnie McPherson Wed Richard Carter

Bonnie Jean McPherson became the bride of Richard E. Carter of Plymouth and Tipton in a double ring ceremony in First Presbyterian Church July 4 in Plymouth.

The Rev. Robert E. Mace, minister of the church, read the vows in a setting of white carnations and gladioli arranged in baskets beside the altar lighted by candles.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl McPherson of Plymouth and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carter of Tipton.

Mrs. Charles H. Dick, organist, played the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of white peau de soie, fashioned with fitted bodice with long tapered sleeves coming to points at the wrists.

The bodice was highlighted by Chantilly lace encrusted with pearls.

The bell skirt fell into a full, circular chapel train accented at the waist by a self-fabric rose.

Her bouffant veil of English Illusion fell from a peau de soie rose with forward petals and lilies-of-the-valley. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and ivy.

A high school chum, Ellen Smith, was maid of honor. Katherine Carter, the groom's sister, and Sandra Coe of Norwalk, the bride's cousin, were bridesmaids.

Each was attired in a short sheath gown fashioned with bell-shaped detachable overskirt, the maid of honor in blue, the bridesmaids in pink.

A crushed rose of organza with petals and lilies-of-the-valley supported the short bouffant veil.

They carried colonial bouquets of white carnations and pink roses with streamers to match their attire.

Don Becker was best man. Louis McPherson, US Air Force, the bride's brother, and Robert Baker of Tipton, ushered.

A reception followed in the church rooms enhanced with pink, blue and white.

Mrs. I. W. Breyman registered guests. Mrs. Warren Hollenbaugh, Mrs. Raymond Kleman, Mrs. Roger Gayheart and Cindy Hutchinson, New Haven served.

The bride, a 1964 graduate of Plymouth High School, is employed by the Bachrach Co. as secretary.

The groom, a graduate of Tecumseh High School and of Andrew Barber College, Toledo, is associated with Ray's Barber shop here.

They are living at 77½ Portner St.

The maid of honor was hostess at one shower for the bride in advance of the wedding and Mrs. Hollenbagh, a long-time neighbor, was hostess at another.

A reception for the newlyweds toook place in the First Baptist Church Youth House July 8. The Carl M. McPhersons and the Raymond Klemans attended.

MRS. RICHARD E. CARTER

MRS. KENNETH BRION

Linda Hanna, William Wood Say Vows

Linda Lee Hanna and William Frederick Wood were united in marriage July 10 at the Presbyterian Church by the Rev. David Van Winkle of Detroit, formerly of Tecumseh.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hanna, 600 Center Dr. and Mrs. Evelyn Vickers of Arizona and the late William H. Wood.

Tall pyramid bouquets of white blossoms enhanced the altar flanked with lighted cathedral candelabra.

Two 15 branched, circular candelabra faced with flowers adorned the chancel along with large baskets of white gladioli and palms.

The white carpeted aisle was outlined with single lighted tapers faced with white gladioli and satin bows.

Mrs. Fred Oberlin played nuptial music on the organ and accompanied the soloist, William Heimerdinger.

The bride on the arm of her father wore a floor length gown of silk linen with Venice lace edging the elbow length sleeves, the empire waistline and the detachable chapel train.

A matching lace circlet secured her three-tiered veil of silk illusion in place.

She carried a cascade arrangement of miniature ivy centered with an exquisite large white glamellia.

Mrs. Gary Hanna, nee Donna Nixon was matron of honor and Melissa Hanna, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Douglas Espu of Ann Arbor were the bridesmaids.

They were attired in gowns of moss green linen styled like the bride's and they wore matching Dior bows.

The attendants carried arm [illegible] of Tropicanna rosebuds tied with moss green velvet.

Mrs. Hanna wore an original gown of pure silk shantung created especially for her daghter's wedding. It was named "Mademoiselle Linda."

Jack Horsley of Allen Park served as best man and the 250 guests were seated by Tom Workman of Plymouth, Howard Rushlow and Erie Reickel of Trenton and Raymond Driscoll of Rockwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Merz were hosts at the church.

The Tecumseh Country Club was aglow with many candles and flowers throughout the reception room. The cake table was draped with skirting of tangerine taffeta under white net and edged with smilax.

The top of the tiered cake was enhanced with a white heart entwined with ivy and tiny Sorina rosebuds nestled in a base of gardenias.

A bridal wreath of the same flowers encircled the base of the cake. Marilou Layton and Susie Rohweder cut and served it.

Those pouring beverages at the reception were Mrs. Joseph E. Layton, Mrs. Joseph Rohweder, Mrs. Fred Randall and Mrs. Wendell Reum.

Others assisting were Mr. and Mrs. Don Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Galazzi, Mrs. Karl Scneider, Mr. and Mrs. Barry Brock and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rudd.

Following a two-week honeymoon at Colorado Springs the couple will reside at 406 Monterey Rd. in South Pasadena, Calif.

MRS. WILLIAM F. WOOD

Alla Michajlenko, Kenneth Brion Marry

Alla Michajlenko and Kenneth Brion were married Saturday at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church by the Rev. Fr. Thomas Collins.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Peter Michajlenko, 606 S. Occidenal Hwy. and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brion, 606 Center Dr.

Flowers were used on the altar and white bows marked the pews.

The bride given in marriage by her parents, wore a floor length gown of silk organza and Alencon lace fashioned with fitted bodice, tapered sleeves and a Sabrina neckline, re-embroidered with pearls.

The back was accented with a graceful chapel train. A double crown of pearls held her three-tiered veil of bridal illusion in place.

She carried a white orchid with lavender and white chrysanthemums.

Barbara Ann Posky was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Ruth Neidermier, Joanne Brion, sister of the groom, and Chris Chambers.

Miss Posky wore mint green and the bridesmaids wore lavender. Their street length gowns featured bell skirts with tiny bows and bodices of Alencon lace with rounded scooped necklines.

They wore small hats of illusion and tiny flowers and carried orchids surrounded by pompons.

Eugene Brion, brother of the groom, served as best man and the 325 guests were seated by Pat Vallad, James Chambers and Paul Limes.

A reception was held in St. Elizabeth Auditorium where the wedding colors were used in decorating.

Guests attended from Toledo, Ohio, Chicago, Ill., Tecumseh, Britton and Adrian.

Following a wedding trip to Manistique the newly married Mr. and Mrs. Brion will live at 412 W. Logan St.

The bride is a 1965 graduate of Tecumseh High School and her husband was graduated there in 1963. He is employed at the Rawsonville plant of Ford Motor Co.

A rehearsal dinner was held at Pearl's Cafe.

Pamela Dee Spicer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart A. Spicer, 8320 Smith Rd., became the bride of George Bradley McCombs, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. McCombs, 207 S. Oneida St., in a late June wedding.

The Rev. Donald E. Bodley performed the ceremony at the Christ Episcopal Church in Adrian.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father in a gown of white peau de soie styled with empire waistline with lace edging the sleeves and hem of the skirt and the train.

A crown of pearls held her elbow length veil in place and she wore a string of pearls, a gift of the groom, at her throat.

She carried a cascade arrangement of Eucharist lilies and stephanotis. Mrs. Samuel C. Smith of Ann Arbor, sister of the groom, was the matron of honor in a floor length gown of gold brocade belted with olive green velvet ribbon.

She carried a bone colored fan fronted with white glamellias and Quakermaid roses.

Shelley Bondey, cousin of the bride, Pamela Bryan, Linda Easton and Kay Becker were the bridesmaids and were attired like the matron of honor.

Lorrie and Colleen Spicer, sisters of the bride, were junior bridesmaids.

David Blanden served as the best man and the guests were seated by Jack Rutherford, Robert McCombs, Tim Spicer, Craig Rosacrans and Charles Squires.

A reception for 200 was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's cake was decorated by her father.

Those assisting at the reception were friends of the bride.

Home from a trip to Niagara Falls, the couple are living at the Imperial Apartments in Ann Arbor.

The bride is a 1965 graduate of Tecumseh High School and the groom was graduated there in 1963. He attended Michigan State University for one year and a half and will enter Eastern Michigan University for the fall term. He is affiliated with Zeta Beta Tau fraternity.

The rehearsal dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. George McCombs at the Tecumseh Country Club.

Marilyn Fennell Marries Robert Kasno

CLINTON — A wedding of local interest took place July 3 in the Lakeview Baptist Church in Clearwater, Fla., when Marilyn Fennell and Robert Kasno recited their marriage vows in a double ring ceremony before the Rev. Roy C. Weldon.

MRS. ROBERT KASNO

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Callie Fennell of McAlpin, Fla., and Dewey Fennell of Palatka, Fla.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kasno of St. Petersburg, Fla., former owners of the motel south of Clinton.

Lee A. Fennell of Palatka, Fla. gave his sister in marriage.

The bride wore a sheath gown of Chantilly lace over peau de soie. The fitted bodice had a scooped neckline accented with irridescents and tapered Juliet sleeves.

A bustle trimmed the skirt which ended in a chapel train edged with irredescents. Her veil of silk illusion was held by a crown of pearls.

★

THE BRIDE'S bouquet was a crescent of pale pink roses and white chrysanthemums.

Faye Fennell was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a waltz-length gown of pastel yellow chiffon over satin. She carried a bouquet of yellow daffodils and greenery.

Lawanna Fennell, sister of the bride, was a junior bridesmaid. She wore pastel pink chiffon over satin. Her bouquet was of pink daffodils and greenery.

Bob Fairbanks of Clearwater, Fla., was the best man.

The ushers were Gary Johnson of Clearwater, Fla., and Will Williamson of Safety Harbor.

Following a short trip, the couple will reside at 2175-20 Ave. S.W., Largo, Fla.

★

THE BRIDE is a 1961 graduate of Swanee High School. She was a government employee in Washington, D.C. for three years and is now employed at Pinellas Central Bank, Largo, Fla.

The bridegroom is a 1959 graduate of Clinton High School. He served in the Air Force for four years and since his discharge in 1963 has been [illegible] child-Hiller in St. Petersburg.

The bridegroom's parents were hosts for a rehearsal dinner at Vince Anna's restaurant in Clearwater, Fla., July 2.

Kathleen Wynn Wed to James Qualters

CLINTON — Mrs. Kathleen Wynn and James Qualters of English, Ind., were married Thursday evening in the United Church of Christ in Clinton.

The Rev. Paul McKenna performed the ceremony.

The attendants were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Kaiser of 606 Jackson St.

Other guests were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Fred Kaiser and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Greenstreet.

The bride wore a mint green suit with white accessories. Her corsage was of tinted mint Fuji chrysanthemums.

A family wedding party was held at the home of the bride's parents after the ceremony.

The bride was employed at Dearborn Steel Tubing Co.

Mr. Qualters has returned to English, Ind., where he is employed and Mrs. Qualters and children, Kevin and Allen, will join him soon to make their home in English.

Vivian Supports FTC Regulations

Congressman Weston Vivian has joined 33 of his colleagues in the House of Representatives in signing a letter to all members, calling for the defeat of S. 559, the Federal Cigarette Labeling and Advertising Act.

If enacted, the bill would prevent the Federal Trade Commission from requiring future cigarette advertisements, printed, or broadcast on radio and television, to include a warning of the hazard to health from cigarette smoking.

"I object to the proposition implicit in this bill that health is less important to the American people than maintaining employment and profits in the tobacco industry," Congressman Vivian said.

"This bill pretends to regulate the tobacco industry," Congressman Vivian said.

Vivian said he favored the regulations promulgated by the Federal Trade Commission requiring a stronger health warning on packages, plus a similar warning in all cigarette advertising.

"I support the Federal Trade Commission regulations. I want them put into effect immediately, therefore I shall vote against this bill," Congressman Vivian said.

Northline Bureau Wind Up Meetings

CLINTON — An airplane ride climaxed the family picnic of the Northline Farm Bureau, Sunday.

Six families attended the picnic dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vogel.

Mr. Vogel, who has a small airplane based at Scott's field, west of Clinton, took two groups of the children for a short plane ride over the Clinton area.

The group will resume meetings in September.

Clinton Tool To Expand Its Facilities

CLINTON — Steve Medvecz, owner of the Clinton Tool & Die Co., is announcing the expansion of the present facilities located on US-12 and Tipton Hwy., west of Clinton.

A 40' x 40' addition is being constructed on the rear of the present structure.

Mr. Medvecz has owned and operated the company since 1956. Previously he was connected with the Tipton Tool & Die Co. for six years.

The company does custom tool and die work and Blanchard grinding. With the additional machinery and vertical borers, the company plans to add several employees to the work force.

Clinton Board Elects Officers

CLINTON — The Clinton Board of Education met in special session, July 6 to elect new officers.

Rex Winchell was reelected president.

Also reelected were Charles Knight, vice-president and Mrs. Edwin Wight, secretary.

James Woodward was elected treasurer.

Charles Straight, Waldo Papsdorf and Roger Waltz, new members of the board who were elected in June will serve as trustees.

Clinton, Tecumseh Rotary Clubs Plan Annual Golf Day

CLINTON — The Rotary Club accepted the invitation of the Tecumseh Rotarians to attend the annual Golf Day event Aug. 17, at their meeting July 7.

Only the August 18 dinner meeting will be canceled. All other dinner meetings are continuing for the summer.

Tentative plans were made to attend a Tiger baseball game on Aug. 6.

Howard Emery of Adrian was a guest.

Mary McDermott Describes Week at Girls' State

CLINTON — Mary Ann McDermott described her week at Girls' State for her sponsoring group, the American Legion Auxiliary, at their picnic meeting July 6.

Mrs. Henry Treet was hostess for the meeting atended by 17 members.

The Auxiliary made plans to participate in the July 13 veterans' party at the state hospital.

Mrs. R. C. Stauffer reported on the recent district meeting which she attended in Milan.

The new officers will be installed at the August 3 meeting. Mrs. Hattie Feldkamp will be hostess for the 6:30 p.m. potluck supper.

Christmas Plans Are Made Already by Village Council

CLINTON — The village council, at their June 7 meeting, were shown samples of brackets for permanent Christmas decorations and flags by Thomas Young and Waldo Ehnis, representatives of the Chamber of Commerce.

Council and Chamber members decided to go to Frankenmuth soon to view Christmas lighting displays.

The council accepted the bid of George's Motor Sales on a one-half ton pickup truck for $1,180, including the old truck in trade.

A special meeting was scheduled for July 14 to work on building and electrical codes.

Tragedy Follows Davidson Family

CLINTON — Mr. and Mrs. Willard Davidson, whose son, L-Cpl. Donald Davidson, died in a Marine Corps. plane accident at El Tora, Calif., received word July 3 of another tragedy in the family.

Mrs. Davidson's sister-in-law, Mrs. Dudley Harp, and a married son, of Burgin, Ky., were killed in an automobile accident near their home. Also seriously injured were the son's wife and three small children.

Mrs. Harp and her husband were in Clinton several days after the death of their nephew, Donald Davidson.

Children, will you please hurry up? . . . Yes, you have to go . . . No, the neighbor kids can't go along . . . I don't know how many miles it is . . . Look, if you want to see things you have to ride to get there. That's all there is to it . . . Yes, you can buy one souvenir. NOW, GET IN THE CAR!

Familiar words? We had to use them in order to take advantage of the long July 4 weekend. The University generously cancelled classes for Monday.

We decided to visit the Shepherd of the Hills area made famous in 1907 by Harold Bell Wright's novel of the same name.

This section of the Ozark Mountains located between Reed spring and Branson, Missouri is pregnant with hillbilly lore and history. In many instances descendents of pioneer families operate the attractions which annually draw thousands of tourists to this section of southern Missouri.

★

SUCH WAS the case at Fairy Cave. Our guide was the granddaughter of Truman S. Powell, first explorer of the cave in 1896. He gave it its name by describing it as a fairyland.

The cave almost defies description as it's so beautiful and [illegible] has caused some of the formations to have a green color and our guide said this was the only cave anywhere to display this color.

The formations held us almost spellbound. One resembled a huge, graceful angel with spread wings and bowed head.

There was the nativity scene complete with adoring wisemen, a madonna holding the Child, a small, portly Buddha, and a natural harp which the guide played with a small mallet.

★

ROCK "FLAGS" whose edges were no more than ¼ inch thick had beautiful colors appearing in bands. Many of these were in furls and we wondered how dripping water can do this.

According to the law of gravity it should drip straight down. A visit to this cave is an aesthetic, as well as an educational adventure.

Mr. Powell was the prototype for "Dad Howitt" in Wright's book. On Highway 148 are other sights recognizable from Mr. Wright's description.

"Uncle Ike's" post office and homestead, Cove School and Wash Gibb's cabin are all open to the public.

Of course, we had to stop and spend some time at Silver Dollar City, a reconstructed Ozark mining town of the 1880's. This city, located on the grounds of Marvel Cave Park, is billed as "Missouri's Largest Attraction."

Besides the cave itself, which features a huge waterfall at 505 feet below ground and a return trip aboard the world's only underground railway, visitors can see life in the mining village as it was.

★

THERE IS a log homestead, a log chapel where services are still held every Sunday, a grist mill with a water wheel, a newspaper office which publishes daily, a jail with an enormous plaster of paris "prisoner," a glass blower at work, wood carvers, basket weavers, candle makers, and much [illegible]

The whole family enjoyed the free street entertainment in which the marshall had a showdown with a varmit bent on making trouble.

We laughed hilariously when the varmit's wife got into the act, swinging her rolling pin and yelling loudly for her husband to quit making like a tough man and come home, peaceable-like.

When the smoke cleared away, it was Mrs. Varmit who had bitten the dust. They dragged her away.

To pick up that "one" souvenir we stopped at Eubank's Doll House in downtown Branson. Here are dolls handmade locally using dried apples and hickory nuts for faces. Others are completely made of corn husks.

★

THE APPLES make surprisingly lifelike faces for delightful grandma and grandpa dolls.

The artist has used her talents to make plump cheeks, receding eyes, and distinctive noses for these doll people.

The clothes, also handmade, have extensive detail that add charm. We were proud to take a bit of Missouri home with us.

Coming back to Fayetteville after dark we knew we were missing some spectacular views of mountain scenery but we had to get home. Since individual possession of fireworks is still lawful here we had some shootin' of our own to do.

The man in our house, probably a bit nostalgic for boyhood years spent in Indiana, had allowed our youngsters to purchase 200 fire crackers, some smoke bombs, and several boxes of sparklers.

It was a bang-up Fourth of July in Fayetteville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Starkey traveled 1,593 miles touring the Blue Ridge Mountains in Kentucky.

They did not have good weather for their one-week trip.

Top Weather for Trophy Races July 4

The weatherman cooperated with perfect racing weather for the July 4 Trophy Races at Manchester Speedway.

Don Earles picked up a trophy for being the night's faster qualifier and also won the 25-lap feature event.

Other heat trophy winners were:

Louie Stemen, in the first heat; John Stephens, second heat; Jim Martin, third heat; Willie Frey, fourth heat; Lavern Eversole, fifth heat and Sam Patterson, sixth heat.

The pursuit trophy was won by Jim Drumhiller. Jim Bowditch captured a trophy for winning the consolation.

Bob Braun won the semi-feature after capturing the lead on the 14th lap from Jerry Murphy.

In the feature, 19 cars began the race with Stephens taking the lead for the first seven laps.

Earles grabbed the lead on the eighth lap and led for the rest of the race.

A picnic dinner will be served at noon. The beverage will be furnished by Mrs. Simmons.

Earles Wins Two Features

Friday night's racing at Manchester began with the semi-feature races that were rained out July 2.

Don Earles took the lead on the third lap of the feature race and held on to win the checkered flag. Louie Stemen finished second and Dick Crup took third place.

In the semi-feature, Frank Kuhn waited until the 19th lap of the 20-lap race to take the lead and he then won the race.

Jerry Evilsizer placed second in the semi-feature with Jim Martin taking third.

The scheduled racing for the night saw 52 cars qualify with Harold Schill turning in the fastest time. Earles had the second fastest time and Stemen turned in the third best time.

Earles won his second feature of the night when he took the lead on the fourth lap and won the 25-lap race.

Earles also picked up points in the pursuit race when he finished second behind Stemen. Butch Moul was third in this event.

Lavern Eversole won the semi-feature finishing ahead of Dick Carr, who was second and Bob LaVeck in third.

Stemen won the first heat with Earles placing second and Crup finishing third.

The second heat was won by Bob Braun with Neil Baggett second, and Bob Connin third.

Carr won the third heat with Eversole second and LaVeck third.

The fourth heat was won by Neil Grady. Howard Pifer finished second and Bud Elding took third.

With his two feature victories, seconds in the pursuit and first heat, and turning in the second fastest qualifying time, Earles is atop the driver's point standings.

Dick Slade is in second place in the standings and Stemen is third.

Ladies' Auxiliary of Yacht Club Sponsor Dinner

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Devils Lake Yacht Club will sponsor the "Oscar Anderson" dinner and dance Saturday.

The annual garden party is scheduled for August 14.

Titled "Tropical Tizzy," it will have a theme of South Sea island magic. The Johnny Knorr band will provide music for dancing under the stars.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley McConnell and daughters, Diann, Janie and Susie, were in Detroit Sunday to attend the Cinerama, "Mediterranean Holiday". The occasion was the 18th birthday anniversary of Diann Hoch.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

ACROBATS, INC.

They are publicity hounds, that's what they are. Regular show-offs who cannot bear to have their names out of print for long.

I can write just so much about bird goings on and then our fourfooted acrobats start demanding equal time. And when he puts his mind to it, a squirrel can be a very demanding character.

Well, apparently the time has come for some squirrely talk because the performance which has been going on outside my west window simply cannot be ignored.

*

LET'S SEE, where shall we begin — possibly with the size of the troupe because that in itself is newsworthy. When each and every member is present and performing, there are seven acts to watch — imagine seven fox squirrels all at once!

Fortunately this full scale production is not offered daily; I say fortunately because the strain of trying to keep track of so much is simply too great.

I think there is little chance of seeing the whole gang together for many more years — after all, kids do grow up and like to get out on their own even in the squirrel world.

One of the [illegible] we hope will stick around is a regular 'chip off the old block.' Do you remember last year's crazy squirrel — the one whose frantic dashings about, somersaults in the air and flying leaps provided hours of laughs?

Junior has mastered all dad's tricks and, just to keep the act fresh, has even added a few innovations of his own.

*

HOWEVER, before new ones can be perfected, the old ones must be learned and we were lucky enough to sit in on several teaching sessions. The lesson was on fence walking but, of course, nothing so ordinary as skipping along on the top of the rail.

It is more of a challenge to run up side down along the underside. Junior, being an apt pupil, followed his teacher, paid strict attention and is now a master of this running-under-the-rail bit.

*

HIS OTHER ACT, of which we never tire, uses an old sun-flower head for a prop. In a pell-mell dash he heads for the sun-flower head, grabs it with one paw and the tumbling starts.

He plays with the head much as would a kitten or puppy — sometimes it is merely rolling over and over but other times he will sit up, try to hold the empty head close to him in his two front feet, over-balance and tumble backwards.

Another variation is laying flat on his back and using all four feet to hold the sun-flower head. Once his running and rolling play almost ended in disaster — he had tumbled his beloved sun-flower head to the very edge of the creek bank. We were afraid he would roll over but what do they say about just in the nick of time?

*

JUMPING STIFF LEGGED, turning somersaults in the air, leaping on and off the fence, tearing along tree roads at breakneck speed, chasing and just plain running are the mainstays in the acrobat repertoire.

They can spend hours playing tag and, I must admit, we can spend hours watching them.

So it is that if the above satisfies our squirrels' need for publicity, next week we shall get on to other things but, if it does not, I suppose we shall be back with more tales of Arcobats, Inc.

Farmer Course Offered by MSU

Education for the farmer of tomorrow is offered by Michigan State University today — in a unique course.

Each year the College of Agriculture offers the Young Farmer Short Course to future farmers who want special training.

The continued increase in the technical and management skills required for modern farming demand such training. That's the advice of Dr. Harold A. Henneman, Director of Short Courses at MSU.

The courses offered the Young Farmer curriculum have been designed for young men who expect to become farmers, farm foremen, herdsmen, or farm managers. Student applicants must be high school graduates with some farm experience.

Henneman notes that with agricultural research going on all over the world and with new developments in machinery, seeds, fertilizer, and livestock care, the farmer of the future needs to be better educated and keener than his present day counterpart.

In modern agriculture, thousands of dollars of income can be lost through a single mistake in the use of automatic machinery, equipment, or improper usage of spray materials, the MSU director adds.

With the new developments and changes coming at such a rapid rate, the successful operator will be the skilled operator.

The Young Farmer program is a two-year course with two terms each year. Each term is eight weeks long, one before Christmas and one after January 1.

Students take classes in agricultural engineering, agricultural economics, soils and social science.

Elective courses are offered in: animal husbandry, dairying, crop science, poultry, fruit and vegetable production and other areas related to farming.

A number of scholarships are available [illegible] course. Most Michigan Bankers have adopted the Michigan Bankers' Association Short Course Scholarship program.

These scholarships usually provire $100 for the first term of the MSU course. Application blanks are available from Cooperative Extension Service offices and vocational-agriculture teachers.

The Caulkins Foundation of Detroit also provides a limited number of scholarships in the amount of $75 per term to third and fourth term students.

These awards are made to students with definite plans for becoming established in farming.

Short Course students have use of the same facilities and programs made available to four-year students at MSU.

This year's Young Farmer Short Course begins October 20. Students interested in further information should write to Director of Short Courses; Michigan State University; East Lansing.

RIDGEWAY—The Rev. Wade Roberts of the Ridgeway Nazarene Church will be among the group of pastors, delegates and visitors from 72 churches who will meet at Flint July 14 for the 16th Annual Assembly of the Eastern Michigan District.

Delegates from the Ridgeway church are Mrs. Luther Bradley and Mrs. George Watson. Alternates are Charles Hill and Mrs. Foster Hardesty.

Two days of pastoral reports and committee meetings will be interspersed with prayer, preaching and special music, and climaxed by an ordination service.

Eastern Michigan Nazarenes will welcome Dr. V. H. Lewis, presiding General Superintendent, to his first assembly in this district.

Before his election to the general superintendency, Dr. Lewis served as Executive Secretary of the department of Evangelism.

Cundiff Reunion Was Held Sunday for Eighth Time

The eighth annual Cundiff reunion was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Slick of Ridgeway.

A potluck dinner was served to the 42 members and guests of the family in attendance.

Officers were elected for the following year. They are:

George Cline, of Milan, president.

Allen Bower, Tecumseh, vice-president.

Mrs. Milford Shoemaker, Blissfield, secy.-treas.

William Cundiff of Britton volunteered to host the reunion next year at his home on the third Sunday in July.

Tracy Gibbs, five-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Gibbs, was the only birth in the family during the year.

There were two marriages, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bower of Tecumseh and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kelley of Adrian.

Guests that were present were from: Sylvania, O., Blissfield, Wheaton, Adrian, Tecumseh and Britton.

Mary Wing is home on a month's vacation from her nursing studies.

DAVID PORTEOUS

David Porteous Wins Webster Scholarship

High Scope, Different and Unique Type Summer Camp for Children

By MAXINE CALHOUN

CLINTON — "Did the mail come yet?" the young campers eagerly questioned as they gathered at the circle of logs following an afternoon rest period at High Scope.

This sounded like the familiar query of summer campers everywhere.

However, High Scope is not the usual type of children's summer camp, as we soon discovered.

High Scope is the dream realized of two young couples who have a considerable background in education.

They are Mr. and Mrs. David Weikart and Mr .and Mrs. John M. Salcau, all of Ypsilanti.

Mr. Weikart is the school psychologist and Director of Special Services and John Salcau is the Curriculum Coordinator, both in the Ypsilanti public school system.

The setting for the camp is uniquely adaptable to the development of intellectual challenge which its directors have as a key concept.

★

ATTENDING the co-educational camp for capable youth, with emphasis on the arts, sciences and creativity, are 32 boys and girls, aged 11 to 16, of varied cultural backgrounds.

They come from Connecticut, New York, Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin, Illinois and Michigan. It is non-denominational and interracial.

Each year a student from the Orient is invited to attend on a scholarship provided by the directors.

Transportation for this student is provided by the proceeds from an apple orchard project.

The campers form a business enterprise which is completely responsible for the care and harvesting of an 117-tree apple orchard.

Each year the older youngsters return in the fall to harvest and market the apples — and in the spring to prune and cultivate the orehard.

This year's scholarship student is 14-year-old Edward Ah Sam of Hawaii.

The camp is located on a 100-acre site five miles northwest of Clinton on Sheridan Road.

Beautifully situated on scenic woodland hills are two large estate homes built in the 1920's by architects Aaron H. Gould and son, Nathaniel Gould, for their own families.

A man-made dam forms a swimming pond which flows into a rock-strewn creek rippling through the valley between the spacious three-story houses.

The stucco house is used for the boys dormitories and other activities.

The kitchen facilities and girls dormitory is located in the brick home where a modern many-windowed redwood-sided dining addition was added this year.

★

EACH HOUSE has a huge tri-level barn which provides ample activity rooms.

These unusual buildings offer a stimulating challenge to the creativity of both the campers and their directors.

One project which is presently engrossing the campers involves the construction of a 1000-pound pendulum in the tall farm silo.

Hung from a wooden support on a steel cable the pendulum will eventually demonstrate a method of proving the earth turns. The principal behind this is that a swinging pendulum's line of angle does not change if the pendulum is not disturbed.

The silo will be lighted inside and promises to be a focal point of interest at the camp in years to come.

On the three successive years since the camp opened, the campers have removed the horse stalls from the larger barn and a fine hardwood finished floor has been installed.

This room is used for folk dancing, ballet practice and social activities.

★

RECENTLY THE CAMPERS staged a French nightclub party.

The theme was developed by the youngsters. Candles in bottles decorated small tables where petits-fours were served by typical French waiters. A performance of costumed can-can dancers climaxed the fun night.

A stage will be built there soon to mount the weekly dramatic productions. This week "Crushed Petunias" was in rehearsal. "Our Town" will be staged soon.

Samuel Beckett's "Act II Without Words," which was recently directed by drama counselor Jim Fox, received a perceptive review by Steve Rosenbaum, editor-in-chief of the camp's weekly newspaper, Panopticon.

The Panopticon, meaning "the overall view" is described by its editor as "a chance for the campers to express their own ideas."

Its 15 mimeographed pages are filled with concise reports of the week's activities as well as original poetry by the campers.

"Who wants to begin ballet lessons?" the campers were asked as they assembled for the afternoon. Several hands went up.

"Who wants to collect rocks for the monument we're going to build by the camp entrance?" Again some hands went up.

And so on — through a list of varied activities which included:

► Preparing decorative tiles to be laid in the entry of the recreation barn.

► White-washing the walls in the art gallery.

► Working on the newspaper.

► Scouting the surrounding hillsides for consideration of two possible sites for an amphitheater — a project to be begun this summer.

► Guitar lessons.

► Collect wild flowers and plants for a permanent collection.

► Study the technique of movements on stage with the drama coach.

► Work on the record collection.

► Study about basic electricity in the science workshop.

Thus each child, in one summer, can whet his intellectual appetite in many ways.

★

SEVERAL of the older boys and some of the counselors were away on a three-day canoeing trip on the Pere Marquette River in northern Michigan. While there they will learn the art of reflector oven cooking and will prepare all their own baked goods.

The camp's moderate fees range from $135 for two weeks to $410 for eight weeks and, as well as the canoeing trip, includes frequent attendance at summer theater presentations in the area.

"We are not primarily interested in the all-'A' student, but rather in the child with a creative potential," said David Weikart explaining the goal of the camp's directors.

Mr. Weikart, 32, has a B.A. in psychology at Oberlin College, an M.A. in education at U. of M.

He has spent 15 years in camps and camp counseling. He taught in a gifted boys private camp in New York and is a high school biology teacher.

Phylis Weikart, besides being a housewife and mother of four girls between the ages of 14 months and 5½ years, is the folk dance instructor at Eastern Michigan University.

She has 15 years experience as a camp counselor. She has a B.S. in Health and Physical Education at Beaver College and a M.A. at the U. of M. She was a health and physical education teacher for seven years.

★

WHEN I ASKED Mrs. Weikart how she could coordinate all her duties as camp director, folk dance instructor and mother of four small children, she told me that her mother lives with them and assists with the care of the grandchildren.

"Grandma also teaches astronomy to the campers and helps them design and make their stage costumes," Mrs. Weikart said.

John Salcau, 37, has a B.A. in American history at John Carroll University and an M.A. in European history at U. of M. He has had 12 years experience as a teacher and school administrator.

Jane Salcau, the camp's Health Director, has a B.S. in medical technology at the U. of M. She has had eight years of experience in the clinical laboratories and research in bacteriology at the U. of M. Medical Center. The Salcaus have two children.

Besides the directors, the camp has seven staff members:

Marie Bessing, the art counselor, is a senior at Oberlin College with an art history major.

Margaret Flanders, dance counselor, is a junior at Smith College with English major. She has a special interest in modern dance and ballet.

James Fox, drama counselor, is a graduate of Colorado College with an English major. He has appeared in the touring company of "West Side Story." He plans to begin graduate work in drama at U. of M.

★

THEODORA FOX, music counselor, is a recent graduate of the University of Stockholm in Music.

Jackie Lawery, nature counselor, is a student at Kalamazoo College.

He teaches folk guitar and is editor and founder of Counterpoint, bi-weekly State University publication. He produced the High Scope film and several short films.

Melanie Clark of Wisconsin, one of the young campers, said when told that we were writing a story about High Scope:

"You can say we all love it here! It's very different from ordinary camp which I just hated.

"Here we get to really know the counselors. They seem so friendly. We have a lot more freedom to choose the things we want to do," Melanie said.

Town Hall To Be Rebuilt in Franklin

[illegible] Jackson announced at the Franklin Township Board meeting July 6 that the Federal Government is making a grant of $4,560 to the township for the restoration of the township hall.

Mr. Jackson appointed Lyle Whelan, Mrs. Warren Allen and Richard Platt as a committee to investigate and recommend the size and type of building to be constructed.

To meet requirements for the grant, work must be completed within one year of the date of the storm.

Board members discussed plans and opinions on the proposed city-county building with the general feeling being that the county should not enter into a combined project of this nature with the city of Adrian.

A resolution was adopted that the zoning board meet every month for five months, April through August, and every other month for the rest of each year.

Dale Cook, building inspector, gave a report and announced that residents must obtain a building permit before starting construction or extensive remodeling.

Supervisor Jackson has invited the public to attend meetings held the first Tuesday of each month. Presently they are held in his office until the hall is rebuilt.

'Life,' Is Church Topic This Week

The Lesson-Sermon in Christian Science churches this Sunday is on the subject of "Life". It describes the nature of man's spiritual life as an idea which exists forever in the divine mind.

The fiftieth annual State 4-H Show will be held at Michigan State University Aug. 30 through Sept. 1.

TO THE EDITORS:

During the past four or five seasons I have had the experience of being a Cub Leaguer's Mother and I have made some observations that I can no longer keep from sharing — with somebody.

Needless to say there are the winning teams and then there are the others.

First of all the fathers that serve as managers are certainly to be praised for all the time and energy that they expend in helping these boys learn the makeup of the game baseball.

At the same time they are teaching life's way of rounding out the personality of maturing youth. Thank you, Mr. Managers for taking the great responsibility and doing the job to the best of your ability.

★

ALTOGETHER too much has been said about the reasons a team loses so here are a few of the reasons, as I see them, that makes a team a winner:

1. Every player knows the position that he is going to play and the reason that he was chosen to play it.

2. There have been as many practice games as possible so that the right way to play each position is as automatic a response as the player's ability allows.

3. Every player feels that his team just can't get along without him even though we so-called grown-ups know there is no such thing as being indispensible. This concept is too mature for the mind of the 9 to 13 year-old.

4. The winning-type team practices good sportsmanship because their managers have somehow conveyed to their players that they are fair in their judgments and in the boy's eyes they are a Mr. Baseball, a real hero.

5. A winner-type knows and accepts the fact that the decisions of the umpire are final — as he sees it and that he is the umpire not a referee.

6. The importance of each position has been explained to all the boys so that they do not feel that they are just "stuck in the game to play the required time."

From my point of view this being a manager is a monumental task filled with the joys and rewards that one always finds in working with young people.

But, it certainly is a task that can bring about grief and heartache if they are not very careful. Last but not least let's all remember, parents and managers alike, that every boy on every team is important and that it's "our" sons that are important not just the "my or mine" that it's what you are that makes you who you are, not the other way around.

★

AS A COMMUNITY we certainly can be proud of our recreation summer program. It's contribution to curbing delinquency will certainly be measurable as these young people become adults.

A very big "thank you" is in order to The Herald for publishing the results of the summer games and such great support and coverage that this paper gives to all the sports in our communities. Thanks, Gentlemen!

TO THE EDITORS:

A long overdue note of appreciation and commendation is finally taking shape. I'm not sure where to start — it won't be at the beginning.

The pictorial on the Psalm Sunday destruction would be a good beginning. This was outstanding and this is an understatement. I have suggested to 4-H photography leaders that they would do well to use this in their attempts to teach picture composition. It was no surprise that they were in great demand. I've had trouble keeping even one copy.

You and your paper have continually given good coverage to local youth programs including 4-H. Your willingness to visit clubs and give them support in projects such as photography has been a real boost.

The top honor should be given probably for the June 24 edition where 4-H appeared in the headlines. It was interesting to note that the total cover page was devoted to articles of local interest and concern and the vast number of articles throughout the issue that boosted youth interests and activities.

We like your approach to journalism and express our thanks for your support of youth to this point.

Sincerely
J. Ray Gillespie

TO THE EDITORS:

We admire Mrs. Lillian Hoagland for her stand about the Fourth of July celebration being on Sunday. We are wondering who is in charge.

And what of the parade that was such a smashing success last year? Our 4-H members of the Raisin Cane Club enjoyed it so much and apparently so did many others. We thought this was the one thing that brought the crowd.

This year when our youngsters asked for a hay ride float in the Memorial Day parade we told them the occasion was not one for frivolity but they could have such a float for the Fourth of July.

We are all disappointed and wonder why not a parade this year?

Surely it isn't because the celebration is being held on Sunday. Our vote, if we had one, would be for the Monday celebration with a big parade like last year's.

Mrs. William Osburn
6404 Pocklington Rd.

———o———

TO THE EDITORS:

I agree with Lillian Hoagland's communication of last week, about why was the Fourth of July celebration held on Sunday instead of Monday? After all, the government gave us Monday as a legal holiday, because this nation was founded on the principle that Sunday was the Lord's Day, and not a day to celebrate on.

I'm sure there are many in this town who feel the same way about this, but how many will raise their voices in protest, and how many will shrug their shoulders in indifference, and say "as long as I didn't participate, what difference does it make?"

That's the trouble with us easy-going Americans — we don't raise our voices in protest over what we think is wrong, nor do we take time to commend what we think is right.

I believe the officials who planned the July Fourth celebration for Sunday, instead of Monday, made a grave error in judgment. It surprises me the more, because Tecumseh has always been fortunate in having such good leaders in their community, who were always careful not to offend the conscience of the large Christian majority in this town.

Please, fellows, next time, let's celebrate on Monday, as the government intended us to, and leave the Sabbath Day for rest and worship, as our Heavenly Father intended us to.

Mrs. Earl Scott,
419 West Cummins St.

Parents Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Millyard of Britton, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Mary Ellen, to Ernest Needham, son of Mrs. Ernest Needham of Ann Arbor and the late Mr. Needham.

The couple are planning a late fall wedding.

The bride-elect is an accounts clerk in the administration building at the University of Michigan.

Mr. Needham, formerly a resident of Clio, is a student at Eastern Michigan University and is employed at the hydramatic transmission plant at Willow Run.

Dear friends,

Just as we now purchase life insurance and make a will, it is becoming customary to make complete advance arrangements for one's funeral. This is known as 'prearrangement'.

We welcome your call to discuss prearrangement with us. Such visits, and the decisions arrived at, are kept in strict confidence.

Respectfully,

News from the Tecumseh Library

New books at your public library:

MAX, an intimate portrait of an odd, brilliant and most lovable man. Max Beerbohm moved in many worlds; bohemian, theatrical, social. He is, perhaps, best remembered as the leading caricaturist of his age.

WE WERE FIVE, the Dionne Quintuplets' story from birth through girlhood to womanhood. What is most extraordinary is that out of their strange girlhood the five sisters — princesses, freaks-on-exhibit, fought - over commercial properties, lonely orphans in the heart of a big family — miraculously developed into young women of individuality and courage. Their story is unique and wholly fascinating.

HAILE SELASSIE: THE CONQUERING LION by Leonard Mosley. A gifted biographer captures the tumultuous history of a nation through the lifetime of one remarkable man, His Imperial Majesty Haile Selassie I, King of Kings of Ethiopia, Lion of Judah and Elect of God. At the age of 72, he rules one of the world's oldest Christian domains, with origins in the migrations of the descendants of King Solomon and the Queen of Sheba.

THE STORY OF THE TRAPP FAMILY SINGERS. This is the adventurous saga of one of the most distinguished musical families of the age. It is told by the one who knows it best, the head of the family, Baroness Maria Augusta von Trapp herself, now Mrs. Trapp, for she and her family have become American citizens.

THE UNION vs. DR. MUDD by Hal Higdon. Was he guilty or innocent? This is the question that this book attempts to answer in the first full-length biography of the physician who opened his farmhouse door the night of April 15, 1865, to help a man with a broken leg. But the man was John Wilkes Booth and he had just fled Washington after firing the shot that assassinated Abraham Lincoln.

THE STONE ANGEL by Margaret Laurence. The author explores an aspect of life seldom touched in fiction; the world of the very old.

A MOTHER'S KISSES by Bruce Friedman. This is a comedy, a strongly emotional and physical sense of life presented with its picturesque mother-and-son adventures from New York, to a lake resort, to a Kansas campus.

A FEAST OF FREEDOM by Leonard Wibberley. Once again Mr. Wibberley has produced a spoof of international affairs that will hold his devoted readers in thrall.

TWO BY TWO, a story of survival, by David Garnett. His two main characters are wholly the author's own, twin girls who cannot be found in the Bible. Everyone else, human and animal, though reinterpreted by him, belongs to the old story of the Ark.

FALSE COLOURS by Georgette Heyer. This lively new Regency romance is a delightfully witty story of the rich and frivolous society of the period in their characteristic settings of elegant country houses, brilliant salons and formal gardens.

THE FLIGHT OF THE PHOENIX by Ellston Trever. There are certain men, who, when faced with the choice of dying or doing the impossible, elect to live. A spellbinding story of an airplane accident.

MACHINERIES OF JOY by Ray Bradbury. A collection of story wonders guaranteed to fascinate, terrify, stun, bewilder, and gloriously entertain the reader.

THE LAND BREAKERS by John Ehle. An authentic frontier story which vividly recreates the opening of the wild Southern mountains two centuries ago.

THE BIG KNIVES, a novel revolving around the heroic figure of George Rogers Clark.

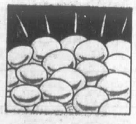
DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING.

STRONG HOG MARKETS will continue through late summer. Slaughter is running 10% below year-ago levels. Carry your hogs to top finish. Discounts for heavies have been narrow while lightweights have been docked sharply. A recent USDA pig crop report indicates that markets will be favorable through the first half of 1966. Prices this fall and winter will be lower than current levels, but will be supported above year-ago levels.

CHECK DRY DAIRY COWS during the first three to five days after drying. Be sure they are regressing normally and that mastitis is absent. Clinical mastitis is frequently observed at freshening time as a result of carry-over from the previous lactation. Paint teats with iodine to reduce infections.

MORE CALCIUM FOR LAYING HENS is needed to produce strong, thick shells than previously thought. The National Research Council now requires levels higher than 2.5% of the ration. University studies show that levels of 3% and 3.75% calcium in an all-mash ration produce better shells. Calcium in all-mash rations was more desirable even when oyster shell and calcite were fed free-choice.



INCLINED STANDARD SILAGE AUGERS sometimes clog when moving low-moisture grass silage. The major reason is that standard augers have the wrong pitch. For example, a 8-inch diameter auger should have 4½ inches between flights rather than the standard 8 inches. Remember this when purchasing an auger.

after the Parade

The parade is over, and Tim is hot, dusty, and his feet hurt. This was his first parade, and somehow it didn't come off as he thought. He didn't expect to be the whole show, but he did think he and his tuba would stand out a little. As it happened, he was just "one of the band."

Later, he will realize that if each player weren't just "one of the band" there wouldn't be any band at all. He'll start thinking from there, and the parade will seem a lot better in memory than it does right now. For Tim has a good sense of value, for a boy his age—thanks in part, to the teachings of his church and church school.

Tim will weather his disappointments and march successfully through life, instead of giving up. Will your youngsters be as lucky?

Give your children the chance to go to church school.

Parkview Market Offers Variety

The Parkview Market is strategically located in the heart of the Irish Hills across US-12 from the entrance to Walter J. Hayes State Park.

Tourists, campers, fishermen and local people stop at the general store to purchase anything from milk and bread to fishing and camping licenses.

Daily newspapers as well as Sunday's are always available.

A Leonard service station adds its many products to the lineup of merchandise: picnicking needs, groceries, meats and toys.

Ray Shepherd, owner, and his wife, Lois, and two children, Diann and Danny, provide hospitality, information and even post office service for patrons during the summer.

Three months of the year they are especially busy. During June, July and August, the store is open seven days a week until at least 9 p.m., and much of the time until nearly midnight.

Next to the Market on the west is the Wee Tee Golf course. Immediately south, up the hill towards Sand Lake, is Mystery Hill which thrills people from far and wide.

Newest attraction in the area is the Stagecoach Stop, just a short distance east from the Market on US-12.

Much of interest from an earlier era may be seen in the Wagon Wheel general store there and also at the Long Branch Saloon where soft drinks and meals are served.

Manchester Broil Has 'New Look'

MANCHESTER — Manchester's famous Charcoal Chicken Broil, scheduled for Thursday, July 15, on the high school athletic field, will have a different look this year.

The six thousand or more visitors from a score of states and a half-dozen foreign countries, who begin lining up about 4:30 p.m., will note a "new look" to the massive event. Instead of two lines of charcoal pits totaling 150 feet, there will be four, measuring a full 270 feet, thus assuring faster service, and a continuous flow of delicately broiled chicken to the serving lines.

There will be new displays. In addition to the usual exhibit of backyard barbecue equipment, and Class A softball games, there will be an exhibit of colorful Michigan-designed tents recently featured in Sports Illustrated.

The important feature, as always, will be the sight of the long pits with more than 2,000 chicken halves, turning golden-brown, under the careful supervision of ninety white-hatted chefs.

★

THE SLOW-BROIL technique, which assures that the chicken will be done to a turn without blistering the skin, was developed by Dr. Howard Zindel, head of the Michigan State Poultry Department, who personally supervises the big Manchester event each year.

The Broil features Michigan chicken, generally plumper and better conditioned than imported varieties. Halves average eighteen ounces. Crates of chickens are delivered to the pits from a refrigerator truck, from which they emerge lightly frosted but not frozen.

Between 4 and 9:30 p.m., four tons of chicken, gently heated by two tons of charcoal and basted with 150 pounds of Michigan butter, will progress through the four long lines of pits to 6500 or more hungry customers.

Also during the dinner, more than a ton of chilled cabbage will be fresh sliced on German sauerkraut sliicers and converted into slaw with a vinegar and oil seasoning featuring plenty of celery seed. Buns, relishes, potato chips, coffee and milk complete the menu. Ice cream and soft drinks are available.

★

ALTHOUGH THE BROIL is officially sponsored by the Optimist Club and the Jaycees, practically every organization in town takes part.

High school classes supervise the sale of soft drinks and ice cream. Scouts, members of 4-H and FFA, church and Farm Bureau lend a hand. It's an all-male affair, the ladies take the day off.

Prices remain what they were in 1954, when the citizens of the town surprised themselves by feeding 2,000 people at the first broil: $1.50 for adults and takeouts, $1.00 for children.

Profits go to playground equipment for the village park and track facilities for the high school.

This is the Twelfth Annual Broil. Last year, over 6,000 people attended from twenty states and a half-dozen foreign countries.

Many of these far-off visitors, who once lived in Southern Michigan, purposely timed their trips to coincide with the Broil. For them it was Old Home Week and Class Reunion combined — a chance to rekindle old friendships. The same lure will make the event an International get together in 1965.

Progress Club Finds New Way To Have Dinner

Appetizers were served at the home of Mrs. Art Baaske July 7 to members of the Progress Extension Club to begin a progressive dinner.

Members were dressed as little boys. They were served salad at the home of Mrs. Merton Boss, barbecued chicken at Mrs. Robert Wood's and dessert at Mrs. Royland Boyers.

A surprise baby shower for Mrs. Lester Fogelsong completed the remainder of the social evening.

Loretta Vogel Leads Tecumseh to 6-5 Victory

Loretta Vogel's three-run homer in the seventh inning lifted Tecumseh to a 6-5 win over Hudson in the Southeastern Girls Softball League.

Loretta pulled off a double-play in the fourth inning as she played a major role in the Tecumseh victory.

Beth O'Neil was the winning pitcher with Carol Hand doing the catching.

Cindy Murphy and Emily Manwaring also contributed to the Tecumseh batting attack.

Lenawee County Gets More Funds

Lenawee County Board of Supervisors will receive an additional $130,000 in funds from the United States Office of Emergency Planning (OEP) according to Congressman Wes Vivian.

These funds are to be used for cleaning up part of the damage caused by the tornado which struck this area on Palm Sunday of this year.

"Lenawee County has already been awarded $248,543 in funds from OEP, of which a little over $186,000 was advanced to the Board in the beginning of June," Congressman Vivian said.

"I am pleased to be able to report that after discussions with OEP, that a supplemental application in the amount of $173,640 has now been approved," Congressman Vivian said.

"An advance of $130,000 will be mailed by the Treasury Department and should reach the state office by early next week," Vivian said.

Congressman Vivian said the total funds approved for Lenawee County by OEP now comes to a little over $422,000.

Holy Communion To Be Served at St. Peter's

Long and Short

By TOM RIORDAN

BEULAH — Following the Civil War, the government offered veterans grants of land in lieu of cash bonuses.

To Capt. John W. VanDeman, Co. G, 60th Ohio Infantry, accepting a chunk of land seemed a fine idea and he selected 10 remote acres, along a hillside overlooking Crystal Lake near here.

Sometime before the 1880s, he built a 20x30 foot cabin above the brilliant blue water, for himself, his wife, their three daughters and one son.

The place was a delight, nestled among the birch, hickories, black walnuts, pines and elms. A flowing well bubbled up through the sand near the lake shore.

In 1889, the Frankfort and Southern Railroad was founded.

Beulah didn't exist at the time, but a hop, skip and jump to the south was the prosperous village of Benzonia, which even boasted a tiny college. Civil War author, Bruce Catton, spent his boyhood in the town.

When the railroad project was announced, folks in Benzonia naturally figured it would go through their town and on its way west nine miles to Lake Michigan and Frankfort, then a budding port.

Surveyors found this route too rolling. Looking along the shore of Crystal Lake — which is nine miles long — they found a perfect stretch, which would require no grading.

★

THE ROUTE passed right in front of Capt. VanDeman's property and he was delighted to sell rights so that the new railroad could pass over his beach and be so convenient.

Establishment of Beulah quickly followed the railroad and then some interesting things began to happen to the John VanDemans.

The captain's cousin, William VanDeman, a Toledo dentist, who had heard what a wonderful area this was, popped his family on the train one spring and was presently at Crystal Lake, where he pitched a large tent at the foot of the VanDeman hill.

But it was a Toledo newspaperman, John Gunckel, who made the biggest impact—and helped fashion a whole new future for the area.

Mr. Gunckel was fishing in Crystal Lake in 1891 when he spied the VanDeman home through the trees. A thought ran through his mind, which he quickly translated into action.

Rowing his boat to shore, he flipped a line around the trunk of a sturdy birch, stepped onto the sandy beach and strolled up to the VanDeman home.

"I'm John Gunckel of Toledo," may have been his words. "I wonder if I can camp here and take my meals with you? 'I'll pay, of course."

The VanDemans agreed.

★

BEFORE HE returned to Toledo, Mr. Gunckel proposed another idea to the captain. Could he build a cottage and place it there and get his meals with the VanDemans while on future fishing trips?

"Fine," the Civil War veteran

Residents May Tour New Motel

Tecumseh's newest and most modern motel, the Harvey House, will be open for the public to inspect on Sunday from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Mrs. Doris Carpenter, wife of Harvey Carpenter and manager of the motel, said at least two rooms on each floor will be available for the public to view.

Also open will be the meeting room and recreation room. Coffee, iced tea, lemonade and cookies will be served in the meeting room.

Acting as hostesses for the afternoon will be the waitresses from Harvey's Grill located next to the motel on M-50, and the Carpenters' three children, Terry, 18, Sandra, 16, and Vicki, 12.

Mrs. Carpenter said she wished to extend special thanks to Girl Scout Troop 117, under the direction of leader Mrs. Marie Creger, and to her parents Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Drake of Gary, Ind.

"They all worked very hard in helping us get the place ready for the Grand Opening," Mrs. Carpenter said.

The Methodist Church property at the corner of W. Chicago Blvd. and N. Pearl Streets has been purchased by the Presbyterian Church at a cost of $45,000. The Methodists will have the use of the property for a minimum of two years while they continue their building program. The Presbyterian minister, the Rev. Julian Gresham, said Wednesday that his church anticipates using the ground for a long range building program.

No Charges Filed Against Mrs. Miller

Police Chief Murell Clark signed a petition Monday for commitment to a mental hospital in behalf of Mrs. Karen Sue Miller who attempted suicide Sunday after abandoning her children.

The petition asks for a temporary order commiting Mrs. Miller on her release from Herrick Memorial Hospital where she has been since relatives found her locked in her apartment with the gas stove turned on but not ignited.

No criminal charges will be filed against Mrs. Miller according to Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Irving C. Shaw.

"She obviously needs mental care and confinement for her own protection as well as that of her own children," Mr. Shaw said.

Mrs. Miller, 23, took her five children, from seven months to eight years old, to the Tecumseh police station Sunday and left them saying, "I can't continue to care for them anymore."

She was found at 9 a.m. and partly revived by the rescue squad of the Tecumseh fire department and then taken to the hospital.

Tuesday, Mrs. Miller was reported in good condition. Her children, Bryon, 8, Robert, 7, Scott, 6, Dawn, 2, and Shana, seven months, are at the Lenawee Children's Home where they were taken by a probate court officer.

Mrs. Miller's husband is a jockey at several Detroit area race tracks. His whereabouts are unknown as he left town some time previous to Sunday.

Anti-Sidewalk Petition Ignored by City Council

Although eight property owners on Miami Court in the Kerby Heights Subdivision petitioned Council against installation of sidewalks in front of their homes, city officials upheld a local resolution Monday night and ordered sidewalks in.

Councilman Don Sunderland voted with the property owners, all others voted for the sidewalks.

Production of Aero Commander-200 To Double Under Rockwell-Standard

By PHIL PIERSON

Sale of Meyers Aircraft to Rockwell-Standard Corp. last week will mean doubling of production of the Aero Commander-200, formerly the Meyers 200, in the Tecumseh plant.

Sales Manager Bill Potter said output of the Aero Commander will be at the rate of two planes per month for the remainder of 1965.

The Meyers 200 was being produced at the rate of one a month prior to the sale.

"We should be able to produce two planes a month for the rest of this year and then next year we want to increase to eight planes every month," Mr. Potter said.

The big factor in the increased production will be the added facilities of Rockwell-Standard according to Mr. Potter.

"We will be able to produce some parts for the 200 in our new plant in Albany, Ga.," Mr. Potter said.

The construction of the Albany plant was initiated in November, 1964 and is now producing tail sections for piston and prop-jet Aero Commanders.

★

LOCATED ADJACENT to the Albany Airport, the plant, known as Rockwell Industrial Park, will house over 200,000 square feet of floor space for the production of aircraft parts.

Another big factor in the production increase will be the added labor force to be employed.

No figures are available yet as to how many new workers will be needed, but Mr. Potter did say that "we'll have a lot more people."

THE SALE OF MEYERS AIRCRAFT CO. MEANS THE MEYERS 200 WILL NOW BE CALLED THE AERO COMMANDER-200

The Aero Commander-200 is a four place, low wing aircraft originally developed by Meyers Aircraft in Tecumseh.

Its price tag is $29,500.

It is a high performance plane with a cruising speed of 218 miles per hour and a range of over 1,300 statute miles.

Designed by Alfred Meyers, now general manager of the Tecumseh Division of Aero Commander, the 200 just recently won the Pendleton 100 International Championships in California for the third straight year.

"We believe the 200 is the finest single engine airplane that has been produced," Mr. Potter said, "and now we'll have enough money to build the craft on a larger scale."

★

THE 200 CRUISES at a speed between 10 and 12 miles per hour faster that similar planes made by other firms according to J. F. LeFevre, former sales manager of Meyers Aircraft Co.

"It is simply a matter of better aero dynamics," Mr. LeFevre said. "The structure of the 200 is such that there is less wind resistance when flying.

"This is done by eliminating the squarish lines and giving the plane a streamlined look," Mr. LeFevre said.

"The 200 employs the most efficient engine and frame combination found in comparable aircraft," Mr. Potter said.

"As proof of this," Mr. LeFevre said, "the 200 with a 285 horsepower engine is able to cruise faster than planes now being sold with 400 horsepower engines."

Though the difference is only 10 or 12 miles per hour faster, Mr. Potter said it adds up to quite a bit over a year's time.

★

"IN A NORMAL year of 300 hours of operation, the 200 will cover almost 4,000 more miles than similar aircraft," Mr. Potter said.

Rockwell-Standard's decision to enter into the competitive single engine marketing competition was prompted by the growth patterns in this phase of aircraft production and sales.

"Our research has convinced us that the pattern of growth in the single engine plane categories will continue for many years to come," said W. F. Rockwell Jr., president and vice-chairman of the Board of Directors of Rockwell-Standard Corp.

According to Mr. Potter, Rockwell-Standard expects to realize $1 billion in air sales in five years.

★

"The initial problem won't be in the sale of the planes, but it will be in the production of them to meet the demand," Mr. Potter said.

The 1964 general aviation sales of Rockwell-Standard amounted to nearly $200 million and 15 to 20 per cent increases are being projected for this year, according to Mr. Rockwell.

"With seven years of operational experience behind Rockwell-Standard's involvement in the aviation industry, we're impatient to become much more involved in the business that is currently dominated by four U.S. airframe manufacturers," Mr. Rockwell said.

Manager Loves Job

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Remains Cub Minor Coach Despite Injury

A back injury suffered two years ago while working has failed to sideline perhaps the most dedicated manager in Tecumseh's summer baseball program.

Arlo Gittings, manager of the Dodgers in the Cub Minor League, has not worked for 18 months because of his injury but he is still managing the Dodgers with the same enthusiasm as ever.

"He is in almost constant pain, and managing has been an ordeal for him," said Mrs. Frances Gittings, Mr. Gittings' wife.

"Baseball has become a hobby for him and he refuses to give it up," Mrs. Gittings said.

Mr. Gittings, 41, has been involved in baseball for four years and with the Dodgers since they were formed four years ago. He spent one year as the coach and then moved to managing them for the last three seasons.

Despite his handicap, Mr. Gittings has still managed to keep his teams in the thick of the league standings and has never finished below fourth.

★

THE DODGER players have grown quite fond of their manager and reflect his interest in them.

"He's good because he stops and tells me what I'm doing wrong," says one player, Ken Meadows.

Glenn Posky and John Baugh, two of the team's better players both credit Mr. Gittings with teaching them how to improve their play.

"He showed me the right way to play ball," Glenn said.

Says John, "He shows me how to bat and catch better."

ARLO GITTINGS PACES ON THE SIDELINES ENCOURAGING HIS PLAYERS

The father of seven children, Mr. Gittings is helped by one son, Dean, 14, who helps coach the team, with Ken Humphries, and has another son, Tom, 11, on the team.

"I like him for my coach because he taught me how to pitch," Tom said.

★

DESPITE HAVING a son on the team, Mr. Gittings doesn't treat him any different than the rest of his players, according to Tom.

"He never treats me any different than the rest of the boys even though I'm his son," Tom said.

Through baseball Mr. Gittings has given many boys self-confidence and a feeling of accomplishment as well as teaching them sportsmanship.

"He has taught me good sportsmanship and told me how to pitch and throw," said another player, Gaylord Long.

Although most of his players regard him as a fine coach and like him for that reason, another ballplayer, Greg Illick has a different reason for being fond of Mr. Gittings.

"I like him because he gives us ice cream," Greg said.

Indiana Professor Urges Consolidation

An Indiana University professor Thursday night urged the Lenawee County school reorganization committee to seriously study complete consolidation of county schools.

Dr. Lorin Burt told the committee that school districts must either merge or cooperate to give a real educational program.

Dr. Burt is executive secretary of the Indiana State Board Association and associate professor of education at Indiana University. He's considered an expert in school reorganization and consolidation programs.

Dr. Burt pointed out that school districts must either merge or cooperate if we are to give the people a real educational program. He pointed out that Lenawee County was to be congratulated on cooperation and coordination that was already going on through the Intermediate School Office.

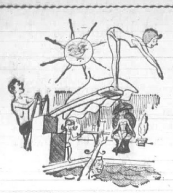
The next meeting of the committee is on August 4 at 8:00, County Office Building. Dr. Kenneth Leech of the Bureau of School Services will be meeting with the group, followed by separate committee meetings.

Goodwill Girl Will Vacation

Sandra Burkhead, representative for Goodwill in Tecumseh, will be on vacation the first two weeks of August. Until Aug. 1 and beginning again Aug. 16, pick-ups for Goodwill can be scheduled by calling Sandra at 423-7216.

Exchange Picnic Willl Be August 2 at Barton Cottage

Exchange Club members and their wives will meet at the Barton cottage on North Lake during the afternoon and evening, Aug. 2 for the Annual Club Picnic.



BEHIND PAGE ONE

The Lenawee County man who put in an ad in the classified section of The Herald for three months earlier this year requesting to borrow money evidently didn't get any response because he still hasn't paid for his ad yet.

Thought for the day: "Prosperity is something you feel, fold and mail to Washington."

Pity poor Buck Maynard, impresario of the Fleet-Wing station at Pearl and Logan Sts., who is one of the co-sponsors of The Herald church page. He waited patiently until his firm's name was due to appear in large type at the top. It came last week — only instead of Buck's, it ran under the old name, Don's Service.

Tecumseh's best known citizen observed his 75th birthday anniversary Wednesday. Happy birthday, Mr. Herrick.

And speaking of ad goofs, Jerry Coffey wondered if he is already giving notice of his holiday hours for next summer. His space last week carried his Fourth of July hours.

When Dr. Harold Ocamb arrived at the hospital last week to remove a cast from a little girl's broken leg, he found a dotted line running full length down the front of the cast, with this inscription in red marking pen: "Cut along dotted line." Did she think he needed directions, or was she just anxious?

First on the first Hoot Night, July 8, at The Stage in Adrian were Ray Aylesworth and Roger Finnegan singing and playing their banjo-uke. They were well received as were other hooters that evening. Thursday has been reserved for Hoot Night each week at The Stage by owners, the Frank Daltons and the Bob Murrays.

Maybe we should instigate a "Be Kind to the Policemen" week soon. The city of Tecumseh recently hired five and four others resigned. Pretty poor average.

Not many can "have their cake and eat it too" but the O. W. Laidlaws have managed it. They sold their home here and bought an apartment residence in North Fort Meyers, Fla. where they will spend the winter months. When they come home for the summer months they will occupy the home of their son and wife, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Laidlaw, while they are living at their summer home on Devils Lake.

We will build you a six-room house for $800. Don't all stampede at once. This is an advertisement from The Kalamazoo Evening News of Dec. 20, 1904. This daily was established in 1866 and a yellowed copy came to light at the E. H. McConnell residence last week. Brides had a rough life at that time. Headlines said that one lost her reason and another expired after only one week with her husband. Maybe the good old days weren't so good after all.

"Safe and Alive in '65." This is the safety slogan for National Farm Safety Week beginning July 25.

What melts faster than a snowman in July?

Nancy McKee Wins 1st Spot in Essay Test

Editors note: Nancy McKee won $50 for finishing in first place in the state in the essay writing contest sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary. "America's Future" is the title of her piece which was chosen by the local Underwood-Orr post American Legion Auxiliary in local competition last winter. Nancy, 17, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McKee of Matthews Hwy. She is a senior at Tecumseh High School, a member of the Future Nurses' Club and the Latin Club.

By NANCY McKEE

In the minds and hearts of today's youth and unborn generations lies the success or failure of our American democracy. For it is their lives which will influence the destiny of America and the objectives achieved therein.

There are several constant precepts and beliefs which we have inherited from our forefathers that either conflict or harmonize with our daily lives.

Among the most lasting and idealistic of these are: the belief that all men are created equal, man has certain inalienable rights, man should be free to worship as he pleases, and all races or creeds should be tolerated.

Our country is still striving for these ideals stimulated by the reasons for settlement in America.

If Americans become passive and neglect their responsibilities as citizens of a working democracy, then there is not much hope for inspiring the rest of the world with our democratic beliefs and principles.

We must, therefore, continually be in the process of exercising our rights and duties as American citizens.

★

A DISTINGUISHING factor in America which differs from communistic countries is our belief in man's equality. We have no social classes or barriers in America; anyone can better his life economically and socially through his own initiative and skills.

This freedom of opportunity in America is quite essential to our way of life when compared to the control over one's will and life evident in a dictatorship.

Whether the Negro will be accepted completely as the equal brother of the whites will not be determined and accomplished through legislation.

The people will have to remove prejudices which have been instilled in their hearts through the years. Then, and only then, will America truly be able to say that men live in equality here.

The future of America also depends on our religious faith and moral beliefs.

If we continue to uphold our faith and not let other distractions and satanic devices threaten its significance, then America will always be a God-fearing nation as our founding fathers intended it to be.

Thus, tolerance of all religions should be emphasized in our country in order to preserve the freedom to worship as one pleases.

★

AMERICA'S GOVERNMENT of democracy appears to be the best so far evolved by man. We are always subject to improvement, however, and I believe America will continue to improve economically, socially, and spiritually.

The ideals and energetic spirit of the past should not be dismissed as dead history.

Education should be of prime importance if we are to survive in a world of increasing knowledge and ideas.

This, along with our individualism, will perpetuate the prestige of America. If we persevere and strive for the realization of our goals, America will always be great.

Missionaries Visit Clinton Baptists

Members of the Clinton Baptist Church held a potluck supper Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Bohannon of Clinton honoring two visiting missionaries, Gene Fisher and Paul Vandercook of New Orleans, La.

The young men have been helping with a church survey in the area for the past week. Paul Vandercook was the guest speaker at the Clinton Baptist Church Sunday morning. His inspiring sermon was "Here am I, Send Me."

Gene Fisher sang a solo, "Wonderful, Wonderful Jesus," accompanied by Mrs. Louis Lake.

Mrs. Cleon Mason Tells Monday Club of Her Vacation

Mrs. Cleon Mason spoke to 28 members of the Tecumseh Monday Club July 19 at the home of Mrs. Earl Wickwire.

Mrs. Mason told of the three-week trip she and her husband recently enjoyed to Germany, Sweden and Denmark. The couple have a son in the Army stationed in Germany.

Mary McWilliams conducted the business session and introduced the speaker.

A greeting card was signed and sent to Mrs. Joe Rice, a patient at St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor.

Tea and cookies were served by Mrs. C. B. Brock, Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney and Miss McWilliams.

Show Postponed

The Country Hi-Steppers 4-H horse show has been postponed from Sunday to a date to be announced.

Library Awards To Be Changed

Harry Scherman, Chairman of the Board of Book-of-the-Month Club, announced that in 1966 the Club will give six cash awards of $2,500 each to small-town public libraries, its eighth annual memorial to Dorothy Canfield Fisher.

This year's awards will bring the amount given by the Book-of-the-Month Club to libraries in small communities during the eight years of the Award Program, to a grand total of $185,000.

In announcing the 1966 awards, Mr. Scherman pointed out that a basic change had been made in the award structure.

The 1965 award program provided for a Main Award of $5,000 and nine National Awards of $1,000 each.

"By eliminating the main award and raising the basic award from $1,000 to $2,500," Mr. Scherman said, "we have acknowledged the fact that the cost of new books is rising.

"Under the new schedule," he continued, "we feel that the award-winning libraries will be able to make significant purchases of much-needed books."

The system of awards, which are given only to towns of not more than 25,000 population, was established in 1959 as a memorial to Dorothy Canfield Fisher, who served for a quarter of a century as a member of the editorial board of the Club, from the year of its founding to 1951.

The awards will be made during National Library Week.

SKATEBOARDING WITH SAFETY
● Keep skateboards off public streets and sidewalks, except where vehicular or pedestrian traffic is stopped during a contest or demonstration of skateboarding.
● Restrict their use to suitable playgrounds or designated areas of parks or other recreation centers.
● Discourage beginners from attempting difficult maneuvers that will lead to falls and injuries.
● Check boards periodically to see that they are in proper working order.
● Encourage skateboarders to strive for control rather than increased speed.
● Keep boards in a safe place when not in use.
● Do not let children have skateboards until they are able to understand these safety rules.

● LIEUT. WILLIAM L. BROWN

A full military service was held Wednesday morning at the Proctor Funeral Home for Lieut. William Lennington Brown, 29, who was killed while on duty July 9 at a naval advisor to South Viet Nam.

Born Oct. 5, 1935 near Ypsilanti, Lieut. Brown was the son of Robert Sydney I. and Patricia Lennington Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown reside at 706 W. Chicago Blvd.

A graduate of Roosevelt High School, Ypsilanti, Lieut. Brown attended the University of Villanova in Pennsylvania for two years on a military scholarship before his appointment and graduation from the US Naval Academy at Annapolis in 1959.

Lieut. Brown never married.

Besides his parents, he is survived by two brothers, Alfred James of Adrian and Robert Synned 11 of Kilarney Lake and a sister, Sally, a college student at Murray, Ky.

Burial will be in Brookside Cemetery.

● WILLIAM W. GRIGG

Services were held Monday at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home for William Wallace Grigg, 81, of 402 W. Potawatamie St. who died at 10 a.m. Friday at his home.

Born Sept. 15, 1883 at Flat Rock, he was the son of Oliver T. and Eva Chapin Grigg.

Mr. Grigg and Iva Gray were married Sept. 14, 1911. Having farmed all of their married lives, the couple retired and moved from Tipton to their present home three years ago.

Mr. Grigg was a member of the Ridgeway Methodist Church and the Tecumseh state and national granges.

Survivors include his wife, Iva, a son, Lyle of Brooklyn; a daughter, Mrs. Morris Cornell, 706 River Acres Dr., seven grandchildren and one great granddaughter.

A brother, C. E. Grigg, of Garden City, and a sister, Mrs. Louis Nelson of Detroit, several nieces, nephews and cousins also survive.

A son, Robert, and a daughter, Glenna, preceded Mr. Grigg in death.

The Rev. Robert Mitchinson officiated and burial was in the Ridgeway Cemetery.

● MRS. JOSEPH RUSSELL

Services were held Saturday at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home for Mrs. Emma Lowe Russell, 63, of 1336 Wampler's Lake Dr., Brooklyn, who died July 15 at Foote Hospital, Jackson, where she had been a patient for three days.

Mrs. Russell was born Aug. 25, 1901, at Ridgeway. On June 15, 1940, she married Joseph A. Russell. She was a teacher for 38 years and at the time of her death was employed in the Cement City school system.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell celebrated their silver wedding anniversary a month ago. She was a past president of the Underwood-Orr Post American Legion Auxiliary of Tecumseh, a member of the 40 & 8 at Jackson, a member of the Abi Evans Chapter of the D.A.R. and a member of the Tecumseh Chapter Order of Eastern Star.

In addition to her husband she is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Alice Schneider and Mrs. Purnell Osburn, both of Tecumseh. She was preceded in death by a sister and a brother.

The Rev. Alvin Brazee officiated and burial was in Ridgeway Cemetery.

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Grandchildren are the most precious packages as almost anyone who has been a grandparent will agree.

That first miniature pink and white bundle of heaven is a pure delight and places both parents and grandparents on a loftier plane of life than they have known before.

Lucille and Neville Hart have joined the ranks of proud grandparents this past week while visiting in the home of her daughter and husband.

Little Lisa Roe Crosier, 8 lbs. and 15 oz., was born July 14 to Lieut. and Mrs. Roy Chosier, nee Sandra Schneller of Oakland, Calif.

Lieut. Crosier is associated with the personnel center at the Oakland Army Base.

En route there, the Harts had a wonderful trip through the Black Hills, Yellowstone and the Grand Tetons. They plan to come home in another week through Oregon, Washington and Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Delker have added another to their list of grandbabies, too. Mark William, 5 lbs., 14 oz., was born Saturday to his parents, Sgt. and Mrs. John Brown in Fort Benning, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bryan and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McConnell have returned from a trip around Lake Superior and a brief stay at the McConnell's cabin at South Branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Eisenminger and family and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stites and family of Teur[illegible] attended the [illegible] at the VFW national home at Eaton Rapids Sunday.

Mrs. Ned Baldwin, Mrs. Harold Kelso, Mrs. Harry Farley and Mrs. Bert Ousterhout spent a few days last week at Boyne Mountain.

Mrs. Charles Howe and Mrs. Donald Wood and Mrs. Robert Smith attended the State Convention of the American Legion Auxiliary in Lansing from Thursday until Sunday.

Accompanying Dawn Kruse to Jackson to take the train to Idaho and girl scout Roundup Wednesday were Mrs. Stanley Kruse and Dawn's grandmothers, Mrs. Ralph Peotter and Mrs. Ira Eisenmann of Blissfield. Mrs. Eisenmann spent the rest of the week in the Kruse home and on Saturday they spent the day in Perry, Mich., with Mrs. Eisenmann's brother and family. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Kruse attended the Allison reunion at Reynolds school in Dundee. About 60 descendants of Herbert Allison attended and helped him celebrate his 90th birthday. Mr. Allison is Mrs. Kruse's grandfather and a former resident of Tecumseh, now making his home with Mr. and Mrs. John Young of near Holloway.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Antony of Detroit were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Helen Walker and Mrs. Vira Bancroft.

Tecumseh Refrigeration Sales and Engineering Company was dissolved as a corporation with Tecumseh Products Company as custodian of the books, Tresco, Inc. and Forsco Corporation were also dissolved with the same custodian of records.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bailey of Britton, Mrs. William Carson of Adrian and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kanous were in Milan Friday to attend the funeral of their nephew and cousin, Alan Herrick who was killed in a train-auto accident Tuesday morning.

He was the son of Mrs. Alice Kanous Herrick and the late Charles Herrick.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Simpson of Toledo are the parents of a son, Matthew Dane, born July 13, Mrs. Simpson, nee Carol Finnegan, is the daughter of Mrs. Roy Cadmus.

Mrs. Josephine Rice entered St. Joseph Hospital, Monday, as a [illegible] patient. Her room number is 453.

James Pihl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Pihl, is attending naval school at Culver Military Academy in Culver, Ind., this summer.

WLEN To Hold Dance

As a public service project, WLEN-FM will sponsor a mid-summer hop for teen-agers and anyone else who is interested.

It will be held on the second floor of the Elks Club, 122 N. Main St., Adrian, July 23, from 7 p.m. to 11 p.m.

The first part of the dance will be broadcast live as their regular program, Club 1039, with requests being called in. The second part of the program will feature teen-age bands including Us, The Necessities and The Mersey Blues.

Soft drinks will be available. Proceeds will be donated to the American Cancer Society, Lenawee County Unit.

The hop is open to the public.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Pankotai of 1405 Mayflower Street, Lincoln Park, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Karen Janet, to Wesley H. Tiede, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Tiede, of 4071 N. Blissfield Hwy., Britton. The wedding will be November 13 at the Calvary Lutheran Church in Lincoln Park.

Parking Lot Teen Dance Is Vetoed

A proposed Teen Club dance in the city parking lot behind the fire barns was turned down by Council Monday night on the recommendation of Murell Clark, [illegible] chief.

Clark reported that outsiders have come into Tecumseh on Wednesday night when the Teen Club dances are held, and just last week police had to break up a fight at the Community Center.

He said incidents could be better controlled and supervised at the Community Center. All dances of the Teen Club are chaperoned and there's been little disorder in the past.

QUEEN CANDIDATE CHRISTINE REEVES

Accident Level Low Last Week

One of the slowest accident weeks of the summer just passed with the Tecumseh police investigating only five mishaps, one in which two suffered minor injuries.

Charlene H. Cassell, 20, Groutport, Ohio, and her passenger, Nancy Anspach, 19, Dundee, were taken to Herrick Hospital for treatment after an accident at the intersection of S. Evans St. and E. Pottawatamie.

Lyman A. Curtiss, 75, of 314 E. Pottawatamie, was charged with failure to yield the right of way after striking the Cassell car.

A resume of other accidents is:

July 16 — Charles E. Anspach, 52, of 215 E. Maple St. and Mary Ann McConnell, 45, of 706 Wenonah St. on N. Evans St. Mrs. McConnell was cited for failure to yield right of way.

July 16 — John A. Kopka, 61, of 8 Water St. and Bonnie M. Ratliff, 43, of 1102 Murray Dr. in city parking lot by The Diner. The Kopka car scraped the other vehicle while backing out.

July 17 — Robert R. Waskin, 20, Dearborn, and Fred O. Clark, 22, of 102 N. Wyandotte at W. Chicago Blvd. and Pearl St. Clark was charged with failure to stop within a clear assured distance.

July 19 — David R. Spaulding, 32, Dundee and Ramon Anaya, 33, of 9924 Tecumseh-Clinton Rd. at S. Maumee St. and E. Cummins. Anaya was cited for failure to yield right of way.

Fund OKed

A third quarterly payment of $8,732.75 was authorized at the meeting July 6 of the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation.

This was the first of a series of meetings to precede the 1965-66 drive.

Among the agency budget requests discussed were:

Family Counseling Service of Lenawee County, City of Tecumseh Parks and Recreation Dept., Wolverine Council of Boy Scouts, Irish Hills Girl Scout Council, Lenawee County Humane Society and Tecumseh Scout Cabin Organization.

Also the Salvation Army, Catholic Social Services of Lenawee County, American Red Cross and Huron Valley Child Guidance Clinic.

The meeting Aug. 3 will be a continuation of the discussion of these and other agencies requesting funds from the Foundation.

Dr. William Adams has been appointed to replace Allan Seager for the remainder of his term on the board.

Local Pharmacist Finishes Surgical Supports School

Court and Joanne Nighswander attended and completed the Atco Surgical Supports, Inc. training school at Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio last week.

Mr. Nightwander is a pharmacist at Hodges Drug Store.

The Atco school trains for proper fitting of trusses and other surgical appliances as prescribed by physicians. Hodges Drug Store now has two trained pharmacists for men and two for ladies.

William and Patricia Holmes previously completed the course. He also is pharmacist at Hodges.

Christine Reeves Vies for Queen of County Fair

Christine Reeves, 18, will be sponsored by the Tecumseh Rotarians as a candidate for the title of Miss Lenawee County Fair Queen.

Miss Reeves is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Reeves of 502 Blanchard St. She has three sisters, Rosalind 13, Donna 11, and Wendy 7.

She is a 1964 graduate of Tecumseh High School and is now attending Eastern Michigan University. She plans to teach kindergarten or first grade and is majoring in math.

The Lenawee County Fair will be held Aug. 8-15. As a candidate Miss Reeves will participate in the fair parade and the Queen contest in front of the grandstand at 7:30 p.m. Aug. 9.

Ted Kistler To Appear in Adrian

Ted Kistler will be coming from the Chessmate in Detroit for an appearance at The Stage in Adrian Thursday through Sunday, July 22-23-24-25.

He will be providing a single variety act which includes comedy, commercial, pop and folk singing. He is also a member of the Campus Singers who appear [illegible] the Stage opening.

Every Thursday night is Hootenany night at The Stage. Anyone is welcome to participate.

Several talented young people of the area have appeared in Hootenany shows.

It is not necessary to have a previous arrangement to appear, "Just come on over," says Mrs. Francis Dalton, co-owner of The Stage.

Shawnee Squares To Dance July 4

On July 24th at the Tecumseh Community Center the Shawnee Squares will be dancing to the calling of Pete Peters from Maumee, Ohio. All western square dancers are welcome.

A Foreman in 90 Days

The appointment of Charles J. Rebottaro to the position of production foreman has been announced by Lewis J. Lamm, plant manager of the Fisher Body Tecumseh Plant.

CHARLES REBOTTARO

Mr. Rebottaro was born in 1942 and attended Tecumseh High School, graduating in 1961.

He began working at Fisher Body on March 15, when he was hired as a hand trucker and stock laborer. He was advanced to a finish cutter classification on May 3, and to a finish cutter classification on May 17.

Mr. Rebottaro was promoted to the production foreman position on June 28. In a period of a little over 90 days Mr. Rebottaro has rapidly moved through the hourly ranks to a supervisory position.

He is a young man in a hurry and has been recognized for his ability and initiative. He resides at 122 Brown St., Tecumseh, with his wife and one child.

Alfred Butler, Harold Tuttle Win Tournament

Alfred Butler and Harold Tuttle of Tecumseh Country Club teamed to win the first annual Mixologist Invitational Golf Tournament.

They topped the duo of Robert Bartlow and Charles Butler of Lenawee Country Club in an 18-hole match Monday morning at the Adrian course.

Robert Karles See Tigers Play

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Karle and Kathy and Jim attended the baseball game in Detroit on Sunday between the Detroit Tigers and the Baltimore Orioles.

Recreation Activities

Tennis

The tennis players have learned the forehand and backhand strokes. They have worked on the board and on serving.

Scoring and game strategy is being learned this week. A tournament is planned for the near future.

Playgrounds

Physical fitness was stressed at the playgrounds last week. The children were tested on the following activities: sit-ups, toe touches, knee bends, push-ups, windmill toe touches, leg-lifts, and jumping jacks.

The following were winners at Tecumseh Acres:

Kevin Osburn, Mike Tilton, Jeff Mullins, Robert Litteral and Mike Steele.

At Shadylane: Kenneth Cole, Dan Adams, Rebecca Storms, Judy Gittingins, Danny Harrold, John Rathke and Don Clark.

Mary Wanzeck and Bonnie Hand were winners at Patterson.

At Herrick Park, Jeff Langham, Marc Graf, Mary Lemanski, Paul Lemanski, and Jean Lemanski were winners.

Jeff Langham did the most sit-ups, 110. Rebecca Storms did 310 toe touches and Judy Gittingins had the most knee bends.

Marc Graf was the winner with 52 push-ups and Paul Lemanski won the windmill toe touches with 210. John Rathke did 60 leg lifts and Marc Graf took another first place with 400 jumping jacks.

The following boys and girls received physical fitness certificates at Herrick Park; Jeff Langham, Paul Lemanski, Craig Van Camp, Mary Lemanski, Dale Fischer, Marc and Karen Graf, Nancy Kitson, Mike House and Bill Meyers.

Total attendance for this week was 235.

An Olympic week is being held this week with a mock track meet on Wednesday at Shadylane and Tecumseh Acres and Thursday at Patterson and Herrick Park.

Junior Girls Softball

In the Junior League the Champion Grubbies defeated the Toads 13 to 3. The winning pitcher was Jackie Rodgers. The leading batters were Diane and Kathy Baugh, each getting 4 hits for 4 times at bat. Kathy also connected for a home run with two on base.

On Thursday, the Toads bombed the Things 12 to 7. The Toads put out 100% and pushed on to their second win of the season.

Linda Baxter took the pitching honors, assisted by Mary Jo Rosancrans. Three Toads batted perfectly, and Vivian Williams hit a home run.

Moms' Softball

In Moms Softball last week the Reds defeated the Blues. Sue Graham was the winning pitcher, while Ida Smith suffered the loss.

[illegible] Sit by Teresa Wells, Ida Smith, Dee Coulson, and Eris Murphy. The catch of the night was made by Olis Puffer.

We're all looking forward to seeing more Moms turn out for the games on Wednesday evenings at 7:00 at the softball diamond.

PONY LEAGUE

► Mike Hebert pitched and batted G&J to a 3-0 win over Britton that kept them at the top of the league standings.

Hebert struck out 16 batters to tie the record set by John Kennedy of TPW.

At the plate, Hebert had three of G&J's five hits off losing pitcher Rick Maska. It was Hebert's triple in the first inning that scored catcher Dennis Lewis with the winning run.

Hebert's other hits were singles, Lewis added a single and Mike Cote delivered a two-run single in the sixth inning to give Hebert some insurance runs.

► Britton jumped off with four runs in the first two innings and went on to defeat VFW, 8-4, as Jim Skelton picked up the mound win.

Both teams had seven hits but it was the tight defense by Britton that made the difference.

Britton made only two errors in the game as against five misCues by VFW.

Skelton and Ron Findley paced Britton's batting attack with 3-for-5.

Jim Feight ranged out a triple and a single to lead VFW's offense.

Steve Dalton was the losing pitcher for VFW with relief help from Mike Decker and Lamar Rufner.

► G&J stopped TPW, 4-1, in a game that was called after four innings because of rain.

Jim Hemphill took the win for G&J, allowing two hits in the shortened game. John Kennedy absorbed the loss for TPW.

A double by catcher Dennis Lewis, followed by Mike Hebert's single and a double by Hemphill accounted for G&J's first two runs in the third inning and that proved to be all they needed.

G&J added two more runs in the fourth and TPW notched their only tally in the bottom of the fourth to round out the game's scoring.

Hemphill, Lewis and Hebert each had a double and single and Tim McVay added a single for G&J's total of seven hits.

► In a tight pitchers duel, the Indians nipped VFW, 2-1, behind the pitching of Rick Calzada.

Calzada matched pitches with John Drake and came out the winner when catcher Tom Horton singled across Ken Johnson with the winning run.

The Indians managed only three singles off Drake. In addition to Horton's big blow, Johnson and John Wall had the other safeties.

VFW picked up five hits off Calzada. Steve Cook had the only extra base hit of the game, a double, and Drake, Steve Dalton, John Bailey and David Lord had singles.

► The Indians, in the role of spoilers, gave Britton's championship hopes a jolt when they knocked them off, 7-4.

Greg Wise went the distance on the mound for the Indians and picked up the win. He allowed six hits and struck out nine batters.

The losing pitcher was Ron Findley who worked the first four innings.

A walk to Indian catcher Tom Horton forced in the run that made the difference.

Steve Kring paced the Indians at the plate with a pair of singles. Ken Johnson, Eric Long, Bob McCombs and Rick Calzada all had singles to round out the Indians' total of six hits.

For Britton, Findley led the batting attack with a single and double. Charles Moore added two singles for the losers.

► TPW scored six runs in the top of the seventh inning to come from behind and beat the Eagles, 6-4, and pin a heartbreaking loss on losing pitcher, Mark Wegner.

Wegner had a no-hitter going for the Eagles and carried a 4-0 lead going into the last inning.

Wallace Quinn led off the last inning for TPW with a walk and moved to third on the first hit of Wegner, a single by John Bryan.

Quinn then came home on a sacrifice by David Ward to end Wegner's shutout.

After Bryan scored the second run of the inning, Doug Haeussler and Ron Bowen reached base on errors.

John Kennedy then unloaded a single with the bases full to drive home two runs and put TPW on top, 4-3.

Following a walk to Dennis Marsh to fill the bases, Quinn came up for the second time in the inning and singled to score two more runs and lift the count to 6-3.

In their last turn at bat the Eagles managed to notch another tally off winning pitcher Quinn, but it wasn't enough and TPW came out the winner.

Wegner pitched a strong game for six innings and fanned 14 batters but the seventh inning proved too much for him and the Eagles.

► Tim McVay came home on a passed ball in the seventh inning for the winning run as G&J nipped the Indians, 4-3.

G&J got only four hits but made them good for their four runs and give the pitching win to Dennis Lewis over losing hurler Rick Calzada.

Mike Hebert slammed a triple, catcher Jim Hemphill, Sam Brooks and C[illegible] Vieder had singles for G&J's four hits.

The Indians racked up six hits, doubles by Bob McCombs and Eric Long, and singles by Mark Shorder, Milton Merkle, Greg Wise and Tom Horton.

CUB MAJOR

► Steve Tilton allowed only one hit and struck out 10 batters in pitching his team to a 1-0 win over Exchange.

Tilton had a no-hitter until the bottom of the sixth when Scott Dalton hit a single.

TPE managed only two hits off losing pitcher Craig Smith who struck out seven hitters.

The games only run came in the first inning. Craig Brown walked, took second on a passed ball and scored on a double by Mike Matteson.

The only other hit TPE managed was a single by Sam Whitney in the fifth inning.

► TPE Credit Union stopped Union, 7-1, although they had only four hits in the game.

Mark Decker, Jeff Barker, Mike Tilton and Sam Whitney each had one of TPE's four safeties.

Mike Matteson took the pitching win for TPE and had a shutout and a no-hitter until the sixth when Union picked up two hits and their only run.

For Union, Mark Hamilton took the mound loss getting relief help from David Ryan. Joe Bailey did the catching for both pitchers who had a combined total of eight strikeouts.

► Kiwanis scored a 6-2 win over the Tecumseh Police behind the four-hit pitching of Rich Schuyler.

Catcher Craig Van Camp led the Kiwanis batting assault with two singles in three at-bats and three RBI's. Doug Feight chipped in with a triple in three trips to the plate and two RBI's.

Schuyler struck out nine batters and didn't walk a man in picking up the victory.

Losing pitcher Robin Hatch allowed seven hits, struck out 11 batters and walked two for the Police.

CUB MINORS

► The Giants had a trap waiting for the Tigers and crushed them, 19-0.

The Tigers committed 11 errors in the game as the Giants scored all their runs with the benefit of only seven hits.

James Sessoms was the star of the game, as he earned the pitching win, struck out nine batters, and at the plate had a triple, double and two singles.

Randy Butler was the losing pitcher as the Giants scored at least two runs every time they were at bat.

► Four straight walks issued by losing Giant pitcher, Don Forsyth, in the game with the Braves, let in the first run of the game for the Braves and that was all they needed as they ran over the Giants, 17-0.

Rodney Cole paced his team at the plate with a perfect night, five hits in five at-bats. Cole has been pacing his team all season and currently his batting average is above .750.

Arlon Bozeman added 3-for-3 and Jeff Berry had 3-for-4. Two of Berry's hits accounted for five runs.

In first inning, when the Braves scored seven times, Berry slammed a bases-loaded double. Then in the third he rapped a single with two on.

Jack McCarley was the winning pitcher for the Braves who haven't lost a game yet this season.

McCarley struck out seven and allowed only two hits and was helped in the field by two double plays, one in the third and one in the fifth, to help preserve his shut-out.

► The Braves kept their record unbeaten as they overcame a seven run deficit to beat the Indians, 15-8.

The Indians scored seven times in the first inning against two Brave hurlers, Rodney Cole and Jacky McCarley.

Then manager Betty Locker inserted Jim Robideau on the mound for the Braves and the latter held the Indians to only one run for the last five innings.

Meanwhile the Braves came back to score three times in the first, twice in the second and then added seven runs in the third to take the lead that they never relinquished.

McCarley's double in the third with two men on base brought in the winning runs.

Rodney Cole and Bob Brooks were the big hitters for the Braves with 3-for-3.

Robideau struck out seven batters in his winning effort. Losing Indian pitcher, Mark Murphy and reliefer John Merzissued fanned 14 hitters.

► The Dodgers rallied for four runs in the bottom of the sixth inning to edge the Twins, 14-13.

Both teams managed to score at least once in every inning except the bottom of the fourth when the Dodgers were unable to notch a tally.

Glenn Posky was the winning pitcher coming in relief of Billy Humphries.

It was Posky wo provided the winning margin when he stole home.

Humphries played a strong game for the Dodgers with two doubles and a single and 14 strikeouts while on the mound.

John Baugh and Bob Sinclair each aided the Dodger's cause with a double and a single.

For the Twins, Mark Jones, Ken Randolph and Gary Ward each rapped out two singles.

The losing pitcher was Buddy Alaniz who fanned five

A&W-Baileys rapped out 16 runs on 18 hits as they trounced Corrugated Box, 16-9.

Arnold Withrow led A&W's batting attack with four hits in four at-bats and also was the catcher for winning pitcher Bob Handy. Charles Owens chipped in with 3-for-4.

A&W jumped off with three runs in the top of the first inning and saw Corrugated come back with six tallies in their half of the inning.

However A&W rallied for three runs again in the second and third innings to regain the lead and then added seven runs in the last two frames for their winning margin.

In other games, Kemp and Murphy won their first game of the year when they ran over Corrugated Box, 14-3.

Ed's Standard turned in the biggest upset of the season when they defeated the previosly unbeaten Tecumseh Police team 1-0.

The loss left the Police with a 4-1 record and tied them with A&W-Baileys for first place in the league standings.

On Sunday the two leaders will meet in a crucial doubleheader that could do much to determine the league champions.

Minister Is Visiting Holy Land

The Rev. Seal Janeway, pastor of the Missionary Baptist Church left by jet Monday for a Pilgrimage to the Holy Land.

With a group of 11 ministers and two wives of the Michigan Baptist Association Mr. Janeway will visit points of religious interest in Italy, Egypt, Lebanon, Jordon, Syria, Israel, Turkey, and Greece, returning home Aug. 9.

The Rev. Janeway's tour was made possible by gifts from his congregation.

While the minister is away, the Rev. Willard Martin of Monroe, missionary for the Southeastern Association will conduct the morning worship services each Sunday.

Local Youth in Viet Nam

Arthur Collingsworth, 402 Brown St., is now in Viet Nam for the Agency for International Development of the State Department (AID).

Arthur is the only undergraduate among the 20 students going from the nation and is also the only one from Michigan.

He is majoring in political science at the University of Michigan and will be a second semester junior this fall.

He is working in provincial capitals as administrative assistant in the field of AID missions.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Sawyer entertained her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Reister, of Morenci, for dinner Sunday.

Don Purkey and Dave Faling, two veteran Tecumseh distributors of fuel oil and petroleum products, formed Tecumseh's newest company this month — Lenawee Fuels, Inc. Although just weeks old, prompt around-the-clock maintenance service along with regular deliveries of Pure products could very well make Lenawee Fuels one of the largest distributors in southeastern Michigan. Already, hundreds and hundreds of families, farmers and businessmen have switched to Lenawee Fuels. These people, fortunately, already know of Don and Dave's fine service and their reputation and experience in the petroleum field. They're also offering extra services for their friends and customers: Budget Heating Plans at no extra cost; Insured Payment Plan at no extra cost; 24-Hour Burner and Furnace Maintenance Service. If you want worry-free fuel oil and prompt petroleum product service, call Dave or Don now. As you can be SURE WITH PURE, you can also be SURE WITH LENAWEE FUELS.

Card of Thanks

We, the family of Perry Younglove, wish to express our thanks and sincere appreciation to our friends, neighbors, and relatives for the many thoughtful acts of kindness, messages of sympathy, food, beautiful floral tributes, money and donations to the cancer fund, received during the sickness and after the loss of our beloved one. We especially wish to thank the doctors and nurses who cared for him at the Herrick Memorial Hospital and St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital, the neighbors and friends who used their equipment and labored to put the hay in the barn, those who have cared for the corn and beans, the Golden Rule Circle who furnished and served lunch, the Rev. G. O. Hannevik for his words of comfort, the Niblack Home for Funerals and the pall bearers and everyone else who helped in some way. To all we are indeed grateful. May God bless all of you.

Dear friends,

Seven days a week, our clergymen inconspicuously minister to our spiritual needs.

They are always available for sick calls, weddings, personal problems and death. We seldom give enough thought to the burdens that our clergymen so cheerfully bear.

Although their work is spiritually rewarding, they both deserve and appreciate our expression of gratitude.

Respectfully,

Lester D. Proctor

Long & Short

It's a Family Project

must have replied.

During the winter of 1892, Mr. Gunckel fashioned what could vie for honors as the first prefabricated cottage ever made, complete with hooks and eyes where the various sections were attached together.

Naming it "The Birch," in honor of his first remembrance of the VanDeman land, he shipped it north by train that summer and it was soon in place, overlooking the beach. It's still there.

Thus began one of northern Michigan's most unique and historic summer resorts, now known as Hill an' Dale.

For the past 16 years, it has been owned and operated by the Charles Bigelow family of Macon Township.

Apparently, Capt. VanDeman was alert to the future possibilities and made specific arrangements with Mr. Gunckel and others who volunteered to build their own places on his land.

In any event, there are now 10 cottages, all different, scattered about the hillside, including the Gunckel place and one fashioned in Ann Arbor and sent north on the train by Prof. Charles Cooley, who taught sociology at the University of Michigan.

NEXT WEEK: A story which reveals some of Luella Bigelow's favorite recipes.

In 1940, the resort was purchased by Rolland Gorton of Stockbridge, from the last of the VanDemans, who passed away two years later.

★

A TINY classified ad in the Detroit paper, "For sale, 10 cottages on Crystal Lake" in 1950 caught the eye of Mr. Bigelow and in quick order after seeing the layout, he bought it.

Like the VanDemans, the Bigelows made it a family project.

Exceptional food was a tradition at Hill an' Dale right from the start. Served family style, the meals have been one rare treat after another.

In the beginning, with the VanDemans, one of the captain's daughters, Myra, was the cook and highly regarded for her culinary skills.

When the Macon Township clan took over, Mrs. Bigelow became chief of the kitchen and has been at it ever since.

With new guests, there is for a short time shutters about diets and figures quickly giving way to resignation that to hold back at the table could be foolhardy, so let the chips — and calories — fall where they may.

A crew of five young ladies, including daughter, Becky, 17, who just graduated from Britton-Macon High School and will be entering Michigan State this fall, assist in preparing and serving the meals.

Until this summer, there were two Bigelow sons working with the folks, but Bill, 23, has joined the budget department of Tecumseh Products — and right now is probably dreaming about that Hill an' Dale beach on Crystal Lake. He attended MSU and spent two years in the navy.

Bob, 21, a graduate of Jackson Junior Coll[illegible] the water front, which in addition to swimming, offers use of several motor boats and a pontoon craft.

An expert water skier, Bob has a knack of teaching the art—and it is quite a trick.

Mary Beth, 8, likes to help get the pony and horse ready for the regular after-breakfast rides, which the younger guests enjoy, thereby giving their folks a chance for third and fourth cups of coffee.

SOME PEOPLE return to the resort year after year. One group from Birmingham even has a winter Hill an' Dale reunion in their home town.

The No. 1 guest has long been Mrs. Helen McCloud, now 74, who first came with her family in 1898 and still spends her summers here.

Mrs. McCloud says the Bigelows have done an excellent job of maintaining the decor and atmosphere established by the VanDemans — with a couple of vital additions, inside plumbing and hot water for all cottages.

Besides the fabulous food, what folks especially enjoy at Hill an' Dale is the relaxed atmosphere. There is no social chairman bouncing about, insisting everyone take part in games and activities.

Only two things are on the agenda each week, a square dance Monday nights and a marshmallow roast on the beach Thursdays, but mostly the guests just loll about.

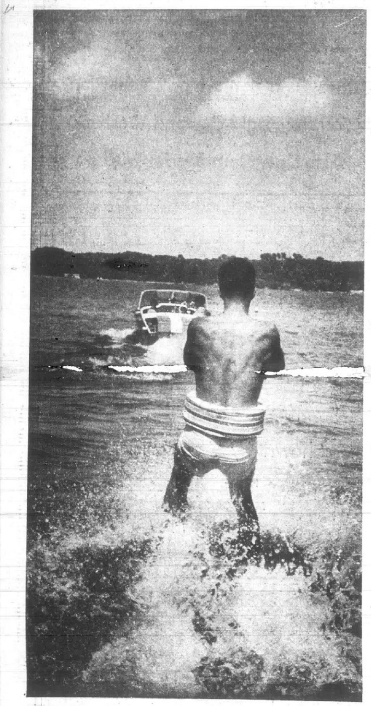
There are ample places nearby for sightseeing trips, like Frankfort, Sleeping Bear dunes, Interlochen and Gwen Fostie's place (a story about Miss Fostie will appear in a coming edition) to mention a few.

Hill an' Dale has a huge pavilion-type recreation hall, located in a valley about 75 yards behind the main building. It's ideal for youngsters who wish to play shuffle board or dance to a juke box, which goes into action at the touch of the keys, no coins needed.

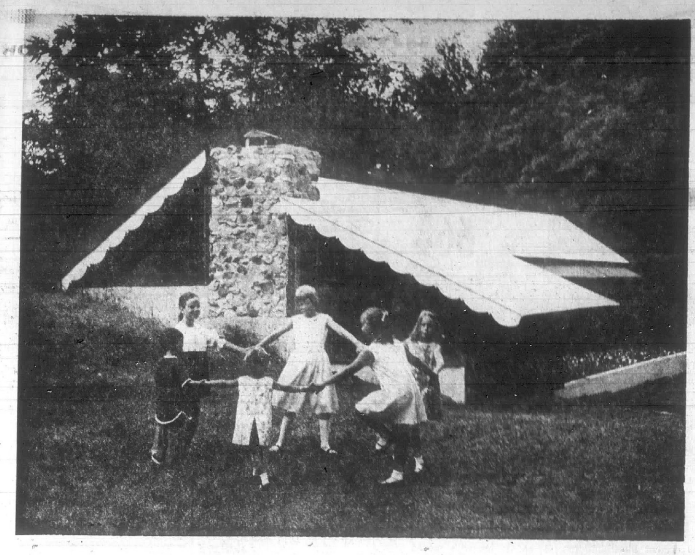
Moms and dads are happy to learn that no candy or soda pop machines are found at the resort, thus eliminating the taunts of little ones for sweets.

The train still runs along the beach. But now it's known as the Ann Arbor, a part of the Detroit, Toledo and Irontown, with several slow freights a day passing by on their journey, via ferries, from Frankfort to Wisconsin and the Upper Peninsula.

Hill an' Dale certainly makes a perfect spot in which to spend a lazy summer vacation.



FAST RIDE — Barry Kingman of Evanston, Ill., spins over Crystal Lake on water skis with Bob Bigelow at controls of Hill an' Dale inboard. Bob, who helps his folks run resort, is expert at the sport himself and can even ski on his bare feet.



RECREATION HALL — That pine-scented northern Michigan air brings out the joy of living in vacationers, young and old. Small fry prance in valley, which contains resort's recreation hall, built by Bigelow clan, including the field stone fireplace, Mr. Bigelow's first attempt at masonry.

Our Readers Write

In remembering the actions of the late Henry Ford, and Mr. Hayden of Tecumseh — wherein they sowed and harvested upon the land near Tecumseh — a crop of wheat, for the purpose of demonstrating the reality of this action called tithing.

I wonder if there is any organization today — especially in the Tecumseh locale — who will give recognition to the thought, our troubles may only be our reward for our lack.

In propagating our rights, and our freedom of choice — has man created a situation — where every Tom, Dick and Harry can organize their own following. To assume the authority of receiving and distributing the tithes and offerings in a manner of their own choosing.

Are there too many hands in the till of God's Treasury, each taking therefrom all they can persuade others to put in.

Perhaps the curse, the scriptures say shall fall upon those obeying not the tithe ordinance, has fallen upon us today.

Let us remember God's words: "I shall open the windows of heaven, and pour out upon thee such a blessing, you shall not be able to contain it, and all nations shall call you blessed."

Let us remember God's words: "PROVE ME NOW" Bring your tithes and offerings — into MY Storehouse — that there may be meat in MY HOUSE.

Sincerely,
Harold H. Graham

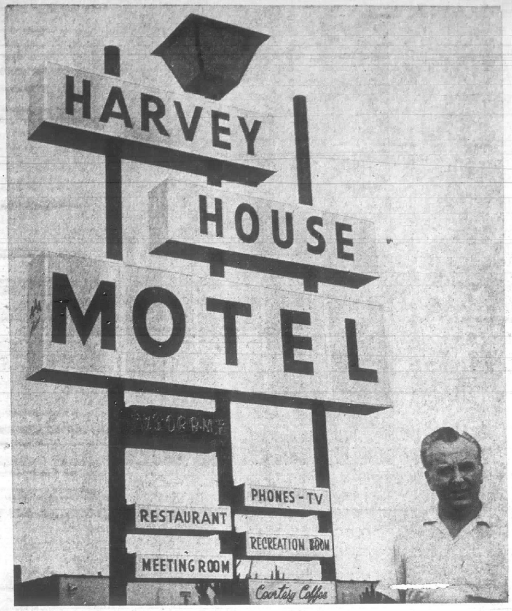
to our

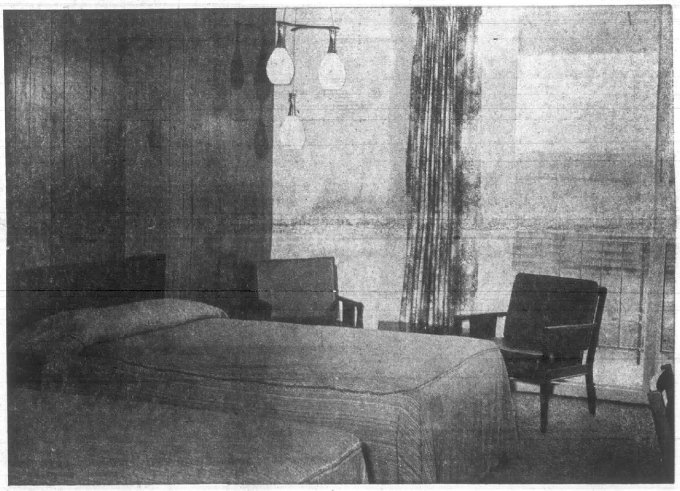
GRAND OPENING

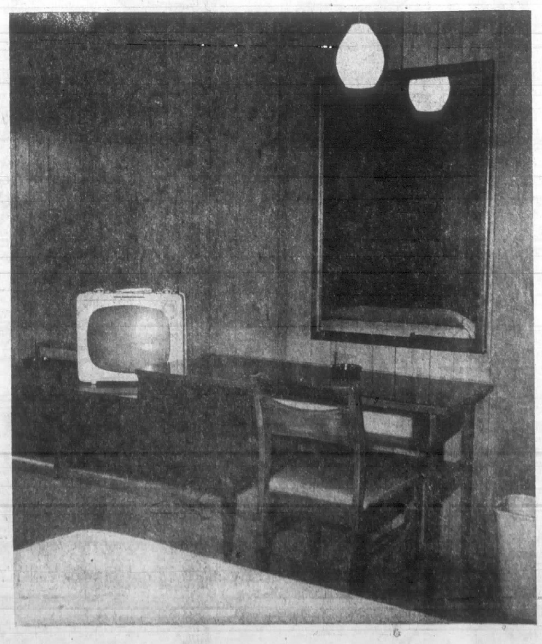
Sunday, July 25 from 2 to 5



Harvey Carpenter first came to Tecumseh in 1955 with his wife, [illegible] children and purchased what is now Harvey's Grill. The motel is located on the 16-acre tract of land adjacent to the grill that the Carpenters purchased last year. Mr. Carpenter anticipated Tecumseh's growth when he first settled here and he believes Tecumseh will continue to grow in the future. This faith in Tecumseh's future was the main reason Mr. Carpenter built the motel.

Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter invite area residents to attend the Grand Opening of their Harvey House Motel Sunday, July 25. Bring your entire family and tour this new modern addition to Tecumseh from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. Located on M-50 on the city's west side, the Harvey House offers Tecumseh residents a comfortable and convenient place to send their overnight guests if their own house is too small. The Carpenters will be waiting for you, so why don't you accept their invitation and come on out.





The Harvey House will have 20 units with two double beds per unit and one two-room suite with a living room separate from the bedroom. Each unit 12 x 18 feet, will contain wall-to-wall carpeting, a private bath and have paneled walls. A television set and telephone will be found in every unit to add to the guest's pleasure. Each guest will be able to regulate his own room temperature since every room contains individual heating. For the hot summer days, the guest will be able to turn on the chilled water air conditioning. Anyone wishing a hot drink during his stay can stay right in his own room and make coffee, tea or hot chocolate from a coffee maker installed in the units.

We're proud to have helped build the new Harvey House Motel . . .

Benefit: Uniforms

BRITTON — The Band Boosters are planning a public chicken barbecue dinner for Sunday, Aug. 1, as part of their continuing projects to aid the Band Uniform Fund.

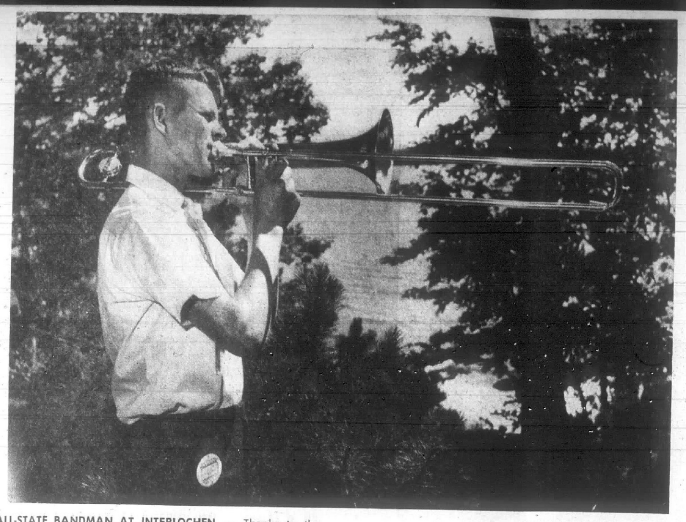
The dinner will be held in the Britton School bas barn at the village park.

Ed Zick of Macon will be in charge of preparing the chicken. The dinner will begin at noon and continue until all are served.

The menu will be one-half of a barbecued chicken, baked beans, cole slaw, potato chips, rolls and butter, homemade pie, milk, coffee and iced tea.

Tickets are available from band members and their parents, for $1.50 for adults and 75c for children 12 and under.

Committee members are Mrs. George Brablec, Mrs. Clarence Schroeder, Mrs. Charles Hagans, Mrs. John Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Maschino and band director, George Berryman.



ALL-STATE BANDMAN AT INTERLOCHEN — Thanks to the Britton Band Boosters, Tom Schroeder is currently at the National Music Camp as a member of the All-State Band. He is shown practicing among the pines of the fabulous music mecca in the Grand Traverse Bay area. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schroeder and a sophomore at Britton-Macon High, where he plays trombone in the Tory Band.

Unusual Plants Topic of Garden Club Gathering

BRITTON — Mrs. Jay Ferman was hostess to the Ridgeway Garden Club last Tuesday, when 12 members met to hear the program by Mrs. Clarence Larson on "Edibles in the Wilds."

Mrs. Larson told the group of many unusual plants which grow wild, and are eatable.

The hostess served light refreshments to the ladies, assisted by the co-hostess, Mrs. Clyde Brown.

BRIEFS

House guests of the Rev. and Mrs. Gustav Hannevik the past week were her brother and wife, the Rev. and Mrs. Russell A. Olsen, of Fairview, S. Dak.

On Friday, they all visited another brother, Thomas Olsen, who is hospitalized in Saginaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brown were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goetz and family of Ann Arbor Sunday.

The occasion was in celebration of the birthday of Mr. Brown who was 78.

First Kelley Reunion Is Held Here

BRITTON — The first annual reunion of the descendants of Isaac and Wilsana Smith Kelley was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Dunbar in Britton.

A potluck dinner was served to 38 guests. The afternoon was spent swimming in the Dunbar pool, playing games and visiting.

Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kelley and family, Mr. and Mrs. Halleck Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Kelley and granddaughters, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Penny and family, all of Toledo; Mr. and Mrs. George Kline and family of Milan, Mrs. William Gibbs and family, William Cundiff Jr., and William Cundiff Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bower, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Crutchfield and sons and Linda Mann of Britton.

Band Concerts Thursday

Don't forget the band concerts being held every Thursday evening in the Britton village park at 7:30 p.m. Director George Berryman has been working hard with these youngsters this summer; come on out and hear the results. In case of rain, the concerts will be held in the school gym.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Arft vacationed last week at their cottage on Van Etten Lake, near Oscoda.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rowlands announced the arrival of their first grandchild, Christine Sue Rowlands.

Christine tipped the scales at 7 lbs., 10 oz. when she arrived July 11 at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. Paul Rowlands. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Baldwin of Clinton.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Marks returned home recently from a ten-day trip across the northern states to Oregon and Washington.

All-Day Outing

BRITTON — Clear Lake was the location of an all-day outing July 21 for members of the Emmanuel Lutheran Walther League.

The group left the church at 11 a.m. and returned around 9:30 p.m.

A pot luck picnic was held, followed by Bible study. Later, swimming, ball games and other activities were conducted, followed by further Bible study, supper, a question and answer period and a hymn sing.

Closing vespers were held before starting home.

Those attending brought lunch and a dish to pass, swim suit, a Bible and a pen or pencil. Beverages, watermelon and transportation were provided.

—o—

Mrs. Wyman Ferman and Mrs. Edward Schultz of South Bend were Friday night guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Ferman.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks and family were Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hosler and family of Whitmore Lake.

Newlyweds Are Honored with Shower

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hull of Jackson were honored guests at a wedding shower Sunday afternoon, when a group of 25 friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mrs. Grace Ramage of rural Britton.

Mr. and Mrs. Hull were married last February 12. She is the former Rebecca Ramage of Britton.

Hostesses for the party were Mrs. Richard Vallie and Mrs. James Vallie. Bingo was played and prizes awarded to the winners.

The couple opened many gifts. A buffet lunch including ham, potato salad, relishes, homemade bread, wedding cake and Jello was served to the group.

Driver Ticketed after Being Hit by Motorcyclist

BRITTON — An accident occurred Saturday afternoon in Britton at the corner of Maple and N. Main Streets, when a car driven by Edward Becker, 19, of Britton, backed out of Maple St. and was struck in the right front door by a motorcyclist.

The motorcycle was driven by Robert Hiram Snare, 23, of 10715 Smith Road, Britton. Britton police issued a ticket to Mr. Becker for improper backing.

Wedding Is Held

BRITTON — A wedding of interest to the Britton area took place in Jackson Saturday evening when Jerry Hannah, son of Mrs. Beulah Hannah of Britton and Carol Jester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jester of Clark Lake, were married in the Cascade Baptist Church.

The reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the church parlors.

The couple left for a week's trip to Canada, after which they will be at home at 3228 Miles Road, Jackson.

Harley Watsons Host Meeting

BRITTON — The Baraca Philathea Class of the Congregational-Christian Church will meet Sunday, July 25 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Watson, 817 Lincoln Ave., Adrian.

A cooperative picnic dinner will be served at 6 p.m., instead of the usual time of 6:30.

BHS Class of '60 Hold Reunion at Britton Park

BRITTON — The Britton High School Class of 1960 held a reunion Sunday at the Britton Park with 25 class members attending with their wives.

A potluck picnic was served to the group that included 11 children ranging in age from four weeks to four years.

A softball game was played with the single men edging the married men, 19-18.

On Monday, Cal Rohrback, a member of the class, received a telegram from Joost Braam from Amsterdam, Holland.

Mr. Braam was a foreign exchange student in the 1960 class and lived with Mr. Rohrback.

In the telegram Mr. Braam said he is attending the Hotel School until April of 1966 when he expects to graduate.

Classes Start at 8:30

CLINTON—New school hours were adopted by the Clinton board of education at the July 12 meeting.

The schedule for the 1965-66 school year will mean a one-half hour earlier starting time. Classes will be in session at 8:30 a.m. and will be dismissed at 3:25 p.m.

A 12-minute home room period will be included in the secondary building. This period will be used as a pupil organization time and for a planned program of citizenship development.

The teaching staff is complete with the exception of one secondary English-art teacher, it was announced by Supt. Richard Wegner.

Mr. Wegner presented a detailed bus service analysis. He presented costs and statistics relative to bus service stalls and a shelter. No action was taken, but it will be studied further.

The elementary school program was reviewed. Consideration was given to the possibility of acquiring mobile classroom units to house the overflow of elementary pupils.

It was recently reported by the county school superintendent, Milton Porter, that Clinton's school census shows an increase of 61 children between the ages of 5 and 19.

Other items discussed by the board members were fire safety, accoustical ceiling in the home economic room, the transportation of parochial school children and the school budget for the coming year.

Bills of $5,471 were approved for payment.

Investigate Accidents

CLINTON — Clinton police investigated three accidents in the area over the weekend.

John E. Schmenk, Jr., 34, of Milan was given a summons for improper overtaking when his car collided with a car driven by John P. Penterics, 37, of 6820 Clinton-Macon Rd., Saturday afternoon.

The mishap occurred on Clinton-Macon Rd. one-half mile east of Billmeyer Hwy., as Mr. Penteric was preparing to turn into a private drive on his right.

Mr. Schmenk told Clinton State Police that he started to pass on the right because he thought Mr. Penteric was turning left.

LESTER E. LEE, 58, of 404 Allis St., Adrian, received a summons for failure to yield the right of way when his car collided with a car driven by Catherine V. Coffey, 17, of 8950 Carson Hwy.

The collision occurred at 8 p.m. Sunday at the intersection of M-50 and M-52.

JULIAN R. DIAZ, 32, of 606 S. Pearl St., was ticketed July 17, by Clinton State Police for speeding when he lost control of his vehicle and ran off Billmeyer hwy. into a corn field owned by Herbert Long, where the car overturned. He was not injured.

Magazine Pleases Dunhams

CLINTON — Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dunham had a pleasant surprise recently when they received a copy of the May issue of The Record, the fraternal publication of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

A statement of Christian faith by their son Paul Dunham, Jr., appeared in a symposium entitled "Christian Commitment and the Fraternity Man — A Challenge," by Peter E. Gillquist, Illinois Director of Campus Crusades for Christ.

In the published article, Mr. Dunham describes how he became interested in the Campus Crusade movement while he was on the faculty at the University of California at Berkeley in 1962.

Since that time he has dedicated his time to the Campus Crusade work with college students.

He has recently been engaged in doctoral work in summer school at the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville, Ark., and is now spending several weeks studying the Bible at the Campus Crusade Headquarters at Arrowhead Springs in San Bernadino, Calif.

Paul is a graduate of Clinton High School, a graduate of Denison College, Ohio, and attended New York University, Columbia University and the University of California.

Talent Appears at 'Stage'

CLINTON — Among the talented young people who appeared recently at The Stage in Adrian were Audrey Wight and Daniel Mieduch of Clinton.

Auburn-haired Audrey is a singer of classic folk songs in a hauntingly plaintive manner which appeals to audiences of all ages.

Audrey, 18, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Wight of Clinton, is a 1965 graduate of Clinton High School where she was an outstanding flute soloist and a member of the girls' quartet. She will attend the University of Michigan this fall.

Miss Wight was accompanied by the able guitarist, Danny Mieduch, also a 1965 graduate of Clinton High School.

Danny, 18, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mieduch, operators of the Pike Inn west of Clinton.

Danny demonstrated his artistic ability throughout his high school years by painting backgrounds for a J-Hop and sets for the Band Follies shows.

His life-like construction of a steer animal was used in the award-winning F.H.A. display shown in February at the Farmer's Week exhibit.

Danny will attend Michigan State University this fall.

Clinton Man Married in Kent, Ohio Service

CLINTON — A wedding of local interest took place July 10 in the Kent Methodist Church in Kent, Ohio, uniting in marriage Nancy Oden Budke of St. Louis, Mo., and Charles William Judge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Judge of Wamplers Lake, Brooklyn, formerly of Clinton.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Robert J. Budke of St. Louis and the late Dr. Budke.

Dr. Carl Pierson, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony at 2:30 p.m.

A sister of the bride, Mary Jane Budke of St. Louis, was the maid of honor.

Kenneth D. Brummel of Westport, Conn., was the best man.

Julie Judge of Inkster, a niece of the bridegroom, was the flower girl. The bridegroom's brothers, Thomas Judge of Inkster and John Judge of Toledo were ushers.

A reception for 200 guests was held at the Twin Lakes Country Club after the ceremony.

The couple spent a week in northern Michigan and at Mackinac Island before returning to their home at 250 River St., in Kent.

The bride is a graduate of MacMurray College in Jacksonville, Ill. She is studying for her master's degree in psychology at Kent State University.

Judge, a Clinton High School graduate, received his B.A. degree from Michigan State University. He is employed at Kent State University as coordinator of residence hall food service.

Research in Britain

CLINTON — The Rev. Jack Warner, minister of St. Michaels and All Angels' Church in Cambridge Junction is in England and Ireland researching the life of the Rev. William N. Lyster, the subject of a book he is writing.

The Rev. Warner was a lay missionary serving St. John's Episcopal Church in Clinton from 1948 until 1953 when he went to St. Michael's.

The Rev. Lyster was born in Ireland. He was the first minister of St. Michael's Church and directed the building of the church.

He was also a minister in the St. John's Church in Clinton where a social hall addition was named Lyster Hall in his honor in recent years. It was the Rev. Lyster who named the Irish Hills.

FROM JULY 19 until August 17, Rev. Warner will be taking classes at St. Augustine Monastery and Missionary College, Canterbury in County Kent, England.

His scholarship, from the Episcopal Church Diocese, is for courses in the field of religion and the school is well known for its excellence in Church history.

He will be visiting Winchester, England, where his mother was born. Mrs. Warner will fly to London Aug. 25 to join her husband.

The five Warner children are Mrs. Larry Roback, Sherilynn, Keetha, Lauren and Richard.

Roy Schwartz Visits Relatives While on Leave

CLINTON — Airman Roy Schwartz, who has been stationed at Kessler Field, Biloxi, Miss., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Ellsworth Rathke, in Dundee and friends and relatives in the Clinton area.

He will report Aug. 8 at San Francisco for an assignment to the Phillipine Islands. He will visit en route with his aunt and family, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Bingham, in Tuscon, Ariz.

Were You Promised Help?

"So far in 1965 I have met with Tecumseh residents on several occasions," Senator Gil Bursley said. "I have seen some of them on visits to Lansing and I have received a great many letters expressing opinions on legislation.

"Most people have written about 'moral' issues such as Sunday liquor sales, but this is only a small segment of Tecumseh," Senator Bursley said.

"Just because a don't hear from you can't mean that you're satisfied with everything your government is doing. So let me ask some questions," Senator Bursley said.

"After the Palm Sunday tornado politicians at all levels flew over and drove through disaster stricken areas. Promises were made about dollar assistance, tax relief, and replacement supplies and materials," Senator Bursley said, "and I have a distinct impression that little has actually been received by the persons affected.

"Would any of you who have received aid from government — federal, state or local — or from private agencies such as the American Red Cross write and tell me what help you were given?

"Or if you were promised something, or led to believe you would get something and didn't, then write me on that point also," Senator Bursley said.

"There will be more disasters in the future and the responsible approach for government is to have plans ready in advance and not run around like a chicken with its head cut off after the damage is done," Senator Bursley said.

State Fair Seeks Art for Contest

All resident artists of Michigan are eligible this year to enter original works in the Art Exhibition at the State Fair, which opens Aug. 27.

In previous years, artists must have won awards at regional museum or gallery exhibitions in the state.

Besides opening up the exhibition to all of the state's artists, the show has been expanded to three classes. They are oil-based media, water color-based media, and prints.

Three prizes are to be awarded in each class, $135, $100 and $75.

One entry is allowed from each artist. Only works not previously shown at the State Fair are acceptable. Entry fee, which must accompany the entry blank, is $3.

Entry blanks can be obtained from:

Mrs. Paline Harris,
Community Arts Department director,
State Fair,
Detroit, Mich., 48203.

Please specify Fine Arts entry blanks.

GOP Women To Have Meeting

Bee Keepers Celebrate

The year 1965 may be an important year for American military historians since it was the year the Civil War ended, but it is also important to the Michigan Beekeepers Association.

In 1865 the Association was formed, and to the organization's knowledge this makes it the oldest state agricultural organization that has been in continuous operation in Michigan.

The Michigan Beekeepers celebrated the momentous occasion with a Tri-State beekeepers' meeting in Adrian last weekend. Beekeepers were present from Indiana and Ohio as well as from other parts of the United States.

Dr. Howard Potter, chairman of the chemistry department at Alma College, spoke at the meeting on historical highlights of the Michigan Association.

★

THE MICHIGAN bee industry got its big boost in the late 1800's when fires which followed the logging operations burned across the upper portion of the lower Peninsula.

These extensive fires burned thousands of acres of brush and undergrowth. Later the burn-out became overgrown in many areas with fireweed and wild raspberry plants.

These two plants became large sources of a uniquely flavored honey which was in great demand at that time. Many commercial beekeepers shipped colonies of bees to northern Michigan by railroad flatcar in order to take advantage of the fireweed and wild raspberry nectar.

However, beekeeping in Michigan is not all history. The majority of the program for the coming Tri-State convention will be concerned with the problems and developments in the modern beekeeping industry.

Today bees are an essential part of Michigan's agricultural economy.

★

MOST MAJOR Michigan crops need to be pollinated by insects. Many commercial beekeepers specialize in renting colonies of bees to orcardists and specialized crop growers during the summer months.

Blueberries, cucumbers and melons, and most fruits are among the major crops which have pollen grains too heavy to be transported by wind.

Bees also play a part in horticultural research efforts and in the production of specialty seeds such as clover, carrots, and onions.

Most of the 9 million pounds of commercial honey produced in Michigan comes from alfalfa and other plants in the clover family.

These light, mild honeys are very much in demand for table use. Other types of honey which occur in Michigan come from basswood trees and goldenrod.

Nation-wide topics in the Tri-State meeting program include talks on USDA research in beekeeping, farm organizations, problems with pesticides, bee breeding, and a look at beekeeping's future.

Eloise Berchtold of circus fame has returned to the Toledo Zoo with a brand new series of acts — trained lions, tigers, bears and other wild animals.

THE LANSING REPORT FROM senator GIL BURSLEY

People are very interested in what the Legislature's increased appropriation to the School Aid Fund means to their own school districts.

Let me explain the basis for the increase and then list the dollar amounts which Lenawee school districts received in the current year and what they will receive in the coming year.

Presently the state is paying $236.50 per pupil less 4¼ mills based on the property valuation per pupil in the district.

We have increased state aid to $255 less 4.8 mills.

We have also raised community college support to $380 per pupil adjusted against a $14,500 property valuation figure. These figures were obtained from the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Transportation and special education had been supported by the state on an 87.8% basis according to a mathematical formula. The state will now support these programs 100%.

In dollars this means to Lenawee School Districts as follows:

For Adrian $1,120,883, old figures will be in parenthesis, ($1,002,884); transportation $42,340 ($37,601); special education $46,268 ($44,372).

For Addison $243,759 ($226,363); transportation $34,186 ($30,360).

For Britton-Macon $118,249 ($109,797); transportation $14,094 ($12,516).

For Blissfield $404,169 ($375,336); transportation $47,473 (42,160); special ed $7,331 ($6,216).

For Clinton $226,572 ($199,172); transportation $17,353 ($15,411) special ed $4,257 ($3,739).

For Deerfield $61,451 ($75,650); transportation $10,444 ($9,275); special ed $3,547 ($3,075).

For Hudson $324,086 ($283,096); transportation $23,982 ($21,298); special ed $8,041 ($6,981).

For Madison $223,416 ($198,947); transportation $17,706 ($15,719); special ed $3,54[illegible] 075).

For Morenci $233,039 ($212,437); transportation $24,179 ($21,473); special ed $3,074 ($2,152).

For Onsted $267,729 ($239,007); transportation $34,840 ($30,940); special ed $11,588 ($10,056).

For Prairie School $36,676 ($34,083); transportation $3,393 ($3,014).

For Sand Creek $235,573 ($203,121); transportation $28,716 ($25,502); special ed $1,678 ($777).

For Tecumseh $698,041 (...615,929); transportation $58,601 (52,043); special ed $10,548 ($8,576).

Last Saturday I had the first of my Senate Citizen Meetings at the Adrian Federal Savings & Loan Association on West Chicago Blvd. in Tecumseh.

I plan more of these meetings on succeeding Saturdays in Lenawee County and everyone is welcome.

MAJORETTES ATTEND CAMP — A week of hard work and practice was spent by these five Tecumseh High School majorettes at the Smith-Walbridge Midwest Majorette Camp in Syracuse, Ind. Those attending the camp for classes in twirling, pom pom dance and twirl routines, flag twirling and marching were, standing left to right: Mary Blumerick, Janice Reed and Debbie Black; and kneeling, Beth Frownfelder, left, and Linda Bush.

Ladd Is Lost to Roller Skate Team

After qualifying for the North American Roller Skating Championships by placing third in the Great Lakes Regionals in Euclid, Ohio, July 5, the men's relay team had their hopes dashed Saturday.

Howard Ladd of Weston, one of the members on the team discovered he had a small broken bone in his foot after he finished last week's event.

Other members of the team which placed third in the men's speed event are Larry Flowers of Tecumseh and Darell and Jerry Jardine of Adrian.

Jerry's wife, Dena, placed third in the Senior Ladies' speed skating event an dalso qualified for the national event.

Mr. and Mrs. Flowers and Jerry and Darell Jardine will go to Lincoln, Neb., the week of July 24-31. The men's only chance now to get into the competition will be as alternates for some other team.

The North American championship will feature the best 1800 skaters in the continent. It will be covered by ABC-TV's Wide World of Sports.

Roosters Lose Their Jobs at Children's Summer Camp

With 266 eight to 12 year-old boys, there is no need for crowing roosters or alarm clocks to help awaken everyone at the Children's Summer Camp on Sand Lake.

Dan Piloseno is director of the camp which was formerly called Local 12 Summer Camp.

It is now known as Children's Summer Camp and is operated by a board of governors and interested persons, both local and from Toledo.

There are 35 counselors to conduct the many activities.

Boys of all races and creeds participate in a busy summer program which includes fishing, skating, canoeing, boxing, track, tennis, cookouts, and archery.

The water front is an especially busy place when the swimming weather is good.

Cabin softball teams are organized and many exciting games are played each week.

Winning an honors award for the cleanest cabin is sometimes complicated by a previous raw egg toss.

Memories of the week at camp will remain long after the boys have returned to their homes in the city.

"Truth" Subject at Christian Science

"Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou are the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day."

This supplication from Psalms will begin this Sunday's Bible Lesson at all Christian Science churches. The subject of "Truth" will be explored with particular emphasis on the teachings of Christ Jesus.

Mrs. Ned Baldwin Named Chapeau of Petit Salon

Mrs. Ned Baldwin was named chapeau at the July 13 meeting of the Petit Salon Eight et Forty.

Mrs. Fred Westfall was hostess for the dessert luncheon at her home in Adrian.

Officers named with Mrs. Baldwin are:

Mrs. Harriet Bliss of Milan, Mrs. Westfall, Mrs. Albert Bagshaw, Mrs. Percy Bowen and Mrs. Alice Schneider of Tecumseh and Mrs. Harold Noling of Adrian.

Bridge prizes were won by Mrs. Schneider, Mrs. Westfall and Mrs. Margaret Aebersold.

The next meeting will be Aug. 10 with the hostess to be announced.

If you have considered moving up to Cadillac, this summer is the perfect time to act. Whether you travel across town or across America, nothing can equal a new or used Cadillac for luxury, comfort, value and performance.

Many wonderful pleasures go with you wherever you go in a Cadillac. You enjoy Cadillac's unique performance — silken, quiet, instantly responsive — with its big V-8 engine and Turbo Hydra-Matic transmission. You get comfort that only Cadillac owners can fully appreciate. And, of course, there's the luxury and graciousness that only Cadillac can provide. On the practical side, there's the satisfaction of knowing that Cadillac operating costs are the envy of many less distinguished cars — and that Cadillac holds its value better than any other car built in the land. Whether you select a new 1965 Cadillac or one that has seen previous service, you know you travel with the finest. For a new or used Cadillac, see your nearest authorized Cadillac dealer. His reputation for customer attention and his quality service will make you both proud and happy as the owner of the Standard of the World.

A Touch of the Past

The Michigan Republican, edited by Smith W. Hobart in Adrian, is about to make its appearance in Adrian.

1865

Exercises of alumni were held in Merchants Hall Friday afternoon and evening with O. P. Bills as orator.

Enamel turn-down, paper collars are the order of the day.

A severe hail storm visited this vicinity Sunday. Stones as large as butternuts damaged the crops, especially wheat.

Ferner Palmer of Hillsdale County has purchased the Cobb farm of 126 acres on the Ridge.

1875

Public schools close this week for two months.

The crowd in town Saturday was tremendous. Better than show day.

The Globe Mill fleet now consists of 11 pleasure boats.

James A. Bell and his brother S. W. Bell are to establish an extensive soap factory in Toledo, with Limerick soap as their specialty.

1885

The first alumni reunion of Clinton High School was held Friday evening.

A watering place is being erected in Ridgeway.

Heesen Bros. have filed application for a trademark for the Wolverine Hog Ringer.

Cumming St. is being turnpiked and graded.

The village board of health has ordered all cases of contagious disease to be quarantined for 30 days.

1895

The vicinity hereabouts is suffering from a severe drouth. Hay is hardly worth cutting, wheat and oats are poor and the pastures are rapidly drying up.

New iron bridges are being built across the Macon River near the sawmill and by Wesley Pennington's place.

The Britton Journal has again changed hands. It will be printed at Deerfield with Harvey Welling in charge of the Britton department.

Monroe layed the cornerstone for a new armory, July 4.

1905

The D.T.&I. excursion to Detroit Sunday carried 13 full passenger coaches.

Bids are being taken for an addition to the Methodist Church.

George W. Knapp is now established in Deering, Alaska. He crossed the Arctic Circle twice to get there.

1915

A new concrete bridge has been built over Evans Creek in Franklin Township north of the Richardson place.

1925

The Baptist Church has extended a call to the Rev. Warren E. Jackson of Birmingham.

Camilla Hayden sailed Saturday from Montreal on a trip to England and the European countries.

1935

A spectacular fire on M-50, 2½ miles west of the village Wednesday, destroyed a gasoline truck and two trailers loaded with 5,902 gallons of fuel. State police averted an explosion by shooting holes in the tanks.

The First Presbyterian Church of Raisin is celebrating its 100th anniversary.

1945

Consideration is being given to a plan to remove the center parkway from half of each block at the east and west ends of Chicago Blvd.

W. D. Moats, superintendent of the Clinton Schools, has purchased the Clinton Ice Cream Parlor from William Clack and with his wife and family will operate the business.

Brookmeade Subdivision, Tecumseh's largest housing development, will have room for 840 houses on the Brookside Farm property. The land was owned by Birdsley J. Bidwell and his heirs for 75 years until about 1835. Coming to Tecumseh in 1838, Bidwell became a pillar of the community with a thriving farm produce commission business. He built the business block now housing the Palman stores and operated a horse farm and race track on the farm land where the homes are to be built.

Lightning set fire to a lamp in the bedroom of the Byron Covell home in Britton Sunday afternoon causing extensive damage. Mrs. Covell burned her hands attempting to put the fire out. The couple lived with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Covell in Clinton until repairs could be made on their house.

Recruiting Drive Started by Michigan State Police

Young men interested in a fine career should not overlook the present opportunity to become a Michigan State Police trooper, according to Sgt. Carl Anderson, commander of the Clinton State Police post.

A new recruiting drive is now under way to enroll 200 additional troopers authorized by the legislature upon the recommendation of Governor Romney.

To speed up the examination process 18 officers have been assigned as special recruiters to conduct field physical tests and, through the cooperation of the state civil service commission, supervise the written tests.

Young men between 21 and 29 years of age, married or single, five feet 10 inches in height with weight in proportion, and with a high school education or its equivalent are eligible to apply.

For full information and application blanks they should go to any State Police post or write to the civil service commission in Lansing.

"This is a wonderful career," Sgt. Andehson said, "the pay is good and now even better with a new increase.

"In addition, there is a subsistence allowance, two paid annual vacations, paid sick leave, free uniforms, five-day week and a fine pension plan which permits the officer to retire at the end of only 25 years of service with a pension of half pay that also protects the wife.

"Best of all, this is an interesting and challenging career that never becomes monotonous," Sgt. Anderson said.

"Troopers are respected and looked up to and they also have the satisfying feeling that they are performing a needed and valuable public service.

"Every young man should examine this opportunity," Sgt. Anderson said.

The Toledo Zoological Society has already spent $1 million on its $5 million Master Plan for an all moats — no bars zoo.

Tom Hicks Gets All A's at MSU

Thomas R. Hicks, son of Mrs. Wilma E. Sisty and Mr. Troy Hicks, both of Tecumseh, received a perfect 4.00 grade-point average for this past spring term at Michigan State University.

He will be a senior this fall and is majoring in sociology.

Mr. Hicks was salutatorian of the graduating class of 1962 at Tecumseh High School, and he will attend the university's All-A Dinner given by MSU President John Hannah.

Farm Bureau Group Discusses Milk Bill

Eight families attended the June meeting of the Jolly Farmers Farm Bureau Group when milk was the discussion topic.

The meeting was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Willmott with Lawrence Young presiding.

Mr. Willmott led the discussion and told the group that the Fair Trade Milk Bill in Lansing had been tabled until the fall. This bill would prohibit milk from being sold for less than cost.

It was concerned with protecting small dairies from being pushed out of business.

Many farmers in the area are refraining from shopping at local stores who took a public stand in this issue.

It was pointed out that the dairy farmer now receives eight cents a quart for milk as compared to four cents 50 years ago.

Some of the things brought to attention were:

Two-thirds of the people of the world lack sufficient food.

In food-scarce countries the average calories per day per person are 900 below normal.

About 95% of the food-scarce lands lie in the Far East, with 62% being in Communist-controlled Asia.

Hungry people are desperate people — ripe for agitation and ready to grasp at any political promises.

In the meantime, American farms have helped to supply food to these backward people hoping to teach them to be self-supporting in the future.

The group enjoyed ice cream, cake and cookies.

Malcolm Bagshaws Visit from California

Dr. and Mrs. Malcomb Bagshaw and three children came from Stanford, Calif., to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bagshaw, and to attend the National Soaring Contest.

The visitors entertained a group of glider pilot friends from California last week.

The two Bagshaw families are spending the week at Lake Matinenda, Ont.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

ACROBATICS, INC.

Well, the antics of our high-flying, fast running squirrels continue. These tree-climbing acrobats surprise us with new tricks every day — so good is the looking that it is no wonder my list of things to do grows longer and longer while the pile of magazines and books to read gets higher and higher.

Any troupe of acrobats worth its salt contains dare-devils who specialize in high-wire work and their act always holds an element of danger. The other day, it almost happened — we came within a tiny squirrel's foot of having a serious accident.

Two youngsters were playing their favorite game, a combination of tag and follow-the-leader, and where else was their playground but high in the top of the wren tree.

The branches are thin, affording practically no footings, and the pace of the game was furious. They were racing along with the skill which the most expert tightrope performer would envy when suddenly one slipped.

We gasped in horror as the little body fell. Head first, with long bushy tail streaming behind, tragedy seemed inevitable.

★

HOWEVER, as he plummeted past an almost twig-size limb, a little back foot reached out, held tight and the squirrel swung up to safety. His playmate came racing down and the game was resumed as if nothing out of the ordinary had happened at all.

The corn-tree sits on a base of two narrow boards with four braces placed diagonally to act as props to hold the tree upright. This makes a dandy Jungle Jim and our crazy squirrel spends hours running through, over and around.

Placing an empty sun-flower head nearby doubles the fun. As he wrestles with the head, holding it with all four paws, somersaulting, twisting, kicking and rolling, the action is very funny to watch.

Suddenly the head is dropped and he rushes to attack the corn tree — he jumps at it, tumbles on the base and scrambles over the empty corn cobs. Jumping stiff-legged to the ground, hopping around in a squirrely attempt to imitate a rabbit, trying a few flips or turn-overs in the air, then he is back at the sun-flower head. It must be fun to be a squirrel!

★

ON THESE HOT days, and especially after such strenuous playtimes, even squirrels must rest. It is not at all uncommon to see one sprawled out on a limb or fence rail — chin resting [illegible] legs dangling limp (the right front and back legs on one side, the left on the other) and his long bushy tail draped any which way.

This pose looks comfortable. One day though we saw one which looked anything but. Like a little fur neck-piece, which had been carelessly tossed over the back of a chair, the squirrel had hung himself over a limb — head and front legs draped on one side with his tail and back legs over the other. Ouch. He seemed perfectly at ease but certainly he didn't look comfortable.

There is just time to mention one last acrobatic feat (oops, please excuse the pun) at which all our squirrels are expert.

It is the easiest thing in the world for them to grab hold of a limb and hang upside down for incredibly long periods of time. Now that the mulberries are ripe, we can see four or five squirrels hanging in the tree almost any time.

Perhaps things taste better in such an outlandish position but I strongly suspect that the real answer to such behavior is that the tastiest berries grow far out on the tiny limbs.

So it is that there is plenty of action, thanks to Acrobats, Inc.

Picnic Luncheon Features Meeting of Garden Club

The Tecumseh Garden Club met for a picnic luncheon July 16 at the home of Ann Carson on E. Logan St. The officers assisted the hostess.

The 16 members present enjoyed seeing pictures of Mrs. Paul Maves' garden. The group will not meet in August.

Adrian Reader To Hold Service at St. Peters

A lay reader from Christ Adrian, will be in charge of the 8 a.m. service in the St. Peter's Episcopal Church July 25.

The Rev. Donald Heacock of St. John's Episcopal Church at Clinton will be the celebrant for the 10 a.m. Holy Communion service.

Michael Rohrer To Attend Army Program in Kansas

FORT RILEY, KAN. — Cadet Michael D. Rohrer, son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Rohrer, 604 Center Dr., Tecumseh, is attending an extensive six-week training program at Fort Riley, Kan., ending Aug. 7.

Cadet Rohrer will be given advanced training in the military subjects he has been studying at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor under the Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC).

While at Fort Riley, he will be trained in various military subjects which will give him the skills necessary to take command.

Upon completion of the senior course the cadets can choose any of the technical or combat branches of the Army in which to specialize.

Those cadets who have already received college degrees will be commissioned second lieutenants upon the completion of the summer training.

The 21-year-old soldier is a 1962 graduate of Tecumseh High School. He is a member of scabbard and Blade society and the National Association of Pershing Rifles.

Mr. Richard Krebs Volunteers Help for Convention

Mr. Richard Krebs presiding minister of the Tecumseh Congregation, will be one of many volunteering his services for the Annual District Convention of Jehovah's Witnesses in Buffalo, N.Y.

"We have been looking forward to this event since last summer," Mr. Krebs said, "and many of us are volunteering our services to make it a success."

About 20,000 are expected to attend the convention that will run Aug. 12-15 in Buffalo's Memorial Auditorium.

Mr. Krebs said all sessions will be free and open to the public.

Calling all fishermen! There is the perfect spot for you here in Arkansas. At the Ozark Trout Farm, midway between Springdale and Fayetteville, a person can enjoy the utmost in rainbow trout fishing.

No license is required and the farm furnishes poles and bait and will even bait your hook if you desire.

The owners will also clean, free of charge, all the trout you catch, pack them in plastic bags and ice them. You pay your way out at $1.25 per pound of fish you've caught.

This farm is the largest of its kind in Arkansas, having been in continuous operation for over 25 years. The eggs are hatched at the farm and the fish swim in cold, spring-fed streams.

The owners claim that this mountain water gives these trout "unsurpassed flavor, firmness and color".

★

OUR YOUNGSTERS had a grand time feeding the fish Purina fish pellets. The ares made by these colorful fish as they leaped for the food were beautiful.

A catch is almost certain as the supply of fish is abundant. We were told that when heavy rains cause the streams to swell and send some of these, prize specimens into public waters the local anglers have a ball. It's probably a case of good news spreading like a rash.

Did you ever hear of "Coin" Harvey? Did any of you support the Liberty Party in the election of 1932?

If so, you were one of 50,000 who cast their vote for this man for President of the United States. This colorful person left his imprint on Northwest Arkansas.

With newly-made friends we traveled down highway 94 to a place called Monte Ne. We wanted to see what remains of Coin Harvey's once-famous attempt to do something for a civilization he was convinced was dying.

William Hope Harvey (1851-1936) was a Chicago lawyer and a good friend of William Jennings Bryan. He supported his friend in politics and after Bryan's defeat in 1896 Harvey was convinced that our society was going to pot.

He bought 320 acres of wilderness near Rogers and came to the Ozark Mountains. The plans were to build a giant pyramid which would contain objects of our civilization. It was to be a lesson to people to come.

Today at Monte Ne, which means "mountains of water", one sees the remains of a posh hotel and an outdoor ampitheatre.

The hotel was built of squared oak logs and named Oklahoma Row. It received guests from imported Venetian gondolas which floated on a small lagoon.

★

WE WERE TOLD that these gondolas met the trains and the oarsmen sang as they guided the gondolas under arched bridges and sweeping trees to the hotel. A large portico received the guests after they walked up a gently sloping bank.

This was the sight in 1920. Now the channels are weedy and overgrown and stagnant water has left an ugly green moss.

However, if the visitor uses his imagination he can still see those wealthy dowagers and their rich gentlemen escorts arriving in the colorful gondolas to spend a holiday at Monte Ne.

The ampitheater is actually the base of what was to have been the pyramid, the plans for which never quite came off.

The foyer was built and eventually the entire ampitheatre was to be covered by the towering structure.

The theatre is still impressive although almost in complete ruin. Concrete and stone benches set into the natural hillside form tiered rows for spectators.

Clearly visible are several box seats and openings which perhaps were used as dressing rooms for actors.

It was on these benches that the delegates sat when Harvey was nominated for President.

He was 80 at the time and the Liberty Party was his own creation. He wrote its platform, stressing the free silver issue on which he was an extremist.

★

THE CIRCULAR STAGE is an island. The water surrounding it is part of the lagoon and featured water lilies and graceful swans in its heyday.

Still to be seen on the stage is an enormous stone couch flanked by two stone "occasional chairs". One can only guess at the other furniture and props which might have been used.

The pity of Monte Ne is that most of it is soon to be under water.

The Beaver Dam project at Eureka Springs, Ark., will cause the White River to back up over Coin Harvey's idyllic playground.

The hotel itself is being relocated bit by bit at a sight farther away.

But speculation is that another year will allow Davey Jones to stage plays in Coin's ampitheatre. The water is already visible from the area.

We're glad we got to this historic spot ahead of the rising water. We could almost feel a faint pulse of its resort life as it must have been in the 1920's.

Guests on 4th

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Merritt, sons Steve and Kim, and daughter Brenda of Mabel, Minn., spent the Fourth of July weekend visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Osborne and relatives in Milan.

July 3 a picnic supper was given by Mr. and Mrs. Elton Osborne for the Merritts.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Osborne and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Osborne and daughters, evening guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hendershot and sons of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Hendershot and son Philip of Tecumseh. The Merritts formerly lived near Milan.

2 Products Men Killed

Two men were killed and seven persons were injured in a two-car accident at the intersection of M-52 and US-223 at about 6:08 Thursday morning.

Killed were:

Gilbert Martinez, 38, of Delta, O., and Paul O'Leary, 36, of Lyons, O.

Martinez, the driver of one car, and O'Leary were headed north on M-52, along with two other men, on their way to work at the Tecumseh Products when their car was struck by a car headed east on US-223.

The driver of the other car, Mildred S. Albaugh, 54, of Shepherd, passed through a red light at the intersection traveling between 30 and 35 miles per hour and struck the Martinez car.

Martinez was killed instantly and O'Leary was dead on arrival at Bixby Hospital in Adrian.

Other passengers in Martinez' car were Fred Bernath, 44, of Delta and Charles Stasa, 41, of Lyons.

Bernath was admitted to Bixby Hospital with five fractured ribs and Stasa was treated for cuts and bruises and released.

Mrs. Albaugh suffered cuts and bruises and was treated and released from the hospital.

Other passengers, all from Shepherd, in Mrs. Albaugh's car included:

Lula Breedlove, 60, who was admitted to the hospital with lacerations and possible internal injuries.

Mary Ann Blubaugh, 34, was suffering from shock and admitted to the hospital for observation.

Sally Ann Blubaugh, 9, was treated for minor injuries and released.

Joe Albaugh, 13, was also treated for minor injuries.

The accident is still under investigation and no tickets have been issued.

News from the Tecumseh Library

New fiction at your public library:

WANDERERS EASTWARD, WANDERERS WEST by Kathleen Winson, author of FOREVER AMBER. This is an absorbing, kaleidoscopic new novel that concentrates into a hectic twenty-year span the entire frontier and [illegible]lopment process of assorted oldsters and oddsters, ican history. The story of the rugged men who first found gold, silver and copper in the West, and the financial giants and rash speculators who exploited their findings in Wall Street.

LADIES OF THE RACHMANINOFF EYES by Henry Van Dykt. This novel presents a portrait of two elderly widows who have developed a kinship beyond the boundaries of class, wealth and race, and by virtue of their close association with one another for more than thirty years, do a great deal of bickering, fussing and affectionately loving each other, except for those mutually painful spells when they refuse to speak to each other altogether.

THE BOARDING HOUSE by William Trevor will delight readers who relish intelligence and maturity in their fiction. A group of assorted oldsters and addsters, whimsically selected by the owner, make up the boarding house clientele. In a final ironic gesture, Mr. Bird wills the house to the two candidates, male and female, most likely to disagree. Whether they will reconcile their feud, or whether one will outwit the other, supplies a problem in which the lives of all the boarders are intricately involved.

NICE TRY by Thomas Baird. This witty and corrosive satire on the art world moves swiftly and with mounting suspense from collectors' penthouses to avantgarde exhibitions to the tenement rooms of down-at-the-heels artists.

THE SUMMER THAT DIDN'T END, the story of the Mississippi Civil Rights Project of 1964 and its challenge to the future of America; by Len Holt.

THE BLUE HEN'S CHICK, a life in context. A. B. Guthrie's story in the great American tradition; no other time and no other land could have produced him, and nowhere else in the world could he have written the books that brought him the fame and success he worked so hard for, dared dream of, and finally deserved.

THE GENERAL NEXT TO GOD, the story of William Booth and the Salvation Army, by Richard Collier. The author has provided a marvelous marriage of astonishing research and dramatic journalism. The result is an informative and fascinating book.

CRISIS IN OUR CITIES by Lewis Herber. What happens when our sprawling, spreading, seething cities suck up the pure air and spew forth noxious poisons? What happens when millions of tons of sewage are dumped into the rivers and when the drinking water bubbles with detergents? These are some of the questions which are answered in this shocking examination of over-urbanization.

THE REBUILT MAN, the miracle of transplant surgery, the replacement of failing human organs with spare parts and the opening of a new frontier in medicine.

HOPE FOR THE CHILDLESS COUPLE by Maxine Davis. In this sensible, sympathetic book, the author not only reveals the many new approaches to the problem, and describes the various conditions that may cause it, but reports on treatments now available.

Rev. Van Winkle Returns to Michigan To Preach

Tecumseh residents will be interested to learn that the Rev. David L. Van Winkle will become the pastor of the St. Marks Presbyterian Church, Dearborn Heights on July 1.

Mr. Van Winkle was pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Ann Arbor for four years until 1962 when he became pastor of a church in Lockport, N.Y., where he has been since.

A native of Tecumseh, Mr. Van Winkle is a graduate of Tecumseh High School. He received his bachelor's degree at Eastern Michigan University.

He was ordained by the Presbytery of Detroit after his graduation from McCormick Theological Seminary, Chicago.

Mr Van Winkle and his wife, Julie, a former resident of Royal Oak, have two children Anne, 6, and Robert, 4.

The Rev. Van Winkle will be installed as minister of St. Marks Church July 25 at 7 p.m.

The Rev. George Walworth of Detroit, a former pastor of the Tecumseh Presbyterian Church will take part in the installation.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Van Winkle of E. Logan St. are the Rev. Van Winkle's parents.

o

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bryan entertained guests July 11 for dinner. They were Mr. and Mrs. John Bryan and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bryan and family of Onsted.

Prehistoric Forest Adds Mammoth Gift Shop

A gigantic gift shop has been added to the Prehistoric Forest attraction this year in the Irish Hills.

The shop is appropriately named The Mammoth Gift Shop alluding to the giant animal which stands nearby. A mammoth's head is hung above the entrance to the gift shop which offers a complete line of souvenirs, and gifts which defies description.

The mammoths were made by James Sidwell, artist sculpture, who with a crew of five talented people, made other figures of dinosaurs displayed in the thrilling Prehistoric Forest.

★

MR. SIDWELL designs and guides the manufacture of animals for Tourist Attractions, Inc., owners of six amusement attractions in Ohio, Tennessee and Florida.

The corporation has a plant in Murfreesboro, Tenn., where replicas of the Neanderthal Men, Mammoths and beasts with such jaw-breaker names as Ankylosaurous, are made for the various parks.

J. W. Pettit and L. C. Rogers of Adrian round out the management team of the novel entertainment business.

Visitors to the $100,000 Prehistoric Forest are taken on a safari train through the 20-acre heavily wooded area.

Armed with automatic weapons, the young passengers are soon startled by a huge dinosaur head rising above the tree tops.

So natural is the setting that it is hard to believe the animals are only replicas of ones which once walked the earth.

Their durable plastic hides are as close to the original texture as man is capable of imagining.

★

AFTER ENCOUNTERING two "live" dinosaurs visitors arrive at the pavilion station where picnic tables have been conveniently placed.

Leaving the station the guests go by foot with guides to view many of the strange creatures. Each animal has a recorded voice which tells about itself.

A swing into the world of 100 million years ago takes only 20 minutes, but visitors may stay as long as they wish.

Prehistoric Forest is located near the entrance to Hayes State Park, about 10 miles west of Clinton on US-12.

Long and Short

By TOM RIORDAN

Karen Golat Morgan was all aglow when she telephoned the news about Julie Parrish (nee Joyce Wilbar).

Karen, who is Mrs. Thomas Morgan, 711 Seneca St., recently spent two months on the West Coast with her husband's folks, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Morgan in Woodland Hills.

She was sworn to secrecy by Julie, with whom she had a delightful visit, until it all became official. And last week it did, so Karen was soon on the horn.

"Julie is going to have a lead part in Elvis Presley's next picture," Karen announced happily.

"The story is in The Hollywood Reporter," and she added there was a copy available.

From The Reporter came the item:

"Hal Wallis has boosted brunette beauty Julie Parrish from the minor part she played in 'Boeing, Boeing' to one of the top roles [illegible] opposite Elvis Presley in "Hawaiian Paradise," rolling in the Island July 26 under direction of Michael Moore for Paramount release.

"Miss Parrish now is being seen in Joseph E. Levine's 'Harlow.' "

Mrs. Morgan notes this version of Jean Harlow's life is the one starring Carrol Baker.

★

"HOW ABOUT your trip to the coast?" was a question for Karen.

It turned out to be a dream vacation, she reported and then she explained about contacting Miss Parrish, who for newcomers to town is a Tecumseh girl in Hollywood.

Karen was a 1959 graduate of Tecumseh High School and Julie a year earlier. Although there was this connection, Karen fretted that she'd get "the royal brush off" when she phoned Miss Parish.

The exact opposite happened.

Julie was thrilled with the call and asked where Karen was staying. Within 10 minutes she was ringing the front door bell of the Morgan home.

She took Karen to the Beverly Hilton, where a special show was being put together to honor Ed Wynn. The place was riff with stars and Karen's eyes bugged.

She met dress designer Edith Head and comedian Red Button. "He's a doll," was the way Karen describes Red.

"Oh, and I met Edd (Kookie) Bryne, too."

At the time, Julie told Karen that she was being considered for the part in the Presley film, but asked her to hold off telling anyone until it became official.

As it comes out, Julie auditioned for the role and was turned down. She had followed the directions of her coach, but the "Hawaiian Paradise" people decided this was over acting.

Julie was unhappy and so went to Mr. Wallis and pleaded her case, asking for a second chance and this time she'd do it as she thought the role should be played.

The second time around, she won the part.

★

AS JULIE labors in the islands, Karen still luxuriates in the memories of her trip to Hollywood.

It's a happy world.

Vandals Damage Church Bus Seats

Vandals are being sought for malicious damage inflicted Sunday on the school bus operated by the Church of Christ.

Rev. Edward Pistole reported to the Tecumseh police that 12 of 16 seats in the bus had been slashed and ruined while the bus was parked behind the church on E. Chicago Blvd.

Entry was gained through an unlocked rear door,

Interceptor Sewer To Help West Side

The $110,000 interceptor sewer being constructed along Evans Creek will relieve the sewage problem in the northwest and southwest sections of the city according to City Manager Cal Zorn.

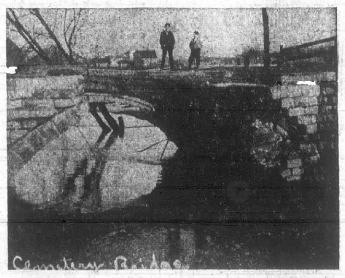
Construction on the sewer began last year and is scheduled to be completed early in the fall.

When finished, the sewer will be approximately 4,700 feet in length and will run from N. Maumee St. at Kiwanis Park to the lift station on W. Chicago and Sunset.

"This construction is basically for the development of the northwest section," Mr. Zorn said, "because it gives that section a sewage outlet that it didn't have before."

Another benefit of the interceptor sewer, according to Mr. Zorn, is that it will relieve the Logan St. main that has had to handle the sewage from the southwest section.

"We have also had complaints from people on Iroquois St. that their septic tanks aren't working," Mr. Zorn said, "this sewer will relieve that situation also."



DISCOVERY — The Union St. and Evans Creek bridge looked like this March 9, 1908, after the spring thaws caused heavy flooding and washed out the bridge. Workmen recently uncovered the bridge in their construction of the interceptor sewer. Photo and information supplied by Clara Waldron.

Ground Breaking Services Sunday at First Methodist

Ground breaking services will be held Sunday morning for the new sanctuary and church school educational unit of the First Methodist Church on the newly purchased site north of West Brown Street just west of the Red Mill Pond.

Construction of these two units on the five acre plot will cost approximately $350,000 with $125,000 raised in cash and pledges by members of the congregation in a highly successful Crusade for Christ conducted last Palm Sunday.

Mr. Carl Marr, of Marr and Marr Associates of Detroit, is the architect with Kreighoff-Lenawee Company of Adrian doing the construction.

Services on Sunday morning will begin with a specially called Quarterly Conference at 9:30 a.m. at which the members of the congregation will act on the final drawings from the architect.

At 10 a.m. the morning worship service will be held in a breviated form prior to the ground breaking ritual on the site at 11 a.m.

A number of specially invited guests will be in attendance at this ceremony along with members and friends of the Tecumseh Methodist Church.

$1,890 Taken Saturday from Rocket Tavern

Tecumseh's Rocket Tavern was rifled of $1,890 in cash early Saturday morning by a discriminating thief — or thieves — who disregarded both checks and change for bills.

Miss Peggy Hoyt, owner, reported the larceny to police when she opened Saturday morning at 7. She first believed the loss to be over $2,000.

Both the owner and police suspect an inside job as no evidence of entering from the outside was found.

A claw hammer was taken from a cooler and used to pry open the back door. An attempt to open the front door was unsuccessful.

Before leaving the tavern at 2:40 a.m., Miss Hoyt placed all of the money in a box in a rear storeroom. None of the checks, some of which were found on the floor, nor change were taken.

Four suspects have been questioned by the Tecumseh police, but all deny any knowledge of the crime.

Miss Hoyt reports the loss was not covered by insurance.

Pancake Race Winners Will Share $50 Prizes

All right, girls, now is the time to sign up for the annual Tecumseh Pan Cake Race.

It will be held Friday, Aug. 6, as part of annual Sidewalk Sale Days, with first prize worth $25. Second place will pay $15 and third $10. The cash is being Ante'd up by merchants.

Any woman, 18 or over, is eligible to compete and may sign up now at The Herald Office, which is across from the fire station. Irish Hills resorters are welcome to take part.

The race is patterned after the event staged yearly in Olney, England, for more than 500 years. It places emphasis on ability to sprint while carrying a pancake in a griddle and flip it over ribbons along the way.

There are four points on the track, which will run along Evans St., from Logan to Pottawatamie, where each entrant must make a toss-and-catch over the lines.

The race, which has attracted up to 4,000 spectators, is going to be just part of the fun Sidewalk Day. S. Evans St. will be blocked off from noon to 9 p.m. for children's games and street dancing to records and live music.

★

STARTING AT 9 a.m., merchants will fill the sidewalks with counters of merchandise, all priced to move in a hurry. The sale concludes at 9 p.m.

The chairmen planning the day's activities include John Day of Woolworth's, Mrs. Dorothy Osborne of Osborne's Department Store and Jim Merritt of Van-Mers Department Store.

Biggie Munn To Be Guest Speaker at MSU Roast Here

Biggie Munn, athletic director at Michigan State University, will be the feature speaker at the annual MSU-Lenawee County Alumni Corn and Steak Roast at Tecumseh Country Club, Aug. 10.

There will be golfing from 9 a.m. until dark. The meal will be held at the outdoor shed near the ninth tee if the weatherman cooperates.

Charlie Butler is general chairman. His committee includes:

Golf, Jim Hazen and Rex Willnow of Adrian and Don Moffatt of Tecumseh.

Cookout, Barnie Crittenden of Hudson, Jack Brown, Bob Stone, Paul Burns and William Quigley of Tecumseh.

Tickets at cookout, Bill Brown and Art Eaton of Tecumseh.

Program, Gordon Comfort, Dr. Carlos Knisley and Tom Riordan, with Jack Kinney and Bob Shackleton of MSU coordinating it.

Welcoming, Dr. Carlton Cook, Don Cobb, Cal Zorn and Dr. Don Phalen of Tecumseh.

Publicity, Mr. Butler and Mr. Riordan.

Heading the sale of tickets is James Robideau of Tecumseh, with Bob Ries, William Moeller, Art Geisenhaver and Hugh Andrews selling tickets at the Products.

Orville Laidlaw is handling ticket sales within the city and Mr. Eaton is covering rural Tecumseh.

The dinner will cost $5 and golf for non-members will cost $2.50.

This year, the group will initiate a scholarship program for needy youths in the county.

Besides Mr. Munn, about 20 members of the MSU coaching staff will be on hand for the festivities, Mr. Butler said.

FLOWERS, FLOWERS — Doris Carpenter stands among some of the flowers donated by merchants and visitors at the grand opening of the Harvey House Motel Sunday.

Open House Draws 600

Approximately 600 attended the grand opening of the Harvey House Motel Sunday.

"We are very pleased with the turn out and the reception the people gave us," Doris Carpenter said.

One of the guests, Shirley Crane, registered her address as Tucson, Ariz., in the guest book.

Mrs. Crane lives in Adrian in the summer months and returns to Tucson for the winter.

The open house was supposed to last from 2-5 p.m. but Mrs. Carpenter said there were still people there at 7 p.m.

Coffee, iced tea, lemonade and cookies were served in the meeting room to the guests and two rooms on each floor were open for inspection.

"I've never heard so many compliments at one time," Ron Rentschler, multi-purpose employee at the motel, said.

Mrs. Carpenter said they received about 33 bouquets of flowers from the visitors, and Claude's Plumbing and Heating supplied them with a red rose and white bud vase for every unit.

"I would like to thank everyone for the flowers and for being so wonderful and helpful to us in getting the motel ready," Mrs. Carpenter said.

"I would especially like to thank the waitresses from Harvey's Grill for their help as hostesses," Mrs. Carpenter said.

Many guests who patronize the grill regularly didn't recognize the girls out of their white uniforms.

"People were surprised to see the girls so dressed up, and they didn't recognize Harvey because he wore a suit and not a white apron," Mrs. Carpenter said.

Two Are Injured by Hamster Bites

Pet hamsters have apparently gone on the rampage here with two ladies suffering bites, one of whom is under observation after the hamster died.

Mrs. Doris Bauer and Bonnie Strahle, Sand Lake, were victims of the tiny animals.

The hamster which bit Miss Strahle was sent to East Lansing Wednesday for a rabies test. The other animal is living and is confined.

BEHIND PAGE ONE

Equal space is being requested by Joe Erbs, a guest at the Harvey House Motel. Mr. Erbs is the second guest to register at the motel and wishes to be mentioned just as W. P. Anderson was for being the first guest to register. Both men are employed by J. W. Webb Co. in Cleveland, Ohio.

That was a moving story and picture in the Friendly Free Press regarding the military funeral of Lieut. William Brown. It concluded with a remark by "an old man" that, "there are men buried here from the Civil War, both World Wars and the Korean conflict, now Vietnam — and there probably will be more." Unidentified in the story, the old man turned out to be Mel Partridge, who is chairman of the Brookside Cemetery Board.

And when is the government going to provide GI insurance for our servicemen?

Blithesome Bill came up with a pretty good one Tuesday. He says that marriage is just another union that defies management.

Beth was back with the babies but only momentarily. Beth Satterthwaite, Tecumseh's beloved mat[illegible]ard nurse, had to make a brief stay at her old haunts, Herrick Memorial Hospital, and, bless 'em, her co-workers in white bunked her upstairs with all the new, little cherubs. Presently Beth is recuperating at her home on N. Union.

"Did you ever see an old hen and chickens blossom," said the voice on the phone? For a second, visions of baby chicks with nasturtiums on their heads and the old hen with a hat of daisies went through our thoughts. But Mrs. Hugh Walter was speaking about the garden variety. She found peculiar looking blossoms and discovered they were on her cactus plant.

A take-off on "My Fair Lady" is being readied by some energetic members of Tecumseh Country Club for one performance Aug. 28. Called "My Fairway Lady," it's to be a spoof on husband-wife golfing with new words penned to the hit songs.

Did Julie Andrews really call Mrs. Dick Myers?. An English-accented voice wanted to know if Mrs. Myers' sons, David and Jack, thought her number with the jaw-breaker name from "Mary Poppins" was more pleasing than Beatle tunes. Mrs. Myers said, "This can't be Julie Andrews," to which the caller replied, "Nobody believes me." Then she said, to clinch the authenticity of the call, she would send a copy of the record to Mrs. Myers, who now meets the postman every day.

Want to buy a school? There are two for sale Saturday. The Springville school in the Onsted district, just east of Springville on M-50, will be auctioned off at 1 p.m., and the Rome Center School will be sold at 3 p.m.

A Tecumseh matron in the beauty salon was amazed to hear the operator pronounce a Spanish word so well and inquired where she had studied the language. "I'm Spanish," replied the beautician. This same surprised matron is searching for her navy blue corduroy raincoat. Anyone finding same could please Gin Murray by calling her at 423-3357.

Ronald Coleman is coming to Tecumseh. Well, he is in Tecumseh. His address is 916 River Acres Drive. The gals in The Herald office were stunned when our youthful editor, Phil Pierson, didn't know who Ronald Coleman was! Oh, well — he's only 21 — we told ourselves, sadly.

KIT CARSON, folk hero and man, a biography of the great frontiersman and scout by Noel B. Gerson.

THE DU PONTS OF DELAWARE. This story of the du Ponts reads like a romantic historical novel, but it all true. Setting on the Brandywine River in Delaware, more than 160 years ago, this aristocratic, controversial and powerful tribe now numbers 1600 members scattered all over the country. They are richer than the Rockefellers, the Vanderbilts, the Mellons, or the Astors.

COLD FRIDAY by Whittaker Chambers. Those who know Whittaker Chambers only as a figure in the Hiss case will make some discoveries about his in this moving book.

MR. KENNEDY AND THE NEGROES by Harry Golden. This is a serious analysis of the entire Negro movement in the United States and an in-depth study of the late President Kennedy's total commitment to that social revolution. The story is told with wit, clarity, insight and generosity.

HOODED AMERICANISM by David Chalmers. The Ku Klus Klan is America's oldest secret society for organized mayhem, in the words of the author, who has long been a student of social movements.

THE SCARPERER by Brendan Behan. A cheerful, sneerful, riotous tale about a daring jailbreak and an even more daring plot of switched identities.

PILGRIM AT SEA by Par Lagerkvist. This completes the author's tetralogy whose theme has been the search for God. We are journeying to the Holy Land, but we never get there; we are pilgrims at sea.

Ann Bennett Fair Queen Candidate

Ann Bennett, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon J. Bennett, of Gady Rd., Adrian, will be sponsored by the Tecumseh Kiwanis Club as a candidate for the title of Lenawee County Fair Queen.

Miss Bennett, 19, is a 1963 graduate of Tecumseh High School. She is employed as a dental assistant in the office of Dr. Wm. Adams and Dr. D. C. Bates.

She has a brother Vernon, 12, and a sister, Sharon, 14.

The Queen Contest will be held Aug. 9 at 7:30 p.m. before the grandstand at the fairgrounds.

Don's Beef Buffet Gets New Face

Construction work started Monday for a new front on Don's Beef Buffet.

The Tecumseh restaurant, which is remaining open during the remodeling work, will have three elongated windows across a new brick front.

Don Smith, owner of the business along with his wife, Edna, says a vestibule will be added plus two new doors. The east door will lead to the upstairs Artist Key Club.

A new sign, flush with the building, and a black satin awning also will be erected.

Mr. Smith previously planned to install a wooden screen along the entire height of the building, but was refused permission by Tecumseh's building inspector.

The top stories of the building have been painted and shutters will be installed for the second story windows.

The local restaurant has undergone several remodeling programs in recent years and is considered by many as one of the finest and most attractive in southeastern Michigan.

Lucky Clover Final Food Meeting Held

Three boys and a girl, food project members of the Lucky Clover 4-H Club, held their final food meeting July 27 at the home of Mrs. William Rader.

Members prepared the dishes for the picnic which concluded the project.

Gary Rader made sloppy Joes; Doug Rader made molded salad; Fred Sisty made fruit punch; Deborah Rader fixed relish plate and potato chips. The food project leader, Mrs. Rader, furnished chocolate chip cookies.

Mrs. Russell Starkey, the club leader, was present. Other guests were Mrs. Linda McMillen and son and Carol Rader.

The members and Mrs. Starkey expressed their appreciation to Mrs. Rader for her leadership with the food project. She plans to continue with the food project next year and will help with the sewing project in the fall.

22 Jaycee Couples at Chuck Wagon Party in Tecumseh

Seventeen Tecumseh Jaycee couples and five Reading Jaycee couples enjoyed a fun-filled Chuck Wagon Party at the residence of the Tecumseh President, James Rundell Saturday.

Many games were enjoyed by all and prizes for the most authentic Western costume were awarded to Ric Creswell and Caroline Booze.

Refreshments were served, highlighted by two decorated cakes honoring Reading Jaycee Auxiliary's first year in the Michigan Jaycee Auxiliary and the moving of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Nisbett to Hillsdale.

Wheat Production Is Down 35%

By PHIL PIERSON

Wheat production in Lenawee County is approximately 35 per cent lower than last year according to Bill Muckensturm, manager of J. J. Walper and Son Elevator in Britton.

"I would say this figure is not uncommon for all the soft wheat areas in the United States," Mr. Muckensturm said.

Mr. Muckensturm attributes the decline largely to the government allotment that limits the farmer on the number of acres that he may grow wheat.

"The farmer has to restrict his wheat production in order to be eligible for the government certificates," Mr. Muckensturm said.

Mr. Muckensturm said the certificates were the only way the farmer could obtain the top dollar for his crop.

To be eligible for the certificates, the farmer must confine his wheat production to the number of acres alloted to him.

In Lenawee County, the 1965 figure is 46,022 acres alloted for wheat production. The 1964 figure was 46,286 acres.

There were 4,102 farms involved with the largest allotment approximately 180 acres according to Richard Hill, office manager of the Agricultural Conservation and Stabilization Service in Adrian.

Mr. Hill said about half of the 4,102 farms signed up for the allotment program.

"By signing up they are assured of price support by the government," Mr. Hill said.

The government certificates boost the farmers income per bushel of wheat for 80 per cent of his normal crop.

"The domestic certificates give the farmer $.70 per bushel on 45 per cent of his normal crop and the export certificates give him $.30 per bushel on 35 per cent of his normal crop," Mr. Hill said.

The current market prices for wheat are $1.37 per bushel according to Mr. Hill.

This means farmers complying with the allotment will receive $2.07 per bushel of wheat on 45 per cent of their normal crop, $1.67 per bushel on 35 per cent and the market price for the other 20 per cent.

Mr. Hill says the decline in production is due to the number of farmers who didn't plant wheat this year or else plowed it up," Mr. Hill said.

Though the production is lower, the quality of this year's crop is very good according to Mr. Muckensturm, and the acreage yield is average.

"The only difference is the number of fewer acres of wheat there are this year," Mr. Muckensturm said.

Mr. Muckensturm said Palm Sunday's tornado had little effect on the wheat crop.

"The storm hit too early to hurt the production, but it has hampered the harvesting," Mr. Muckensturm said.

Many farmers have had to clear their fields of the debris the tornado scattered about and this has impaired the harvesting.

However, according to Mr. Muckensturm, approximately 95 per cent of the wheat crop in this area has been harvested already.

"I would say that there is less than five per cent of the wheat crop still unharvested," Mr. Muckensturm said.

32 Attend Pocklington Reunion

Mrs. Lennie Daykin was the hostess for the 37th annual reunion of the Pocklington family July 25 at her home in Britton.

Thirty descendants and two guests were present for the pot-luck dinner and social time.

Mark and Terry Daykin opened the program with recitations. Debbie Rieve told about the Friends Church camp that she attended at Jackson.

Linda Khoss told of her stay at the Methodist Church Camp on Wamplers Lake. Russell Rieve accompanied on the accordion as the children sang "Jesus Loves Me" and followed with other accordion selections.

Offiicers elected were:

President — Mrs. Carl Rieve

Vice President — Edgar Pocklington

Secretary-Treasurer — Mrs. Julian Strong

Historians — Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt, Mrs. Strong

Publicity — Mrs. Ted LaBounty

The 1966 gathering will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rieve near Tipton.

Members were present from Adrian, Tipton, Tecumseh, Ridgeway and Britton.

It's Small World For Local Youth

Arthur J. Collingsworth met one of his neighbors in Saigon, Viet Nam recently.

Sgt. William Craig is with the military press office over there. Sgt. Craig is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Craig, 173 Bailey Drive.

Arthur is on special mission for the government. He saw the Mekong Delta area from a helicopter and is scheduled to visit Hue, the old imperial capitol near the north Vietnamese border; Danang, the military base; Nhatrang, the riviera of Viet Nam; Delat, the old summer capital and mountain resort. He also plans to visit General Thi.

Arthur is living at the Embassy Hotel with press credentials from the Vietnamese government and from the Department of Defense. These permits enable him to visit military installations, ride on military aircraft, attend special briefings and use the embassy.

He expects to be in Viet Nam three weeks and then continue the rest of the way around the world, arriving home in time to enroll for the fall term at the University of Michigan.

LIFE SAVER—Pat Meadows shows certificate he received at Rotary dinner to Jeffrey Castiglione.

Pat Meadows Is Honored

Pat Meadows, president of United Savings Bank, was honored at the Rotary Club dinner Tuesday night at the Tecumseh Country Club for his action in saving the life of a young Detroit boy.

Mr. Meadows was presented with a Citation for Meritorious Service by the Rev. Blair Bashore, pastor of the First Baptist Church and a member of the Rotary Club.

The award commended Mr. Meadows for saving the life of Jeffrey Castiglione, 9, of Detroit, in an accident on the Mills Swick farm on Macon Rd. July 19.

Mr. Swick was unloading wheat into a gravity flow wagon when the mishap occurred.

Jeffrey lay down in the wagon and let the wheat cover him. When he tried to get up he couldn't, so he began yelling for help.

Mr. Swick didn't hear the youth's cries, but Mr. Meadows did and climbed atop the wagon and saw only his foot protruding out of the wheat.

Mr. Meadows uncovered the boy's head but was unable to free him. Mr. Swick then learned of the trouble and also climbed in the wagon, and together with Mr. Meadows, was able to open the chute on the side of the wagon to release the wheat and the boy.

"Jeffrey had passed out and was a little blue in the face, but we managed to revive him in a few minutes," Mr. Swick said.

"If it hadn't been for Pat, who heard the boy's cry for help, I never would have known about it until it was too late," Mr. Swick said.

THE LANSING REPORT FROM senator GIL BURSLEY

The Lansing Report from Senator GIL BURSLEY for July 23, 65

VETO has been the word of the week in Lansing. Governor Romney has set a new Michigan record in vetoing 23 acts of the Legislature. The previous high was 17 under former Governor John Swainson. However Romney had about 400 bills to consider—another record high — against only about 250 for Swainson.

Veto means, in a nutshell, disapproval by the Governor of a bill passed by a majority of the Senate and of the House of Representatives. It takes a vote of two-thirds of the members of both houses of the legislature to override the veto in which case the bill becomes law without the governor's signature.

Let me discuss the veto in general terms and then lets look at a few of the specific vetoes recorded during the past week.

Under the new Michigan Constitution the governor has 14 days to consider a bill instead of only 10 days as under the former constitution. Those 14 days are measured from the moment the printed and enrolled bill is actually presented in the Governor's office.

Thus the 14 days might not start until a couple of weeks after legislative action was completed.

★

LANGUAGE IN THE NEW Constitution relative to the executive veto provides as follows:

1—The governor shall have 14 days in which to consider a bill and his 14 day period for consideration and approval will not be affected by whether or not the legislature adjourns its session.

2—If during that period he signs the bill, it becomes law.

3—If during that period he does not sign the bill, and the legislature has adjourned its session, the bill does not become law.

4—If during that period he does not approve, he must send it back to the house of origin with his objections, if the legislature is still in session, for consideration of the veto.

5—If during that period he neither approves nor returns the bill with a veto message, the legislature continuing in session, it becomes a law as if he had signed it.

Last week the Governor sent back several bills together with appropriate explanation of his objections. Several of these measures were election bills where Romney as a Republican vetoed bills passed by the Democratic legislative majority.

As the Democrats lack a two-thirds majority in each house these "partisan" bills will have no chance of being passed over the Governor's veto.

The bill attracting most attention is the one which concerned a road in the Porcupine Mountain State Park.

I support the Governor's veto of the Porcupines Mountain bill (S.B.530).

Another bill vetoed by Governor Romney is S.B.251 which relates to the discount formula on liquor sales by SDD distributors.

Postal Reception Is Held in Adrian

U.S. Postmaster General John A. Gronouski and U.S. Rep. Weston E. Vivian were honored guests at a reception held on Friday evening at Siena Heights College in Adrian.

The reception, co-sponsored by postal employee groups in the area, was attended by over 700 letter carriers, postal clerks, and postmasters and their families.

Goodwill Employee Gets California Job

Larry's future looked bleak when he was in the Coldwater Children's Home. He was mentally deficient, had vision in only one eye, web hands and a speech defect.

Then he got his big break and went to work for Goodwill Industries of Southeastern Michigan in Adrian. Now he is a postal clerk in a large Hollywood, Calif., office building.

Larry is one of two handicapped employees placed in competitive employment in June. The other was hired on the janitorial staff at Siena Heights College. He is a graduate of the janitorial training program at Goodwill.

Goodwill Industries now employs 101 handicapped people in the sheltered workshop program. The men and women, many of whom were welfare recipients, have earned $86,958 in wages during the first six months of 1965.

★

EARNED INCOME for the first half of 1965 was greater than in the entire year of 1963, $124,843.

The huge increase in income and wage payments has been made possible by the acquisition of the former Stearns Manufacturing plant at 600 East Beecher Street. The building has been renovated and converted in work, storage and retail store areas.

Larry's remarkable comeback was made possible by cooperation between Goodwill, local schools and the state department of vocational rehabilitation.

He was given speech therapy, vocational training and surgery corrected his web hands. At Goodwill he learned the clothing processing, salvage and laundry operations and eventually was promoted to the contract painting program where he earned over $2 an hour.

He was given the opportunity and responded, proving that the handicapped need not charity, but a chance.

Corn Growing Big Business to Vic Knierim

ADRIAN — Vic Knierim's got a problem that might be compared with the young bride who must prepare Sunday dinner for her new in-laws.

A key difference is that the bride's efforts may be judged by a handful of relatives. Knierim's work will be judged by 100,000 critics later this year.

Knierim's no cook. He's concerned with growing corn — lots of it — to support a 5,000 cattle feeding program on 600 acres near here.

Those 100,000 experts who will drop in on Knierim are the expected audience for the 1965 National Corn Picking Contest, scheduled to be held on his farm October 21-22.

Does the prospect of playing host to 100,000 farmers, agri businessmen and newsmen worry Knierim?

"We are looking forward to having a personal role in this national event, especially since it is being held in Michigan for the first time," explains Knierim, a husky man who has farmed here since 1943.

"Nature's way of growing 300 acres of high-quality corn that will provide a farm stands for the competition caused some concern for the sponsors — the Kiwanis Clubs of Lenawee County — but a crop program was developed that we believe will meet the challenge unless some unusual problem arises between now and fall," Mr. Knierim said.

★

FOLLOWING THE selection of the Knierim farm earlier this year, specialists in various fields were asked to build a corn program to suit the standards of the national event.

Using soil test analysis which had been taken by Knierim's fertilizer supplier, the Anderson Fertilizer Company of Riga, as part of his regular soil fertility program, agronomists of the Cooperative Extension Service of Michigan State University developed recommendations on plant population, pest controls and plant food requirements.

Their goal was a yield of 150 bushels an acre, with all the characteristics of a top quality stand to minimize differences that may affect a contestant's performance.

★

DOES KNIERIM see 150-bushel corn on his contest fields?

"Some of this land has yielded 175-bushel corn under ideal conditions," replies Mr. Knierim, pointing to a section near one of his feedlots.

"With all the counsel and quality products being directed at the contest site, we should produce some fine corn for visitors to see in October," Mr. Knierim said.

But corn alone won't do the job for the national contest.

More than 600 acres will be needed for large parking lots plus an exhibition area containing 270 display sections where all segments of the agribusiness world will demonstrate their wares.

Also planned for the Adrian event will be a program of speeches by national and state dignitaries and professional entertainment each day.

Service Tectonics, Inc., of Detroit, has appointed Francis B. Dalton, of Tecumseh, as vice-president to head sales to plastics decorators. STI is a major supplier to the metal and plastics decorators producing automotive and appliance trim. Mr. Dalton has had 17 years of practical, technical experience, and was most recently associated with Wolverine Plastics, Inc., of Milan.

Who Have Moved to Tecumseh

Mrs. Gayle Stewart returned to Tecumseh with her husband last fall after an absence of 40 years during which time the couple lived in Toledo, Ohio.

Soon after they moved here, Mr. Stewart died and Mrs. Stewart was hospitalized with a stroke.

She came home from the hospital to her house at 612 W. Chicago Blvd. and is now able to get about her house a little without her leg brace.

A niece, Mrs. Merrill Murphy has been assisting her. At present, Mrs. Stewart is undergoing therapy at Green's Springs Ohio where she expects to remain for several weeks.

She is a member of the Unity Church in Toledo.

She says she loves it in Tecumseh. She has a collection of antiques. Her home is decorated with her antique furniture and dishes. She says it took 38 barrels to pack all her dishes!

Mr. and Mrs. Darold Stauterbeek came from Sparks, Nev. recently to settle in Michigan. They have a home at 708 Seneca St.

They have a son Michael 4 and daughter Laura 2.

Mr. Stauterbeck is employed at Buha Machine Co. in Tecumseh.

Mr. and Mrs. Jon Schuch moved to Tecumseh from Clinton last winter, renting a home at 507 N. Union St. Mr. Schuch is a mechanic at the Driscoll Bros. garage in Clinton.

Daughter Marilyn is 4 and son Jon is 2. The family are members of St. Peters Episcopal Church in Tecumseh. They enjoy boating, fishing and tinkering with cars.

Tecumseh Has New Dentist

By DOROTHY GRIGG

Tecumseh's new dentist has opened his office at 600 E. Pottawatamie St. in the same building with Dr. William Adams.

Dr. De Loss C. Bates and his wife, the former Grace R. Lopez of Billmeyer Hwy., and their two children, Elizabeth Marie, 2, and DeLoss C., Bates III, three months, have moved into a home at 908 River Acres Drive.

Taking time from settling furnishings at both his home and office, the young dentist stopped at The Herald office for an interview.

He and his pretty bride met at the University of Michigan where he was graduated from the School of Dentistry in 1963.

Dr. Bates, 27, is a graduate of Durand High School in 1955 and served two years as a dentist in the army stationed at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo. He received his discharge in July of this year.

Mrs. Bates is a graduate of St. Joseph's Academy in Adrian and the Mercy College of Nursing in Detroit. She is the daughter of Mrs. Maria Lopez.

"We plan to live here permanently," Dr. Bates said Friday, "we came to Tecumseh in September looking for a city with a similar population, that was growing and had a need for another dentist."

The new dentist enjoys a number of hobbies including cabinet work and with his wife, he takes, develops and prints pictures. They also dabble in ceramics.

Arthur Gauss of Manchester honored Dr. Bates by being his first patient.

Police Reports

Tecumseh police investigated five accidents during the past week, and one accident which apparently was wilfully committed.

Willis Lee Kennedy, 50, Adrian, reportedly told officers he purposely rammed a parked car on Adrian St., knocking it about 150 feet into another vehicle.

Kennedy was driving north on Adrian St., when he hit a parked vehicle owned by Wayne J. Gillespie, 50, of 102 Adrian St.

Gillespie's car then hit a car driven by Anne P. Moeller, 17, of Tipton.

Kennedy, who suffered minor injuries, was charged with reckless driving and committed to the county jail. He was released this spring from Ypsilanti State Hospital and is now under observation.

A resume of other accidents is;

July 22 — Mrs. Lela M. Colson reported that she backed into another car in front of Oosterhout's Flowers. Damage to her car was slight and damage to the other vehicle is believed slight.

July 22 — William J. Conklin, 22, of 116 N. Maumee St., was cited for reckless driving and leaving the scene of a property damage accident after he hit a parked car belonging to James W. Fodera, 52, Royal Oak. Conklin pulled out of a parking lot, hit the small compact, knocking it over the curb.

July 23 — Della M. Tuttle, 46, of Ridgeway, was cited for defective brake lights after a minor collision with Betty J. Kish, 20, also of Britton. The mishap occured on E. Chicago Blvd.

July 25 — Scott B. Harvey, 25, of 704 W. Chicago Blvd., was charged with failure to set the handbrake after his car rolled out of a driveway on S. Adrian St. and struck a parked car owned by Shirley E. Aiuto, 37.

Conklin-Carr Reunion Is Held for the 18th Time

The 18th annual reunion of the Conklin-Carr families was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Poley, 311 W. Patterson.

A potluck dinner was held at 1 p.m. for the 58 members and two guests.

Mrs. Albert Conklin was in charge of the children's games in the afternoon. Horseshoes, badminton, croquet, baseball and checkers were played.

Ferris Westgate, of Adrian, presided at the business meeting and Mrs. Ron Sayles, of Jackson, was secretary-treasurer.

Prizes were awarded to the couple who were married the longest, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Conklin of Adrian, 51 years; the most recently married, Mr. and Mrs. William Carr, of Adrian, eight years; those who came the farthest, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Carr, of Selfridge Air Force Base; the youngest member present, Teresa Gail Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith of Adrian; and the oldest member present, Mrs. May Wright of Adrian.

Mr. and Mrs. William Carr will be president and secretary-treasurer for 1966.

Mr. and Mrs. Harland Curtis, of Hudson, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Carr, of Adrian, will be hosts and hostesses. Mrs. Doyle Hendricks will be in charge of games.

Missionary Baptist Taking Church Survey in Town

A church survey of city residents is being conducted this week for the Missionary Baptist Church.

Two home missionary workers from the Southern Baptist Convention are assisting. They are Martha Chappell of Finchville, Ky., a senior at Georgetown Baptist College, Georgetown, Ky., and Janie Cassady of Alcoa, Tenn., a senior at Tennessee Technical University, Cookville, Tenn.

There are two workers from the Baptist State Convention in Detroit: Wanda Ousley, of Newport, and Pattie Rosenbalm, of Temperance.

The local workers are Linda Janeway, Joanne Brown, Glenda Liford.

Sharon White, of West Palm Beach, Fla., a former member of the church, is assisting with the survey while visiting here with her mother, Mrs. Kermit Boss.

The young ladies from out-of-town are spending the week at the parsonage with Mrs. Seal Janeway.

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH KISH

Couple Honored With Open House Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kish, of 8320 East Monroe Rd., Ridgeway, will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday, August 1st.

An open house will be held at St. Elizabeth School Auditorium from 2 to 5 p.m. Friends, neighbors and relatives are invited.

Dorothy Evelyn Bording and Mr. Kish were married August 1, 1940 at St. Alphonsus Catholic Church in Deerfield by the Rev. Fr. George H. Kerby. They will renew their marriage vows at the 10 a.m. ~~8:00 day~~.

The event is being planned by their children Mr. and Mrs. Donald (Joan) Farmer, Betty, Joyce and Patricia. They also have one granddaughter, Carrie Marie.

Obituaries

● LYMAN A. CURTISS

Services were held Monday morning at St. Peter's Church for Lyman Augustus Curtiss, 75, of 314 E. Pottawatamie St, who died Friday at his home. Mr. Curtiss was known as Cy Curtiss.

An inspector for the Tecumseh Products Co. for 24 years, Mr. Curtiss retired in 1958.

He was born March 27, 1890, at Britton. He married Jennie M. Owen of Tecumseh Nov. 17, 1917, and had lived in Tecumseh since that time, with the exception of his service with the Army Engineers in World War I.

Mr. Curtiss was a member of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Tecumseh Masonic Lodge and a life member of Underwood-Orr Post of the American Legion. His wife died in 1955.

He is survived by two sons, Jack, 315 W. Shawnee St. and Owen Curtiss of Allen Park; two daughters, Mrs. Thomas Morton nee Adah Curtiss of Detroit and Mrs. Roldon Sutton, Mary Lue, of Modesto, Calif., 14 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

His wife, two brothers and one sister preceded him in death.

The Rev. Donald Heacock of Clinton officiated and burial was in Brookside Cemetery.

Pall bearers were Charles Howe, Waldo Mohr, Jack Smith Sr., Harold Sisson, Ernest Robison and Perry Satterthwaite.

A fund has been set up at the church in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Curtiss.

Arrangements were made by the Proctor Funeral Home, Tecumseh.

● MRS. JOHN STEPHENS

Services were held Saturday at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home for Mrs. John Stephens, 61, of 413 Center Drive who died at 3:50 a.m. Thursday at Herrick Memorial Hospital, where she had been a patient for three weeks.

Mrs. Stephens was born Oct. 31, 1903, at Charlevoix. She married Mr. Stephens Sept. 22, 1920.

She was employed as a nurse at Charlevoix Hospital for a number of years and since that time had been employed in nursing homes, including the former Parrett nursing home.

She was a member of the Pythian Sisters and the First Baptist Church.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Stephens is survived by two sons, Earldean of Port Huron and George Stephens of Toledo; a daughter, Mrs. William Fletchers of Manchester; and one grandson.

She is also survived by a brother, Robert Daugherty, of Charlevoix, and a sister, Mrs. Eleanor Scott of East Jordan.

The Rev. Blair Bashore officiated, assisted by Dr. Laszlo Gero, and burial was in the Lenawee Hills Memorial Gardens, Tecumseh.

● VENA A. MOHR

Services will be held Thursday at 1:30 p.m. at the Proctor Funeral Home for Mrs. Vena Mohr, 88, of 214 E. Logan St. who died Monday at 11:20 p.m. at the Tuttle Nursing Home, Hudson.

She had been a patient there for five weeks and in failing health for 22 years after suffering a stroke.

Born August 27, 1875 at Adrian, she was the daughter of Frank E. and Mary Budgeon Derby.

She married John Mohr of Riga June 22, 1898 and he died August 23, 1939.

Mrs. Mohr lived in the surrounding area and Tipton all of her life. She was formerly affiliated with the Tipton Church, Pythian Lodge, Tipton Grange and the Womens Club.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Robert Schon of Berkley, Calif., and Mrs. Herman Titley, 7478 N. Adrian Hwy., three sons, Roland F., 214 E. Logan and Lawrence A., 510 W. Kilbuck St. and Raymond J. Mohr of Madison Heights, eight grandchildren and 22 great grandchildren.

Besides her husband she was preceded in death by a son, Harold in infancy, a daughter, Elizabeth, one granddaughter, three brothers and one sister. Dr. John Metler of Tipton will officiate and burial will be in the Tipton Cemetery.

● FLOYD O'HARA

Services were held at the Proctor Funeral Home, Clinton for Floyd O'Hara, 81, who died at Herrick Memorial Hospital Friday afternoon.

He had been a patient there for the past seven weeks.

He farmed in Franklin Township bordering on the Clinton area where he spent his entire life.

He was born Dec. 29, 1883, at Macon.

He married Jennie Knotts March 1, 1905. She died Feb. 14, 1948.

Mr. O'Hara is survived by one son, Donald O'Hara of Ann Arbor; two daughters, Mrs. Viva Berry of Ellenton, Fla., and Mrs. Martin Hoelzer of Clinton; a sister, Mrs. Irene Emery of Tucson, Ariz.; 12 grandchildren and 31 great grandchildren.

Two sisters also preceded him in death.

The Rev. Paul McKenna officiated and burial was in the Riverside Cemetery.

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

There are smiles that make you happy,
There are smiles that make you blue,
There are smiles that steal away the sadness
As the sunshine steals away the dew.

The familiar old song reminds one of a trillion instances when a smile whether friendly, sympathetic or just devilish, helped one over the rough places.

National Smile Week, August 1-7, is a good time to renew acquaintances with that old jingle around the picnic table maybe.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Hooton are expecting their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hooton, of Los Angeles, Calif. to spend the weekend in the city.

Caveman Sees Frontier City

The caveman at the Prehistoric Forest must have been bored with it all. At least he took off in the night Wednesday and was found early Thursday morning peering over the countryside from the observation tower at Frontier City.

Bud Rogers, one of the owners of the Forest, assured Herald reporters that the replica of the oldest Homo Sapien was securely chained against any further antics.

Mr. Rogers also said that police were investigating the incident which could have been more serious had the night watchman not frightened vandals away.

Ivan Hunt of Frontier City remarked that Halloween must have come early this year. His building was broken into and a pair of Western boots were missing.

Ed's Standard Wins Doubleheader

Ed's Standard picked up a pair of wins over Corrugated Box Sunday in the Tecumseh Slo-pitch League.

In the first game, Corrugated Box jumped off with four runs in the first inning, but managed only one more the rest of the way and Ed's came on to win, 7-5.

Ed's Standard led all the way in the second game, scoring four times in the first inning and won, 10-6.

The leading hitters for Ed's in their double win were Roger Allen, 5-for-9, and Steve Buku, 4-for-8.

J. Quinn paced Corrugated Box with 5-for-7.

Fred Randall Sets Record in Tourney

Fred Randall set a record on the front nine of the Tecumseh Country Club when he carded a 35 Sunday in the first annual Member-Guest Tournament.

Mr. Randall and his guest, R. Axthelm, of Troy, O., went on to win the tournament with a best-ball low net 57.

PONY LEAGUE

► Britton threw the league standings into a three-way tie for first place when they beat TPW, 5-0.

TPW went into the game with a 9-5 record and led G&J, who had a 9-6 record, and Britton, with an 8-6 record.

Britton's victory deadlocked all three teams for the top spot, which is where they will stay since their regular season games are over.

Ron Findley was the winning pitcher for Britton and won his own ball game when he smashed a lead-off homerun into left centerfield in the bottom of the second inning.

Britton scored another run in the third and three more in the fourth, but they didn't need them as Findley was holding TPW to just three hits and Britton's defense was playing errorless baseball.

Jim Skelton aided the hitting cause for Britton with a triple and double in three at-bats.

Butch Quinn went the distance for TPW and took the loss. Quinn struck out eight batters and his opponent, Findley, fanned nine.

TPW's only hits were singles by John Bryan, Quinn and Jim Whitney.

► TPW pitcher John Kennedy struck out 16 batters for the third time this season in pitching his team to a 3-2 win over VFW. The 16 whiffs is a league record that Kennedy shares with Mike Hebert of G&J.

Losing pitcher Lamar Rufner pitched an equally strong game for VFW and struck out 13 hitters and allowed only two hits, the same number his team managed against Kennedy.

VFW got off to an early lead with a run in the first that held until the top of the fourth.

PONY LEAGUE FINAL

	W	L
G & J	9	6
T P W	9	6
Britton	9	6
Eagles	8	7
V F W	6	9
Indians	4	11

John Bryan slammed a double scoring Dennis Marsh and Butch Quinn to put TPW in front.

Then in the fifth, Marsh singled home Ron Bowen, who had reached base after being hit with a pitch, with the winning run.

VFW came back with a run in the sixth and were threatening again in the seventh when Quinn made one of the game's top defensive plays by catching a drive off the bat of Dave Lord that was labeled extra bases.

Tony Nykodym, TPW catcher, also made a fine play in the fourth when he picked off a VFW runner from second base with a perfect throw.

► Three hits and two walks in the first inning set the Eagles off with five runs and they went on to beat the Indians, 11-4.

Mark Wegner picked up the pitching victory and the defeat was hung on Rick Calzada.

The Eagles picked up 10 hits. Steve Dalton's double and triple, and catcher Bill Puffer's three singles led the way.

For the Indians, Bruce Des Ermia led the attack with a pair of singles. Eric Long, Tom Horton and John Wall also had singles for the Indians.

► Catcher Jim Mobly led off the bottom of the sixth with a homerun for the Eagles and that made all the difference as his team nipped G&J, 4-3.

The Eagles had scored three times in the first and carried a 3-2 lead into the sixth when Mobly's blast made it 4-2.

G&J started a rally in the seventh and notched one tally and just missed tying the game when Mike Hebert was out at the plate on an attempted steal of home.

Mark Wegner fanned 12 batters in picking up the mound win for the Eagles.

Jim Hemphill absorbed the loss and gave up five hits and struck out four batters.

The Eagles' five hits were recorded by Terry Bolden, with two singles, Glen Davis, with two singles and Mobley's game winning homer.

G&J picked up four hits, two singles by catcher Dennis Lewis, and a pair of singles by Mike Hebert.

► VFW gave G&J's championship hopes a jolt when they scored a 9-8 triumph to knock the losers out of first place in the standings.

After spotting G&J two runs in the top of the first, VFW came back with five tallies to take the lead they never relinquished.

Mike Decker went the first five innings on the mound for VFW and took the mound win. John Drake came in and worked the last two frames for VFW.

Mike Hebert went the distance for G&J and gave up only five hits and struck out 13 batters, but took the pitching loss.

Lee Purkey doubled home Tom Ainto with the winning run in the sixth inning.

Purkey led the batting attack for VFW with a single and his winning double and two RBI's.

Mike Cote and Hebert had three hits apiece and Dennis Lewis and Tim McVay had two hits as G&J outhit VFW, 11-5.

CUB MINORS

► The Braves moved into sole possession of first place in the standings with an 11-9 victory over the Cubs.

Entering the game both teams were tied for first with 9-0 records.

After spotting the Cubs a run in the first, the Braves came back with one in the second and three in the third to lead, 4-1.

Then the Cubs scored twice in the bottom of the third and again in the fourth to regain the lead, 5-4.

The turning point came in the top of the fifth when the Braves pushed across seven runs to put the game out of reach.

The big blow of the inning was a two-run double by Bob Brooks that brought home the final two tallies for the Braves.

Those last two runs driven in by Brooks proved to be the winners when the Cubs came back with four tallies in their half of the fifth.

Earlier in the game, Braves' catcher Bob Miller hit the game's only home run.

The winning pitcher was Jack McCarley who struck out nine batters. Rodney Cole also hurled for the Braves and whiffed two hitters.

Alberto Flores took the loss for the Cubs and struck out two batsmen.

► The Braves won their 11th straight game as they downed the Red Sox, 6-1.

In the fifth, the Braves rallied for five runs to break a 1-1 deadlock and capture the victory.

The winning run came home when Bob Brooks tripled home Greg Hoffman.

Jeff Berry and pitcher Jack McCarley led the Braves at the plate with 2-for-2.

► The Indians and Twins traded runs for five innings, with the Indians getting the better of the swap and winning, 20-11.

In the first the Indians scored four times and the Twins picked up five tallies.

Then the Indians added nine runs in the second against the Twins' one, putting the winners in front to stay.

Dave Hemphill took the pitching win going the first four innings. Joe Mitchell came in and hurled the final two frames for the Indians and held the Twins scoreless.

For the Twins, Ron Rutherford went the distance and took the loss.

Mitchell and John Merz led the Indians' batting attack with two hits apiece.

► The Giants and Twins staged a slugfest with the Giants coming out the winners, 11-9.

The Giants scored five times in each of the first two innings and the Twins scored three runs in the first and four runs in the second to trail only 10-7 after two innings.

At this point both teams' bats stopped booming and the game became a pitchers duel the rest of the way.

David McLoughlin was the winning pitcher for the Giants and Pat Murphy took the loss for the Twins.

Jim Sessoms and Ken Baker led the Giant batting attack with a double and single apiece.

The Indians jumped off with 11 runs in the first inning and were never headed as they routed the Tigers, 27-0.

John Merz and Mark Murphy combined pitcing talents to hold the Tigers without a hit. Murphy got the win as he worked the first four innings.

Mark Johnston led the onslaught against three Tiger pitchers with five hits in six at-bats. Murphy and Merz each added 3-for-4 as the Indians picked up 14 hits.

After their big inning, the Indians came back to score twice in the second, 11 times in the third and three runs in the sixth.

Joe Burns, Randy Butler and Mike Randolph did the pitching for the Tigers with Burns taking the loss.

CUB MAJORS

► Jack Greenfield raced home with the winning run in the fourth inning on a single by Paul Hamilton to give Rotary a 7-5 win over TPE Credit Union.

Greenfield, Hamilton and Dan Gunder each had two hits for Rotary as they totched up losing pitcher Mark Decker for eight hits.

Credit Union scored all their runs in the fourth inning against winning pitcher Vern Bennett.

Mike Matteson led Credit Union's batting attack with two singles in three at-bats.

► Rotary beat Union, 11-2, behind the three-hit pitching of Dan Gunder, and an eight hit batting attack.

Jack Greenfield led Rotary at the plate with a homerun and two singles in four trips.

Paul Hamilton added two singles in three at-bats and Gunder helped his own cause with a double and two walks.

David Ryan took the mound loss for Union, getting relief help from David Kelly.

► Bob Reed was the winning pitcher for the Tecumseh Police as they stopped Falings City Service, 8-1.

Reed also led his team at the plate with a single and a triple in three at-bats.

The Police wrapped up the game in the third inning when they scored five runs.

Reed allowed Falings only one hit while his team had seven.

► Bob Reed's third hit of the game drove home Mike Clement and Greg Cote with the winning runs as Tecumseh Police defeated Rotary, 7-6.

Both Clement and Cote had reached base on infield errors.

Chuck Locker and Robin Hatch did the pitching for the Police with Bill Berry and Clement doing the catching.

Locker struck out four batters and Hatch whiffed three.

For Rotary, Jack Greenfield was the hurler and absorbed the loss with Dan Gunder behind the plate. Greenfield fanned eight in the six innings he pitched.

► Losing pitcher, Alex Gibson of Kiwanis, struck out the side in the second inning against TPE Credit Union, but in between strike-outs TPE scored eight runs and romped to an 11-2 win.

Mike Matteson was the winning pitcher for TPE and also led his team at the plate with 2-for-4.

Sam Whitney, Mike Tilton and Steve Tilton each had singles for TPE as they managed only five hits in getting their 11 runs.

Matteson struck out 11 batters and Gibson and reliefer, Rich Schuyler, fanned 10 hitters between them for Kiwanis.

Boys Pee Wee League

Hebb's Wildcats	10	3
Kennel's Sluggers	6	7
Edward's Tigers	5	8
Mensing's Mustangs	5	8

Last week, the Wildcats continued their domination of play by swamping the Mustangs 23 to 10 and slipping by the Sluggers 13 to 9.

However for the third straight week the Tigers outdueled the Wildcats by a score of 14 to 8. The Tigers also outscored the Mustangs 25 to 20.

The Sluggers were able to defeat the Tigers in a close one 10 to 9. In the other game of the week the Mustangs beat the Sluggers by a score of 22 to 20.

This is the final week of action and play is ended Saturday by an All-Star Game.

The game, which pits the all-stars from the first and fourth team against those from the second and third teams, will be played on Nelson Field No. 1 at 10 a.m. The following boys will be playing:

Wildcats, Leonard Cody, Brad Sisson, Cory Cox, Craig Slocum, Billy Steele, Frank Stanley and Kenny Biscupski.

Sluggers, Greg Williams, Mike Creswell, Jim Karle, Joe Gettings, Doug Bunch, Ricky Butler and Steve Dermyer.

Girls Pee Wee Softball

Bikinis	7	3
Tee. CHIEFS	3	7

In the Pee Wee League last week the Tecumseh Chiefs blasted the Bikinis 20 to 9. The leading batters for the victors were Connie Cooke, Cheryl Williams and Elaine Aebersold.

On Thursday, the Bikinis came back to whomp the Chiefs 13 to 11. There were seven Bikinis with perfect days at the plate and Pam Felton again hit a home run, as did Mary Brooks, Peggy Aebersold did excellently in the field.

Mom's Softball

Last week in Mom's Softball the Blues defeated the Red team by a score of 13 to 1. Helen Aebersold and Eris Murphy both had very good catches while in the field. A home run was hit by Janet Underwood.

Aug. 4, the Moms will play the Dads.

Playgrounds

Little Olympics was the name given the playgrounds activities last week.

A mock track meet was held Wednesday and Thursday. The distance throw, shot put, discus, javelin throw, balance, and life saving were the events.

Points were totaled for all events and the boy or girl receiving the most was awarded the winner.

At Tecumseh Acres, Kevin Osburn was the winner, Lonnie Garrison second and Richard Packard third.

Marc Graf was first at Herrick Park with 80 points and Jeff Langham a close second with 77. Karen Ashenfelter was third. Jim Sisty and Steve Hallenbeck followed.

Mike Boldon, Paul Hamilton and Ricky Brooks were the top three at Patterson.

The playgrounds will close with a picnic for all youngsters next Wednesday.

Junior Girls Softball

Champion Grubbies	4	2
Toads	3	4
Things	3	4

In Juniors, Tuesday, the Toads beat the Champion Grubbies 5 to 3. Mary Jo Nykodym hit a home run for the winners, while two girls batted 1.000.

Linda Baxter took the win, fanning five. Leslie Otter made a spectacular catch to deaden the Grubbies' final threat.

On Thursday the Things played a terrific game defeating the Toads 11 to 8. Jan Felton helped her teammates by hitting two home runs, while Margaret Boldon hit one. A double play was made by Jan Felton and Cindy Coffey.

August 5, there will be a picnic for all teams at the Maumee Street Park. The time will be the same as game time.

Tennis

Everyone interested in playing tennis is urged to sign up at the city hall by Friday. The entry fee will be $1 for singles and $2 for doubles. The tournament will begin Aug. 4 and end Aug. 11.

The age brackets are as follows:

Girls singles and doubles, 16 and under; boys singles and doubles, 16 and under; women's singles and doubles, 17 and over; and men's singles and doubles, 17 and over.

Stars Rally for 15-2 Win

The Tecumseh All-Stars, comprised of members from the Cub Major teams, got off to a slow start in their game with the Onsted All-Stars but finished strong to take the game, 15-2.

Each team only scored once in the first two innings, but then Tecumseh rallied for six runs in the third to start the runaway.

Then in the sixth, Tecumseh, led by Jack Greenfield's home run, scored eight runs.

Greenfield led Tecumseh with two other hits in addition to his four-bagger in four at-bats.

Mike Matteson was the winning pitcher for Tecumseh and struck out 13 Onsted batters.

Saturday the Tecumseh All-Stars will take on the Blissfield All-Stars in Blissfield at 3:30 p.m. Next Wednesday, Onsted will get another chance as they come to Tecumseh and play the Tecumseh stars on Nelson Field Number 1 at 6 p.m.

Youth Hurt in Collision

H. Michael Walter, 24, of Tecumseh, was slightly injured at 11 p.m. Tuesday in a collision with a car driven by Chester H. Hill, 17, of Ypsilanti, on US-12, one mile east of Clinton.

Hill, eastbound, was attempting to pass a truck when he saw the westbound Walter car approaching.

Both Hill and Walter swerved to the north berm and collided head-on.

Hill was given a summons by Clinton State Police for improper passing.

Four persons were injured in the accident and were treated at Herrick Memorial Hospital:

Michael Walter for contusions of the chin; Chester Hill for lacerations of the face and leg; Richard Burnett, 16, of Belleville, for lacerations to the side of his head, and Panke Mullins, 16, of Ypsilanti, for contusions to the chin and possible cracked ribs.

'Dream Vacation' Made Possible by Luella's Labors

By CHERIE RIORDAN

BEULAH — Ask any woman what her special idea of a perfect vacation is. In most instances, the answer will be: "Tasty meals without the need of preparing them or cleaning up afterwards."

Mrs. Charles Bigelow is no exception to this idea — but she just happens to be on the other side of the counter — she is the lass who makes this ideal vacation dream possible for others.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bigelow own and operate Hill an' Dale Resort on Crystal Lake.

With the assistance of five teen-age girls, who serve and clean up, Luella does all the cooking for nearly 50 at three meals a day.

★

MRS. BIGELOW learned the art of fixing large — and delicious—quantities of food when, as a young girl, she assisted her mother, Mrs. Ray Hendershot, in feeding threshers at their Macon Township farm.

She inherited the role of Hill an' Dale chef when the family bought this resort in 1950.

"I decided not to worry. Just feed the guests some of the meals my own family enjoyed. They seemed to like them too," she said.

They like them so well that old timers — who come back to Hill an' Dale year after year — like to tell newcomers about culinary items that are their particular favorites.

Probably the most famous Bigelow recipe is Schaum Torte, a German dessert of merangue, whipped cream and fruit. Fresh baked rolls are a part of most every meal.

★

WORKING IN an area smaller than the average cook could imagine, the flow is so organized that it seems a cinch.

Every part of the sparkling kitchen has been well thought out by Mrs. Bigelow. She has her station next to a window overlooking beautiful pines and shimmering Crystal Lake.

"When I look through the window I feel that I'm outside, too," she smiles.

Diners are totally unaware of the activity behind the pine-paneled dining room. Waitresses, mostly college girls, promptly bring piping hot bowls and platters of tasty dishes as soon as the guests arrive for meals.

Seconds, even third helpings, are encouraged and no one seems to worry over expanding waist lines.

Meal time guessing games, include trying to figure the menu and then name the dainty wildflowers used for table decorations, which are changed each day.

No known guest has ever gone hungry — or ever will, as long as Luella Bigelow is chief chef.

HOT CAKES COMING UP — It takes a lot of batter to make enough hot cakes for more than 50 people, so Luella Bigelow uses giant, old-fashioned aluminum dish pan for mixing. The king-size gas range on which she does all her cooking arrived at Hall an' Dale with the Bigelows 16 years ago.

Favorite Recipes of Luella Bigelow

Mrs. Charles Bigelow has many recipes, proved as winners with guests at the resort operated by her family. Here are just two of them.

SCHAUM TORTE

Beat — 9 egg whites until foamy, add ¼ tsp. cream of tartar and beat until stiff (not dry), gradually add 3 cups sugar, ½ tsp. vanilla, 1 tbsp. vinegar.

Place in greased spring torte pan or cake pan.

Put in cold oven, start at 200 degrees, bake for one hour, increase heat to 250 for about one-half hour added time or until lightly browned.

Let cool in pan.

Serve with slightly sweetened whipped cream and fresh or frozen fruit.

BUTTERSCOTCH WALNUT BREAD

Mix together—
1 egg
1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1½ tbsp. melted shortening
1 cup buttermilk
½ tsp. baking soda
¼ tsp. salt
½ cup black walnuts

Add—
2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
¾ tsp. baking powder

Place in greased loaf pan, bake in preheated oven 350° for one hour or until done. Remove from pan to cool and slice when cool.

Dance Spectacular Is Set

INTERLOCHEN — A colorful dance spectacular, featuring members of Interlochen's talented ballet and modern dance faculty, will be staged Thursday night, to highlight the fifth week of activities at the National Music Camp.

One of two major dance programs offered each summer at Interlochen, the concert is an attractive display of traditional ballet and expressive modern dance.

Dr. Frederick Fennell, who just returned from a recording engagement with the London Symphony Orchestra, will direct the 150-piece World Youth Symphony Sunday night in the fifth concert of the Sunday night Symphony Under the Stars Series.

Saturday night the 82-player National High School Symphonic Band will perform.

"The Young and Fair," third of five high school drama productions, will open Friday at 7:30 p.m. in Grunow Theater. Other performances will be held Saturday at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday at 2 p.m.

Modernize Schools

LANSING — The Seventh-day Adventist Church in Michigan has launched a long-range multi-million dollar building program to modernize the campuses of three of its boarding high schools — Cedar Lake Academy, Grand Ledge Academy and Adelphian Academy at Holly.

'Love' to be Subject at Christian Science

"We have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is Love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him."

This verse from I John will be included in the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon on "Love" this Sunday. A number of illustrations from the Bible will also be used to show the nature and power of God's love.

Agriculture is becoming more technical. Of 2,000 graduating seniors in midwest agricultural colleges, one-fourth plan to take advanced graduate work.

Driving Car a Privilege Says Girl

"Driving an automobile is one of the greatest privileges we have as American citizens," said the only girl to claim national honors last year in the 4-H Automotive program.

She is Sherrel Stephens, 18, of Guymon, Okla., who knew what she was talking about when she won one of six $500 scholarships in competition with 31 boys and nine other girls from coast to coast.

Throughout the state scores of teenage licensed drivers and predrivers are undergoing practical and intensive training outlined in the national 4-H Automotive program conducted by the Cooperative Extension Service.

This program is the only one of its kind in the U. S. making an effort to reach pre-drivers. As one county extension agent remarked.

"A boy or girl of 14 or 15 is hungry for information on driving. Before they reach their 16th birthday they are eager to learn. But after they get that little piece of cardboard permitting them to drive, they become instant experts."

However, according to statistes, persons of 25 years of age and under, who represent 15 per cent of the drivers, have 30 per cent of the traffic accidents.

Peace Corps Test

A peace Corps test will be held at 9 a.m., Saturday, Aug. 14, at the Adrian post office.

Musical Will Run 10 Days

The Judy Holliday role of Ella Peterson, the telephone answering girl who tends to become involved in the lives of her customers as she takes their messages in the musical "Bells Are Ringing," will be played by Linda Hoyt for the 10-day run opening July 30th at the State Theatre in Toledo.

"Bells Are Ringing" will run through Aug. 8 at 8:30 p.m. at the State Theatre.

Tickets for $2.50 and $2 may be reserved by calling 241-7211.

Lynro Productions' third and final show of the season "South Pacific" will open Aug. 20.

Ann Arbor Man Named Governor of Exchange Clubs

TOLEDO — Rodney J. Grambeau, of Ann Arbor, has been appointed governor of all Exchange Clubs in the Michigan District 4.

The Exchange Clubs of Dundee, Monroe and Tecumseh will be among the seven clubs in his district.

Exchange Clubs will be noting the 55th anniversary of service next March 27 as the largest truly American service organization, the 1,100 clubs active only in the United States and Puerto Rico.

It is estimated the clubs give a million dollars and another million volunteer hours for the welfare of their communities each year.

Mrs. Brown Signs Up 5 Members

Hard work in the Toledo Museum of Art's spring membership drive has paid off for Mrs. William K. Brown, 7674 Hendershot Hwy.

She was invited to join the Museum's honorary organization, "Friends of the Art Museum."

Mrs. Brown was an outstanding contributor to the success of the Museum's membership drive in the Tecumseh area by obtaining five new members.

The membership organization was founded in 1964 to honor outstanding volunteer efforts in the Museum's spring membership campaigns.

Otto Wittmann, director of the Museum, pointed out that since membership is a year-around activity many of the "Friends of the Museum" will be signing up new members throughout the year.

The new "Friends of the Museum" are receiving certificates officially announcing their membership.

Macon Notes

By MRS. HAMILTON MOORE, JR.

The Rev. and Mrs. Ronald Corl will be hosts for the Grandmas' and Grandpas' and Young at Heart Club Saturday, July 31, at 6:30 p.m. Picnic supper will be served.

There will not be any Mary-Martha or Joy Circle meetings this month.

The Faith Circle members and any other ladies of the community who wish, are welcome to go to the Chelsea Methodist Home Thursday, August 5. The ladies will meet at the church at 12:45 p.m. They will present a short program and furnish cookies and punch for about 120 attending the program from the Chelsea Home. Contributions of cookies and punch will be welcomed.

The program planning committee met at the church last Wednesday evening. The calendar for the coming year was filled in with the worship and program committee for each month and the refreshment committee. Mrs. Guy Zelluff distributed the program and date books. Each circle chairman will take charge of seeing that enough date books are filled in for their circle.

Mrs. Otto Hagens of Saline, formerly of Macon, is a patient again at St. Joseph Hospital, Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Lilah Howell spent a few days last week in Dearborn with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Howell, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Blanchard, formerly of Jackson, are living at the home of their son, Wayne Blanchard, and family, in a mobile home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rowe and family attended the wedding reception of Sharon Irish and Kenneth Reau, at the K. of C. Hall in Adrian Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Theeke and grandchildren have returned to their home in Irving, N. Y., after spending a week with Mrs. Laura Theeke.

The Macon Community Club members enjoyed a picnic supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Evans in Milan last Tuesday. Mrs. Mary Goodin was co-hostess to 20 members and guests present.

The Lord's Prayer and the pledge to the American Flag were repeated, Melvin Travis played several recordings of a Gospel Quartet.

Mrs. Charles Gorton, Sr., read "When The Minister Comes To Tea." She then distributed a joke or, saying to everyone, which they, in turn, read. Mrs. Evans recited "A Deceitful Man". Mr. Travis read "The Town Pump" from the fifth grade McDuffy Reader.

There was some discussion of how many charter members were still active. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gilmore, Mrs. Mabel Burleson and Mrs. Mary Goodin are charter members.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bigelow, Jr., and two sons of Akron, O., were guests.

Mrs. Harold Kuder conducted the Commission on Christian Education meeting last Tuesday. August 29 will be observed as Promotion Sunday. Mrs. Wade Scudder and Mrs. Willard Wedemeyer will make plans for the day. Mrs. Harold Ruhl announced that $52 was the collection from Vacation Church School and will be used to purchase a bed and mattress for the Piper Memorial Hospital in Congo, Africa. It was decided to order a Jewish kit to be used by the Church School.

A. J. Hill of Swanton, O., spent last week with his sons, Arthur and Eugene, and their wives.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Cook and family and Dean Moore attended the Southeastern Michigan Angus Field Day Sunday at the Herb Dibley farm near Ann Arbor. A picnic dinner was served at noon.

Saturday supper and evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Osborne were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Collins of Toledo.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilder Waite of Oklahoma City, Okla., arrived Monday to spend a few days with his sister, nephew and family, Mrs. Pearl Kuder, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kuder, and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sheward left Tuesday for a visit in Tennessee with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Neal, and family. They will visit Mr. Sheward's daughter en route.

The flowers on the altar Sunday were in memory of Walter Morden, Sr. Other flowers were in memory of Mrs. Ellen Pennington Collins. A rose was placed on the altar in honor of the new baby born to Mr. and Mrs. Larry Slick last Monday.

The Annual Church picnic was held in the Britton Park last Sunday with dinner served to 66. It featured many home-made cakes and ice cream. The afternoon was spent playing ball with the single men against the married men. Following the ball game, everyone enjoyed ice cream and cold drinks.

The engagement of Carol Susan Coffey to Taylor C. Harvey is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Coffey of Adrian. Mr. Harvey is the son of Mrs. W. W. Ring, 704 W. Chicago Blvd. An August 28 wedding has been planned.

Teen Club Sets Three Dance Dates

The Teen Club will have dances July 28 and Aug. 4 and 25.

Those running are: President, Glen Barton and Cathy Carter; vice-pres., Terry Sisty and Pat Schwartz; secretary, Janis Reed and Patricia Damon; and treasurer, Nancy Coffey and Shirley Rupp.

Beginning July 28, the Teen Club will open at 7:30 p.m. and dancing will be from 8 until 10 p.m. The change of time is due to the 10 p.m. curfew for all minors under 18. Prices will be 35c for members presenting their cards and 65c for non-members.

The "US" will be playing for all three dates.

Gloria Dei Church To Hold Meeting of Congregation

Before the official vacation of the Tecumseh Products Co., the Gloria Dei Evangelical Lutheran Church invites all members for a special congregational meeting Sunday after a short worship service in the church.

During the meeting the members will have the opportunity to ask the councilmen about the financial, building and educational program plans for the fall.

"All members of the congregation are asked to be present at this important meeting," Pastor Laszlo Gero said.

Members of the council are Charles Gross, Kenneth Goldmann, Arthur Baaske, Stan Rentschler, Marvin Rupm, Harry Farrell, Melvin Ruettinger, Ed Solarski, James Tonneberger, Dean Hamilton, building chairman and Richard Gentz, Sunday school superintendent.

U-M Health Study Results in Time

Fresh clues pointing to causes of heart disease appear regularly, and new styles in preventive medicine follow inevitably.

Researchers have urged programs of regular exercise and have warned against smoking. Doctors have spelled out the dangers of excess weight; others have worried about weight fluctuation caused by repeated crash diets.

★

MORE RECENTLY, physicians have concentrated on cholesterol and other fats. Now they have tracked down another apparent culprit.

After a six-year study of community health patterns in a small Michigan city, a team of University of Michigan scientists found that blood sugar levels provide a further indication of heart disease risk along with blood fats and high blood pressure, two factors now most commonly linked with heart disease.

★

THOUGH IT IS known that an elevated sugar level often indicates diabetes, and diabetes in turn often leads to atherosclerosis, the Michigan study, reported in the Annals of Internal Medicine, marks the first large-scale study that links blood sugar to heart-and-artery disease.

Led by Dr. Thomas Francis, Jr., the head of Michigan's epidemiology department, the team chose Tecumseh, Mich. (pop. 9,500), as typical of the U. S. Heartland.

★

SETTLED IN 1824, the town has several industries, a busy main street and a fringe of farms.

The researchers arrived in 1959, persuaded 8,600 residents, nine-tenths of the community, to give details of their past family and medical history and to visit a clinic where doctors took blood and urine samples, electrocardiograms, chest x-rays, along with complete physical examinations.

★

THEN THE DOCTORS plotted the frequency of coronary, hypertensive(rheumatic and congenital heart disease, and of congestive heart failure in a variety of sex and age groups.

They found that along with cholesterol level and blood pressure, blood sugar level is an additional significant factor in predicting the probability of heart disease.

The engagement of Kathryn Louise Southwell to A 2/c Gerald E. Honeycutt is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell D. Southwell of Tecumseh. Gerald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Honeycutt, also of Tecumseh.

Kathryn is a 1965 graduate of Tecumseh High School and is now employed as payroll clerk at Meyers Industries Incorporated.

Gerald graduated from Tecumseh High School in 1962 and is now serving, with the United States Air Force in South Dakota.

A July 1966 wedding is being planned by the couple.

COME TO WHERE THE HOT WEATHER IS

FAYETTEVILLE, Arkansas — I've read in The Herald that Tecumseh experienced some "crazy weather" in July. Apparently it was colder than it should normally be for this month. If anyone needs to thaw out I'd suggest a few weeks here.

As one of our children wrote to a grandmother, "It's always hot here." We brought sweaters and coats for the whole family and have yet to put them on.

It just doesn't ever seem to get cold. There's been no cold spell like Michigan frequently experiences during the summer months.

Even rain doesn't cool things off. It rains frequently but the skies clear once it is over and the sun shines once more.

Temperatures are in the high 90's. From the public library I gathered this information about Fayetteville's weather:

Temperatures of 90 or higher occur on an average of 60 days each summer. The mercury exceeded 100 during 19 of the last 28 summers. The highest temperature ever recorded locally was 104 in July, 1954. The humidity averages about 66% for a summer.

Yup, it's hot, but now the clincher. We live in an apartment that is centrally air conditioned and the student-husband of the family spends his hours on campus in air conditioned comfort. End of sympathy for us. Of course, we're enjoying such luxury.

★

THE BUSINESSES, churches, offices, and supermarkets are air conditioned. Almost every home has some type of unit. I'm told the typical southerner gets to the point every summer where he stays indoors and quits trying to do much outdoors in the daytime.

The writings of Judge Rose give some light as to why this state is called "Ar-kan-saw" when it's spelled "Ar-kan-sas".

We remember being taught in school that the French were some of the first explorers to come to this area of the U. S. We also recall that Indian tribes were living here at the time.

Well, it seems that the French tried to get on paper the sounds the braves made when they pronounced the name of their tribe.

According to the judge the Frenchmen were hampered by the lack of a letter in their alphabet to designate the sound of "aw". Hence, they substituted.

Judge Rose writes, "The name consists of the sound. The use of letters is merely to represent that sound. The sound was originally Arkansaw."

Arkansas will not soon overtake Michigan in the development of its state parks. We visited Devil's Den State Park, about 22 miles from Fayetteville.

THOUGH IT HAS the advantage of a beautiful mountain setting, its camping facilities are not as complete as those of the Michigan parks.

As Michiganders we would miss the tiled baths, the hot and cold running water, the well-laid-out camp sites, and natural beaches.

However, we would enjoy following the trails through wooded areas, the horseback riding, the wading in clear, shallow streams, the fishing, the rustic solitude, the modern playground equipment for the children and a charmingly rustic dining room.

Devil's Den State Park has a new, dazzingly clean swimming pool. Though one doesn't pay to enter the park, a fee is charged for using the pool, which is the only swimming facility.

We've been told that Arkansas has just recently begun to allocate the necessary funds to build their park areas. That's good news because there is so much natural beauty that tourists should be encouraged to camp and enjoy it.

When you do make that trip to Fayetteville to thaw out you must do the following:

1. Tour the University of Arkansas Museum, located on the third floor of "Old Main".

Particularly outstanding is the Hall of Science which contains, among other things, a leg of an elephant in such a location that you may compare your height with it, a duck-billed platypus, rocks and minerals, fossils, birds of Arkansas and an interesting reproduction of a forest scene complete with all its native animals — stuffed, of course.

★

THE PIONEER ROOM, giving a breath of early American life, and the Henderson Glass Collection are also outstanding.

2. Eat at the Rice Bowl. They specialize in Cantonese, Japanese, and Polynesian dinners. The menu lists over 30 different dishes.

An ex-serviceman who spent some time in the Orient has set up a restaurant in just an ordinary farm house. He's made no attempt to convert it into one big dining room. The tables are located in the original separate rooms.

The decor includes Chinese red paint and bamboo and coolie hats.

By the way, if any of you do come this way will you please bring our camera? Can you beat it — we really did forget!

35 Attend Reunion in Tipton

TIPTON — The 46th Whelan-Billington Reunion was held at the home of Irene Wisner on Taylor Rd. July 18.

Thirty-five members were present for the potluck dinner which was served at noon.

After the business meeting, the relatives visited and were served ice cream.

The group accepted the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Lamont Simmons to have the reunion at their cottage on Wamplers Lake next year.

Clayton Greenwald was elected president and Irene Wisner was elected secretary-treasurer for next year.

Senior Citizens

The second annual senior citizens summer picnic will be held at the Community Center Aug. 12 from 3 to 6 p.m. Tables will be set out on the lawn on the banks of Globe Pond.

All seniors are invited to attend, they must furnish their own table service and a dish to pass. Rolls, butter and beverages will be furnished by the city.

Picnic games and special events will be handled by interested community citizens who want to help make the senior citizen's picnic day a real pleasure.

PROCTOR Funeral Home
TECUMSEH, MICH. & CLINTON, MICH.

Dear friends,

Because of increasing travel, death frequently occurs away from home.

In such event, we can arrange for the prompt return of the deceased through our professional contact with funeral directors throughout the U.S.

If burial is desired at a distant point, we can likewise complete all the arrangements.

Respectfully,

Lester D. Proctor

Marda Gone Duncan!

THROUGH MY WINDOW

RAINED OFF

The night before had been a delightful time out on the back screened porch. The weather could not have been more perfect, the air was soft and warm without a trace of the chill dampness which, in the late afternoon, usually sends us scurrying inside.

We watched as the last lingering rays of an ideal summer's day lengthened, faded and finally blended into a snug gentle summer night. The day-time chorus subsided, making way for the night-time voices.

At last the blinking flashlights started, fireflies were flashing love notes in their own peculiar Morse code fashion.

Such were the thoughts hastening our morning routine — we were anxious to get an early start on some more out-door living. (had the weather report mentioned rain? pay no attention, Marda!)

A quick breakfast, an equally fast run through our getting ready-for-the-day schedule and swish, we were out on the porch. (my, the sky was cloudy and the air did feel muggy but, weathermen have been wrong — haven't they?)

☆

ALREADY THE BIRD activity was in full swing. Our arrival on the porch, however, did not go unnoticed — Papa Cardinal took a short break from his sun-flower eating to bid us, "Good Morning!"

This cardinal, by the way, is a great joy, he is an especially brilliant red in color and shows a definite liking or curiosity about people. When anyone is on the porch he flutters close to the screen, and please — allow me the pleasure of saying he is looking in.

The night before he had thrilled us all — especially Gertie, who had not seen the performance, by perching on the railing of the ramp.

He chose a spot right next to the door — we were as close to it inside as he was outside — and if such closeness weren't enough, the long rays of the setting sun touched his breast turning it into a scarlet flame.

Our 'oohs and aahs' frightened him not a bit. (what was that distant rumble Marda, it couldn't have been thunder and the dampness is only your imagination!)

On the creek bank, just a few short feet from the porch, there is a big sprawling mulberry tree or bush, it is too small for one and not quite big enough for the other.

Anyway when the fruit is ripe, this is a busy spot. Ida and I were having our mid-morning tea when a bird started branch-hopping on the other side of this bush or tree.

☆

TOO LARGE to be an ordinary sparrow it was never-the-less, very sparrow-like in color. We tried and tried to get a better look but always there seemed to be a stick or leaf right in the way. (sprinkling? no Marda that was merely the wind rattling the leaves!)

Gradually the mystery bird worked its way to our side of the tree. She finally lit at the very tip of a branch, completely out in the open. With nothing but the porch screen to obstruct the view, we had a perfect look at a female rose-breasted grosbeak!

She was eight inches of brown, white and tan, her breast was light and faintly spotted but easily the most outstanding markings were the white stripes on her head, the white wing bars and of course the large heavy grosbeak bill.

What a far cry she is from her handsome husband who in spring-time dashes around in a boldly colorful suit of black, white and red.

Well, I can kid myself no longer, it is raining and raining hard. Inside we must go, birdbooks, binoculars and all.

Our expectations of a good bird-watching day ended with that last clap of thunder. Instead of listening to bluejays and cardinals, the principal sound is now the steady drumming of a heavy downpour.

So it is that the rains came and our day outside ended, we were rained off!

Dr. Murray at Clark Lake

Dr. Robert Murray will play one of the major roles in the Clark Lake Players' next production, "The Tunnel of Love," opening Friday.

Dr. Murray will play a well-meaning friend and next-door neighbor of a young cartoonist and his wife who try to adopt a baby.

This play by Joseph Fields and Peter DeVries has been adopted from DeVries' novel. It is a sophisticated comedy about the mores and morals in a typical suburban community.

This is a story of what happens when an inhibited cartoonist and his wife try to adopt a baby, giving their next door neighbor and his prolific wife as references.

The social worker sent out to investigate is more interested in gathering material for her doctoral thesis entitled "The Paradox of Sex in New England Culture," than she is in checking the situation for the adoption agency.

Cast as the cartoonist is Dick Straayer, a newcomer to Clark Lake audiences. His wife is played by Gail Browning.

Gail is remembered for her performance in "Two for the Seesaw," last season and is the winner of a best actress award for her portrayal of Rosalie the baby-sitter in "Oh Dad, Poor Dad" with the Jackson Civic Players.

Linda Rodemaker plays Dr. Murray's wife, and is another newcomer to Clark Lake.

The social worker is portrayed by Mary Lou Blanchard, who plays this same role in real life.

G. L. Blanchard will direct the play that will run this Friday and Saturday and next Friday and Saturday. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

Autowonderland Is Fun for All Ages

Autowonderland, located in the beautiful Irish Hills about 800 feet east of the towers on US-12, is one of the newest attractions in the area.

There is fun and relaxation for people of all ages. One can drive the car of his choice along a winding road, around hairpin curves, up and down hills with a roller coaster effect.

Across bridges, through a long tunneled slope, past an old log cabin to a large picnic area situated in Lost Valley goes the car.

Lloyd N. McGrath, part owner of Autowonderland said Monday, "Many of our customers tell us that it is the best ride they have taken in their lives. Many of the young folk have taken the ride as many as three times in one day, and if a young man hasn't taken his girl friend over the one-half mile track, he just hasn't lived."

Opened in July of this year, the owners have spent many months developing the park and have plans for additions for next year including a longer track and a children's train in the valley.

Mr. McGrath's partner is Peter Jolet of Detroit. They also are the new owners of the Irish Hills Restaurant and Motel, just west of the Autowonderland beside the Towers.

Cleanliness and comfortable beds are emphasized at the 16-unit motel with accommodations for either singles or doubles.

Home-cooked food and pies are featured at the restaurant with the new Alpine look, where there is also a new kitchen and a new cook.

Beer and wine are served, but children are always welcome and usually enjoy their visit due to the friendly hospitality of the McGraths and the Jolets and their children.

Kathy McGrath celebrated her 15th birthday anniversary July 22 by making what she called suicide punch and serving both her young friends and the customers.

Typical of the homey atmosphere at the restaurant was the peck on the cheek pretty Kathy received from her brother, Robert, or perhaps he was insuring himself of a glass of punch.

The McGrath family includes Lloyd and his wife, Rachel, Kathy, Joe, 18; Robert, 16; Paul 12; and Pat, 6.

Peter Jolet and his wife, Rose, have one son, Joe. The family lives in Detroit in the winter and spends the summer months in the Irish Hills helping at the restaurant and Autowonderland.

Hainy Wright, maintenance and starter man at the Autowonderland, is the only employee outside of the family at the attraction.

Sandra Beal Weds Frederick McCrate

BRITTON — White gladioli and pom pon mums in pyramid design enhanced the altar of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church in Tecumseh Saturday afternoon when Sandra Lou Beal and Frederick Michael McCrate were united in marriage.

The nuptial mass was celebrated by the Rev. Fr. Thomas Collins. Mrs. Donald Johnson was organist for the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. John M. Beal, of 519 W. Chicago Blvd., Britton, and the late Mr. Beal, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. McCrate, of 10423 Pocklington Rd., Britton.

Satin bows marked the family pews along the carpeted aisle as the ushers, Donald McCrate of Camp LeJeune, N. C., and Steven McCrate, brothers of the groom, and Russell Cadmus of Britton seated the guests.

Honor ushers were David McCrate, brother of the groom, and Kevin Beal, brother of the bride. Richard McCrate of Saginaw served his brother as best man.

The attendants were dressed in floor length gowns of candy pink Irish linen, designed with low square necklines and cap sleeves. The eased sheath skirts were controlled by gentle pleats at the waistline, accented by embroidered ribbon and a bow at the back which secured a chapel train.

★

THEIR HEADPIECES were bows of similar design. Garnet roses in cascade design, centered with rubrum lilies, were carried by the attendants.

Those attending the bride were Sharon McCrate of Britton, sister of the groom, as maid of honor; Mrs. Carl Rohrback of Adrian, sister of the bride, matron of honor; and serving as bridesmaids were Mrs. Michael Carr of Columbus, Ohio and Mrs. Russell Cadmus of Britton, friends of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her mother, was escorted down the aisle by her brother-in-law, Cal Rohrback. She was dressed in a gown of blush pink peau de soie, designed with a scoop neckline and long tapered sleeves.

Unpressed pleats at the waist gently controlled the bell skirt. Delicate Alencon lace formed the panel from the neckline to the bottom of the skirt.

A detachable chapel length train fell from a small bow at the back waist into a petal effect.

The bride's headpiece was a cluster of rose buds set upon petals of Alencon enhanced with pearls and aurora crystal, which held a short bouffant veil of silk French illusion.

★

SHE CARRIED pink chiffon sweetheart roses in crescent design, centered with white rumbrum lilies. Nylon leaves centered with clusters of pearls accented the bouquet.

Immediately following the ceremony a luncheon was served for the wedding party and immediate families. The U-shaped bridal table was centered with arrangements of white gladioli, pink carnations and mums.

MRS. FREDERICK McCRATE

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Frayer and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dick greeted about 400 guests at the reception held in the evening at the American Legion Hall in Blissfield.

White taffeta and nylon skirts covered the bride's cake and punch tables. Pink satin ribbon and garlands of smilax banded the tables.

The wedding cake was topped with pink and white sweetheart roses in nosegay design.

Pyramid containers holding candles and arrangements of white gladioli and pink roses and carnations stood at either side of the cake.

Serving the cake were Mrs. Richard McCrate of Saginaw and Miss Susan Rowlands of Ypsilanti. Registering the guests as they arrived were sisters of the groom, Karen and Patricia McCrate.

Mrs. Edward Lewis and Mrs. William Bailey, both of Britton, presided at the punch tables. Miss Margaret Beal of Ypsilanti, cousin of the bride, poured coffee.

Registering the gifts were cousins of the bride, Priscilla, Kathleen and Ronda Cheever of Britton, and Debbie Cheever of Tecumseh.

★

WHEN THE COUPLE left on their wedding trip, the bride was wearing a two-piece ensemble of navy and cream crepe with navy accessories. Her corsage was a rose glamellia.

Mr. McCrate, a graduate of Britton High School, has completed two years at Adrian College where he was affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. He is now enrolled at Eastern Michigan University, majoring in biology.

The new Mrs. McCrate, also a graduate of Britton, graduated from Cleary College and is employed as a secretary in Ypsilanti. The couple will make their home at 957 Sheridan Ave. in Ypsilanti.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCrate were hosts Friday evening for the rehearsal dinner at Don's Beef Buffet in Tecumseh.

Parents Surprise Son with Birthday Party Celebration

BRITTON — Greg Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hamilton, was surprised Saturday afternoon when he arrived home from a ride with his father, to find 12 friends waiting to help him celebrate his 11th birthday.

The boys had fun in the swimming pool and playing games. Prize winners were Tom Dicks, Jeff Downing and Chuck Erwin.

Highlight of the afternoon was a treasure hunt, and at the end of the hunt Greg found his gift from his parents, a .22 caliber rifle.

Birthday cake and ice cream was served to the boys by Greg's mother, from a table decorated with miniature cars and airplanes in gay colors.

Farm Bureau Has Guests at Meeting

BRITTON — Guests of honor when the Fertile Acres Farm Bureau met July 17 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wagenschutz were the Pakistan farmers who were in the Britton area that week.

Mr. Innayat U. Kahn of West Pakistan was the house guest of the Lee Spohr family, and Mr. Moslem of East Pakistan stayed with the James Squires family.

The cook-out picnic supper was attended by 39. Highlight of the evening was when the guests told of their homeland, farming, religion, government, habits and customs, and answered many questions from the Farm Bureau members.

There will be no August meeting of the group, and the September meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Judkins.

BRITTON BRIFFS

By CHRISTINE FAIRBANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Tucker and children returned home Friday after a week's trip to Cade's Cove, near Gatlinburg, Tenn., in the Smoky Mountains National Park. They visited places of interest in the area, including the Norris TVA Dam.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Spohr and family entertained a group of 34 farm friends at a potluck dinner Sunday noon at Friendsfield.

The dinner was in honor of their house guest, Mr. U. Kahn, of West Pakistan, who related many interesting facts about farming in his homeland.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton and sons of Hillsdale were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hamilton and sons for a cook-out.

Sunday evening guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Youngiove and daughters of Tecumseh.

Britton correspondent Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks will be leaving Saturday for a week's vacation trip with her family, and will not be home to receive news Monday morning.

Please call Mrs. Paul Rowlands, Britton phone 451-2311 or The Herald office with news items for the paper.

Mr. and Mrs. John Straub became the parents of their second child, Douglas John, born last Wednesday at Mercy Hospital in Monroe. Weighing 7 lbs. 1 oz., the new arrival will join his sister Kathy in the Straub home at 143 Wells St. Happy grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin VanEtten of Britton and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Straub of Maybee.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hoagland spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Musson in Rochester.

Saturday evening they all attended the Meadowbrook Music Festival, where the Detroit Symphony Orchestra performed for an audience of 10,000 in the outdoor amphitheater.

American Legion Tourney Aug. 6-8

The American Legion State Baseball Tournament to be played in Adrian Aug. 6-8 is the second of four big events to be held in Lenawee County this year.

The first event was the National Soaring Championships held in Adrian from June 29 to July 8.

Following the baseball tournament, the next big event will be the state and National Corn Picking Contest to be held October 20-22.

The baseball tournament will be a double elimination affair and will comprise the champions from the five American Legion zones in Michigan.

The schedule of games will find the first one played at 9 a.m. Friday. There will also be a second game Friday beginning at 2 p.m.

On Saturday, games will be played at 9 a.m. and 8 p.m. The championship game will be played at 9 a.m. Sunday between the two teams that survive the first two days action without losing two games.

The games will be played at Riverside Park on the lighted baseball field and on the Adrian High School diamond.

In contrast to the regular season when American Legion games will be nine innings.

It is quite possible that Lenawee County will have a representative in the championships.

William C. Stark Post 97 won the District 2 championship July 18 when they beat Dundee, 12-4, for their fourth straight triumph in the District Championships.

So far this season, Post 97 has not been defeated. This week they have been playing in Grand Rapids in the Zone 2 Championships.

If they are again successful, then they will be in the State Championships.

Philathea Class Sunday Meeting at Harley Watsons

BRITTON — The Baraca Philathea class of the Congregational-Christian Church met Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Watson of Adrian.

A cooperative supper was served to 20 members and one guest from tables set up on the Watson lawn.

The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Grace Ramage. There will be no meeting in August, but each member is asked to pay $1 on their pledge to the parsonage fund.

Glen Gripton invited the class to meet at his cottage on Wampler's Lake for the September meeting.

The Rev. Gustav Hannevik gave the devotions from Psalm 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt had the program, and showed slides of Hidden Lake Gardens and recent Britton homecomings.

Pvt. Raymond Richards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Richards of Britton, is home on leave from Fort Knox, Ken. He has completed basic training where he is serving six months with the National Guard.

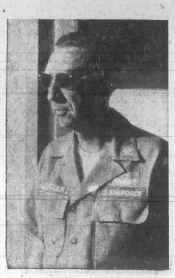
Ralph Camburn Retires After 22 Years in Air Force

Lieut. Colonel Ralph J. Camburn, former Macon resident, retired from the air force at Randolph AFB, Texas, June 30 after 22 years of active duty.

He was recently awarded the Air Force commendation medal for meritorious service in Viet Nam.

Colonel Camburn and his family are presently visiting his mother, Mrs. Clare Camburn, and brother, Robert, in Macon prior to accepting a position with Air American, Inc., in Vientaine, Laos.



LIEUT. COL. R. J. CAMBURN

Pest Controls Found by MSU

Old enemies, new controls. That's the story of pests and pesticide research throughout Michigan.

The cereal leaf beetle, army worms and mosquitoes head the list of "old enemies". All sorts of chemical and biological control are being used to thwart the pests.

First, the cereal leaf beetle. Scientists have long concluded that we can't afford to live with this pest.

It would cost $2 million a year in crop losses in Michigan alone. Besides, it's also attacking grain crops throughout the northern third of Indiana and northwestern Ohio.

★

MICHIGAN STATE University entomologists have found that malathion spread by air is one of the best means for controlling the beetle. The chemical is applied undiluted at the rate of [illegible] to five liquid ounces per acre.

The fine spray is enough to kill 97 per cent of the beetle adults in a single trip across a field.

But the chemicals, while they suppress the beetle, do not eliminate it. This is the third year the pest has been identified in southwestern Michigan, and the beetle shows no tendency of decreasing.

Resistant varieties are being investigated in order to find a better, more permanent control of the pest.

As if the farmers in southwestern Michigan didn't have enough trouble with the cereal leaf beetle, they're also being attacked this year by army worms.

The army worms have already "marched" through fields of small grain in Berrien, St. Joseph and Allegan counties, clipping off the green heads and leaves of oats, wheat, barley, rye and corn.

The insects take a heavy toll of adjacent pastures and forage fields.

★

MSU'S INSECT SURVEY noted that the invasion was imminent more than two weeks before it hit. This advance notice, plus urgent efforts by scientists to make recommendations of the most effective chemical control (malathion), is helping to prevent serious crop losses.

But, to keep the army worms from spreading further, farmers throughout southern Michigan are advised to keep on the lookout for the pest, report infestations to Cooperative Extension Service offices, and spray according to recommendations.

While spraying is often the only answer to pest control, science continues to look for other methods. One answer is biological control.

At this very moment, MSU Experiment Station scientists are eagerly concentrating on what may be a revolution in mosquito control.

A little more than a year ago, somewhat by accident, an MSU researcher found that many of the mosquitoes in southern Michigan were parasitized by nematodes. The tiny worms were killing the larvae or disrupting their reproductive cycle.

★

THIS BIOLOGICAL phenomenon has implications which are almost fantastic. This type of biological control, if it works, would put an end to irritating mosquito bites and disease transmission.

At present, the MSU researchers are trying to find out all they can about the nematodes and the mosquitoes they attack.

Then they'll try to mass produce the nematodes in hopes that they can drop the eggs or adults from the air on mosquito hatching areas and virtually eliminate mosquito populations.

Friends Church Power Class Meet at Arnold Wilson's

Fifty-five members of the Power Class of the Friends Church, met with their families at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Wilson on North Adrian Hwy., July 24.

The business meeting was conducted by Marilyn Huber and the devotions were given by Phyllis Wilson.

Swimming and boating on the private lake highlighted the evening.

A hot-dog roast concluded the entertainment. There will be no August class party.

DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING.

MOLASSES lends itself well for emergency dry weather feeding, especially if you are forced to feed poor quality hay to stretch feed supplies and if it is low cost. Molasses added to water and sprinkled on the hay helps two ways. Cows will eat more hay and it will be more digestible. Molasses has another benefit — it is high in sugar. This reduces the effect of poisonous plants the cattle might eat when pastures are short. Molasses can be poured over silage, grain, green feed or, even fed free-choice.

STAGNANT PONDS or dammed water, no longer moving, are a source of contamination this time of year. Cattle with direct access to the water increase the contamination. Such ponds spread leptospirosis, especially when infected animals urinate in the pond. Mastitis and nitrate poisoning are also traced to stagnant ponds. If water is still drinkable, fence it off and pipe water to a drinking trough.

HOW OFTEN YOU IRRIGATE influences how efficiently crops use soil moisture. New York scientists indicate that best water use may be obtained by [illegible] and applying smaller amounts each irrigation, rather than making heavy applications less often. Soil type influences this, too. Water-holding capacity of sand is much lower than that of clays, or soil high in organic matter.

PRESSURE-TREATED WOOD fences and silage bunkers will last longer if threaded nails and staples are used rather than common nails. Plain nails pull loose because the wood's preservative acts as a lubricant. Danger of splitting wood is reduced with a threaded nail, too.

Police Win Twice Over A-W, Baileys

The Tecumseh Police swept both ends of a doubleheader from A&W Baileys Sunday to virtually wrap up first place in the Slo-pitch standings.

In the first game the Police jumped off to a 10-run lead in the first three innings and hung on for a 12-10 victory.

Gordon Williams' two-run double in the fifth inning scoring Clyde Locker and Bill Burkert provided the winning margin.

The Police pounded out 16 hits with Burkert and Williams leading the way with 3-for3 and 2-for-3 respectively.

Locker took the pitching win with Bob Handy taking the loss for A&W.

In the second game, the Police scored four times in the first inning and went on to a 5-4 win.

Locker again was the winning pitcher and also paced his team at the plate with a double and triple in three times to the plate.

The other five hits collected by the Police came off the bats of Richard Solarski, Bob Wilkins, John Turmer, Craig Rosacrans and Roger Fox.

Locker scored the winning run in the sixth when he scored from third base on a sacrifice fly by Harry Withrow after reaching third on his triple.

Bill Fetty was the losing pitcher for A&W.

The double victory moved the Police two games in front of A&W in the standings as the two teams were tied for first before the day's action began.

Mrs. Hoelzer Tours Mexico with Scouts

CLINTON — Mrs. John E. Hoelzer, of Lima Center Rd., is leaving July 29 for Fort Wayne, Ind.

She will join her sister, Mrs. Burdett Custer, of Decatur, Ind., and a group of 16 Girl Scouts of the Limberlost Council 269, and with two other adult leaders, will go on a bus trip to Mexico City.

While in Mexico City the group will stay at the Ambassador Hotel, tour the museums, the University of Mexico City, the pyramids and Chapultetec.

Then the group will go to the World Association of Girl Scouts' Cabana at Cuernavaca, where they will meet visiting Girl Scouts from all over the world.

At the end of 15 days, the Limberlost Council will return home, but Mrs. Hoelzer and Mrs. Custer will be joined in Mexico City by their husbands who will be motoring down there to spend ten days.

Mrs. Hoelzer has had 20 years' of Girl Scout experience and this served as Clinton's Camp Director.

Parachutist Uninjured in Accident

CLINTON — Peggy Fimple, 21, of Southfield, narrowly escaped injury Sunday evening when the parachute in which she was making a jump became entangled in electrical wires on Hulett Rd., north of Macon Rd., near Tecumseh.

Electrical power to some sections of Tecumseh were interrupted for a short while after the mishap occurred at 8:45.

Miss Fimple was parachuting with companions at Tecumseh Airport.

Cynthia Werth, James Chase Say Vows

CLINTON — Cynthia Rose Werth and James Edward Chase recited their marriage vows in the United Church of Christ, July 24.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hadley Werth of 215 Sunset Dr., Clinton.

MRS. JAMES CHASE

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cook of 500 S. Occidental Rd., Tecumseh and Oliver Chase of Saline.

The double ring ceremony was performed Saturday evening, by the Rev. Paul McKenna.

Bouquets of white gladioli and daisies enhanced the altar.

The bride was given in marriage by her grandfather, Harry G. Werth.

The bride's gown was fashioned of Chantilly lace over satin. Miniature seed pearls and sequins outlined the scalloped neckline of the fitted bodice which had long tapered sleeves.

A crown Lily of the Valley held the bridal veil of lace-edged nylon net.

She carried a white Bible, topped with a white orchid and stephanotis.

Maid of honor Judy Puchly, of Clinton, wore a floor-length gown of blue chiffon with a matching floral crown headpiece. She carried a basket of white and pink sweetheart roses.

Larry Whelan of Tecumseh was the best man.

The ushers were the brother of the bridegroom, Airman Gerald Chase of the USAF base in Goosebay, Labrador, and the brother of the bride, Airman Jerry B. Werth of the USAF base in Laredo, Texas.

The bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Werth, were hosts for the reception for 150 guests at the social room of the church immediately after the ceremony.

Guests were present from Tecumseh, Saline, Adrian, Pontiac, Rochester, Flint, Tipton, Onsted, Brooklyn, Toledo, O., Clinton and Houston, Tex.

Mrs. Ozro Priest of Evans Lake assisted at the reception.

Upon their return from a week long wedding trip in Ohio, the couple will reside at 115 E. Logan St., Tecumseh.

The bride is a 1964 graduate of Clinton High School. She is a 1965 graduate of the Alexandra School of Cosmetology, Ann Arbor, and is employed at the Chic-Tress Beauty Shop in Clinton.

Mr. Chase is employed at Faraday Division of Gray Mfg., in Tecumseh.

A rehearsal dinner was held at Pearl's Cafe in Tecumseh Friday evening.

Auto Mishap Saturday Injures Six

CLINTON — Six persons were treated at Herrick Memorial Hospital at 11 a.m. Saturday for injuries received when two cars collided at the intersection of M-50 and M-52, west of Tecumseh.

Easter Lillie Adkins, 40, of Flushing, received a summons from the Clinton State Police for disregarding a flashing red signal at the intersection.

Her car collided with a car driven by Helena L. Smith, 61, of Onsted.

The injured were:

Helena Smith with multiple contusions, abrasions and a fractured shoulder; Marion Krapp, 39, a passenger in the Smith car, lacerations to the head and body; Mrs. Adkins with multiple lacerations to the head and arms; Kenneth Adkins, 12, with possible fractured ribs; Vanessa Adkins, 9, contusions and abrasions; and Kerry Adkins, 14, contusions on the head.

Long and Short

By TOM RIORDAN

A 30-minute television documentary on economic growth in Michigan will devote a segment to Tecumseh's Fisher Body plant.

The show is being put together by Pete Strand, program manager at WXYZ-TV, Channel 7 in Detroit.

A series of Herald pictures, showing the GM plant rise-over during the past year, are being utilized by Mr. Strand.

In a telephone conversation with him there was the comment from me, "Of course, you realize there is a lot of friendly rivalry between Tecumseh and Adrian."

This footnote was necessary, I felt, because in previous chats about the show with the Michigan Economic Development folks, it came out that Adrian is also contributing.

There was the too-fresh memory of claims by the Adrian Area Chamber of Commerce alluding to how it brought all these industries to the county.

Mr. Strand's reply was delivered with a chuckle, "So I understand, so I do[illegible]."

The show is scheduled for Aug. 15 at 6:30 p.m. on channel 7.

If anyone wants to know, the idea of a split-week vacation is for the birds.

The Riordans tried it this summer, first going to Beulah and the Chuck Bigelow's Hill an' Dale resort for one week.

We rushed back and struggled for six days — dad at his typewriter and mom at the washer and ironing board — then banged off to Caseville, primarily to see "My Fair Lady" as staged by youngsters of that community's six-week Summer Enrichment Program.

The show was tremendous — as good as last year's "The Music Man" — and even though the auditorium grew stuffy and the show lasted three hours, the cast never once lost it's audience.

Average age of the Caseville players is 13, but did those kids do a job. With a 36-piece orchestra, yet.

But the weatherman didn't cooperate much of the rest of the week and we had rain, wind and too little sunshine.

It ends up that the family struggles to get ready for vacation, then struggles all over again in two weeks. That's crazy.

Next year it shall be two straight weeks.

Sidewalk Day To Feature Games, Pancake Race, Dance

If your first name is Sandy and you're a gal over 18, better sign up for the fourth annual Tecumseh Pancake Race.

In last summer's sprint, Sandy Theobold of Adrian was first and Sandy (Mrs. Gaylord) Moses, 209 Burt St., was second.

The 23-year-old Miss Theobold said she'll be on hand to defend her title if she can shake a cold.

The race is slated for 7:30 with runners signing up at The Herald office or the weekly's booth in front of Eberhardt's Insurance office, anytime prior to the race on Sidewalk Day.

City merchants are kicking in $50 for cash prizes, with $25 going to the winner, $15 for runner-up and $10 for third place.

The race, which will be along Evans St., from Logan to Pottawatamie Sts., follows the original Olney, England running, held for more than 500 years.

Each runner is given a griddle and pancake, which must be flipped over ribbons then caught as it comes down at four points along the track. Tecumseh Coach Tom Fagan will officiate the event and clock runners with a regulation track stopwatch.

The race is to be run in heats of three or four competitors each, the winners being determined on time.

Any woman, 18 or over, is eligible to compete, whether an area resident or resorter.

Friday is Sidewalk Day in Tecumseh with merchants selling from racks, tables and booths in front of their stores, 9 until 9. S. Evans St. at the Four Corners will be closed off for childrens games from noon. A street dance is scheduled with records and live music from 8 to 10 The annual women's Pancake Race is slated for 7:30 p.m.

One-Way Traffic Pattern Is Planned for Downtown

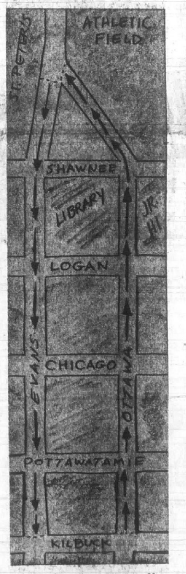
A one-way traffic pattern for the downtown area is being considered by Council.

To help alliviate the growing congestion in the center of the city, councilmen may:

► Make Evans St. one-way southbound from the Athletic Field to Kilbuck St.

► Make Ottawa St. one-way northbound from Kilbuck St. to the Athletic Field.

► Petition the state for a traffic light at Ottawa and Chicago Blvd.



This is how one-way traffic pattern would work.

"We're closer to that than you think," Mayor Harold Easton said during the discussion at Monday's gathering.

City Manager Cal Zorn advanced the one-way proposal, adding that it would "necessitate a signal light at Ottawa and Chicago."

He explained that a Council resolution, asking for a light, would have to be presented to the State Highway Department as a first step in the plan.

★

ELIMINATION of left turns at the Four Corners has smoothed out the flow of traffic there, but is causing jams at the adjoining intersections.

Chief Murrel Clark told Council that since June 18 — when turns were ended — there has not been an accident at Chicago and Evans.

"Are there any other places where accidents are up?" asked Councilman Don Sunderland.

The chief said that auto mishaps are not pin-pointed, but spotty throughout the city.

City May Face Court Action Over Court's Sidewalk

There may be legal action over the installation of a sidewalk around Miami Ct. in Kerby Heights Subdivision.

A petition by home owners not to have a walk installed was denied 2 weeks ago by Council.

Now, it appears the city may be taken to court over the problem.

City building laws now require that subdividors must provide a siewalk in front of each home.

Subdivision Is Being Planned

By TOM RIORDAN

Preliminary plans for a housing subdivision, along the western side of Red Mill Pond, were approved by Council Monday.

To be known as River Raisin Estates, the 42-acre plat has room for 89 homes in the $20,000 to $35,000 and up range.

Raymond Nies, president of Demand Builders of Toledo, appeared before Council to discuss his project, which has previously been tentatively OKed by the City Planning Commission.

He estimated that it will cost approximately $400,000 to develop the area, which would open with a boulevard-type drive from Brown St., to run in front of the Methodist Church property.

The New York Central rail spur will be the western boundry.

MR. NIES' plat showed the two streets of the subdivision to have traditional Indian names, Cherokee Dr. and Algonquin Dr., but he raised the question that these might be changed to more conventional titles.

Councilmen bristled sightly as they informed the Toledo builder that all new city streets must bear Indian titles or early settlers' names. A rundown of acceptable handles was shown him.

After a lively exchange, Mr. Nies grinned and told Council, "If we've got to go Indian, let's keep the ones we've got."

He explained that minimum-size lots contain 9,600 square feet, going up to 18,750 along the pond.

★

HOMES ON THE pond will start at $35,000 and those on inland sites will cost about $20,000.

They'll all be brick, have attached garages and no two-story residences permitted along the pond.

Mr. Nies said that real estate agent Ernie Oliver will be the firm's Tecumseh representative.

Co-Op Asks Protection of Its Area

Council is being asked by the Southeastern Michigan Cooperative to protect existing electrical utility networks in land annexed into Tecumseh.

The action was prompted by the recent joining of the Westhaven Subdivision along Occidental Hwy., to the city, territory now being served by the Co-op.

★

Consumers Power Co. has a franchise with the city and Southeastern Michigan officials don't want to make extensive investments in Westhaven, only to lose the area.

City Attorney James Beardsley was instructed to check the legality of the question.

Westhaven's developer, Marsh Coulter is going to have all utility lines placed underground, making a sizeable outlay for whomever provides electricity.

Sandra Keith in Smoky Mountains with Girl Scouts

Sandra Keith was among six girls of the Irish Hills Girl Scout Council to leave July 28 for the Little Girl Scout Round-Up in the Smoky Mountains.

The girls have been training for the hiking trip since last October. They will return August 8.

Sandra is the daughter of Mrs. Harvey Carpenter and a member of Troop 110 led by Mrs. Carpenter.

The girls have named their troop going to the Smokies, the 'Mitteneers.' They have a base camp at the foot of the mountains and left Monday morning with back packs including tents to be gone until Thursday.

Adjustments Not Required

A letter from Alfred H. Lawrence, State Highway Department's director of finance, informed Council that the annual audit of maintenance reports by Tecumseh for fiscal 1964-65 was "accurately reported and no adjustments needed."

MSU Grads Hold Steak Corn Roast

Michigan State University alumni from Lenawee County will flock to Tecumseh Country Club Tuesday for the annual golf outing, steak and corn roast.

Athletic Director Biggie Munn and a flock of his coaches will be on hand as local grads unveil plans for a county scholarship program.

Charlie Butler of Tecumseh is general chairman.

Golfing will go on all day, with the steak and corn going at 6:30 p.m., followed by the program.

City Crew Will Finish New Sewer

All bids on the 640' Iroquois St. sanitary sewer were rejected by Council Monday and city crews ordered to do the job.

City Manager Cal Zorn recommended the action, informing councilmen that the job had originally been pegged at $2,766 and that was the agreed cost, which will be split by property owners.

Lowest bid was $3,291, from Brady Sand and Gravel, and if accepted, the city would have to pay the difference of $525.

Other bids were:
Selders Excavating $3,474
A. L. Roe $4,600

Mr. Zorn said that he had the Selders firm do 100' of the job because of the convenience while working on the Evans Creek interceptor line.

DANIEL MIEDUCH'S POSTER TOOK SIX HOURS TO DO IN OIL ON CANVAS

Clinton Youth's Poppy Poster Takes Second Place in State

CLINTON — Daniel Miedueh received $50 for his second place Poppy Day Poster in state-wide competition with American Legion district winners.

Mrs. Carl Garrison of rural Clinton was awarded $5 for her first place poppy centerpiece.

Announcement of the awards was made at the recent convention of the Second District American Legion in Lansing, by the District Poppy Chairman, Mrs. Ray C. Stauffer, of Clinton.

The Clinton American Legion Auxiliary also received honorable mention for their hours of work given to rehabilitation during the past year.

★

Daniel, 18, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Miéduch, of US-12 west of Clinton. He is a 1965 graduate of Clinton High School and has a Michigan Higher Education Assistants Authority Scholarship to Michigan State University. He will study engineering beginning in the fall.

Prior to the state competition, Danny's poster won the local poppy poster contest arranged by Mrs. Elwin Witherell, Clinton Poppy chairman, and later was awarded $5 as first place winner in the Second District Contest.

Mrs. Mae Uphouse of Saline, a department chairman, made the presentation of the $5 prize to Mrs. Garrison for the best poppy centerpiece.

Touring Europe

JoAnn Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Green Jr., of Three Rivers, is spending the summer touring Europe under the Youth For Understanding program. Miss Green is the granddaughter of Mrs. George Green on S. Maiden Lane.

Tecumseh Girl Dies in Crash

Barbara Jane Russell, 19, of 4931 Comfort Rd., Tecumseh, and the driver of the car in which she was riding, Richard H. Parrett, 22, of 6940 Hitchingham St., Ypsilanti, were both dead on arrival at University Medical Center following an accident at 4:30 a.m. Monday.

Clinton State Police investigated the accident in which the two young people lost their lives.

The car went out of control on a curve and overturned and hit a tree beside Ridge Rd., just inside the Lenawee County line in Macon township. Parrett was thrown partially out of the auto.

A close friend of Miss Russell's, Sophie Baughey, and her escort, in another car, were the first at the scene, only minutes after it happened. The two young couples were returning from an evening spent together in Ypsilanti.

Miss Russell had lived at the home of Miss Baughey and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Baughey for the past two weeks and was a frequent visitor there for the past two years since coming to Michigan from Crossville, Tenn. She was employed at the Universal Plastics Co. in Saline for almost two years.

A 1963 graduate of Cumberland County High School in Crossville, she is survived by her mother, Mrs. Lila M. Russell and a sister at home in Crossville, a sister, Mrs. Kenneth Carson of Saline, and other brothers and sisters in Tennessee.

3 Brothers Will Open Gas Station

The Sinclair gasoline station at 3441 S. Russell Rd. is now under new management and will be operated by three brothers.

Jim Cox, 36, of 745 S. Union, Charlie Cox, 33, of 4033 Haviland, and Harvey Cox, 30, of 1104 Petoskey Ct. will run the station from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. Monday through Saturday, and from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Sunday.

"Harvey will work during the day and Charlie or I will work at night," Jim Cox said.

The station had been closed for over a month before the Cox brothers decided to lease it.

"We will have a complete line of repair work," Jim Cox said, "about the only thing we won't do is body work."

Together, Jim and Charlie Cox have over 23 years of experience in automobile work, with Jim the most experienced with 12 years.

Jim Cox said they hope to later specialize in tune-up and transmission work.

"We will also have a free pick-up and delivery for anyone bringing their car to our station to be serviced," Jim Cox said.

Open House Will Honor Mrs. Rector

An open house honoring Mrs. Fred Rector on her 90th birthday will be held Sunday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. Leslie Calhoun, 5403 Rogers Hwy., from 2 to 5 p.m.

Mrs. Rector came to Tecumseh from Baltimore, Md., in 1916 after marrying Fred Rector, a member of the firm, Brown and Company of Tecumseh.

Until two years ago she lived in her home at 207 S. Union St. Presently she is a boarder at the Moody Nursing Home.

After Mr. Rector's death in 1950, Bessie, as she is known to her many friends, decided to remain in Tecumseh among her friends.

"Yes," smiled Bessie, "there is no other place to me like Tecumseh."

She has seen many changes through the years, "but everyone left a mark of improvement in the town," she added.

A member of the First Baptist Church, the Tecumseh Monday Club, the Wit and Wisdom Club and a life member of the Order of the Eastern Star, Mrs. Rector keeps active.

It is requested that gifts be omitted.

Chicago Residents Visit Family Here

Mrs. Jill Zaug and son Joey, of Chicago, are spending this week visiting her father, Dean Delker, and his wife and Hilary and Philip Brown. Sgt. and Mrs. John Brown and sons, Steven and Mark, of Columbus, Ga., are expected at the Delker residence Thursday. They will spend two days here and two days with her parents before Sgt. Brown goes to Vietnam. Mrs. Brown and the boys will return to Georgia.

Tecumseh Pair Win First

David Bush and Debra Blanchard, both of Tecumseh, took first place in the small group acts with a piano and flute duet in the 4-H Share-the Fun Contest at Sand Creek High School July 23.

The event was sponsored by the County Recreation Committee, composed of Mrs. Melvin Kibler, Mrs. Richard Platt and Mrs. Norman Ries.

Alan Gilhouse, of Tipton was second place in the small group competition. He presented an accordion solo. The alternate of this group was Marcia Mitchell who played a piano solo, "Romany Life."

The second competition level consisted of large group acts. Groups consisting of any number over two took part in this session. First place winners were the Tipton Jets with a novelty act "The Chartreuse Murder Case."

Approximately 200 persons attended the affair at Sand Creek High School. There were 15 acts in all with the winners competing in the District Contest, Aug. 3 at the Hillsdale County 4-H Building in Hillsdale.

BEHIND PAGE ONE

Potato bugs won't bother vines if the potatoes are planted in the dark of the moon in May. Lonal Bishop has the evidence to prove it at his home on Ternes Rd. Neighbor Neil DePuy gave him this advice and also said that late potatoes planted in the dark of the moon will have bugs.

Mrs. Charles Mensing has sharp eyes and a deep interest in Tecumseh items of interest. It was her phone call that alerted Herald employees to the uncovering of the old Evans Creek bridge.

What are wortle berries? They are mentioned in Touch of the Past this week. In 1885 they were sold on the market. Some of the back shop sharpies suggested that perhaps they are the cherries because the birds "wortle" in those all the time or perhaps the toads had something to do with them. Hmmm.

Mrs. Roberto Diaz has both a bloomin' green and a black gladioli in her exotic garden. The unusual blooms come from imported Holland bulbs. Mrs. Diaz often raises cotton plants and this year has a peanut plant well started and an orange tree with fruit forming on it.

Upside down and back to back. This was the antic the Harold Blacks were up to when Harold lost his balance and came crashing down.. What a wonderful way to break your right arm, Doris. Most of us can't stand on our heads.

Bob Murray received a wonderful review in the Jackson Citizen Patriot for his performance in "The Tunnel of Love" produced by Clark Lake Players. Last performances of the sophisticated comedy will be August 6 and 7 at Eagle Point.

A Tecumsehite, enroute to Devils Lake, lost a head scarf when a gust of wind blew it out of the open window. Several weeks later on the same road, the car stopped in a downpour. Hanging on the fence next to the car was m'lady's scarf. Now if someone would just come up with the raincoat.

During Council's discussion of possible one-way traffic, Cal Zorn, city manager, revealed that in a recent check it was discovered the N. Evans St. right-of-way actually runs along the bank at the Athletic Field.

YOU TOLD US by Dorothy Grigg

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Wittrup, nee Lana Wright, brought good news from Okemos last week. While visiting his folks, they learned that the Rev. and Mrs. Allen Wittrup, formerly of Tecumseh, left Monday for a three-week trip to Europe and the Holy Land.

While there the Wittrups will spend a few days in Oslo, Norway, to visit her relatives. The congregation now served by the Wittrups contributed some money for extra pictures as well as some "mad money".

Grandmothers on the W. Pottawatamie, South Union St. block were a busy crew this past week. Mrs. E. J. Aebersold entertained five grandchildren and their folks and her neighbor, Mrs. William W. Grigg, served dinner to three grandchildren and her one great granddaughter, Michelle M. Woodbury, Friday.

Major Greg Aebersold is home from England AFB in Louisiana with his three children, Steve, Chris and Randy of St. Petersburg, Fla., for two weeks and Mr. and Mrs. William Aebersold and Mark and Julie, of Pontiac, visited them until Sunday.

Mrs. Roy Fee, nee Joline Barron and four children of Amarillo, Texas is spending two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Barron. The children are Laurie, Randy, Tamra and Carol.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Barrett and son and Mrs. Bessie Hanna have moved from Burbank, Calif., to Sarasota, Fla.

Mrs. Russell Carey has returned to her home on N. Union St. after an extended stay in Mason.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stevens, nee Betty Heidenrich of Trenton were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carter and Kathy.

Mrs. Kenneth Herrick and daughter, Toni, returned July 29 after a six weeks holiday in the British Isles and Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Webb moved from Burt St. over the weekend back to their rebuilt home near Tipton on M-50.

Mrs. Jean Anderson and daughter, Nancy, of Ardmore, Pa. were weekend visitors of Mrs. Ray Sluyter.

Mrs. Vira Bancroft and daughter, Helen, and Marvel Steinhoff attended the wedding of Ruth Ann Bancroft to Philip Samson Whishant at the Berean Baptist Church in Adrian Saturday afternoon. The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. Bancroft and niece of Helen Walker. The Rev. and Mrs. Charles Bancroft, of Barberton, Ohio, attended the wedding and are spending some time in the Adrian and Tecumseh area visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Cook were hosts for the Bales family reunion Sunday. People attending from Toledo and Adrian were served a picnic luncheon and swam in the heated pool in the rain. Next year the same group with additional members of the family from Napoleon, Ohio will gather at the Cook residence for a family gathering.

Sunday, the Carlton Cooks expect to have as their guests, her mother, Mrs. Roy F. Bales and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Baugh and family, of White Pigeon, and Mrs. Bales three brothers from Nebraska and California.

Karen and Sue Bishop, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Lona Bishop, are at the Lutheran summer camp on Kilarney Lake this week. Karen is especially pleased to have as cabin mate her pen pal, Jacqueline Powers of Minnesota. Susy has found a pen pal for this coming year. Mark Millspaugh of Ann Arbor is spending the week with David and Nancy Bishop while their sisters are away.

Obituaries

● AMIL BLOHM

Services will be held Thursday in Adrian with interment at Brookside Cemetery for Ami Blohm, 68, of Adrian, who died Monday in Bixby Hospital.

Born Aug. 17, 1896 at North Blissfield, he was the son of Carla and Hannah Demlow Blohm.

Mr. Blohm is survived by two sons, three daughters, 22 grandchildren and 18 great grandchildren.

● ROBERT S. LaGORE

Burial services for Robert Sterling LaGore were held Monday in the East Rome Cemetery.

The baby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert LaGore, nee Sandra Fogelsong, of Munger Rd., was dead at birth at the Herrick Memorial Hospital Monday.

In addition to his parents, he is also survived by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John LaGore, also of Munger Rd., and Mr. and Mrs. Graydon Fogelsong of Tipton.

● ALVA H. ETTER

Services were held in Peoria, Ill., Monday for Alva H. Etter, 61, who died Friday at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

He is survived by one son, Raymond, of Peoria.

Parking Meter Sacking Would Tell of Sessions

Ed Pistole, minister of the Church of Christ, asked Council Monday if his congregation could rent the city's off-street parking meters Oct. 8 and 9.

He explained the church would like to advertise a six-day meeting, which opens Oct. 10, with a printed message on sacks to be placed over the meters.

"This will require some study," Mayor Harold Easton told Mr. Pistole. "If you had an answer by Aug. 16, would that be soon enough?"

The city must first determine how much revenue is being earned by the meters on Fridays and Saturdays before establishing a rental rate, the mayor explained.

Mr. Pistole said learning by the next council session would be satisfactory.

Don't let SUNBURN spoil your vacation. Use HODGES Special Formula Silicone SUN SCREEN. Sun Screen contains Swiss developed "Filtrosol" ultraviolet sun screen, a special patented version of meta-homomenthyl-salicylate. Assessor Will Be Paid $6,600

Tecumseh has hired a new city assessor.

He is Hilary Goddard, formerly of Lincoln Park, who will also assist the city manager and city engineer.

Mr. Goddard's salary of $6,600 per year was approved by Council Monday.

His governmental experiences includes two and one-half years with the Macomb County department of taxation and assessor for Clinton Township.

Mr. Goddard is presently residing at 305 W. Chicago Blvd. and is looking for a home to rent. He and his wife have seven children.

Deborah Crawford Home from WMU Summer Program

Deborah Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Crawford, of 9760 Murphy Rd., attended the summer orientation program at Western Michigan University last week.

Most of the more than 4,000 freshmen students who will enter Western Michigan University this fall have attended this program.

They remain on campus for a day and a-half to map out future study programs, meet their counselors and learn their way around the campus.

When the fall term begins at WMU on Aug. 30-31, the freshmen will only need to check into their living quarters and begin classes.

Changes Asked in Current Code

First reading of changes in the present city electrical ordinance was held by Council Monday.

There was considerable discussion among councilmen about the value of using conduit in home wiring, ending with a request to have Duncan Oliphant of the city electrical board advise councilmen regarding this at the next meeting.

Cal Zorn, city manager, pointed out that under the present code, if a property owner decides to do his own electric work he could ignore all requirements through a quirk in the way the ordinance now is written.

If the changes are approved, the revised code would become effective Sept. 15.

GM Sewer of $96,000 Paid Off

Among the $29,338 in bills and salaries OKed by Council Monday were final payments for the $96,000 sewer line to Fisher Body.

Selders Excavating received a check for $4,099.20 and McNamee, Porter & Seeley, the consulting engineers, $1,914.15.

The city also paid for a new accounting machine, purchased from the Burroughs Corp. for $6,785. It presently is being used for payroll, but eventually will handle all the city's accounting work.

Council also approved sewage disposal operating and maintenance funds of $3,982.06, including $1,823.44 to the Michigan Municipal League for consultation on bonds for the wastewater treatment enlargement. It will cost approximately $560,000.

Area Farmers Can Have Corn Plants Checked at Walpers

Farmers may have corn plants given a free tissue test at a clinic sponsored by J. J. Walper & Sons in Britton on Monday.

Dr. R. E. Warnock, Ortho Agronomist, will be present between 2 and 5 p.m. and 7 and 9 p.m. to conduct the clinic.

Corn growers are invited to bring freshly cut representative corn to the clinic where the Agronomist will test them for nitrogen, phosphorous and potassium. He will also interpret the results of the test and advise growers on any nutritional problems disclosed by the test.

Growers are invited to bring a freshly cut corn plant from each of three areas they want tested. The entire plant, with leaves attached, should be brought to the clinic. There'll be no charge for testing three plants.

Tissue tests can indicate how well the fertilization program is meeting the needs of the corn crop. Chemical tests have been developed which indicate the level of nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium in the tissue.

Using these tests, the Agronomist can determine which, if any, nutrient is most limiting corn yields. By adjusting his fertilization program, based on the results of the tissue tests, a grower can provide a more balanced diet for his crop.

By providing nutrients that may be limiting yields, growers can realize greater yields and profits.

Lady Republicans on Mackinac Island

Mrs. Ned Baldwin, Mrs. Fay Whelan, Mrs. Raymond Platt and Mrs. Melvin Wegner will attend the fall conference of Republican Women of Tecumseh.

The event will be held on Mackinac Island Sept. 10-12.

Mrs. Whelan was the hostess for the group at her home July 26 when a discussion of current bills pending in Congress was held.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Wegner Aug. 31.

FIELDS of PLAY

Pony Tournament Starts

By PHIL PEISON
PONY LEAGUE

► The Pony League season ended July 27, and the tournament began the next night.

All six teams are involved in the double elimination tourney that will decide the champion of this year's league.

Since the regular season ended with three teams, TPW, G&J and Britton, tied for the top spot with identical 9-6 records, the post-season games promise to be close.

TPW got off on the right foot when they defeated the Indians, 5-1, in the first game.

John Kennedy, ace pitcher for TPW during the regular season, turned back the Indians on three hits and fanned eight hitters.

TPW racked up eight hits, the most they managed all season in any one game, against Indians pitcher Greg Wise.

Eric Long of the Indians made one of the game's top defensive plays against TPW's Doug Haeussler.

In the top of the first Eric raced over from his shortstop position to grab Haeussler's grounder behind second base and throw him out at first base.

Then in the bottom of the first, with two runners on base, Indian catcher Tom Horton sent a long fly to deep right that was headed over the fence when Haeussler raced back and reached as high as he could to snare the ball.

Singles by John Bryan and David Ward plus a fielder's choice netted TPW the game's first run in the second.

The Indians tied the game in the fourth when Horton reached first on an error, stole second and third and scored on a fielder's choice.

TPW broke open the game in the fifth with four runs.

With one out Kennedy walked and three straight singles by Dennis Marsh, Butch Quinn and Bryan and two fielder's choices produced the runs.

Marsh led TPW's batting attack with 3-for-3. Bryan had 2-for-4 and Kennedy added a single in addition to those by Ward and Quinn.

Bob McCombs paced the Indians with 2-for-3. The Indians' other hit was a single by Long.

► Jim Skelton allowed only two hits as Britton grabbed their first tourney victory over VFW, 3-2.

Steve Dalton stole home for VFW in the second inning to put his team into an early lead they couldn't hold.

Britton tied the score in the third frame and then Ron Findley smashed a long single driving home two runs in the fifth to give Britton the win.

Lamar Rufner took the loss for VFW and struck out eight batters and allowed five hits. Rufner had the only two hits off Skelton.

Britton's hits were all singles. Findley had two, and Rick Mseka, Jerry Korican and Skelton added the others.

Skelton fanned six hitters, but the big difference in the game were the six errors committed by VFW.

► The Eagles piled up a four-run lead on TPW in five innings and hung on for a 4-3 victory.

Jim Mobley went the distance on the mound for the Eagles and gained credit for the pitching win.

Butch Quinn went the first four and one-third innings on the hill for TPW and took the loss. John Kennedy relieved Quinn in the fourth and held the Eagles scoreless.

The Eagles scored two runs in the third and added single tallies in the fourth and fifth to take a 4-0 lead.

However the run they scored in the fifth, on a double by Mobley, a single by Glen Davis, an error and a single by Wegner scoring Mobley, proved to be the deciding marker when TPW staged a late rally.

TPW added single runs in the fifth, sixth and seventh frames to come within one run of tying the score.

Mobley's double was the only extra base hit for the Eagles. The other hits in addition to Davis' and Wegner's were singles by John Roberts, catcher Bill Puffer, Terry Boldon, and Rick Hicks.

TPW's hits were doubles by Quinn and Dave Ward, and singles by Kennedy, catcher Dennis Marsh and Ron Bowen.

► Britton won their second game of the tournament when they nipped G&J, 1-0, in eight innings.

Ron Findley hurled the distance for Britton and drove in the only run of the game with a single scoring Ed Hamilton in the eighth.

Mike Hebert pitched the first six innings for G&J and struck out 13 batters while holding Britton scoreless.

Jim Hemphill took the loss for G&J working the final two frames and fanning one.

Britton had only four hits in the game, two singles by catcher Tom Schroeder, Findley's winning blow and a single by Jim Skelton.

G&J managed only two safeties off Findley, singles by Hemphill and John McVay. Findley whiffed nine G&J batsmen.

► Lefthander Ron Randolph hurled a no-hitter against the Indians as VFW won, 5-0.

Randolph struck out six batters and also scored his team's winning run in the first inning when he was forced home from third on a bases-loaded walk to Dave Lord.

VFW wrapped up the game in the first inning when they scored four times off losing Indian hurler Greg Wise.

VFW picked up six hits off Wise. Mike Decker had a triple, Steve Cook and John Baily had doubles, and Jeff Wesgate, Tom Aiuto, and catcher Lamar Rufner hit singles.

The loss was the Indians second and knocked them out of the double elimination tournament.

► The Eagles beat Britton, 4-3, in eight innings with one of the wildest finishes to a game played all season.

The two teams traded runs in the third inning, and after seven innings they were still tied, 1-1.

Then in the top of the eighth, Britton scored two runs with the help of 2 fielding errors to take what looked like an insurmountable lead into the last half of the inning.

Rick Hicks opened the Eagles last turn at the plate with a walk, catcher Bill Puffer singled and Jim Mobley walked to load the bases with no one out.

However, the next hitter struck out, and it looked like losing pitcher Jim Skelton, might pull out of the inning.

Mike Fowler then walked to force in a run and moved Puffer, with the tying run, to third and Mobley, with the winning run, to second.

Jerry Girbach singled to score Puffer, and when Britton catcher Tom Schroeder threw to first in an attempt to pick off Girbach who had rounded the bag, Mobley raced home to beat the throw for the winning tally.

Mark Wegner pitched the first six and one-third innings for the Eagles and Mobley finished up to gain credit for the victory.

Skelton went the distance, and fanned seven batters in absorbing the loss.

Puffer had two singles, Girbach had the game winning hit, and John Roberts had a pair of singles for the Eagles' total of five hits.

Britton's only two hits were a double by Rick Brown and a single by Skelton.

► Britton won their third game of the tournament and eliminated VFW with a 7-1 win.

Ron Findley allowed only one hit, a single by Steve Cook, and struck out eight batters in gaining the pitching victory.

Mike Decker pitched the first four innings for VFW and gave up all seven runs to take the mound loss.

Britton managed only four hits, but they were helped by six VFW fielding errors.

Catcher Tom Schroeder had a triple, Jerry Korican, added a double and Findley and Jim Brown hit singles for Britton's hits.

Britton scored three times in the first inning with the winning run being driven in when Findley singled to score Rick Brown.

Another run in the third and three more in the fourth rounded out Britton's scoring while VFW scored their only run in the seventh.

Special Weekend in the Irish Hills

Friday, Saturday and Sunday our entire staff will be on hand to drive you through the area. Your search for that dream home can end here.

Nestled in these Hills we have an unbelievable number of beautiful homes. Some are modest priced for the small budget, others are luxurious enough to satisfy the most discriminating. All have one thing in common, beautiful surroundings, close to or on the lake. For instance:

A charming log cabin on a hill with steps leading down to your own lakefront, small but arranged to sleep nine. Modern. Huge oaks. Only $5,000.

Magnificent older mansion with approximately 800 feet of lake frontage on 20 acres in a setting of indescribable beauty, modernized, yet retaining the charm of a past era.

See you this weekend.

P. S.—Maybe you are interested in a change of business. We have many listed.

Skips Baby Shower To Give Birth

Mrs. Dennison Harrison entertained at a baby shower at the home of Mrs. John Harrison, Wednesday, July 28, for Mrs. Douglas Michling.

★

Mrs. Michling was admitted to Herrick Memorial Hospital earlier that day to have her baby and was unable to attend the party in her honor.

The guests enjoyed a social evening of games with prizes. Gifts were opened and admired and rewrapped to be saved for Mrs. Michling, and were presented to her when she returned home from the hospital Aug. 2.

Mrs. Michling gave birth to a son weighing 8 lbs. 2 oz.

CUB MINORS

► The Indians scored in every inning but the fourth as they routed the Giants, 17-5.

Mark Johnston led the batting attack for the Indians with 3-for-4. For the losers, Ken Baker was the leading hitter with two hits in three at-bats.

John Merz took the pitching win for the Indians with Mike Gilpin doing the catching.

The losing pitcher was Gary Carpenter with Jim Martin behind the plate.

► Despite a 13-run fifth inning by the Giants, the Dodgers were still able to extract a 15-14 win.

The Dodgers scored five runs in the second, four in the third and one in the fourth and carried a 10-1 lead going into the bottom of the fifth.

After the Giants' big inning the Dodgers trailed 14-10 going into their last turn at bat.

A five-run rally capped by Glenn Posky's steal of home with the winning run featured the Dodgers' comeback.

Bob Sinclair's three singles in four at-bats and John Baugh's two singles in three at-bats led the way for the Dodgers.

For the Giants, Dean Forsythe, Ken Baker, Jim Sessoms, Dale Forsythe, Gary Carpenter and Tom Huber had two singles [illegible].

Sinclair was the winning pitcher for the Dodgers and Randy Baker did the catching.

Sessoms, pitcher, and Huber, catcher, were the losing battery combination for the Giants.

CUB MAJORS

► Kiwanis entrenched their final second place finish in the standings with a 6-0 whitewashing of Falings.

Winning pitcher Rich Schuyler allowed only one hit, and fanned 15 batters.

Kiwanis scored five runs in the second inning and added another in the third to round out their scoring.

Pete Grua struck the big blow in the second when he rapped a double to drive home the first two runs.

Grua added a single to finish with 2-for-3 for the game and share the batting honors with Schuyler who also had 2-for-3.

The losing pitcher was Mervin Maynard who struck out six hitters and gave up seven hits.

► Rotary whipped Exchange, 7-4, behind the two-hit pitching of Dan Gunder.

Paul Hamilton and Gary Alcock led Rotary's hitters with a single, double and a walk.

Vern Bennett and Jack Greenfield each chipped in with a double as Rotary managed six hits off the pitching combination of Mike Kennedy and Craig Smith.

Hamilton drove home what proved to be the winning run in the third inning [illegible] home Greenfield.

Gunder fanned eight batters in going the distance. Gary Alcock and Randy Isom split the catching chores.

For Exchange, Kennedy started and went the first four innings, and then switched positions with his catcher, Craig Smith, who hurled the final two frames.

Kennedy took the loss and struck out nine batters. Smith added two more whiffs in the last two innings.

► Alex Gibson pitched and batted his Kiwanis team to a 6-4 win over Exchange.

Gibson allowed only three hits, struck out 12 and walked only four batters in gaining the mound win.

Gibson scored one run in the third when Richard Schuyler tripled following his single.

Then in the fourth, Gibson singled again to drive in the final two runs which were the winners.

CLINTON — Dennis Bowman, 18, of Clinton, was driving on US-12, near Tipton Hwy. Sunday evening when a tire came rolling down the highway and struck the front of his car.

He was unable to determine where the tire came from. It is being held at the Clinton State Police post.

Ruth Wasson, Larry Brown Are Wed

CLINTON — The First Evangelical United Brethren Church in Richmond, Ind., was the setting Saturday morning for the marriage of Ruth Eloise Wasson and Larry Clifford Brown.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wasson, of 515 S.W. A St., Richmond, Ind.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Brugger, of 4235 Clinton-Macon Rd., Clinton, and the late Clifford Brown.

The officiating ministers at the 10 o'clock ceremony were the Rev. Frank H. Wasson, grandfather of the bride and retired pastor of the church, and the Rev. John Wasson, uncle of the bride and pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene in Wapakoneta, Ohio.

Vases of pink and white gladioli graced the altar, flanked by branch candelabra which were decorated with pink bows and ivy.

Paul Tackett, the organist, presented a prelude of nuptial music preceding the ceremony and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Richard Wasson, sister-in-law of the bride.

The bride wore a bridal gown of white moss crepe. The Empire styled bodice was accented with a satin bow at the high waistline, elbow length sleeves and a high neckline. The sheath skirt had a detachable chapel train.

A crown of arched pearls held the bride's fingertip bouffant veil.

★

PINK SWEETHEART ROSES and cascading white stephanotis were carried on the bride's white Bible.

Virginia Wasson of Richmond, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor.

She wore an Empire-styled sheath gown of pale pink moss crepe, accented with a red satin bow at the waist. A shoulder-length veil was held by a matching pillbox hat. She carried a single long-stemmed red rose.

The bridesmaids, Diane Kjonaas, of Hammond, Ind., and Sarah Hailman of Ironton, Ohio, wore gowns styled identical to the maid of honor's in red moss crepe with pink satin bows at the Empire waist. They carried single long-stemmed pink roses.

The flower girl, Sandy Wasson, a cousin of the bride, and the two accolytes, Bonita Wasson of Richmond, a sister of the bride, and Susie Brown of Clinton, a niece of the bridegroom, were gowned alike in pale pink moss crepe accented with red satin bows at the waist, and wore matching veiled hats.

Bradley Brown, of Clinton, a nephew of the bridegroom, was the ring bearer.

★

RICHARD BROWN of Clinton was his brother's best man.

The ushers were James Brown, of Clinton, brother of the bridegroom, David MacDonald, of Tecumseh, Richard Wasson, brother of the bride, and Dale Wasson, a cousin of the bride.

A reception for 100 guests was held in the church parlors after the ceremony.

A tiered wedding cake, circled by pink sweet peas, was served at a table decorated with pink net over white linen.

The couple will live at the Loveless apartments on Tecumseh Rd., Tecumseh upon their return from a week long wedding trip to Cape Cod and the eastern states.

The bride is a graduate of Richmond High School and is a recent graduate of Olivet Nazarene College with a bachelor's degree in Elementary Education. She will teach in the Clinton Community Schools this fall.

Mr. Brown is a graduate of Clinton High School and is a recent graduate of Olivet Nazarene College with a bachelor's degree in biology. He is employed at Parke-Davis Co. in Ann Arbor.

Attending the wedding from this area were the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Brugger, his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. James Brown and three children, another brother, Richard Brown and Mary Ann Manchester, all of Clinton; David MacDonald and Jane Van Valkenburg, of Tecumseh.

Avoids One Car, Driver Rams Three

CLINTON — Kenneth C. Notheis, 42, of Toledo, O., went to a lot of trouble to avoid a collision with an approaching car which failed to dim the headlights, at 12:45 a.m. Friday.

The Notheis car swerved to the right, hitting two mail boxes, a speed sign, a village limits sign and three parked cars in the Underwood Motor Sales lot, 20 feet from Tecumseh Rd., at the south Clinton village limits.

Mr. Notheis was treated by Clinton State Police at the scene for minor injuries and issued a summons charging reckless driving.

Mr. Notheis is the cafeteria manager at the Tecumseh Products Co.

Truck Is Entangled by Wires

CLINTON — A truck and trailer carrying a large press became caught in telephone lines on Tecumseh Rd. at 2:10 p.m., July 29, breaking five telephone lines and injuring two children.

The accident happened south of Bartlett St., as the truck and trailer, driven by William E. Downs, 26, of Detroit, was on the way to the Budd Co. plant in Clinton to deliver the machinery.

The driver had a permit for 15' 3" and his load was 14' 5" high.

The General Telephone Co. wires were 13' 9" above the road where the press snagged them as the truck passed underneath, causing the five utility poles to snapp off.

Penny Voll, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Voll, of 106 Bartlett St., and Trudy Withrow, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Withrow, of 706 Tecumseh Rd., were playing on a guy wire of one of the poles on Bartlett St. They were taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital for treatment of cuts and bruises.

Telephone service in Clinton was disrupted for some time while repairs were made.

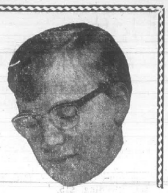
THROUGH MY WINDOW



THEIR BREAKFAST WAS LATE

It was all their fault, they had no one to blame but themselves. Our birds and squirrels are spoiled. Very, very spoiled. Not only do they want the feeding stations piled high with their favorite foods but they have now reached the point of wanting this food served at a special time. Well, this morning it wasn't and the responsibility for the lateness rests solely upon their own little shoulders.

Actually the situation was rather paradoxical. Every one was milling about, waiting for breakfast but, so good was the watching this action afforded, that Ida and I were not about to serve the meal and thus quiet things down.

I don't really know how this "breakfast at nine" bit started, however for the past few weeks the free-loaders have become more and more demanding. I wonder how they know when it is 9 o'clock?

Papa Cardinal is the protogonist and, as befits a main character, he is the biggest, brightest, most handsome of our cardinals. Every morning he shows up at about the same time.

★

USUALLY BREAKFAST is not out and so he looks towards the window. Don't ever let anyone tell you a bird's face is expressionless — as he glares at us, hunger and disgust are written all over his black-masked, red-billed face.

The ritual which follows seldom varies. Ida goes out the back door, scoops up the morning ration of scratch feed, picks out a sunflower head and starts for the feeding stations.

At the first rattle of the scratch feed container's top, Papa C. leaves from wherever he is, be it feeder, yard, creekbank or where-have-you, and heads for one of his two looking spots. He perches either on the edge of the awning, which protects our west window and is but five or six feet above the feeding tray, or on the first branch of the nearby wren tree to watch his breakfast table being set.

After putting most of the scratch feed on the tray and tying the sunflower head to the post, Ida starts for the edge of the creek bank where she scatters the rest of the feed. As soon as she turns her back to the feeder Papa C. zooms down for a few life saving bills full.

★

SUCH HUNGER — one would think the poor bird had not eaten for a month but we know better than that. Often he lets Ida come back to the house without flying away and this means she walks about three feet from him.

So regular is this performance that one way the cardinal shows his displeasure or punishes us is by being late.

He sits in the tree and doesn't come to the feeder until after Ida is in the house.

This is what the "old boy" did this morning. We were sorry his breakfast was late but, as explained before, there was so much going on outside, we imply did not have the heart to interfere.

His stubborness had a double sting because we had company to whom his actions had been bragged sky high. At times birds are just like children — when you want them to show off the most, they suddenly get contrary.

Just listen to what was happening outside and see whether you blame us for not wanting to break the spell. Four fox squirrels and two little reds raced about; two kingfishers rattled back and forth over our section of the creek; rabbits were in the front yard and a woodchuck in the back yard.

At one time we looked out the west window and saw two flickers, four bluejays, Papa and Mama Cardinal with their two kids, morning doves, squirrels, robins, grackles and about a million sparrows.

So it is that with such action outside, our morning was off to a slow, but good, start and their breakfast was late.

NEXT WEEK: THANKS, BOB!

Kenneth Maves Gets Promotion in Wisconsin Job

Kenneth Maves, native Tecumsehite, was appointed assistant paper mill superintendent at the Bergstrom Paper Co. in Neenah, Wis., effective July 26.

Mr. Maves is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Maves, 9103 N. Union.

Previously technical superintendent to the bookstock department, Mr. Maves succeeded George Sisler, who resigned from the company.

A graduate of Tecumseh High High School, Maves received his BA degree in pulp and paper chemistry from Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo.

He joined Bergstrom in February, 1954, and worked as a trainee until June, 1956, when he became a project chemist.

He became supervisor of technical services in the mill in January, 1961, and technical superintendent of the bookstock department in April of this year.

Fifteen free horse shows are scheduled during the Michigan State Fair, Aug. 27 through Sept. 6.

Susan Payne Top Speaker in Contest

Susan Payne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Payne, 3200 Labardee Rd., won first place in the 4-H public speaking contest Tuesday evening at the project building in Adrian.

Doug Thompson, of Blissfield, won first in the boys division and Wendy Sellers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mulford Sellers, 1652 Robbins Rd., won second place in the girls division.

A member of the Holloway Homemakers Club, Miss Payne spoke on "Discontent in Latin America."

She said that the problem stemmed from great changes. Children of tradition-loving people have become more modern in their thinking and rebellions. She also stated that it is easy for revolutionists to take over the government.

"To add to the frustrations the population explosion there, is the highest in the world," continued Miss Payne, "and lack of food constantly nags the people.

"A few years ago, food was four percent below the minimum required diet and now it is 11 per cent below."

Miss Sellers' subject for the contest was "The U. S. Flag."

Friends Church Summer Bible Classes To Start

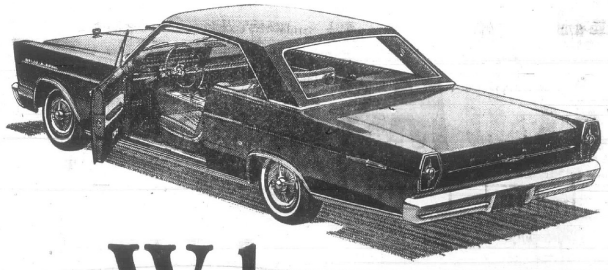
The Tecumseh Friends Church will be holding Summer Bible School Aug. 9-13 from 9 to 11:30 a.m.

The theme this year is "Thou God Seest Me," and will be conducted by a member of the Rural Bible Mission, Inc.

The young man in charge, Jim Sheldrake, will give three-dimensional Bible stories, have contests with prizes and there will be songs and fun for all.

The ages begin with children who attended kindergarten last year through ninth grade, Mrs. Clark Pearson is co-ordinator for the school.

"All children of the community are welcome," said Mrs. Paul Brantingham, the pastor's wife.



Welcome, bargain hunters!

Great Fun For Everyone!

This Year's Fair Is The Biggest, Best Yet!

A Touch of the Past

1885

The railroad track of the new Jackson Branch is now being laid between Manchester and Napoleon.

A span of horses owned by Mr. Gragg ran away Saturday afternoon and injured three children who had been left in another buggy. This should be a warning to parents not to leave their children unprotected.

Wright's Drug Store has just received a new supply of Smith's Burning Fuel, also lamp oil and candles.

1865

A Herald correspondent in the Shenandoah Valley writes that the army in that vicinity has been practically discontinued. Guerillas have nearly disappeared from that part of the country.

The driving park for the State Fair at Adrian is now open. It is a track one-half mile in length. The building committee of the State Agricultural Society is expected soon to make plans for other buildings.

1875

The western mail stage is now being operated by F. A. Dewey and stops at the Sand Lake Hotel.

With this issue The Herald begins the publication of a comprehensive account of the Black Hawk War written for the Historical Society. It tells of the part played by Gene Brown and Col. McNair and members of the 9th regiment who went from this vicinity.

The 100 shade trees set out last year are nearly all alive and doing well.

1885

There will be an excursion train over the M. and O. Railroad next Sunday to Devils Lake. Comfortable and reliable steamers meet all trains and carry passengers to any of the three hotels on the lake.

The Fourth of July committee, after paying all bills, reports a balance of $230.40 which has been turned over to the Light Guard.

Wortle berries of prime quality have appeared on the market.

C. J. Spafford has sold the Clinton Local to George H. Miles.

Plans are being made for a huge Farmer's Picnic at Allen's Grove on Devils Lake in August. There will be special trains.

1895

Beautiful and impressive ceremonies marked the laying of the cornerstone for the new Reformed Church in Macon.

The second matinee race of the season was held at Bill's Race Track this week. Eighteen horses were entered in the three classes. There were also three bicycle races, one for ladies of one-half mile.

Nine new street lamps with the 31 old ones, eclipsed the full moon last night. The new contract with the Electric Co. goes into effect Aug. 1.

Eb Price has threshed 2,087 bushels of wheat from 50 acres.

1905

Two boys were arrested in Tecumseh last week for boarding a moving train. This is a sport that is too dangerous to be allowed to continue.

1915

An ordinance has been passed by the council making it unlawful to place sign boards, placards or posters in or upon the streets, or sidewalks within the village limits.

There were 154 teams hitched on Chicago St. Saturday evening.

The Royal Theatre front now is equipped with 83 incandescent lights.

1935

Three members of a band of gypsies were arrested in Clinton this week and held for the Battle Creek authorities.

The Tecumseh Sash and Door Co., one of the oldest business institutions in the village, has been purchased by the R. S. Moore and Son Lumber Co. The manager will Be Stanley Swain.

1945

Weather delayed the harvesting of the 230 acres Dynamic Kernels Wheat crop on Ford Motor Co. land near Macon, but a ceremonial cutting of grain was held at the Tecumseh Friends Church Saturday.

A 4' x 8' plot in the church yard, planted last fall with a cubic inch of wheat was cut by sickle as scores of persons, including Lt. Gov. Vernon J. Brown looked on.

Dynamic Kernels Wheat was originated in 1940 by Perry M. Hayden, president of the Hayden Flour Mills here.

That year he planted the first cubic inch of grain, each successive year harvesting the crop, giving the tithe to his church and replanting the remainder of the wheat.

Last year's harvest required 230 acres of land for replanting. The sixth and final harvest next fall should yield well over 100,000 bushels.

1955

President Dwight Eisenhower announced the promotion of Joseph C. Satterthwaite, United States Ambassador to Burma, to the rank of career minister in the United States Foreign Service, the highest permanent rank for officers of the career foreign service.

He was born in Tecumseh, March 4, 1900, and is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and of the University of Michigan.

Tecumseh's water supply was being tested for traces of fluoride, following a request by an anti-fluoridation committee which had found minute quantities of fluoride in tested samples of the city's water.

W. G. Waldron, Tecumseh Township Supervisor, was suggesting that Tecumseh should have an anniversary day with a program of historical pageantry, and not just a carnival.

The home on Logan St., which was built by Musgrove Evans in 1826, was the subject of an article in the Detroit News recently.

—o—

Tecumseh young people have prominent roles in "My Fair Lady" opening at Coldwater in the Tibbits Opera House, professional summer stock theatre August 3. Laura Senger plays the role of Mrs. Higgins, the proficient professor, and Milton Bailey, Jr., of Adrian, is Freddie, the young suitor while Dexter Bailey plays the piano for the musical.

DIANE DAMON

Diane Damon Gets Degree from Ashland

Diane M. Damon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cal Damon, of 506 Seminole Dr., will receive her bachelor of science degree in education at the Summer School Commencement at Ashland College, Ashland, Ohio, on Friday, Aug. 6.

Miss Damon is a graduate of Tecumseh High School. She majored in elementary education and will teach in the Anaheim City Schools at Anaheim, Calif.

Larry Anderson Completes WMU Electrical Course

Larry E. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson, 420 N. Evans St., was among those honored at commencement exercises for the summer session at Western Michigan University July 30.

Although Anderson wasn't present for the ceremonies, he has completed an electrical course through correspondence while in the army at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. Anderson has already received his BS degree.

Fine Food, Hospitality Featured at Allies

MRS. EARL TAYLOR TURNS OUT A PIZZA IN HER KITCHEN AT ALLIES' RESORT.

"See you at Allie's," has been the parting cry of thousands during the summer seasons in the past 20 years and the popular spot they speak of is Allie's Resort located on the east shore of beautiful Wamplers Lake.

Good food and warm hospitality are the trademarks that have endeared the resort to so many from far and near.

Mrs. Earl Taylor has been presiding in the kitchen ever since her son-in-law, Allie Luckhardt, bought the resort from the original owner and builder, George Niesle, in 1944.

Using her own recipes, she has added a personal touch to the food at Allie's that has made it a busy place at meal time and between times for her scrumptious hamburgers.

"It's a shame how some people ruin good hamburger, the way they cook it," remarked Mrs. Taylor.

Allie always buys fresh chicken and fish and "real good meat" to serve, thus insuring excellent quality in the menu, according to Mrs. Taylor.

Friday night fish fries also feature chicken, shrimp and frog legs and the smorgasbord on Tuesdays include ham, beef, chicken and fresh shrimp. A pizza may be had at any time.

The resort is unique in that youngsters, teenagers and their parents all converge there for a good time.

Years ago, big bands were featured at the dance pavilion every three weeks during the summer.

Both teens and adults flocked in, with standing room only available. Lakers up and down the shore sat on their porches and enjoyed Louis Armstrong's hot trumpet, Gene Krupa's drums and the melodious strains of Ray Anthony and other top name bands.

When the big bands dropped in popularity, so did attendance at the pavilion. Allie then renovated the inside of his tavern, enlarging the bar by adding a room and dancing area.

He built a separation between the tavern and the ice cream parlor, maintaining a soda fountain for youngsters.

Dancing is held Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings with two disc jockeys and a public relations man emceeing.

Ron Knowles of CKLW, Robin Seymour of WKNR, and George Gregg, keep things moving for the rock and rollers.

All roads are again jammed with kids and their folks heading for "The Lake".

Allie and his wife, Helen, are parents of two daughters, Suzette, 18, and Sohnie, 13. Suzette will be a freshman at Hope College in Holland and Sohnie will be a freshman at Manchester High School this fall.

The winter home of the Luckhardt family is in Manchester. For the past two years, Allie has tended bar at Bill Cone's restaurant in Jackson, where he holds a certificate as a doctor of mixology—an acknowledgement given only to the most congenial people.

Times change, music changes, people change but hospitality at Allie's remains the same, warm friendly and comfortable.

Ground Broken Sunday at Methodist Church

By KAY STEELE

The Rev. Donald C. Porteous turned the first spadeful of earth Sunday to set in motion the building of a new sanctuary and Sunday School Educational unit for the Tecumseh Methodist Church on the five acre site north of West Brown Street and west of the Red Mill Pond.

After a caravan from the present site the members of the congregation were given the responsibility and privilege of joining in the building of the $350,000 structure which is expected to be completed in 18 months.

Harold Easton, mayor of Tecumseh, spoke to those attending. He told them that he always points with pride to the churches in this community and especially to those churches whose growth necessitates expansion. He congratulated the congregation on the task they have undertaken.

★

FOLLOWING THE DECLARATION by Rev. Porteous and the initial breaking of ground three children from the Church School participated. Jack Myers and Connie Younglove spaded and Calleen O'Brien read the proclamation.

Susan Bottorff represented the youth of the Church. Lynn Noble, chairman of the building council continued the ceremonies.

At this moment a full bloom red rose was thrown upon the broken ground by the pastor as a symbol of the living challenge accepted by the church.

Merlyn Downing, chairman of the official board; Maynard Lucas, lay leader of the church; William M. Steele Jr., assistant chairman of the building council; Mrs. Carroll Sprague(president of the Women's Society of Christian Service and Harry Stanifer, Sunday school superintendent, also turned spades of earth.

Following each action a response was given by the congregation.

★

CHARLES HIKES, from Kreighoff-Lenawee Construction Co., Adrian, also was in attendance. This company will do the actual construction based on plans from Marr and Marr Architects of Detroit.

Miles Cowdrey, choir director, led the members in the singing of the hymn, "For The Beauty of the Earth."

Following the benediction the congregation retired to their homes after being challenged again by the theme of the entire building program:

"We Believe Therefore We Build."

New Building Plans Available to Farmers

Two new building plans — one for a machinery shed and the other for a modern farm shop — are now available for Michigan farmers, according to John Comstock County Extension Director.

The first of these plans, published by the Midwest Plan Service, contains planning data to help locate a machinery shed on the farm, and shows construction details to assist in building a 30'x90' open-front shed.

The open-front has 15'x12' openings. Two 16'x12' doors in the back wall and a 15'x12' door in one end wall provide easy access to all parts of the building.

★

Machinery cutouts of 37 typical machines are included to assist in planning the size and arrangement of the building.

The plan for the machinery shed can be obtained by ordering Plan No. 74142, Machinery Shed, from the Extension Service Office at the courthouse in Adrian.

The second of these plans, for a farm shop, details a 30'x30' paved shop that provides a proper place for almost every tool. The plan contains advice on location, a floor plan of the shop, and construction details that are helpful in erecting the building.

This plan shows the location of doors, windows, work areas and recommended storage areas for the tools and equipment. A 14' overhead door allows large equipment to be repaired inside the shop.

The walls are shown as stud or pole, and retails showing how to construct and insulate either type are included.

This plan may also be obtained by writing for Order Plan No. 74119, 30'x30' Farm Shop, from the County Extension Office.

I CAN GET ONE FOR YOU, WHOLESALE

Since I used this column earlier to complain about the price of milk in Fayetteville, I must be fair and brag about one of the bargains.

This is a watermelon state. Natives tell us that occasionally the fruit gets as big as 100 pounds. I'm here to tell you that they taste like sun and morning dew and ambrosia all rolled into one flavor.

In the parking lot of a discount store we found a fellow selling melons right from his truck. His smallest was 33 pounds which he sold us for 82c. Flavor was the sweet, juicy kind found only in sun-ripened melons and the meat was a deep red. We dug our forks into the pieces and let the juice run down our chins as we savored each bite.

★

EUREKA SPRINGS is unique. Located in northwest Arkansas along the Missouri border, it is a stair-step town. This town, which has been a resort since 1880, is situated on the tops and sides of two mountains. The houses are built right up the sides of those mountains.

Yards are practically non-existent as the houses are frequently tight to the street. We saw that some home builders had to put part of their house on pilings to find enough space for it.

A brochure said the town boasted 230 streets which twine in and out the mountains, yet do not cross each other.

Eureka Springs is called "Little Switzerland". The motel business abounds. We were informed that there is no industry. The thousand permanent residents must make enough from their motels to support them the year around.

The town gets its name from the several springs which occur along the main street. Beside each one is a board giving historical information. "Grotto Spring," where horseback riders used to rest, "Lovers' Leap Spring," located under a bluff which an Indian maiden and her pursuer once jumped, and "Sweet Spring," whose water supposedly tastes sweeter than the others, are some of the ones to be found.

★

THE DOWNTOWN shops feature arts and crafts of Ozark people. There is quite a business in oil paintings (mostly landscapes and still lifes) done by local artists.

The townspeople are currently making plans for the 18th annual Ozark Folk Festival, which their village will host in late October. Quite an imposing roster of celebrities has been lined up to provide a program of "fiddling, square dancing, folk songs and specialties." Among them are the Ozark Square Dancers of Springdale, who have appeared on the Grand Ole Opry.

Driving from Eureka Springs to Beaver Dam we passed a place known as Inspiration Point Fine Arts Colony. Young musicians come here to study and offer nightly performances in an outdoor setting. We were reminded of Michigan's Interlochen, on a much smaller scale. The colony is located on a hill which offers a good view of the mountains, hence its name.

We saw some Dryden Pottery, an Arkansas product. Only native clays and quartz are used and the ware is fired by professional Arkansas power craftsmen. The Drydens have been in the pottery business for 13 generations and specialize in glazes. Their slogan is, "You look into Dryden glazes — not at them."

Since we'd chosen a 94-degree day to "do" the Eureka Springs area, we felt justified in visiting Onyx Cave, which is a cool 57 degrees all year around.

★

DID YOU KNOW you could buy a cave? The present owners bought this one as part of a 75-acre tract in March. They wanted it because of the cave's rich deposits of red clay.

Our guide told of extensive plans to enlarge the cave, remove the clay, and perhaps even make one section into an underground pottery factory.

The pity of Onyx Cave is that it has been mercilessly stripped of the formations in one room to make onyx jewelry. Fortunately this practice has been stopped, but of course the formations would need millions of years to grow again.

One of the best features of this cave is a taste of cave water. We found it very similar to spring water sampled earlier at Eureka's springs.

Once in our escapades around Arkansas we came upon a group of about 20 young people from a Methodist Church in Alabama. They were accompanied by their counsellor, his wife and the christian education director of [illegible] old us that they annually make a camping trip of a week to 10 days and take in the sights of the country. Isn't that an idea for bolstering MYF attendance?

We've come to one conclusion from our travels. If we ever take up residence in this state, we might try to squeak by without air conditioning for the house, but one thing we will insist on is an air conditioner for the car. Can one be had for a Falcon?

VISIT YOGI BEAR — Granddaughters of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ashenfelter, of 207 N. Pearl St., visited Yogi Bear during the 6th annual WTOL Day at the Toledo Zoo July 20. Tarza n and Jungle Jim star, Johnny Weissmuller joined Yogi Bear and Magilla Gorilla to highlight fe stivities for the day.

Alan Jones in Pistol Tournament

CAMP PERRY, Ohio — Alan D. Jones, 1202 Willow St., Tecumseh, is competing in the 1965 National Pistol Championships at Camp Perry, Ohio, from July 30 to Aug. 7.

The National Championship Matches are sponsored by the National Rifle Association of America and the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice in cooperation with the United States Armed Forces.

Mr. Jones and the more than 2,000 competitors firing in these matches, represent the country's finest pistol shots.

These shooters will fire a 270 aggregate composed of slow-fire, timed-fire and rapid-fire matches. Ranges of 25- and 50-yards are used in the program.

An important aspect of the National Matches is the Small Arms Firing School conducted by skilled instructors from the Army's Marksmanship Training Unit in Fort Benning, Ga.

This school is designed to train citizens in the safe and efficient use of military-type weapons. The courses are varied, covering both rifle and pistol instruction.

Both basic and advanced courses are offered for junior shooters and for those desiring to become rifle [illegible]manship instructors.

The National Match itinerary is: Pistol, July 30 to August 7; Smallbore Rifle, Aug. 8-13; and High-power Rifle, August 15-29.

Tecumseh Women Entertain Monroe Women Golfers

The Tecumseh Country Club entertained the lady golfers from the Monroe Country Club on July 28, for golf and lunch.

The good weather aided the gals in bringing in low scores. The Tecumseh winner for low gross for 18 holes was Mrs. R. H. Moore, with the low net prize going to Mrs. M. R. Blanden.

Mrs. Frank Rice won low putts. Nine hole winners from Tecumseh were Mrs. R. F. May for low gross and Mrs. Ray Schlegel for low net.

The Monroe winners were: Mrs. Byron Kosino, low gross for 18 holes; Mrs. A. J. Kohler and Mrs. William Jackson tied for low net; Mrs. Ivan Schatzka, low putts; and Mrs. E. Cable, both low gross and low net for the nine hole contest.

Insurance Co. Changes Policies

After Medicare becomes a law with President Johnson's signature, Mutual of New York will reduce its rates on new hospital insurance policies and liberalize a number of the benefit levels under new major medical policies.

Ronald J. Croll, MONY field underwriter in Tecumseh, said that the company will no longer issue lifetime medical care protection. Its new policies will be issued up to age 60 and coverage will stop at age 65, where government-financed Medicare takes over.

Irish Visitors Like Tecumseh

By Mrs. John Hamilton

If the Irish brogue sounds a bit thicker around the Thomas Hamilton household these days it's due to the pleasant visit they enjoyed during the month of July from their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Millar, of Balleymena, County Antrim, Northern Ireland.

The Millars arrived by jet at Niagara Falls, N.Y. Airport July 3 and were met by the Hamiltons who brought them directly to Tecumseh to meet the family and folks who once called Balleymena "home."

After a few days of sunning and shopping, the Millars, the Hamiltons and Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton drove to Toronto, Ont. to view the Orangemen's traditional Twelfth of July Parade and visit relatives.

The six then took a five day trip to Niagara Falls, Watkins Glen, N.Y., the Corning Glass Works, the Hershey plant, Gettysburg, Pa., and Washington, D.C.

★

IN SPITE OF the 90 degree weather and 100,000 Shriners in convention, they were able to see the famous sights from the top of the Washington Monument to Mount Vernon.

Enroute home the Hamiltons and Millars drove along the Skyline Drive in Virginia and stopped at Pittsburgh, Pa., for a clear view of the Flatiron area in transition from the top of the Gulf Building.

After more days in Tecumseh, the elder Hamiltons took their cousins north through Michigan, over the Mackinac Bridge and into Canada.

They spent several days with Mrs. Hamilton's brother in the Muskoka area, made a return visit to Toronto and enjoyed a weekend on Georgian Bay near Collingswood with another brother of Mrs. Hamilton.

The Millars fell in love with Tecumseh and chose to spend the last few days of their holiday here.

★

THEY FOUND they could not in a month's time see all that should be seen in the area nor could they soak up all the wonderful sunshine we take so much for granted at this time of year.

Northern Ireland has longer hours of daylight than do we, but the sun shines brightly only in the early morning.

Hence, when they left from the Niagara Falls Airport on July 28, they took with them not only memories of a wonderful time and luggage filled with souvenirs, but very visable evidence of their bright days in Tecumseh.

MACON MAXIMS

By MRS. HAMILTON MOORE

The Commission on Missions will meet at 7:30 p.m. Aug. 9 at the church.

The Official Church Board will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bigelow are the proud parents of a baby boy, born in Herrick Memorial Hospital July 26.

Mrs. Gerald Carey Sr. and daughter Luella, of Ypsilanti, Mrs. Dean Moore, daughter Meg and son Perry, of Tecumseh, were Wednesday luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore.

Mrs. Haddie Miller and Mrs. Louis Vershum called on Mrs. Clifford Hass in Sylvania Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rowe and family were in Blissfield Sunday attending the Reau Reunion in the American Legion Hall.

Mrs. Robert Osborne and daughter spent a few days last week with her parents.

Richard Corl is spending a few days with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. William Knabush near Maybee.

Mrs. Betty Iffland and daughter Pam, of Sylvania, and Mrs. Margaret Faust of Miami, Fla., were Friday callers on Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bigelow.

A rose was placed on the altar Sunday in honor of Bradley David Bigelow, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bigelow, born July 26th.

Mr. and Mrs. John Slick of Maybee, named their baby daughter, Martha Cleste. She was born July 18 in Ann Arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Moore and family, of Tecumseh, and Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Alderdyce, at their cottage on Iron Lake.

Rodney Moore of Tecumseh, was a Saturday overnight guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore.

Miss Pam Knabush of Maybee spent last week with her cousin Vicki Corl.

Mrs. Otto Hagens is a patient in St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor.

Carl Bartells has re-entered the University Hospital in Ann Arbor.

The Rev. and Mrs. Ronald Corl were hosts to the Grandpas and Grandmas Club, Saturday evening. Because of the cool weather the picnic supper was held in the dining room. The evening was spent visiting. The next meeting will be held in September.

Jaycee Auxiliary Chooses Summer Board Delegates

The July meeting of the Jaycee Auxiliary was held July 28, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Murray. Swimming was enjoyed and a potluck dinner served.

Delegates chosen for the summer board meeting were: Mrs. Creswell, Mrs. Walter Kiwakowski and Mrs. Dyke Helms, alternate.

New yearbooks were distributed to each member by the past president Mrs. Earl Nisbett.

The Jaycee family picnic will be held Aug. 8 at the Patterson School Park.

A tea for the new, old and prospective members is being planned by the directors, Mrs. Elwartowski and Mrs. Tom Morgon. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Helms and Mrs. Nisbett.

Two Area Men at Conference on MSU Campus

EAST LANSING — Paul F. Burns, of Tecumseh, and Paul Marks, of Britton, were reminded that "a wholesome discontent about what we are doing makes progress possible."

This was the feeling of Harry E. Nesman of the Vocational Education Division, Michigan Department of Education, who spoke at the 46th annual Conference for Teachers of Vocational Agriculture July 26-30 at Michigan State University.

"I am confident that we are ready for the forward progress of vocational agricultural education with enriched concepts, strengthened objectives and some new and expanded programs," Mr. Nesman told the more than 200 teachers and school administrators in attendance.

"This is the year of the new vocational agricultural education challenge," Mr. Nesman said. "We pledge together the forward progress of the program."

In addition to the general sessions and workshops, the conference featured regional and district FHA meetings, better chapter farming awards and the presentation of awards to those teachers with 5, 10, 20 and 30 years of service to vocational agriculture.

WSCS Meeting Notes

MACON — The general meeting of the WSCS was opened by Mrs. Carl Hawkins, the president, with a poem.

Mrs. Hamilton Moore Jr., gave the worship, which included a reading of the "Ten Commandments for Laymen." Mrs. Gerald Miller and Mrs. Agatha Camburn presented a program, "Where the Women are in the New Nations."

During the business meeting several money-making projects were discussed. Mrs. Ted Greenfield offered to have a household party.

It was decided to continue giving Memorials instead of flowers at the time of a death.

Mrs. Guy Zelluff, a member of the Worship Committee gave a report on the new hymnals.

Mrs. Harold Ruhl reported that six youths have attended church camps so far this summer.

Mrs. Ray Williams asked for volunteers to help with the Migrant workers.

The Day School will be held in the Ridgeway Methodist Church from Aug. 2 to Aug. 27. The Macon Church has been given Aug. 10 and Aug. 18 as the days they are responsible for the luncheon. Food or money donations should be made to Mrs. Williams or Mrs. Hawkins.

Mrs. Harold Ruhl, Mrs. Guy Zelluff and Mrs. Ray Williams will be in charge of the church calendars this fall.

A farewell party is being planned for Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sheward, who have sold their home and will soon be moving to Tennessee.

Jack Tonneberger at Ohio University

Jack Tonneberger, 9487 Tonneberger Drive is one of 30 attending the Ohio University guidance and counseling institute being conducted at Athens, Ohio this summer for secondary school counselors.

The institute especially places emphasis on deprived children and offers the counselors special training in working with the disadvantaged.

Practicum sessions two days a week allow participants to counsel with students from Wood County, W. Va. schools identified as having special needs.

Course work at the Institute covers the social-economic developments in the U.S.; today's education demand for youth and the [illegible] factors which lead to poverty.

The teaching facilities at the University were been utilized by the Institute including recording machines, closed circuit television, one-way vision rooms and test and occupational files.

The teaching staff of the Institute is directed by Dr. Donald Green, associate professor of education at Ohio University.

Special consultants will advise with the counselors during two day visits to the Institute. Coming as consultants are:

Dr. Edward Roeber, a national authority on counselor education from the University of Michigan; Dr. Fred Proff, from the University of Illinois to speak on group counseling; and James Tanner, assistant to the superintendent of public schools in Cleveland and in charge of special projects for youth groups in that city.

Model "A" Takes Village Spotlight

DEARBORN—The indestructible Model "A" Ford, one of the outstanding automobiles in the history of American transportation, will be spotlighted Aug. 6 through 8 at Greenfield Village.

This event is included in the regular admission charge to Greenfield Village. Summer hours are from 9 a.m. until 6:30 p.m. The Village and adjoining Henry Ford Museum are open seven days a week the year around.

"Spirit" Subject at Christian Science

The protecting influence of God in the life of the Apostle Paul will be brought out in the Bible lesson at Christian Science church services this Sunday.

The subject is "Spirit" and the responsive reading will include this statement from Paul's first letter to the Corinthians: "The manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal."

Tuesday Night Is Family Night for the WCTU

Mrs. Herbert Munger will host the annual family night for the WCTU Tuesday, at cottage on Sand Lake.

Dinner will be served at 6 p.m. with members bringing table service and a dish to pass.

Linda Gilbert Describes Her Experience in Sweden

(Editors Note: Linda Gilbert in Sweden as an exchange student with the Youth For Understanding program writes of her experiences this summer to friends in Tecumseh).

Before coming to Sweden so many of my friends asked me to write and tell them "about Sweden." I'm sorry I can't write to all of you personally, but I will try to relate to you my experiences in this one letter.

Gruvlyckevag 40
Karlstad, Sweden
July 29, 1965

Dear Friends,

The day of my departure from the States came upon me before I realized it. There I was on a jet crossing the Atlantic with 182 other excited exchange students to Europe for the summer. The jet went non-stop from Detroit to Copenhagen, Denmark.

From there to my Swedish family in Karlstad I went by train. The train is the main means of transportation in Sweden, next to the automobile.

The cars most often seen are the small compact European cars; Volvo and Saab (Swedish made cars), and various others. The American cars are not so common since they cost more than the European ones here.

★

I HAVE SEEN of the American cars, mostly Fords and Chevrolets with only a few of the other models.

Now, I would like to introduce you to my Swedish family, the Andersons. My father, Karl-Axel, is in the Swedish Army as Chief Warrant Officer with the rank of Staff Sergeant Major First Class.

Karin, my mother, has worked this past year, as most Swedish housewives, but now is busy at home.

Anita, my 18-year-old sister will be an exchange student in Corunna this coming school year. My 15-year-old brother, Bosse, is the adventurer.

The whole family enjoys slalom skiing in the big mountains of north Sweden. They also like living with nature, where they usually spend their vacations and Sundays.

We live in a large apartment building, which is common for a Swedish family.

The apartments are furnished modernly and the size of an average American home. The kitchen is well equipped with labor-saving devices.

The Swedish housewife is unusually house-proud, and by no means despises the traditional household crafts.

Frozen foods, washing-machines and self-service stores allow her to attend to the potted plants which climb over her sitting room and bring nature into the home.

In the basement of the apartments is the laundry room with two automatic washing machines and one dryer, which a family gets use of once a month.

★

OTHER DAYS the laundry must be washed by hand or with the smaller machine owned by the family. The following day the housewife gets the ironing room with various implements for ironing.

Living with a Swedish family I have tested some new foods. A popular breakfast food is 'fil', it is sour milk thickened by means of a special process.

'Knackebrod' is hard bread similar to our crackers. It tastes good with cheese another popular food.

Guide often at any time we have 'sil', raw fish. On my trip to Lapland, the northeast province of Sweden I had my first taste of reindeer.

To every dinner the Swedes have a smorgasbord before the main meal, which may consist of bread and butter — or a smorgasbord during a celebration or holiday with a table full of various fish, salads, breads, cheese, omelets, meatballs, open-faced sandwiches and many other foods.

For entertainment the Swedes love to visit over coffee. Sweden consumes almost as much coffee as the United States although they are only a little larger than California with a population of 7.5 million.

Many homes have radio and television. There is only one television station and it is only on five to seven hours in the evening during the summer.

★

IN THE WINTER it is on four hours longer. The station carries some good programs of varied entertainment.

Some American programs shown are: "Laramie", "Burke's Law", "The Dick Van Dyke Show", and "My Favorite Martian", with Swedish subscripts. They have films also from England, Italy and Russia.

When summer comes thousands of families exchange urban life for a little wooden cottage in the countryside.

There, for a couple of carefree months, they enjoy the simple life. Our family did that in July for three weeks.

We were in Lapland, Europe's last unspoiled wilderness. Here the nomad Laps still follow the reindeer up to the mountains every summer.

★

OUR COTTAGE was about 10 miles from Kiruna on a river. Kiruna is situated 100 miles above the Arctic Circle.

The temperature there ranges from 40 degrees at night to the 60s during the day.

A wonderful experience was the midnight sun. During the night no artificial light was needed.

The darkest it got was at midnight when the sun was just over the horizon. After midnight the sun starts rising again.

★

DURING THE WINTER, though, it is dark all day except for two hours at noon when it is like dusk.

I spent a day with my family in the highest mountain range in Sweden, to the north of Kiruna. The snow-capped mountains were so beautiful that words can't describe them.

Looking at the mountains we were able to see a herd of reindeer. All reindeer in Sweden are owned by the Lapps, but still run wild.

The Lapps are short, dark people. They are beautifully dressed in costumes of bright red, blue, yellow, and green.

The majority of the Lapps live in wooden houses, but there are still some who live in sod huts, because they must keep moving with their reindeer.

The reindeer are seen quite often along the roads of northern Sweden.

★

WHEN THE FINNISH people immigrated to Sweden many years ago they brought with them the 'Finnish bastu'.

The bastu is a steam bath which is refreshing and cleans the body much better than water and soap.

These baths can be found everywhere in north Sweden and the Swedes can't do without them. In every cottage there is such a steam room.

Traveling from Kiruna back to Karlstad I saw much of Sweden and can truly say that it is a beautiful country.

The people are wonderful and hospitable. Everyone welcomes others into their home and the guest is always served coffee with platters of breads and cakes.

Sweden is really a fine country.

See you in September.

Yours truly,
Linda Gilbert

Missionaries Return t African Work

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Janousek and daughters, Deborah and Susan, former Tecumseh residents, left Aug. 5 and flew from Grand Rapids, Aug. 5 to Monrovia, Liberia to again take up their missionary work in West Africa.

During the past year Mr. Janousek has completed work on a masters degree in education administration and was graduated July 30 from Western Michigan University.

His wife, Charlotte, has been busy with weekly speaking engagements, many to Women's Groups.

The girls have been busy with school activities and spent a week at Camp Knight of the Woods at Douglas Lake in July in addition to helping their mother with her speeches.

All expect to be back to their individual tasks by Aug. 9; Mr. Janousek administrator of the College of West Africa; Charlotte establishing her school clinic; and the girls at school.

Debbie will graduate this year and expects to enroll next summer in Asbury College in Wilmore, Ky.

In a letter to friends, the Janousek family expressed gratitude to all who assisted them in getting together and packing 29 pieces of supplies for their work with the natives.

Before going into missionary work, Mr. Janousek was a teacher in the Tecumseh public schools and his wife was employed as a nurse in the office of Dr. Richard Dustin.

E. Pakistan Guest Tells About Home

Shanesul Huq, of East Pakistan, a house guest of the Raynor Van Valkenburg family, discussed his homeland at the recent meeting of the Jolly Farmers Farm Bureau group held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Feight.

Mr. Huq told them that he owns 150 acres on which he grows potatoes and vegetables and employs 12 farm laborers. Mr. Huq also owns a brick factory in which he employs nearly 500 workers.

He said he "appreciated" the fact that here a college-educated man would come back and work on the farm. In E. Pakistan, it would be "above their dignity", Mr. Huq said.

He also appreciated the family spirit here in that all members of the family help on the farm.

His countrymen spend between 70 and 80 per cent of their dollar for food as compared to 19 per cent in the United States.

With 100,000 people per square mile, birth control and illiteracy are their main problems. Education is the key to these problems and as much as possible is being done in these areas.

The group made plans to assist at the Farm Bureau food tent and the Lenawee County Fair next week.

Herbert Willmoth reviewed the discussion topic, "Pricing and Bargaining for Improved Farm Incomes," and concluded that there would have to be some type of bargaining for farmers in the future in order to improve prices.

The hostess served cake, cookies and Jello. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Young.

Robert Bowers, C. Harmonson Win Golf Tourney

Dr. Robert Bowers of Tecumseh Country Club and Charlie Harmonson of Lenawee Country Club combined to post a winning 61 best ball net score Sunday when golfers from the two clubs played at Adrian.

Trophies were awarded the winners.

Television personalities from children's shows will perform for young visitors to the Michigan State Fair Aug. 27 through Sept. 6.

BRITTON BRIEFS

By CHRISTINE FAIRBANKS

Laurie Jo Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hall, returned home Tuesday after spending a few days in Monroe visiting her cousins and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Bibler and daughters.

Mrs. Walter Prill and son, Kenneth, left Friday noon from Metropolitan Airport for Tucson, Ariz., where they will visit her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Vershum and family.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Grudier of Tampa, Fla., arrived last week to spend the remainder of the summer with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Reeck and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Banks entertained for the pleasure of her daughter, Kym, on her eighth birthday anniversary Thursday afternoon. Seventeen children played games and were served ice cream, birthday cake, and Jello.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown and sons, Jim and Jeff, and Mr. and Mrs. William Saxton and family have returned home after a two-week camping trip near East Jordan. Jack Brown remained in Britton with his grandmother, Mrs. Louis Kovach.

Kevin Beal is spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Cal Rohrback in Ann Arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hetrick and children left last Friday for a few days' vacation in Gatlinburg, Tenn., in the Smoky Mountain National Park.

Mrs. Lee Taylor, Mrs. Paul Rowlands, Mrs. Joseph Hall, Mrs. George Brablec, Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks, Mrs. Walter Prill and Mrs. Martin Ivan, all members of the G-8 card club, and Mrs. Keith Halsey, guest, enjoyed a dinner and theater party in Toledo last Wednesday evening. The gals plan to make this an annual event.

Mrs. Martha Brady of Whitemore Lake is spending a few days as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Moore.

Mrs. Martin Ivan's mother, Mrs. Anna Cevora of Allen Park, and her niece, June Cevora, are spending some time this summer with the Ivan family.

Three Families Gather for 17th Annual Reunion

BRITTON—Mr. and Mrs. John Morey entertained members of the Brehmer, Marks and Wedner families Sunday for the 17th annual reunion at their home near Wellsville.

Sixty-five persons from 23 families and one guest were served a basket dinner. Vice-president Carroll James conducted a business session and officers were elected: They are:

President — Kimbal Frye.
Vice-president—Franklin Fergus.
Secretary and treasurer—Mrs. Bert Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brehmer of Milan extended an invitation to the group for the 1966 reunion.

Ice cream and cake were served following the meeting. Those attending were from Berea, O., Holland, Manitou Beach, Whitmore Lake, Adrian, Milan, Blissfield, Tecumseh and Britton.

Rain Shortens Band Booster Sunday Dinner

BRITTON — Charcoal broiled chicken, baked beans, cole slaw and homemade pies, all in readiness, and then came the rain.

Band Boosters of the Britton High School were deluged but even at that they sold out and before their customers were all served.

The boosters are most apologetic to those who came after 2 p.m. and found not even an old gizzard.

George Berryman, band director, expressed thanks to all those who helped with the project even though the rain made the work extremely difficult.

Winners of the ticket sale contest and also the profits will be announced at a later date.

Patricia Eberhardt Honored at Bridal Shower Friday

BRITTON — A bridal shower for Patricia Eberhardt was held Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Jerry Benedict.

Others assisting were Mrs. Cal Rohrback, Mrs. William Swanson and Mrs. Donald Dickerson.

Thirty-two classmates and friends played party bridge with prizes awarded to the winners. Mrs. Lawrence Hoagland won the door prize.

A centerpiece of green gladioli and yellow chrysanthemums was used and a green and yellow decorated cake was served during the refreshment hour.

Mrs. Jerry Fry and Susan Fry of Bellville were among the guests. Miss Eberhardt will become the bride of Patrick Bolen September 25.

Principal Moves Into New Home

BRITTON — Charles Schankin, who will assume his duties as principal of the Britton-Macon Area School on August 16, moved to the former Curtis Banks family residence at 167 N. Main St., Britton, last week.

He and Mrs. Schankin formerly lived in Petersburg, and Mr. Schankin was a teacher in the Custer Junior High School in Monroe.

Pat Eberhardt Guest of Honor at Bridal Shower

BRITTON — Pat Eberhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt, of Britton, who will become the bride of Pat Bowlen, of Belleville, on September 25, was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous bridal shower Friday evening.

Mrs. Jerry Benedict, Mrs. Donald Dickerson, Mrs. Cal Rhorback and Mrs. John Swanston were co-hostesses for the event, which was held in the Benedict home.

The 35 friends attending played party bridge, and prizes were awarded to the winners and to the guest of honor.

Pastel colors were used in decorating and the gifts were placed under a large yellow and green umbrella. The refreshment table was centered with yellow and green flowers and a decorated shower cake.

Two Tecumseh Teachers Attend Summer School

BRITTON — Mrs. Geraldine Beal, of Britton, and Mrs. Lillian Buttolph, of Tecumseh, both teachers in the Tecumseh school system, left Saturday for William and Mary College at Williamsburg, Va., where they will be attending summer school for two weeks.

They will return by way of New York and the World's Fair.

Don Earles Wins Trophy in Feature

Don Earles grabbed the lead on the 14th lap of the 35-lap feature race at Manchester Speedway and held the lead over the other 16 cars to pick up the checkered flag and a trophy.

Friday, July 23 was the Midseason Championship Trophy Races with trophies being awarded to all the night's winners.

Ed Hage picked up the trophy for the fastest qualifying time as he beat the other 40 cars that qualified.

Jerry Evilsizer was the winner in the semi-feature, finishing ahead of 14 other cars.

The 15-lap consolation went to Ken Horn who held the lead for nine laps after moving in front on the sixth.

Hage also took the pursuit as he started in the tail position.

Work Starts on Post Office

BRITTON — Construction of the new United States Post Office in Britton is expected to begin this week, according to contractor, Mr. Arnold Hasenflug of Riga.

The demolition of the old Legion building has been completed, and the area will soon be leveled so construction can begin. Completion date is scheduled for December.

Mr. Hasenflug will construct the building according to U. S. Post Office Department specifications, and then rent it to the department.

The building will remain under private ownership, with the owner paying local real estate taxes.

Postmaster General John A. Gronouski explains that the post office department's capital investment is limited substantially to postal equipment.

The new building, located on the north side of M-50, will represent an estimated investment of $17,500 by the successful bidder. It will be leased to the department for five years with renewal options running through 10 years at an annual rental of $1,950 for the term.

"This project is in accordance with our policy of building new post offices only where they are urgently needed," Mr. Gronouski said.

"When fully operational, the additional space and more modern equipment will, in the long run, more than offset the extra cost involved by producing more efficient handling of mail — all in accord with President Johnson's directive to provide the best postal service at the least possible cost," Mr. Gronouski said.

Modest Man Glad To Help Save Couple

A new resident of the Tipton area, Carlton Cushing, made his presence known in a big way Wednesday when he came to the aid of a couple after their boat capsized on a private lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen, of Wisner Hwy., Tipton, were fishing when their boat flipped over throwing them into the water.

Mrs. Allen, 52, can't swim and when she came to the surface of the water, she found herself underneath her capsized boat.

Her husband, who Mrs. Allen describes as an excellent swimmer, was thrown away from the boat and when he surfaced he couldn't find his wife.

Mr. Allen began to yell for help, and his cries were heard by Mr. Cushing, who was fishing nearby with his son, Larry, 24, of Detroit.

Mr. Cushing and his son didn't have a motor on their craft so they rowed the distance of approximately 500 feet to the Allen boat.

Mrs. Allen said she was quite safe under the boat, but her husband didn't know where she was.

"I was quite comfortable, and didn't panic, but it's because I can't swim that my husband was so worried," Mrs. Allen said.

With Mr. Cushing's help, Mr. Allen was able to free his wife, and they got to shore, wet but safe.

Mr. Cushing moved to his present home on Monagan Hwy. about three months ago according to Mrs. Allen.

"They are very nice people and very modest," Mrs. Allen said.

"When we thanked them, Mr. Cushing said he was just very glad he was in a position to help us," Mrs. Allen said.

Entry Form Deadline Nears for Old Timers' Day at Fair

Michigan's senior citizens were reminded July 29 that entry deadlines for three State Fair Old Timers' Day contests are drawing near.

Old Timers' Day this year will be Aug. 30. In previous years the day has been a Wednesday. The State Fair itself opens Aug. 27, and runs through Labor Day, Sept. 6.

The three contests and their deadlines:

1 — Two Senior Citizen of the Year Awards will go to senior citizens for community contributions in service and in leadership — one award in each category. Individuals or groups may obtain nomination forms from William J. Hahn, director of special events, Michigan State Fair, Detroit, Michigan 48203. Nominations must be submitted by Aug. 20.

2 — Cash prizes as well as special State Fair awards will go to Old Timer "shut-ins" writing the best letters describing their experiences at a State Fair of 50 or more years ago. A panel of writers will judge the entries. The letters should be addressed to Mr. Hahn at the same address. Deadline for letters is Aug. 20.

3 — Cash prizes will be awarded for the best photos taken at any Michigan State Fair held before 1920. Five prizes will be given. Photos will be returned at the owners' request. Photo fans who are not senior citizens but who possess old State Fair pictures may have them entered by any Michigan senior citizen. Deadline for submission of photos to Mr. Hahn is Aug. 26.

Public Is Invited to Card Party This Saturday

A public euchre party will be held Saturday, at 8 p.m. at the Tecumseh Grange Hall. Refreshments will be furnished by the committee.

The regular Grange meeting to have been held Aug. 12 has been postponed because of the Lenawee County Fair. The meeting will be held Aug. 26.

Long and Short

By TOM RIORDAN

Elsewhere in this week's edition, there is the story of an industrial appointment, Dale Clark of Tecumseh being named to a top post with H. W. Tuttle & Co.

On the surface, this is an ordinary run-of-mine announcement.

But that's far from the whole story, which really has the spark of the old pioneer spirit.

Following his military service in World War II, Dale carved out a fine 15-year career with General Telephone Co., working his way up to manager of the Tecumseh office.

But always lurking in the back of his mind was the desire to become an electrical engineer. The Navy had given Dale a taste of college, but only a few months.

He had entered the service right from his Sturgis High School graduation in 1953.

One day in 1960 he made an almost [illegible] Jackson. He told his phone company boss that as of Jan. 1, 1961, he would resign his position.

Dale said he was going to enter the University of Michigan as an electrical engineering student.

His classes were to start in June and he took off five months early to prep for the task ahead.

Dale was a full-time student from that time on and will receive his degree this month, a truly remarkable effort.

There probably should be two names on that diploma. Dale's wife, Halcyon, a secretary at Tecumseh Products Co., deserves special recognition, too.

She applauded the decision from the start and kept the paychecks coming in during the four years of Dale's study.

Apparently, the Sidewalk Sale of last Friday was a winner, based on a quick survey of merchants.

Sally Pope of Gaston & Son Jewelry was delirious over the unexpected sale of two diamonds, plus many other nice cash-register ringers.

She said business wasn't spectacular outside, but inside trade was way up.

One of the event's tri-chairmen, Dorothy Osborne of the department store of the same name, grinned, "An overwhelming success."

An army of shoppers jammed Dorothy's sidewalk promptly at 9 a.m. and didn't leave until their arms were overflowing with bundles.

Ray Dobrinsky of Ken-Ray Drugs was witnessing his first sidewalk event here and called it an "unqualified success with lots of people in town."

Another tri-chairman, John Day at Woolworth's reported that by 2 p.m., his sales equalled a normal Friday.

Mrs. Marv Watkins of dress shop fame noted, "I had a real good day, better than last year."

But there was a dissenting voice, that of Jean Colgrove, the gift store gal, "It didn't seem as big as last year's."

Humid weather thinned the crowds much of the afternoon, but they grew to king-size with dusk and stayed that way until closing time.

"The Necessities" kept the youngsters moving in the street dance, proving kids really love the modern trend in music.

Music?

In summary, it's my opinion the sidewalk has become so overworked by every town and hamlet in the state, our town should think in terms of a new motif.

However, it must also be noted that open-air merchandising is fun and people enjoy the plan. With some fresh touches and a new name, the promotion probably should be continued.

16 Attend Baby Shower for Mrs. Eugene Withrow

Mrs. Donald Withrow, assisted by Mrs. Stanley Dermyer, held a baby shower Aug. 4 honoring Mrs. Eugene Withrow of Birdsall.

Sixteen were present to play games for which prizes were awarded. Mrs. Sydney Turner made a beautiful centerpiece of pink and white gladioli enhanced by a miniature doctor holding a tiny baby doll.

AUTO DEALER GEORGE UNDERWOOD, JR., INSPECTS T HE 600-ACRE KUEHMANN FARM NORTH OF TECUMSEH

New Speculation Arises Over Kuehmann Farm

New speculation has arisen over the future of the 600-acre Kuehmann Potato Chip Co. farm between Tecumseh and Clinton.

A three-year option on the land has been taken by George V. Underwood, Jr., Clinton Ford-Mercury dealer, who states he has no definite plans in mind.

However, he did admit that it possibly could be used for industrial purposes.

The farm is one of the largest in the area and is located on both sides of Tecumseh-Clinton Rd., running roughly from Allen Rd. to Pennington Hwy., a distance of one mile. Its western boundry is the river Raisin.

The Kuehmann Co. owned the land for 15 years, raising potatoes for its chip industry, selling the land several years ago to Charles Hootman of Toledo, from whom Mr. Underwood obtained his option.

Tecumseh Schools Have Three Weeks To Find Teachers

With the Tecumseh schools scheduled to open the 1965-66 term in about three weeks, three teachers are still needed to fill the staff.

Vacancies exist in the third grade at West Branch, high school shop, and Junior High mathematics.

The administration is hopeful of filling all of the positions except for shop.

Mom, 18, Is Pancake Race Champion

Mrs. Harold Underwood is Tecumseh's 1965 Pancake Race champion.

The 18-year-old mother of an infant son, won the title and a $25 prize Friday evening in the fifth annual running of the event, which has become a traditional feature of Sidewalk Sale Day in Tecumseh.

She bested a field of seven, including two former champs, Sandy Theobald of Adrian, who won last summer, and Mrs. Richard Gardner, 1962 champ.

Mrs. Underwood is the former Janet Bilby and resides with her husband and son on Allen Rd.

Runner-up honors for '65 went to Mrs. Gardener, 26, who lives at 1295 Russell Rd. and was awarded $15.

Mrs. Underwood posted a time of 49.6 seconds, while Mrs. Gardener had 54.6 seconds.

Third place and $10 went to Mrs. James Shiels, 32, of rural Britton, who was clocked in 55 seconds.

Other competitors included Mrs. Gaylord Moses of Hudson, who took second last year; Mrs. Daryl Shaw of Blissfield and Mrs. Clifford Adkins, 303 E. Pottawatamie St.

★

BOTH SIDES of S. Evans St. were jammed with spectators for the event, which was run in three heats. Officials were Ted Todd and Fig Newton, who timed the leaders in each one with regulation truck stop watches.

Prize money was donated by Tecumseh merchants.

Vicky Dee gets congratulatory hug from former queen Elaine Hudson as Christine Reeves watches.

Vicky Dee Chosen 1965 Fair Queen

By PHIL PIERSON

Vicky Dee, 17, of Medina Township, is the Queen of the 1965 Lenawee County Fair.

Representing the Lime Creek Grange No. 712, Vicky was crowned by last year's queen, Elaine Hudson, 18, in a ceremony in front of the grandstand on the County fairgrounds Monday night.

Crowned second runner-up was Christine Reeves, of Tecumseh, representing the Tecumseh Rotary Club.

Beth Copeland, 17, of Adrian, sponsored by the Town and Country Ski Club was the first runner-up.

The girls were among 31 contestants in the beauty contest sponsored by the Adrian Kiwanis Club.

The evening portion of the contest began with the naming of the 10 finalists who were selected in a preliminary contest Monday afternoon.

Each of the 10 girls had to answer a question drawn from a bowl on the judges' table.

Some of the questions were:

"What would you do if some of your friends were gossiping about one of your best friends?"

"When you're out on a date, do you prefer to do most of the talking yourself or do you like your date to talk the most?"

★

THE QUESTION ASKED of Miss Reeves was: "If a boy whom you like very much called you up for a date and you already had a date, what would you tell him?"

"My first reaction would be to break my other date, but after I thought about it, I would tell him I was busy and to call me tomorrow," Christine answered.

After the questions were answered, the four judges asked Miss Dee and Miss Copeland to pass before them for a second time.

"I didn't know what to think. I thought maybe I'd done something wrong," Vicky said after the contest.

Originally from Fayetteville, Ohio, Vicky is now living in Medina Township and will be a senior at Waldron High School this fall.

She plans to attend college but has not decided which one and is uncertain what her major subject will be.

"I would like to go into elementary education, but right now I'm a dance instructor in Hudson and maybe I'll stick to that," Vicky said.

"I CAME HERE expecting someone else to win," Vicky said, "this is something you never expect to happen to yourself. I just want to thank everyone who had anything to do with the fair."

The judges were:

Phyllis Siegal, from Siegal Sportswear in Adrian; Madeleine Rossinger, from the Patricia Stevens Finishing School in Toledo; C. T. Hoagland, from Richland Furs in Blissfield; and Dr. Daniel Scully, speech and drama teacher at Adrian College.

Vicky will now represent Lenawee County in the Michigan State Fair Queen Contest to be held at the State Fairgrounds in Detroit Sept. 1-2.

She will also make numerous appearances throughout the county until next year when she will surrender her crown to another Fair Queen.

Vocational Survey To Begin in Fall

A county-wide study of high school vocational and technical education opportunities will be conducted this fall.

Philip T. Bailey, vocational education consultant for Lenawee County, will be the survey director.

Mr. Bailey pointed out that the primary objective is to provide information from which a comprehensive and coordinated plan can be developed for future vocational education.

The survey will also study ways to implement new occupational programs for all schools, both public and parochial.

"Superintendents of all the county schools have given this survey top priority," states Mr. Bailey.

"They feel that we must do a better job in our schools of educating the youth who do not plan on entering college upon graduating from high school."

★

MILTON PORTER, county superintendent, pointed out that, "There is no place in our society today for the un-skilled worker. This survey will study the need for all the occupations in Lenawee County and propose ways to train our high school youth successfully to fill these jobs."

The survey will be conducted through the use of committees composed of school board members, superintendents, teachers and numerous lay advisory personnel.

The county superintendents office will be the survey's main office. If any interested citizens would like to serve on any of the committees for the survey contact Mr. Bailey at the county superintendent's office.

Similar occupational education surveys are being conducted throughout the state.

Authority to gather the information comes from the Michigan Department of Public Instruction.

Class Scheduled Foodhandlers'

The Lenawee County Health Department will hold a foodhandler's class on Wednesday, Aug. 18.

The class will be held in the study hall of the Adrian Junior High School located on Church St. at 8 p.m.

All persons in the county, who work in foodhandling establishments, are required to secure a foodhandler's card.

To obtain this card, the individual must have a tuberculin skin test and/or X-ray and also attend one Foodhandler's Class.

Mom's Softball

The Moms competed against the dads in the final Moms softball game of the year.

Batting from the opposite side of the plate than they usually do, the dads still managed to pound out a 15-3 win.

Harold Black led the dads with a homerun, and Maxine Eggleston made an outstanding catch for her team.

TO THE EDITORS:

You asked, "What are wortle berries?"

Wortle berries are misspelled whortleberries.

Now you are asking, "What are whortleberries?"

According to the 1942 edition of New Garden Encyclopedia, Whortleberry: rarely used common name for Vaccinium myrtillus and V. corymbosum, which are, respectively, lowbush and highbush blueberries, with pinkish flowers.

According to American College dictionary, 1953 edition, Whortleberry: the edible, black berry of the ericaceous shrub, Vaccinium Myrtillus, of Europe and Siberia.

Now, Mr. Editor, for the time and effort I have spent in enlightening you on this subject, I feel that you owe me a generous helping of whortleberry pie!

OAK STANDS IN MIDDLE OF RIGHT-OF-WAY INTO NEW SUBDIVISION

VOICE OF THE HERALD

Giant Red Oak May Be Doomed

A mighty Northern Red Oak, probably one of the oldest in Tecumseh, faces a perilous future — maybe even the chain saw.

If you've been around the area long and ever driven over Brown St., you probably have seen it. The oak is 500 feet north of Brown, in front of the site for Tecumseh's new Methodist Church.

The erection of the new church will not endanger the giant, which measures 20 feet in circumference, however, the planned River Raisin Estates may.

As the plat of the new subdivision now stands, a boulevard-type entry will come off of Brown into the housing development, running about 1,000 feet to the north.

One of the first questions that was asked of Raymond Nies, president of Demand Builders of Toledo, was, "What about the tree?"

He admitted he wasn't sure where it lay in relation to the proposed street, but he thought in the middle. This could mean the oak ending up in the island between the roadways. Or it might be enough off-center to call for removal.

The Herald has an idea, which would mean preservation of the sturdy Red Oak. Instead of cutting the road straight through, why not make a circular drive?

This might mean nipping a portion of the Methodist Church front lawn, but it certainly would add to the beauty of the congregation's property.

Surplus May Touch $22,000

City Manager Cal Zorn estimated that there will be a $22,000 surplus in the city's operating fund as of July 1.

Annual audit has just been completed and the actual surplus will shortly be determined.

One councilman asked if this could mean a raise for policeman, the question being prompted by the comment of two weeks ago by Chief Murrel Clark that the turnover in officers was due to low salaries.

Mr. Zorn told The Herald that all policemen received $516 annual raises as of last month, which places them $300 over men in the Sheriff Department, but still $400 under Adrian patrolmen.

The present police budget is $84,656 or 14% of total expenditure to operate the city.

Vocational Survey To Begin in Fall

A county-wide study of high school vocational and technical education opportunities will be conducted this fall.

Philip T. Bailey, vocational education consultant for Lenawee County, will be the survey director.

Mr. Bailey pointed out that the primary objective is to provide information from which a comprehensive and coordinated plan can be developed for future vocational education.

The survey will also study ways to implement new occupational programs for all schools, both public and parochial.

"Superintendents of all the county schools have given this survey top priority," states Mr. Bailey.

"They feel that we must do a better job in our schools of educating the youth who do not plan on entering college upon graduating from high school."

MILTON PORTER, county superintendent, pointed out that, "There is no place in our society today for the un-skilled worker. This survey will study the need for all the occupations in Lenawee County and propose ways to train our high school youth successfully to fill these jobs."

The survey will be conducted through the use of committees composed of school board members, superintendents, teachers and numerous lay advisory personnel.

The county superintendents office will be the survey's main office. If any interested citizens would like to serve on any of the committees for the survey contact Mr. Bailey at the county superintendent's office.

Similar occupational education surveys are being conducted throughout the state.

Authority to gather the information comes from the Michigan Department of Public Instruction.

Class Scheduled Foodhandlers'

TO THE EDITORS:

You asked, "What are wortle berries?"

Wortle berries are misspelled whortleberries.

Now you are asking, "What are whortleberries?"

According to the 1942 edition of New Garden Encyclopedia, Whortleberry: rarely used common name for Vaccinium myrtillus and V. corymbosum, which are, respectively, lowbush and highbush blueberries, with pinkish flowers.

According to American College dictionary, 1953 edition, Whortleberry: the edible, black berry of the ericaceous shrub, Vaccinium Myrtillus, of Europe and Siberia.

Now, Mr. Editor, for the time and effort I have spent in enlightening you on this subject, I feel that you owe me a generous helping of whortleberry pie!

OAK STANDS IN MIDDLE OF RIGHT-OF-WAY INTO NEW SUBDIVISION

VOICE OF THE HERALD

Giant Red Oak May Be Doomed

A mighty Northern Red Oak, probably one of the oldest in Tecumseh, faces a perilous future — maybe even the chain saw.

If you've been around the area long and ever driven over Brown St., you probably have seen it. The oak is 500 feet north of Brown, in front of the site for Tecumseh's new Methodist Church.

The erection of the new church will not endanger the giant, which measures 20 feet in circumference, however, the planned River Raisin Estates may.

As the plat of the new subdivision now stands, a boulevard-type entry will come off of Brown into the housing development, running about 1,000 feet to the north.

One of the first questions that was asked of Raymond Nies, president of Demand Builders of Toledo, was, "What about the tree?"

He admitted he wasn't sure where it lay in relation to the proposed street, but he thought in the middle. This could mean the oak ending up in the island between the roadways. Or it might be enough off-center to call for removal.

The Herald has an idea, which would mean preservation of the sturdy Red Oak. Instead of cutting the road straight through, why not make a circular drive?

This might mean nipping a portion of the Methodist Church front lawn, but it certainly would add to the beauty of the congregation's property.

Surplus May Touch $22,000

City Manager Cal Zorn estimated that there will be a $22,000 surplus in the city's operating fund as of July 1.

Annual audit has just been completed and the actual surplus will shortly be determined.

One councilman asked if this could mean a raise for policeman, the question being prompted by the comment of two weeks ago by Chief Murrel Clark that the turnover in officers was due to low salaries.

Mr. Zorn told The Herald that all policemen received $516 annual raises as of last month, which places them $300 over men in the Sheriff Department, but still $400 under Adrian patrolmen.

The present police budget is $84,656 or 14% of total expenditure to operate the city.

Mrs. Dunbar Holds WSCS Picnic Dinner

BRITTON — Thirty members and guests attended the picnic dinner of the Britton and Ridgeway Women's Society of Christian Service at the home of Mrs. Lowell Dunbar Aug. 5.

Mrs. Edward Bailey, spiritual life chairman, used "Nature" as her topic for the worship service. The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Robert Mallock.

Plans for coming events included a Father and Son breakfast to be held Sept. 26 at 9 a.m. in the Ridgeway church. The Annual Fall Festival will be held Nov. 11.

Discarded nylons were brought for an overseas project, and sheets were torn for bandages for overseas use. All members present received their date books for the 1965-66 year.

Mrs. Allen Bower and Mrs. Richard Linn joined the WSCS.

A total of 50 shut-in calls was reported.

Mrs. Paul Frazier will be in charge of the September meeting, which will be on the 25th anniversary of the WSCS.

Britton Leaders Help To Judge 4-H Tractor Rodeo

Lenawee County 4-H members tried their skill at driving and backing between stakes at the Lenawee County 4-H Tractor Rodeo at the Lenawee County Youth Center Saturday.

The Senior Contest was won by Steve Eldred.

Alan Thompson of the South Riga Go-Getters won the Junior event.

The dads also took their try to see if they were as good as their sons. Willis Thompson won the contest with Russ and Don Lutton following in respective order.

Among judges of the events for the boys were Fred Long and Russell Lutton of Britton.

Helping out by supplying tractors was Tecumseh Farm Equipment.

4 House Permits Issued in Town

Tecumseh housing construction continued its boom through July with the city issuing four house permits and two apartment permits.

CLINTON—A graveside prayer service was held at Riverside Cemetery Tuesday morning, Aug. 3, for the Rev. Brooks Warren, 91, of St. Louis, Mo., with the Rev. Paul McKenna officiating.

Mr. Warren was born in Hillsdale, attended Hillsdale College and Oberlin Seminary.

He was paster of the First Congregational Church of Clinton from 1919 to 1930.

He is survived by his widow, an invalid residing in St. Louis, Mo. and three children all of whom live outside Michigan.

● RAY SMITH

Ray Smith, 75, died at 1 a.m., Aug. 11, at his residence at 12260 Ford Hwy., rural Clinton. He had been in failing health for the past five years.

He was born Aug. 8, 1892, in Essex City, Ont., the son of Joseph and Mae Merrill Smith. He married Florence Hendershot March 30, 1918. He was engaged in farming.

Besides his widow, he is survived by two sons, Robert, of Tecumseh, and Lee, of Macon; three daughters, Mrs. John Kelly, of Macon, Mrs. John Billau, of Milan and Margaret at home and one brother, Roy, of Adrian, two sisters, Mrs. Amy Cole, of Detroit and Mrs. Al Schaedler, of Crown Point, Ind., 11 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Friday, at 2 p.m. at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home. The Rev. Paul Brantingham will officiate and burial will be in Macon Cemetery.

Memorial gifts for the Cancer Fund may be left at Green-Dunn Funeral Home.

● PATRICIA SUE CARSON

Funeral services were held Monday in Everiss Funeral Home in Adrian for Patricia Sue Carson, the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Carson, of 6650 Pawson Rd., Sand Lake, who died Aug. 6 in University Medical Center, Ann Arbor. She had been ill for three years. The Rev. Frank Thompson officiated. Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery in Adrian.

Born in Monticello, Fla., Feb. 6, 1961, she moved to Sand Lake with her parents three years ago. Surviving besides her parents, are one brother, William E. Carson of Adrian; three sisters, Neoma, Nancy and Peggy at home; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Church of Manchester; great-grandmother, Mrs. Lucy Church of Garden City. She was preceded in death by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carson.

● JOSEPH ALFRED RUSSELL

Funeral services were held Aug. 12 at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home, for Joseph Alfred Russell, who died suddenly Aug. 10 at his home at 1336 Lakeshore Dr., Wamplers Lake. He had been in ill health for three years. The Rev. Frank Hawthorne officiated. Burial was in the Ridgeway Cemetery.

The son of Elmer and Jessie Bacon Russell, he was born in Tecumseh Oct. 6, 1911. Mr. Russell married Emma Lowe June 15, 1940. She died July 16, 1965. Mr. Russell was a veteran of World War II, a member of the Uderwood-Orr Post of the American Legion and St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Tecumseh. He formerly was employed at Tecumseh Products Co.

In addition to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Russell of Tecumseh, he is survived by a brother, Elmer, of Melvindale; a sister, Mrs. Charles (Charlotte) Parker of Clinton

Former Tecumseh Golf Champion in Toledo Tourney

Bill Holmes, former Tecumseh Country Club champion, reached the semi-finals last week in the annual Toledo District Golf Tournament.

After qualifying for the tourney on Monday, he won two matches Tuesday, another Wednesday morning, and then was ousted Wednesday afternoon.

Sixty-three amateurs in the Toledo golf distrist teed off for the event at the famous Inverness Country Club, site of past National Open tournaments.

STRAIGHT SHOOTER — Army Cadet Michael D. Rohrer, son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Rohrer, 604 Center Dr., Tecumseh, checks his target after firing the .45 caliber automatic pistol in his third week of the 1965 Reserve Officer Training Corps' summer camp that began July 2 at Fort Riley, Kan. Cadet Rohrer is one of 1500 cadets participating in the extensive six-week program which will end Aug. 7. He is receiving advanced training in the military subjects he has been studying at the University of Michigan, in Ann Arbor, and is learning the skills necessary to prepare him for a future commission as a second lieutenant. Cadet Rohrer was graduated from Tecumseh High School.

Police Take Double Win

The Tecumseh Police strengthened their hold on first place in the Slo-pitch League when they swept a double-header from Corrugated Box, 8-3, and 6-0.

In the first game, Corrugated took a 1-0 lead with a run in the second inning.

In the fourth, Bill Burkert, of the Police, doubled and Clyde Locker and Ron Anderson followed with triples to give the Police the lead.

The same combination accounted for three more runs in the sixth. Burkert rapped a single and Locker and Anderson again followed with triples.

Locker took the mound win in the first game and led his team at the plate with 3-for-4. Burkert also had 3-for-4.

In the second game, Locker allowed only three hits in pitching his team to the shutout win.

Harry Withrow and Ron Baxter hit back-to-back doubles in the second inning to produce the first and winning run for the Police.

In the sixth, Bob Wilkins doubled and Baxter slammed the day's only home run.

Baxter and Wilkins each had 2-for-3 to lead the Police at bat.

John Green was the losing pitcher in both games for Corrugated.

Family Has Guests for One Week

Sgt. and Mrs. George W. Baker and family of Bangor, Me., spent last week with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. David Schoonover, of 1101 Murray Dr.

Another sister and husband of Mr. Schoonover, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd McCarty and three children of Urbana, Ohio, spent last week at a cottage on Evans Lake and were visitors here frequently.

Mr. Schoonover's parents, J. Dale Schoonover of Chicago, spent the week at the Harvey House.

On Saturday, Aug. 7, the Baker's infant son, William Vance, 1½, was baptized in a ceremony at the St. Peter's Episcopal Church by the Rev. Frank Hawthorne.

Sunday afternoon the David Schoonovers were hosts for a family party marking their first wedding anniversary. There were 60 guests present including Mrs. David Schoonover's relatives from Monroe.

The out of town visitors returned to their homes on Monday.

3 Laps Left When Earles Takes Lead

It took Don Earles 22 laps to gain the lead in Friday night's feature race at Manchester Speedway, but once in front he was never headed as he won the 25-lap race.

In winning the race, Earles beat Ed Hage, the night's top qualifier who finished second, and Larry Marowelli who took third.

Dick Carr waited even longer than Earles in the semi-feature. This event is 20 laps, and Carr didn't move in front until the last lap, but it wasn't too late and he won the race.

Willie Frey was second and Jim Horn was third in this event.

Hage was the night's biggest winner as he grabed the checkered flag in the pursuit, and in the first heat in addition to having the best qualifying time of 19:79.

Marowelli took second in the pursuit and Earles was third.

Earles was second in the qualifying to Hage with Dick Slade turning in the third fastest time.

The results of the heats:

Heat 1 — Hage, winner; Marowelli, second.

Heat 2 — Chuck Winkle, first; Jim Drumhiller, second.

Heat 3 — Leroy Humbarger, first; Carr, second.

In the track official's race, Jerry Ekin, pit steward, won the checkered flag.

Threshing Bee at Frontier City

Nostalgic old timers will want to round up the youngsters in the family and take them to Frontier City Saturday and Sunday to watch an old fashioned Threshing Bee.

There will be a display of antique threshing and traction engines. There'll be grain threshing just like grandfathers used to do it.

Top Hat Re-opens

A father and son team, Mike and Steve Sarvan, are back in business together — for the second time at the Top Hat at N. Evans St. and Herrick Park Dr.

Mike operated the business for many years until Nov., 1961, when his son, Steve, who had been kept in Yugoslavia for all his 21 years with relatives while his father was serving in the Yugoslav army during the war and imprisoned in Germany until 1945, was finally able to join him.

Mike came to the U. S. in 1951 and worked tirelessly to bring his son here.

After the joyous reunion in 1961, Steve worked with his father in Tecumseh a few months then went to Chicago to further his education. He has recently been employed in a restaurant there.

Mike and Steve will welcome their old friends at a grand opening, Aug. 16 with free coffee and donuts. The Top Hat will be open every day from 7 a.m. to midnight.

★

Steve says they'll be adding some regular specialty dinners to the menu, spaghetti, chicken and fish and chips, in the near future.

Gloria Maniscalco and Neal Willing Are Wed

TIPTON — Gloria Jean Maniscalco and Neal Kenneth Willing were married July 31 in a 4 p.m. ceremony in St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Tecumseh, by the Rev. Edward Griswold.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael C. Maniscalco, of 1011 Evans Lake Trail, Tipton.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Willing, of 4711 W. Michigan Ave., Tipton.

Jean Marie Harvey of Clinton, was the maid of honor. Lela F. Brown of Clinton and Sherry Whitt of Manchester were the Bridesmaids.

Edward Willing, of Hillsdale, was the best man and Michael Maniscalco, Jr., of Tipton, and Stanley Brown, of Dearborn, were the ushers. Tina and Tony Maniscalco of Tipton were the flower girl and ring bearer.

The reception for 150 guests was held in the United Products Workers Union Hall after the ceremony.

The couple are residing in Detroit, where Mr. Willing is a student at Wayne State University. He is a 1962 graduate of Clinton High School. The bride is a 1965 graduate of Clinton High School.

Sewer Completion To Be in October

Tecumseh's all-important Evans Creek Interceptor Sewer is now west of N. Union St. and will probably be finished by October.

Cal Zorn, city manager, said all easements have been obtained from property owners and construction is now progressing rapidly.

The interceptor sewer will open the entire west and northwest section of the city for development.

New Road Begun South of Tecumseh

Construction of a new road between Occidental Rd. and Sutton Rd. started last week, about two miles south of Tecumseh.

The new road will run north off of Sutton, near Lenawee Institute and Sutton School, diagonally to Occidental. It will measure just over a half-mile.

Nick Miller, of Nick Miller and Son Asphalt Paving Co., in Adrian, is in charge of the construction and development.

His future plans call for a commercial development in the area.

SAFE AT THIRD — Eagle third baseman, Jim Mobley, puts the tag on sliding Britton runner, Rick Brown, but it's too late and Brown has a stolen base.

Eagles Win Pony Tourney with Victory Over Britton

By PHIL PIERSON

► The Eagles recovered from the 10-1 shellacking they received from Britton, Thursday, to come back and beat the Britton squad, 6-5, Friday and win the Pony League Tournament.

After one week of tourney action, the only teams remaining in the double elimination contest were the Eagles and Britton.

The Eagles had played only two games and won them both, while Britton had a 4-1 record, their only loss being a 4-3 setback to the Eagles.

The Eagles could have eliminated Britton Thursday, but their hitting and fielding weren't up to the task and Britton had an easy victory.

In the first inning the Eagles scored their only run without a base hit. Two walks, a fielder's choice and an error produced the score.

Britton wrapped up the game in the first inning when they scored five runs off losing pitcher Mark Wegner.

Charles Moore struck out, but was safe at first when the ball got past the catcher.

Then after Rick Brown fanned, catcher Tom Schroeder singled and winning pitcher Ron Findley was safe on a fielder's choice that allowed Moore to score.

A passed ball, an error and a two-run single by Jerry Korican produced four more runs in the big inning.

★

IN THE THIRD, a hit batsman, a bunt single by Rick Maska, and singles by Jim Skelton and Korican plus an error netted Britton three more runs to up their lead to 8-1.

Britton's final runs came in the sixth on singles by Schroeder, Findley, a sacrifice by Maska and a single by Korican.

Korican had 3-for-4 and Skelton and Schroeder had 2-for-4 to lead the Britton hitters.

The Eagles managed only two hits off Findley. Gerald Girbach singled in the fourth inning and Mike Fowler singled in the fifth.

► Friday's game started out like a repeat performance of Thursday's game. Britton scored twice in the first and three more times in the third to gain a 5-0 advantage.

The Eagles started a rally in the bottom of the third that produced three runs, and they added another in the fourth to close the gap to 5-4.

Robert Boldon walked and scored the tying run in the sixth on an error on a ball hit by Glen Daivs.

Starting pitcher, Rick Maska was replaced on the mound by Jerry Korican, Mark Wegner, the first batter to face Korican, was safe on an error moving Davis to third.

When John Roberts grounded to first, Davis raced home with the tie-breaking run.

Mike Fowler, who went the distance on the mound, blanked Britton in their last turn at the plate in the seventh to give the Eagles the win.

Britton outhit the Eagles, 8-7. The Eagles had six singles, by Bill Puffer, Wegner, Roberts, Richard Hicks, Jim Mobley and Gerald Girbach.

The only extra base blow for the Eagles was a double by Fowler.

For Britton, Mark Vallie had two singles, Ron Findley and Jim Skelton each hit a double, and Rick Brown, Jim Brown, Tom Schroeder and Maska had singles.

► Mike Hebert, G & J pitcher, broke the league record of 16 strike-outs in one game that he shared with TPW's John Kennedy, when he fanned 17 TPW hitters in six innings.

However, the 17 whiffs weren't enough as G & J still bowed to TPW, 6-5. Contributing to Hebert's heartbreaking loss were the eight walks he issued and the six errors committed by his fielders.

Kennedy fanned 16 three times, and Hebert matched the total once, but on all four occasions they pitched seven innings. In this instance, TPW was the home team and didn't bat in the seventh because they were leading.

TPW started the scoring in the first when Hebert walked in a run and Butch Quinn stole home to send his team in front, 2-0.

G & J got one run back in the second, but Quinn doubled in another TPW run in the bottom half of the inning to keep his team in front by two, 3-1.

G & J put together a three-run rally in the fourth on hits by Jim Parris, Mike Cote and Ralph Miller to go in front, 4-3, and sent starting pitcher, Kennedy [illegible] with Quinn coming in to pitch.

TPW bounced back with three runs of their own in the bottom of the fourth on an error, some more walks by Hebert and a two-single by Ron Bowen.

The final run of the game was scored by G & J in the fifth, but they weren't able to get the equalizer off Quinn and TPW was able to hang on to win.

TPW had only two hits off Hebert, Quinn's double and Bowen's single but together the hits drove home three runners.

G & J's only hits were the three they had in the fourth, by Parris, Cote and Miller.

► TPW wasn't nearly as fortunate in their next outing against Britton as they lost, 10-0, and were eliminated from the tournament.

Butch Quinn started for TPW and lasted three innings. Britton jumped off with four runs in the first frame and added four more in the third to put the game out of reach.

Jim Skelton [illegible] the distance on the mound for Britton to pick up the pitching victory.

Skelton allowed [illegible] three hits, two singles by John Kennedy and a single by Dave Ward.

Britton, paced by catcher Tom Schroeder's three hits, racked up 10 safeties. Rick Brown added two singles and Skelton helped his own cause with a double.

Britton scored their first, and the game's winning run, in the opening inning when Ron Findley singled home Schroeder.

Skelton fanned seven batters for Britton. Quinn whiffed seven hitters in the short time he worked, and Dave Ward, who came in to relieve him, added another strike-out.

Britton's final two runs came in the fifth inning.

Braves Victorious Over Their Moms

CUB MINORS

► The mothers of the players on the Braves discovered what their opponents learned this season — the Braves are unbeatable.

In an exhibition game at the team party, the Braves trounced their moms, 14-4.

Jim Robideau and Jack McCarley did the pitching against their moms and Bob Miller did the catching.

Mrs. Delmar McCarley was the losing pitcher with Maureen Dolan doing the catching.

CUB MINORS FINAL

	W	L
Braves	11	0
Cubs	11	2
Red Sox	7	5
Indians	6½	6½
Dodgers	5½	6½
Giants	4	10
Tigers	3	10

Jaycees	1	11
Falings	1	12

If there was any doubt that the Braves would take it easy on their moms, it was quelled in the first inning when they scored six runs to ice the game.

The moms only managed one run in the regulation six innings, so they were given another chance to bat and they produced their final three tallies in the seventh.

Kevin Osburn and Greg Hoffman led the batting attack against Mrs. McCarley's pitching with perfect, 4-for-5 games at the plate.

After the game, the players enjoyed all the hot dogs and pop they could consume.

Mr. Easton Uninjured in Accident

Tecumseh Mayor, Harold Easton, and his wife, Clara, escaped serious injury Monday afternoon when they were involved in a 3-vehicle accident on M-52, about 500 feet south of Valley Rd.

According to the sheriff's department, the Eastons were headed south in a pickup truck when another pickup, driven by Rodney Corbin, 27, of Onsted, swerved into their path.

Witnesses to the mishap report that Corbin swung his vehicle into the south-bound lane to avoid hitting a car about to make a left turn.

The third vehicle was driven by Raymond Davies, 38, of Gibralter. The car and both pickups were damaged, with Easton's pickup stopping in a ditch.

Mrs. Easton was taken to Bixby Hospital in Adrian for x-rays. She suffered severe bruises but no broken bones.

Corbin was cited for speeding.

Cape Town Paper Lauds Joseph Satterthwaite

(Editor's note — The Cape Argus of Cape Town, South Africa, recently ran this feature story on Joseph Satterthwaite of Tecumseh, who is USA ambassador to that nation.)

"I won't believe that colour television's possible until I see it in black and white," said Sam Goldwyn. And I feel much the same about current talk that Joseph C. Satterthwaite won't be the American Ambassador here much longer.

Still, these reports do seem quite a bit firmer than the similar predictions of last May, and of the May before that too.

Almost as firm as that July, 1963, one, of Washington origin, which named Mr. Satterthwaite's imminent successor, but which was then proved completely phoney.

This speculation around town is on weak ground when it's based on the reflection that Joe Satterthwaite reached the foreign service retirement age of 65 some weeks back. He's a presidential appointee so that doesn't apply.

More reliable pointer is that he's been in this post a darned sight longer than anyone else I can remember: Crowe was here two years, Byroade just over two, Wailes not quite two, Gallman around two years nine months.

☆

BUT IT'LL be four years next week since the Satterthwaite family arrived here in the Ath lone and put the Burmese cat they'd brought along with them among the Hen and Chickens.

And — best pointer of all — four years is not only long for this post but longer than the average U.S. ambassadorial posting anywhere.

It was another senior American diplomat in another country who told me that U.S.-S.A. relations could only improve as a side-effect of Jack Kennedy's removal of Chester Bowles from the post of Under Secretary of State in 1961.

Bowles, it was said, despised South Africa so vehemently that he didn't like the thought of cooperation at any level in any field. He's U.S. Ambassador in India now.

But the fact that our relations with the States are as . . . well, as steady as it is possible for them to be, considering everything, is largely due to the quiet, unobtrusive work that Ambassador Satterthwaite has put into his job.

He's done some public jousting when he's had to — and there are folk around who'll not want to have a second shot at teaching diplomatic procedure to a man who's been practising it most of his life in a dozen different lands in four continents.

(He was in Ankara during World War II, incidentally, which makes him an enthralling authority on the "Operation Cicero" espionage affair.)

But mostly he's played the Very Quiet American, an easy role for him, working calmly and quietly to thwart the works of both kinds of extremists — those who advocate extravagant solutions for their own sake and those who relish the kind of foreign advocacy of extravagant solutions that they can exploit here for their own political ends.

And he keeps pretty calm even when involved in rows like the U.S.S. Independence one.

(Editors note — The aircraft carrier was to make a stop at Cape Town, then suddenly it was cancelled, creating all sorts of rumors as to why, including the fact the ship had some Negro pilots.)

★

IT WAS BACK in 1963 that unnamed Washington officials were quoted as saying that Mr. Satterthwaite and Mennen Williams did not always see eye to eye on overall African policy.

Whether that's correct I wouldn't know. But it doesn't seem improbable. And judging by what each man has said in public I suggest that the Ambassador's thinking reflects more accurately than the Assistant Secretary of State's the process of sensible desentimentalization that has been going on in the American attitude towards Africa.

And it's a process that has been going on for some time. One significant landmark, for instance, was as long ago as 1956 when George Allen disclosed a mellowing in American criticism of Britain's position as a colonial power.

Anyway Joe Satterthwaite and Mennen Williams are due to meet again next week-end, in Addis, at an African regional conference of top U.S. diplomats.

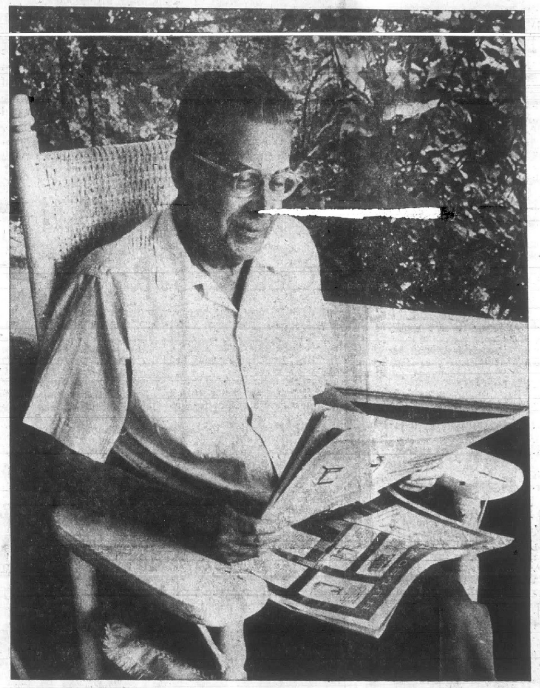
These conferences are called "routine affairs", but because this will be the first one since Stanleyville; since the 'surfacing' of those phoney "Western plot" documents in Tanzania; since Julius Nyerere suddenly started to seem more man than god; since that book-burning all over . . . Well, because of all this and more besides I can think of no routine meeting that I would more like to be a fly on the wall of. Pity if that desentimentalization goes too far though . . .

★

THE AMBASSADOR will return to Cape Town after the Addis meeting. But if the rumors are true there won't be many, or any, more happy returns after that one. Which is a pity.

However, there is this comforting point concerning the question of who is to succeed him (and it's easily conceivable that whoever it is will have an even trickier task).

And that point is that although Mennen Williams succeeded Joseph C. Satterthwaite as Assistant Secretary of State for African Affairs he doesn't necessarily follow him, I'm assured, in every post.



AMBASSADOR VISITS TECUMSEH — Joseph Satterthwaite, ambassador to the Union of South Africa, visited his brother and sisters here over the past weekend. Monday he flew back to Pretoria, summer capital of the African nation. He had earlier spent the week in Washington conferring with Secretary of State Dean Rusk. When in Tecumseh, the ambassador enjoys relaxing and getting a look at the Friendly Free Press.

Tecumseh Again Wins Award of Excellence

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Anderson, Ind., and Cascade County, Mont., are the Grand Award winners of the 1965 National Vehicle Safety-Check.

The judging here last week climaxed the eighteenth annual May-June vehicle Safety Check, in which some three million cars and trucks were checked for safe driving condition in more than 4,200 local programs.

Auto Industries Highway Safety Committee and LOOK Magazine sponsor the nationwide program each year with the cooperation of the Association of State and Provincial Safety Coordinators.

For the fifth straight ... Tecumseh received a State Award of Excellence, being one of three Michigan communities so honored.

Tecumseh won in cities under 10,000 population.

Other Michigan communities cited were Wyoming, 25,000 to 100,000 population, and Mount Clemens, cities 10,000 to 25,000.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

THANKS, BOB!

Hop on — join me on a magic carpet and share the marvelous experience we had several weeks ago. It was a beautiful Sunday, a typical June day with bright sunshine and a sparkling blue sky. The only thing, it was a July day instead of June. No matter, the morning was perfect, just right for flying and that is exactly what we did!

Our magic carpet was a trim, sleek, five passenger Beech-Craft. Dad and I rode and Bob piloted. As the engine warmed up the feeling was power, power, power.

It was as if the white and light blue plane were anxious to leave the ground and be up in its own element. We taxied down the blacktop runway and rapidly [illegible] surprisingly quick and effortless.

Ruler straight rows of corn and gravel roads bordered by the white blossoms of Queen Anne's lace and great mounds of green which were trees shrunk smaller and smaller were viewed. They seemed to be leaving us but, of course, the reverse was true.

While gaining altitude we headed west to check on the "swimmin' hole" and the foundation for the new house. My, what a lovely spot! Makes [illegible] to degree turn, we saw carefully [illegible] cultured fields and the lush green which indicated fertile farming land beneath us. Soon Monroe and Lake Erie came into view.

★

AS WE FOLLOWED the crowded lake shore north it was disheartening to see how man can despoil and pollute. Great slicks of black, slimy oil were sliding into the lake; stagnant, sickly green pools and rivers, which were just plain dirty, seemed to be everywhere. Grosse Ile, Detroit and Windsor, Belle Isle, the Ambassador Bridge and Selfridge Field came next.

Several large freighters were negotiating the clearly-marked channels in the river and little pin-points, trailing white V-shaped wakes, scooted everywhere.

All the lakes, big and little, seemed crowded with powerboats. Especially pretty in Lake St. Clair, was a fleet of sailboats, apparently the races were on. The tall skyscrapers of downtown Detroit looked like many narrow blocks stacked close together. The mass of houses and the sameness of housing development after housing development was depressing.

Thank goodness for living in Tecumseh where there are still trees and a few crooked streets. (Let's hope we can keep a bit of the small town charm.)

★

TAKING THE LONG way home, we flew over Flint, Jackson, Adrian and, by the way, Jackson is easily recognized by its big freight yard as well as the large-walled prison.

One last circle over Tecumseh and it was back to the airport. Before landing though, just as we crossed the boulevard, Bob banked the plane and right at the end of the wing tip on my side was a beautiful view of the Presbyterian Church and downtown Tecumseh.

Oh my, Marda, so much we haven't mentioned. Things like Earle McNeil's apple orchard resembling a green-on-green bumpy chenille bedspread or the many many little jewel-like lakes which dot southern Michigan.

Colorwise, they seem to come in about five various shades of blue, and don't forget how sparkling clear the air was — even the smog and gook over the cities was not as bad as usual.

Due to the distance there was a narrow band of haze on the far horizon. This was topped by peaks of white clouds, it seemed for all the world as if we were looking at snow-capped mountain peaks. Wow — what a ride!

★

ALWAYS BEFORE going up, I have many good intentions of noticing such things as speed, altitude, temperature, etc., but nothing ever comes of them.

I am so excited and thrilled by the "bird's eye view" that I do nothing but look, look, look. I don't even talk much and there are people who might say this is a near miracle.

Seriously however, the very act of flying is most interesting and I thoroughly enjoy the explanation of what this dial does, what that peddle is for and how such and such a radio works.

Be this as it may, the big thing still remains that fascinating panorama I see through the big window of the airplane.

So it is that we took a ride [illegible] ago, a great time, thanks Bob!

Louie Stemen Wins 4 Races at Manchester

Louie Stemen dominated July 16th's racing action at Manchester Speedway with victories in the feature, pursuit and first heat and also had the night's fastest qualifying time.

Stemen was the only driver with more than one victory for the night.

In the feature, Stemen was first and was followed by Butch Moull in second, and Larry Gray in third.

Frank Kuhn copped the semi-feature winning out over Dick Carr in second and Uve Piplow in third.

Piplow won the consolation event nosing out Jim Bowditch in second and John Mooneyham in third.

The only injury of the evening occurred in the pursuit won by Stemen.

Neil Baggett's car flipped injuring Baggett and sending him to the hospital. Stemen won the event starting out in the tail position.

Dick Slade turned in the second best qualifying time and Ed Hage was the third qualifier.

Finishing behind Stemen in the first heat was Butch Moull in second and Slade in third.

Gray grabbed the checkered flag in the second heat as he beat out Jim Martin in second and John Porter in third.

In the third heat, Dick Carr was the winner with Kuhn finishing second and Don Taylor taking third.

Mooneyham won the fourth heat with Bowditch finishing second.

Picnic Was Sunday

Ten Tecumseh Jaycee families held their annual family picnic Sunday in the Kiwanis Park. A potluck dinner was served and an informal meeting followed the dinner.

Special guests of the picnic were past Tecumseh Jaycees Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Neill of Marion, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Nisbett of Hillsdale.

YSH Parade and Carnival Is Aug. 23-25

"Eras of Time," is the theme of this year's parade before the Ypsilanti State Hospital Annual Carnival. The parade will be Aug. 23, with the carnival beginning the next day and continuing until Aug. 26.

The public is invited to attend either the parade or the carnival but only the patients of the hospital may participate in the games.

Prizes to be awarded will include soap, handkerchiefs, perfume, cosmetics, pipes, cigars, cigarettes, tobacco, candy, jewelry, pens, pencils, combs and hats.

Prizes are still needed for the event as well as volunteers to work in the booths. The Community Relations Office, Hunter 2-8700, extension 426 at the hospital should be contacted by anyone interested in donating time or gifts.

Tipton Man Graduate of Air School

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — Captain Larry D. Bockelman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Bockelman, of Rt. 1, Tipton, graduated Friday from the U.S. Air Force Squadron Officer School at the Air University, Maxwell AFB, Ala.

Captain Bockelman was selected for the special professional officer training in recognition of his demonstrated potential as a leader in the aerospace force.

The captain, who received his commission in 1949 through the Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps program, is a graduate of Capital University, Columbus, Ohio. He has a bachelor of arts degree.

Captain Bockelman, a graduate of Napoleon (Ohio) High School, is being reassigned to Mather AFB, Calif.

THE WINNERS — The Braves went through their season in the Cub Minor League without losing a game. Their final season record was 11-0 and gave them undisputed possession of first place. Pictured they are, bottom row, left to right: David Biscupski, [illegible]g Hoffman, James Robideau, Kevin Osburn and Gary Brion. Top row, left to right: Bob Miller, Bob Brooks, Kellous Williams, Jeff Berry and Jack McCarley. Standing behind them are their managers, Clyde and Betty Locker.

Bothersome Owl Gets His Reward

Robert Hunt of 9849 Murphy Hwy., finally shot the Great Horned Owl with a wing spread of 4'-5" that has been heckling the Hunt farm for the past two years.

Perhaps the remaining 18 of the 30 ducklings at the Hunts' will now have a chance for survival.

Mr. Hunt sighted the huge bird Monday evening on the roof of the barn at dusk just as the family was entering the car to go to Tecumseh.

Cautioning the family to be still, he got his shot gun and shot the bird to the ground where a neighbor boy, Danny Hannasik, finished him with a blow to the head.

The only owls larger than the great horned ones are those found in Canada and Alaska called the Great Gray Owl whose wingspread ranges from 54" to 60".

New Phone Rates Add Time to Calls

General Telephone customers will be able to talk for seven minutes at the price they now pay for six minutes of conversation when the reduced rates become effective Sept. 1.

Specifically this will mean Tecumsehites will be able to call such places as Adrian, Clinton and Britton, and talk for an extra minute and not pay any more.

The current rates for such a call are 10c for the first four minutes and 5c for the next two minutes.

With the new rates, the figure will remain 10c for the first four minutes, but the 5c rate will extend to three minutes.

Similar reductions will also be made for calls from 11 to 20 miles, and 21 to 40 miles.

"The new rates won't change the cost of the call, just the length of time involved," said Ken Conway, local manager of General Telephone.

Raisin Cane Club Inspects Gardens

Members of the Raisin Cane 4-H Club toured members' gardens starting at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Cote.

Later the four carloads of youngsters returned to the Cote residence for lunch. Plans for the Lenawee County Fair were completed.

News from the Tecumseh Library

New books at your Public Library:

SIXPENCE IN HER SHOE by Phyllis McGinley. Even though she is one of the most popular writers of light verse in America, and a Pulitzer Prize winner, the author considers keeping the hearth her true vocation. In this warm, wise, and witty book (whose title derives from the legendary rewards once given to good housewives), she shares with readers the joys and problems of the domestic profession.

WINSTON CHURCHILL, AN INTIMATE PORTRAIT by Violet Bonham Carter. This superb account of the public and private life of "the greatest Englishman" of our century makes a rare first-hand contribution to the history of an epoch and to the understanding of a man. The author was Churchill's close personal friend for nearly 60 years. She has included a large amount of new material that has never been previously published.

THE MAKING OF THE PRESIDENT, 1964 by Theodore White. Tells the story of that turbulent year of decision which began with the assassination of John F. Kennedy, swept through the civil war within the Republican Party and the revolution of the American Negro, and climaxed in the battle for power between Lyndon B. Johnson and Barry Goldwater.

THE MAN THEY WOULDN'T LET DIE by Alexander Dorozynski. The doctors looked at his lifeless body and began the greatest battle in medical history. Four times their beloved colleague was pronounced clinically dead; four times they brought him back. Thus they opened the most dramatic new chapter in medicine — the science of death. This is the incredible story of the great Soviet scientist Lev Landau, who received the Nobel Prize in Physics, in person, eight months after he had been pronounced clinically dead.

UP THE DOWN STAIR CASE by Bel Kaufman, describes from the inside what goes on in a large metropolitan high school. With genuine warmth and shrewd comic touches, it shows what happens when a teacher's ideals run amuck against the inadequate facilities, the lack of communication, the gobbledygook, the trivia in triplicate — all that stands in the way of good teaching. It is a wise and witty book; funny and poignant and highly original.

THE VELVET BUBBLE by Alice Winter is a beautifully done portrait of a girl under a compulsion she does not understand and of what she makes of her world.

THE REVOLT OF SARAH PERKINS by Marian Cockrell. It was the year 1869 in Colorado Territory, and the whole town had turned out to catch a glimpse of the new schoolteacher. Miss Sarah Perkins had come to replace a long line of teachers who had likewise arrived, blooming with health, good looks and enthusiasm, but not for teaching. Each had come to Belle City with the unquenchable desire for marriage. Sarah was to be different.

EVERYTHING THAT RISES MUST CONVERGE, a collection of unusual stories by Flannery O'Connor whose death at the age of 38 marked the loss of one of America's most gifted contemporary writers.

STORIES OF THE GREAT LAKES by Earl Parsons; yarns, legends, intriguing history and many photographs.

Three new books dealing with the population explosion: TOO MANY AMERICANS by Lincoln Day; PLANNING YOUR FAMILY by Alan Guttmacher; and POPULATION DILEMMA by Philip Hauser.

Ken Conway Gets Fund Drive Pin

Ken Conway received a pin in special recognition of his excellent service as chairman of the Community Fund Foundation drive for the past three years, at the Community Fund luncheon Friday.

The presentation was made by Wes Lerch, of Kalamazoo, field representative for the Michigan United Fund.

Dr. Robert W. Laidlaw and Joe Fortunato were named co-chairman of the 1966 fund drive which will be held early in October.

The board is working on the budget for the 1966 services and an announcement will be made shortly of the fund goal.

Feature Winner at Manchester Is Lynn Hunt

A two-car pile up on the first lap of the feature knocked two drivers out of the race and Lynn Hunt went on to win the event after grabbing the lead on the 11th lap in Friday night's Manchester racing.

Ed Hage rolled his car on the first lap and the mishap also caused Don Earles to be eliminated from the event.

Earlier in the evening Earles turned in the night's fastest qualifying time of 20:31.

Jim Martin came from the tail position to grab the victory in the 20-lap semi-feature race.

Hage took the pursuit race, and John Mooneyham won the consolation nosing out Neil Grady and Dick Pinch who finished second and third respectively.

The heat results are:

1st heat — Don Earles, winner; Ed Hage, second

2nd heat — Butch Moull, winner; Ed Green, second

3rd heat — Harold Walker, winner; Jim Uroman, second

4th heat — Dick Pinch, winner; Neil Grady, second

Chapter Awards Given to Local Future Farmers

The Michigan Outstanding Chapter award plaques were presented to the top ranking Future Farmers of America chapters at the annual vocational agricultural teachers' conference at Michigan State University July 26-30.

Tecumseh High School received a gold plaque. Clinton High School and Britton-Macon High School both received silver plaques. Ratings are based on overall activities of chapters.

Framed certificate awards were presented in the Chapter Supervised Agriculture Award Program to those chapters whose students had completed outstanding agricultural programs.

Tecumseh's chapter received a gold certificate. The Clinton and Britton-Macon chapters received silver certificates.

Vocag teachers, Paul Burns, of Tecumseh, and John Jansen, of Clinton, attended the conference at MSU.

20 Attend Shower for Diana Green

Diana Green was feted at a bridal shower July 30, given by Mary Tilton assisted by Mrs. William Tilton with 20 present.

Prizes were won by Mrs. James Kroske, Mrs. Floyd Barrett, Elaine Puppos and Miss Green.

A pink and white theme was featured with a centerpiece of pink carnations and white Fuji chrysanthemums beneath a miniature pink umbrella, flanked with lighted tapers.

Miss Green will marry James Bashore Sept. 11.

Eve Langley Home from Eye Surgery at Mayo Clinic

TIPTON — Miss Eve Langley, who has been a patient for eye surgery at Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., is recuperating in an apartment at 505 Second Ave., SW, Rochester, Minn.

Miss Langley is a sister of Mrs. Charles Driffill, formerly of Tipton, now living on Ternes Rd., Tecumseh.

Saline Ford Plant Has New Manager

Joseph T. Neill has been appointed plant manager of Ford Motor Company's new Saline parts manufacturing plant.

The Saline plant, currently under construction, is scheduled to be completed late in 1966. It will produce instrument clusters, gauges and several plastic parts.

Mr. Neill has been assistant manager of the division's Rawsonville plant in Ypsilanti Township since May, 1965.

SALLY BROWN

Sally Brown Gets Degree from College

Sally Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Brown, of 706 W. Chicago Blvd., received a BA in Elementary Education at the summer commencement, Aug. 6, at Murray State College in Murray, Ky.

Miss Brown is a graduate of Roosevelt High School in Ypsilanti, and a graduate of Jackson Junior College.

She plans to teach third grade in the Louisville, Ky. public school system, this fall.

The Browns are newcomers to Tecumseh. Mr. Brown is the owner of the Standard Steel Co. which recently moved from Clinton to Adrian.

Police Beat Corrugated and the Rain

Rain failed to prevent the Tecumseh Police from adding a win over Corrugated Box to their record in the Slo-pitch League.

The rains came in the bottom of the fifth after the Police had built their margin to 10-3.

Corrugated scored twice in the top of the first to take an early lead, but they couldn't hold it.

The Police scored once in the bottom of the first and added four more runs in the second and five in the fourth.

Corrugated's only other score came in the top of the fourth.

Clyde Locker took the pitching win for the Police with Gordon Williams doing the catching.

John Green was the losing pitcher and Lee Papple did the catching for Corrugated.

Locker and Ron Baxter led the assault on Green's pitching with three hits in three at-bats.

There were three homeruns hit in the game. They were each two-run blasts by Locker, Baxter and Harry Withrow.

Heads-Up Driving Demands Headlights

"It's better to light a candle than to curse the darkness." You won't get much argument on this one, but how about switching on your car's headlights? Don't hesitate . . . illuminate!

The Michigan State Safety Commission reminds motorists that the long days of summer invite careless habits when darkness approaches.

An old habit, hard to break, is driving with parking lights on. The law is clear on this. If it's dark enough to demand lights, you must use your headlights, not parking lights, and don't spare the candlepower.

In fact, it's not a bad idea at all when driving along crowded summer highways to use your lights during the daytime. You have another safety device working for you that makes for better definition by approaching traffic.

Proper use of your high and low beam lights is another area of concern. Dimming your lights for on-coming traffic is the rule of the road. Ditto if you're following or overtaking another vehicle. Here's a courtesy that every driver appreciates and it is the law. Alert, heads up driving calls for mastery of your dimmer switch.

Don't forget maintenance. Check your headlights, tail lights and turn signals and be sure they're in proper working order. Replace burned out lamps right away and keep them in good repair.

Teen Dances Wednesday Nights Prove Popular

Nearly 180 youngsters have been attending regular Wednesday evening Teen Club dances, John Hamilton and the village councilmen at Monday's meeting.

He said he would like to extend the dance hours because of the enjoyment the youths were having.

Until now, the affairs have ended at 10 p.m. to conform with curfew. Mr. Hamilton would like them to continue until 11 p.m.

Tecumseh Girls Have Winning Softball Record

Tecumseh picked up three wins and two losses in their last five games in the Southeastern Girls Softball League.

July 15, Tecumseh stopped Deerfield, 24-15. Cindy Murphy and Cathy Hall led the batting attack with 5-for-7 and 4-for-5 respectively.

The winning pitcher was Beth O'Neil with Cathy Hall doing the catching.

July 20, Tecumseh was also victorious, winning 24-6 over Clinton.

The battery combination of Beth O'Neil pitching and Cathy Hall catching again took the winning honors.

Diane Lake and Loretta Vogel struck the big blows for Tecumseh with homeruns.

Debbie Black led the batters with 4-for-5. Loretta and Cindy Murphy each chipped in with 3-for-6.

Monroe handed Tecumseh a 9-6 defeat July 22.

The same battery combination weren't as fortunate in this game as they had been against Deerfield and Clinton.

The leading hitters for Tecumseh were Cathy Hall with 3-for-4 and Cindy Murphy and Loretta Vogel with 2-for-4.

Tecumseh rolled past Britton July 26, 25-3.

Emily Manwaring was the winning pitcher with Loretta Vogel doing the catching.

Beth O'Neil, who had 5-for-6, struck the big blow of the game, a grand slam homerun.

Cathy Hall was the leading batter with a perfect 6-for-6 performance at the plate.

Scoring only two runs, Tecumseh was beaten by Hudson, 11-2, July 29.

Emily Manwaring led the Tecumseh hitters with 3-for-3. Beth O'Neil had 2-for-3.

Beth was the losing pitcher with Cathy Hall behind the plate.

Since she took over the catching chores, Cathy Hall has been doing a yeoman's job behind the plate.

Jaycee Summer Board Meetings Held in Port Huron

The Tecumseh Jaycees and the Jaycee Auxiliary were represented by 13 people at the 1965 Michigan Jaycee Summer Board Meeting in Port Huron Friday and Saturday. Those attending were:

Mr. and Mrs. Ric Creswell; Dr. and Mrs. Walter Elwartowski; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morgan; Mr. and Mrs. Doug Osworth; Mrs. Dyke Helms; Mrs. Walter Wonderly; Mrs. Fred Johnson; Mrs. Jerry Miller; and Mrs. E. J. Nisbett, of Hillsdale.

The get acquainted party was held Friday night in the theme of a Hawaiian Luau. Saturday was filled with informative meetings and forums for both the Jaycees and the Auxiliary.

A banquet and ball, held in the McMorran Memorial Auditorium highlighted Saturday's activities and concluded the session.

The guest speaker of the evening was M. L. Benton, a past president of the Michigan Jaycees.

Michigan Jaycee president, Jack Skriden awarded and congratulated the Jaycee scholarship winners. They are:

Beverly Fike, of Adrian, and Ted Lowe, Jr., of Milford. They both will attend the University of Michigan in the fall.

Materials Are Gathered for Buffalo Convention

From delivery trucks to typewriters; from six-decker ovens to paper clips; all equipment needed to facilitate what is expected to be one of the largest conventions ever held in Buffalo, N.Y., was arranged Saturday by Jehovah's witnesses.

"The enormous cost of a non-profit convention of this size," Mr. Richard Krebs continued, "is greatly reduced by the equipment and services volunteered by members and business houses."

The convention, to be held August 12-15, will feature the talk, "World Government on the Shoulder of the Prince of Peace". Peak attendance during the four-day meeting is expected to reach 20,000.

"To care for all the delegates, a rooming Reservation Committee has been set up," Mr. Krebs reported, "and we've been scouring the city for every last accommodation. The people of Buffalo are showing wonderful hospitality."

MACON MAXIMS

By MRS. HAMILTON MOORE

The Goodwill truck will be in Macon Tuesday, Aug. 17. Articles may be left with the Melvin Travises or you may phone them if you wish to have the truck stop at your home.

The Macon Community Club will meet Tuesday, Aug. 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rowe and family were Sunday supper guests of his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Rowe, near Deerfield. They helped Steve celebrate his first birthday anniversary. Among the other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Earle Rowe and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Rowe.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hill attended the Lindauer Reunion, Sunday, at the Saline Farm Bureau building, north of Saline.

The Macon Church is responsible for the noon lunch at the Migrant School Wednesday, Aug. 18. If you are able to furnish food or assist, please contact Mrs. Ray Williams or Mrs. Carl Hawkins.

Mrs. Raynor Scudder is in Herrick Memorial Hospital for observation and tests.

Elton Osborne entered Herrick Memorial Hospital Thursday. He has pneumonia.

Duane Robinson suffered a severe heart attack last week and is in Saline Community Hospital.

The following ladies and youths spent last Thursday at Chelsea Methodist Home in Chelsea: Mrs. Harriet Gleason of Tipton, Mrs. Clarence Hall, Mrs. Truman Jordan, Mrs. Lora Hasted, Mrs. Lyle Riddell, Mrs. Russell Van Valkenburg, Mrs. Eugene Hill, Mrs. Mabel Burleson, Mrs. Harold Ruhl, Mrs. Agatha Camburn, Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore, Robert, Douglas and Pamela Haines, Sylvia Williams, Lorraine Ruhl, Linda Yoder and Nancy Hawkins.

Mrs. Van Valkenburg announced the program, beginning with group singing. She read a poem; Mrs. Riddell read two selections; Mrs. Hill read "When the Minister Comes To Tea"; Linda Yoder gave a ballet dance in a beautiful costume.

Home-made cookies and fruit punch were served to 80 guests of the home. Mrs. Wilma Briggs, formerly of Macon, now a resident of Chelsea Home, enjoyed visiting with all her old friends. She said she wished more societies would come, as they enjoy visiting with everyone.

Mrs. Lora Hasted, Mrs. Mabel Burleson and Glen Hendershot attended the Hendershot reunion at Lake James, south of Coldwater, last Sunday. It was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hendershot.

Kenneth Van Valkenburg and sons called on his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Van Valkenburg, Wednesday. Mrs. Van Valkenburg is a patient at the University Hospital.

Miss Sondra Hathway has returned from a trip to Florida.

Waldo Papsdorf is a patient at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Joseph Castiglione and sons have returned to Detroit, after spending two weeks with her father, Mills Swick, and grandfather, William Swick.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Frost and daughter, Peggy, are spending two weeks with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Mossman, in Winefield, Kan.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hill, attended the wedding of Miss Martha Binkowski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Binkowski, Saturday evening at the Church of Christ, in Manchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bigelow spent the weekend in White Cloud, visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore was a Wednesday supper guest of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Moore and son, Rodney, in Tecumseh.

Mrs. Ida Younglove of Detroit, and her sister, Mrs. Rosemary Simpson, of Deerfield, are spending a month in Ireland and Europe. They are sisters of Mrs. Jennie Younglove.

J. B. Camburn left by plane Wednesday for his home in San Antonio, Tex., after spending 3 weeks with his grandmother, Mrs. Agatha Camburn, and uncle, Robert.

Mrs. Conners, mother of Pat Conners, has rented the Paul Kollar apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Zick are visiting their son, Pvt. Phillip Zick, who is stationed at Fort Polk, La.

Miss Bethany and Randall Corl are spending a few days with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Poe, in Monroe, while their parents, Rev. and Mrs. Ronald Corl, Vickie and Rickie, are visiting in Nashville, Tenn. They will visit his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Arendt, and plan to go thru the Literature Headquarters and the Upper Room. They will go by Smoky Mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thomas are visiting their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roselle, in Alexander, Md.

Sp/4 Richard Zick arrived by plane Monday from Freesburg, Germany, where he is stationed with the armed forces. His mother, Mrs. Edward Zick, and Richard, went to Sheboygan, Wis., and spent two days with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kirkendall and family, formerly of Macon. Miss Connie Kirkendall returned to Macon with them, for an indefinite stay. Monday Mr. and Mrs. Edward Zick, Sp/4 Richard and Miss Kirkendall left for Fort Polk, La., to visit another son, Pvt. Phillip Zick.

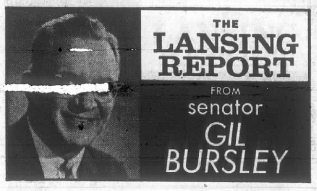
Sunday, August 15, Robert Osborne will be giving the Sunday message during Rev. Corl's vacation. Melvin Travis will bring the message Sunday, Aug. 22.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore were her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Bruder, of Ypsilanti. Supper guests, besides the Bruders were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Carey, Jr., and three daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Moore and family, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Moore and son, Rodney, of Tecumseh.

A farewell open house is being planned for Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sheward at the Macon Methodist Church from 2 to 4 p.m. Aug. 22.

Old Timers' Day at the Michigan State Fair will be Monday, Aug. 30. In former years it has been scheduled on Wednesdays. The fair opens Friday, Aug. 27, and runs through Monday, Sept. 6.

The Things — Top row, left to right: Carolyn Purple, coach, Cindy Murphy, Jackie Work, Margaret Boldon, Jan Felton and Diana Manning. Bottom row, left to right: Patti Manning, Mary Lemanski and Cindy Coffey.



Interim or "study" committees normally operate during the time when the Legislature is not actually in session.

These bodies serve a vital purpose. They obtain facts on key issues that may require legislative action. Sometimes confusing and conflicting statements on important matters — such as this year's milk pricing bill — are resolved by postponing legislative action until an interim committee has been able to sort fact from fiction.

★

NORMALLY THE INTERIM committee's schedule and program is worked out by its chairman who also bears primary responsibility for preparing the committee's written report back to the next session of the Legislature.

It was my lot this year to be elected chairman of the Senate's Committee on International Commerce. It is quite unusual for a minority party member to be named chairman of a committee but the five Democrats and two Republicans on the body are agreed that the expansion of Michigan's foreign trade and shipping is not a partisan matter.

Few persons realize that the Michigan economy is enriched by $1.5 billion in exports which is almost twice what the tourist industry brings in.

★

THERE ARE ABOUT 40 Senate committees, some of which have very specific and narrowly-defined missions. Some had already completed the bulk of their task before the session recessed.

Of interest to Washtenaw and Lenawee Counties is the Committee on "Unfair Trade in the Dairy Industry" which I have already indicated was very controversial.

Other committees are to study "second mortgage financing", "migratory labor", "insurance rate increases in the motor vehicle industry", "illegal detention of juveniles", "healing arts", and "traffic and safety" to mention only a few.

I will, in addition, be working on four Appropriations Committee subgroups, Public Safety, Welfare, Tuberculosis and centralized library facilities.

Sixty Now Group Meet Thursday

All Sixty Now members in Tecumseh will meet Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Eagles Lodge Hall, 125 S. Evans St. to organize a Chapter of Sixty Now, Inc.

There will be a speaker from the National Office present to give a progress report and answer questions about the program. The public is invited.

A Touch of the Past

1865

A new bridge is being built across the Raisin River near the Van Tine and Smith cabinet shop in Brownville.

Charles Culbertson has in his possession a curious relic — a commission given in 1758 by the governor of Pennsylvania, to his grandfather, James Culbertson, appointing him an ensign.

1875

Prof. Z. C. Spencer, of Toronto, Ont., has been engaged as superintendent of schools for the next year and Alma Childs, of Ypsilanti, has been engaged as preceptress.

First Lieut. Albert Cummins, of Co. F 4th Artillery, has been ordered to join his company at Sitka, Alaska, by a steamer leaving Portland, Ors., in early August.

1885

Business places are to be closed for two hours during the funeral of General Grant.

The Lenawee Soldiers and Sailors' Association was reorganized at a meeting in Adrian this week with 31 paid members.

Joe Smith is getting an elegant row boat which he is launching on Globe Pond.

Clinton is in the ferment over the post office. Postmaster Rose has resigned and the two candidates for the vacancy are Danforth Keyes and J. B. McAdam.

Tom Elliott now rides a bicycle of his own manufacture.

E. [illegible] father of the late General George Custer, is spending several days as a guest of Lt. Elliott Gray.

1895

Fred Snedicor has installed a new mirror case, the finest piece of barber furniture ever shown in Tecumseh.

Work on the Brownville bridge is progressing and a road is being laid out across the river between the dam.

Emancipation Day is being celebrated.

Dr. Hause has received the patent on a new window fastener he has invented.

Hay is now $18 per ton.

Sherwood and Foster, of Webberville, will open a drug and grocery business in the new Van Tuyle building in Clinton.

A cross walk is being laid from the Mills block to the Williamson's corner.

Bert Lawrence, George Field, W. B. Odion, C. H. Millis and Tom Moffatt wheeled to Detroit, Saturday night, returning Sunday. They made an average of 12½ miles per hour.

1905

Dr. P. B. Hardy has been granted a U. S. Patent on a therapeutic pad for the application of dry heat. He also holds Australian and European patents on the same device.

Hastings and Goheen have opened a feed grinding mill and cider press in the old electric light plant on Evans Creek.

Mrs. DeLoss LeBaron has presented a large American flag to the library in memory of her husband, the late Lieut. LeBaron.

The Anthony Fence Factory closed Monday for the Ringling Bros. Circus.

Barrett Bros. have remodeled the stores north of the hotel into a lunch room, billard parlor and sample room.

A large barn on the Will Richmond farm in Macon was struck by lightning Sunday. Mr. Richmond was severely shocked and was unconscious for several hours.

1925

The old home of Luey Train, one of the oldest residences in the town, on the corner of Union and Shawnee Streets, is being torn down.

A new Standard Oil station is being erected at the corner of Ottawa and Chicago Streets.

1935

A vacation playground, a project of the FERA, opened this week in the Monument Park, across from the high school building. It is in charge of Alice Montgomery.

A large crowd was attracted Wednesday evening by the first "Amateur Night" sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. There were a large number of acts plus the high school band concert.

The Farmers' Picnic will be held Aug. 29 in Lake View Park, Devils Lake.

The Nationwide store has installed an up-to-date electric refrigeration plant which cools not only the ice box but the display counters as well.

1945

A silvery speck in the sky which caused excitement and even some alarm Monday, has been definitely identified as the planet Venus and not a Jap balloon as some feared.

The fear of post war inflation was being discussed in The Herald. The banks were said to be bulging with cash in Michigan, with individual deposits increased from $448 to $1,029 in four years.

1955

The new $50,000 home of the Hall-Slater Post 4187, Veterans of Foreign Wars was dedicated Aug. 14, with an open house and 10th anniversary party.

Lightning struck the Strand Theater Aug. 2, for the second time in 12 years, causing extensive damage from four holes blasted in the roof.

A bill of complaint filed by six members of the anti-fluoridation committee charging the city officials were putting "fluoride, fluorine, or other chemical components" into the city water, was being denied by city officials.

Householders were being advised by City Manager E. J. Nelson, that since the city water supply was at its capcoity because of hot weather homes with even numbers could sprinkle lawns on even days and homes with odd numbers could sprinkle on odd days.

The Chamber of Commerce was warning their retailers that some highly flammable "Davy Crockett" caps of crepe paper and cardboard might be placed on the market and not to offer them to local young frontiersmen.

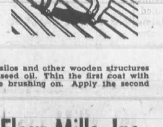
CATTLE PRICES STEADY TO LOWER. Market indicators point toward $25 Choice steers for the next month or two. While short fluctuations are expected, you'll be safe in holding past any sharp drop. However, market will tend to ease lower into fall. Recent cattle on feed report shows 5% more cattle in lots in the North Central states than last year. Marketing intentions point to 6% more summer sales than last year. Best buy in feeder cattle — good lower grade cattle that will upgrade.

STORE WINTER FEED NOW. Purchased forages will likely be higher next winter than now. Figure on storing at least 7 tons of silage and 1 ton of hay for each dairy cow in the herd, and 2 tons of silage and 1 ton of hay for each heifer. When hay prices are high, feed more than the normal amount of grain along with pasture or hay.

SPACE NEEDS FOR HOGS. While overcrowding reduces performance, too much space gets costly. How much room does a growing-finishing hog need? In total confinement allow 4 square feet per pig up to 75 pounds; 6 square feet to 125; and 8 square feet from 125 pounds to market weight. If self-feeders are used, add 1 square foot per hog 125 pounds and over, and an extra ½ square foot for 75 to 125 pound pigs.



DECAY AND PITTING of wood stave silos and other wooden structures can be reduced by applying bodied linseed oil. Thin the first coat with turpentine for extra penetration before brushing on. Apply the second coat unthinned.

It's Bauer Manor for Homecooking

For a really delicious meal with plenty of home-cooked delicacies, try Bauer Manor across US-12 on the north shore of Evans Lake in the Irish Hills.

Long noted for excellent food, the Manor is presently operated by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Van Doren.

Fred Willet, a senior citizen of the Irish Hills, known as "Pop", is part owner. He has been back and forth between his home in Wayne and Sand Lake since he was a child. He remembers when his grandparents had a log cabin where his present summer home is located.

At Bauer Manor special attention is given to each meal served from the compact, modern and yet early American kitchen.

Delicious steaks and hickory-smoked hams from Kiebler's Market in Clinton, are high on the desired list at the Manor.

Crusty individual loaves of homemade bread, biscuits with shortcake, homemade preserves and pickles are featured in all menus along with homemade soups and pies.

Mrs. Van Doren said that in the past two weeks, the Manor has sold more than 1,000 orders of Chicken Supreme, one of their specialties.

BUILT IN 1839 on the Great Saulk Indian Trail from Detroit to Chicago, the century-old stagecoach inn has always been in operation and is still in the original building.

Many of the furnishings are of yesteryear and the owners plan to add to the collection by accepting antiques donated by friends and customers and labeling them with the names of the givers.

"They will never be sold," Mrs. Van Doren said, "we want to make it even more of a museum than it already is. Our whole family is working to build the business. The girls, Kay Lee and Susan, spend their summers here from Ferris State College and Michigan State University; so will Butch (James) who will attend Western Michigan University this fall," Mrs. Van Doren said.

Natives of Adrian, we have lived on Evans Lake every summer for the past 16 years and that's how I happened to be working at the Manor," Mrs. Van Doren said.

The Van Doren children have always earned their spending money at the Manor, starting work there when they became 14.

Presently waitresses at the Manor number 16 including the Van Dorens. Mrs. Van Doren spoke respectfully of the "nice group of young women" and said that they like to hire local girls and help them through college.

Tecumseh girls and boys employed as waitresses and bus boys and in the kitchen at the Manor are Susan Hohenstein, Nancy Mead, Kristin Kettell, Carolyn Loar, Mike Velandra, Pamela Bryan and Marjorie and Bruce Parrett.

Nancy Betz, Ronald Graybiel and Sandra Theobold, of Adrian, and Clara Wynn, Ava and Lindy Rider, and Virginia Ganun, of the Irish Hills area, also work at the Manor.

"The young people start in the kitchen and work up," said Mrs. Van Doren.

Facilities at the Manor which seats 150 in the two dining rooms are ideal for receptions and banquets.

The rooms are light and airy with polished wood floors, filmy ruffled curtains at the windows and decorative plates on the walls and in open cupboards.

One room has a lake view and an old hand-carved sideboard and a square Steinway piano dated 1859. The other, with beamed ceiling and fireplace, boasts a grandfather clock over 110 years old.

White covered tables are surrounded by rush-seated ladder-back chairs and each table has a different set of goblets: hobnail, milk glass, blue glass, cranberry — many of them a century old.

COMING DOWN AT LAST — Tecumseh's ancient New York Central general freight office and mill is finally coming down, in slow stages, being done by an Adrian man at his leisure for salvage rights. The mill was originally run by the railroad, which purchased grain from area farmers. Hayden Mill took it over in 1930 to process navy beans, but the program never panned out. Beans didn't grow well in this area. So for nearly 35 years, the mill has stood idle, looking the worse for wear as time wore on. For newcomers, the structure is located west of St. Peter's Episcopal Church on N. Evans St.

By KATHRYN M. SOMMERS

GO, TIGERS!

"Do you think the Tigers will take the pennant this year?" said the man, momentarily resting in the shade from his work.

We laughed, but expressed hope.

"I'd sure like to see them come up and do it," rejoined our companion.

This would perhaps be a bit of normal conversation for two Michiganders, but we were eating lunch at a roadside park in Oklahoma and the man was working on a water line nearby.

He'd noticed our license plate and chatted a bit with us about baseball. He mentioned a son who had started out well pitching for a Tulsa team, only to break his wrist and ruin his chances.

It's always good to find another heart so far from home that beats as yours.

We were in Joad Country — the state immortalized by John Steinbeck in "The Grapes of Wrath." And, since we spent most of our visit in the teeming city of Tulsa, it was hard to imagine Oklahoma as the Joad family experienced it.

Still, driving through sprawling countryside en route to that city, I was reminded of the story. As we took in the dusty fields crying for rain (one was being irrigated for a herd of cattle), the humble dwellings along some of the roads, and the small, modest towns, I could almost hear Ma Joad giving her famous "We are the people" speech to her family.

★

IF IT IS Joad Country, Oklahoma is also Cherokee territory. We saw our Indian friends in towns bearing such names as "Tahlequah," "Cowetta," and "Concheta."

I must mention one other outstanding sight along the road to the big city. High on a hill and visible from quite a distance was a church of intriguing architecture. It looked like a gigantic chrysalis or cocoon.

A steeple-like structure was at the front and going backwards from this was a series of rounded arches, each bigger than the other, culminating in a really-colossal one.

I wished we'd had the time to stop and see the interior. Did one of the oil magnates of Oklahoma make this possible?

Tulsa is a big, modern city. We found wide streets, tall downtown buildings, fancy apartments and a well-planned, tidy zoo.

Mohawk Zoological Gardens is evidently a rather new venture for Tulsans. Many of the animals' houses bore plaques mentioning that this specimen was made possible by "your 1961 bond". We thought it clever that the African lion was donated by the local Lions Club.

A curator sadly told us that the gardens had lost 11 seals this year because visitors carelessly throw things into the tank which the seals cannot digest.

He added, "And then people constantly gripe because we don't have more seals."

There were three of the creatures at the present time.

★

WE TORE ourselves away from the animals and visited the Tulsa International Airport terminal. What luxury!

Fountains which are lighted at night play outside the building, surrounded by nicely-landscaped gardens. The terminus itself is a structure of concrete and glass. It contains a bronze bust of Will Rogers.

Inside the modern building are impressive facilities — a TV room for persons who must wile away a few hours, a well-appointed restaurant, the interesting gift shop containing many Indian-made items, and of course, the usual concourses, ticket offices, waiting rooms and observation decks all done with taste and care.

We found two small inside pools complete with a sign which told you that if you tossed coins into the water your monies would help to provide a new Tulsa police academy.

★

WE GUESSED that Tulsans are attemptig to attract more air traffic to their city. A person might be tempted to touch down there just to tour this magnificent building.

We got lost returning to Arkansas and saw about 40 miles more of Oklahoma than we'd intended. Though this made us all a bit grouchy, I still had to agree with the popular conception of this panhandle state — "Oklahoma, you're O.K."

MRS. FRED RECTOR

70 Attend Party for Mrs. Rector

Mrs. Fred Rector was greeted by 70 friends and relatives on the occasion of her 90th birthday, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Leslie Calhoun were hosts for the party which was attended by guests from Fowlerville, Adrian, Clinton, Manchester and Tecumseh.

The house was filled with many beautiful gift bouquets for Mrs. Rector. During the afternoon, Mrs. Rector had a surprise telephone conversation with her sister, Mrs. Anna Chance and niece, Elizabeth Chance of Baltimore.

Featured on the refreshment table was the cake lavishly decorated with icing roses and chrysanthemums, which had been sent by the Baltimore relatives for the occasion.

Another beautifully decorated birthday cake, made by Cindy Calhoun, was served by Brenda Hoekstra, Mrs. Joyce Wiesman, Mrs. Lyle Calhoun and daughter, Jan, of Palmyra, and Mrs. Curtis Ashley of Adrian assisted the hostess.

Mrs. Rector came to Tecumseh in 1916 after her marriage in Baltimore, Md. to Fred Rector, a member of the Brown and Co. firm of Tecumseh.

She lives at the Moody Nursing Home where she is near her many Tecumseh friends.

The pleasantly busy social afternoon was drawing to a close, and the hostess had kicked off her shoes to relax, when the guest of honor — still full of energy — exclaimed with delight:

"This has been the happiest day of my life!"

Tipton Resident Joins Goodwill

TIPTON — Three new staff members have been announced by Goodwill Industries.

A Toledo University graduate, Wiley L. Mavis, was named Director of Personnel training and evaluation.

His assistant will be Joyce Brugger, a recent graduate of Adrian College and a resident of Tipton.

Iola Morningstar was named director of community relations.

Mr. Mavis, a native of Fort Wayne, Ind., who has a master's degree from University of Toledo in guidance and counseling, will be in charge of rehabilitation, training and evaluation of mentally retarded and cerebral palsied children in the Lenawee County special education program.

Miss Brugger majored in sociology at Adrian College after graduation from Onsted High School. She will work primarily in the special education program and in employee services.

Miss Morningstar has previous experience in public relations, nursing and office management. She once did a radio program in Hillsdale promoting the hiring of the handicapped. She pursued a nursing career after high school and worked with a physician for several years.

Due to a visual impairment since birth, much of Miss Morningstar's training and education has been through the courtesy of private tutors and employers. Because of this help she is dedicated to helping others with limitations.

Mrs. Neil Pearson Has Family Guests for Two Weeks

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pearson and children Ann and Thomas of Weathersfield, Conn., are visiting for two weeks with his mother, Mrs. Neil Pearson.

Another son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Pearson, and children Kimberly and Kevin, of Farmington came Sunday and the Pearson family enjoyed a family reunion at the Evans Lake cottage of Mrs. Pearson's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Cooke of Tecumseh.

Also present for the occasion were Curtis Dolan of Battle Creek and his "little brother" David Grant of Saginaw. Mr. Dolan has been a Big Brother to David Grant for many years.

Richard Pearson has been an assistant professor of law at the University of Connecticut in Hartford. The family will move to Boston where he has accepted a position as a professor at the University of Boston where he received his law degree in 1956.

Mr. Pearson graduated from Tecumseh High School in 1946 and is a graduate of the University of Michigan. He received his master's degree at Yale.

Scout Executive McCallum Wins 'Wood Badge'

The International Training Award "Wood Badge" was presented last week at Camp Kanesatake to Walter McCallum, District Executive of Lenape District, Wolverine Council.

Wood Badge training was originally developed by Lord Baden-Powell in England. Several years ago the training was brought to the United States and each year selected adult Scouters are recommended for the course.

In this area the course is given only at the Region Seven Canoe Base in Wisconsin, or the Detroit Council D-B Ranch in Michigan.

The course consists of a week of practical training in the woods, an experience as training instructor for Council training courses and written work.

Water Tank To Be Blue

CLINTON—The Village Council voted at the Aug. 4 meeting to accept the contract for painting the water tank by the Huron Painting Co. for $3,450.

The choice of a color involved some discussion and it was finally agreed to paint the aluminum tank a mist blue.

The council agreed to participate in the repair of the basement floor of the Township Hall.

Action was taken to raise the sewer and water connection fees 100 per cent and a scale for industry was adopted based on the size of the pipe.

The deposit by renters for electric and water service was increased immediately from $10 to $25.

The village has ordered $1,700 worth of permanent Christmas decorations to be delivered by Nov. 1. The Chamber of Commerce will pay $500 toward the cost of these trimmings.

A resolution was passed that no tavern in Clinton be given a dance permit.

Community Chest Sets Fund Drive Goal at $5,000

CLINTON — A goal of $5,000 for the Fund Drive was set by the Clinton Community Chest Board at a meeting Aug. 2 in the Community Center.

Fifteen persons representing various community organizations were present in response to a request for more community participation by the board president, Leslie Pierce.

Vice-president Lois Lancaster served as secretary in the absence of Mrs. John Mabry. Other board members present were Mrs. Robert Winder, Mrs. George Ford, John Truesdale and Gary Miller.

The Salvation Army representative, Mrs. Miller of Adrian, described the work of that group and requested aid from the fund.

Paul Dibble and Mrs. John Hamilton of Adrian represented the Family Counseling Service of Lenawee County. They explained the need for more funds for the service, which had been fully supported by the Herrick Foundation, but now its work must be taken over by the county. They reported that in 1964, 1,900 interviews were given at an average cost of $11.60 per interview.

★

THE DATE for the Chest Drive will be Oct. 2-9. A general chairman will be named in the near future.

Allen Brooks will be chairman of the rural solicitors, assisted by Mrs. Robert Winder; the village solicitors will be directed by Mrs. Walter LaSovage assisted by Mrs. George Ford. Lester Pierce will be in charge of the industries.

Peerless Gear plant representatives were present and discussed the possibilities of setting up a payroll deduction plan.

The Clinton Community Chest covers the Clinton school district which embraces parts of Cambridge, Franklin and Tecumseh townships and Bridgewater and Manchester townships in Washtenaw County.

Allocations are to be made at a later date. The next meeting of the board will be Aug. 30 at 7:30 p.m. in the Community Center. The public is welcome.

Filmstrip Shown at WSCS Meeting

CLINTON — "This Sustaining Bread" was the title of a film strip shown by Mrs. Loren Scott to the Methodist W.S.C.S. at the meeting Aug. 3 at the Church.

Vivian Powell presented the program theme, "Serving New Ages." She described the role of the W.S.C.S. to bring missions programs to every woman in the church to the community, share in the development of the mission program, and support the total program through gifts of service and money.

Plans were discussed for the 25th anniversary of the group in September. Mrs. Viva Riker was presented with a past president's pin.

Mrs. Robert Beadle is making arrangements for the Clinton W.S.C.S. to share in the migrant program in the county in August.

Mrs. Richard Dixon and Mrs. Martin Scott served refreshments.

Plant Stolen

CLINTON—John Pribble, owner of Kukini Flower shop in Clinton, reported to Clinton State Police, that a rare croten plant valued at $75 and a $12 pot was stolen from the entry of the florist shop over the weekend.

Legion Auxiliary Installs Officers at Potluck Supper

CLINTON—The new president of the American Legion Auxiliary, Mrs. Hattie Feldkamp, was the hostess for the potluck supper meeting, Aug. 3.

Mrs. Mary Hull had charge of the installation of new officers.

Installed with Mrs. Feldkamp were: Vice-presidents — Mrs. Dorothy Frolich and Mrs. Anna McDermott.

Secretary — Mrs. Henry Treat
Treasurer—Mrs. Byrdelia Hull
Chaplain—Mrs. Roscoe Parker
Historian — Mrs. Charles Voll
Sergeant at arms — Mrs. Lucy Colson.

Those named to the new executive board are: Mrs. Elvin Witherell, Mrs. John Monaghan and Mrs. Lawson Ward.

The group spent a social evening and presented Mrs. Hull with a gift.

Rotarians, Band Boosters Planning Chicken Barbecue

CLINTON — Donald Meyers and Allen Brooks represented the Clinton Rotary Club at a recent meeting with Mrs. Richard Sharpe, president of the Band Boosters Club.

The Rotarians will assist the Band Boosters in a chicken barbecue to be held Sept. 5 at Monument Park on US-12.

The purpose of the project will be to raise the remaining funds needed for the new band uniforms.

All band boosters and anyone interested in helping with this project is asked to attend a special planning meeting on Tuesday at the high school.

Clinton Rotary To Participate in Golf Day Event

CLINTON — The Rotary Club will not meet Aug. 18. Instead they will be participating in the Golf Day sponsored by the Tecumseh Rotary Club at the Tecumseh Country Club Tuesday.

Failure To Report Accident Costs Driver a Summons

CLINTON — Jerome G. Ervin, 23, of 1167 July Dr., Adrian, receive a summons Aug. 7 from Clinton State Police for failure to report a property damage accident which occurred Aug. 3 on Bihlmeyer Highway.

Mr. Ervin told officers that he swerved right to avoid an approaching vehicle and his milk truck struck a tree stump at the edge of the road, damaging the undercarriage of the truck, which was then abandoned.

Hustlers 4-H Club Hold Project Tour

CLINTON — All members of the N. Franklin Hustlers 4-H Club and their parents participated in the pre-fair project tour, Aug. 4, which began at the home of James Woodward and ended at the home of Patty and Cheryl Aebersold.

Each member's home was visited and he displayed his projects or demonstrated his project animal, which are to be on exhibit at the Lenawee County Fair this week.

Patty and Cheryl Aebersold served refreshments.

Here comes the winner! Can he hold that first place position, or will he fail? In the eyes of these youngsters, victory is the most important thing in the world. Everything hinges on the outcome of this contest!

Enthusiasm is part of successful living, stimulating the imagination, and inspiring the mind. It is contagious, too, and can affect co-workers, friends, families. It is essential to organizations as well as to individuals.

Through the centuries a rich spiritual enthusiasm has been handed down by the Church, one of the greatest institutions on earth. Its members, working together, fired by the enthusiasm of faith, can give you renewed inspiration, and strength.

Why not attend church next Sunday? Become a part of this great fellowship of believers! You, too, can be a winner.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL — ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Joyce Pickens, Rudolph Studnicka Wed

Joyce Pickens and Rudolph Studnicka were married Saturday in the Dundee Congregational Church, Dundee.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pickens, of 9369 Azalia Rd., Maybee.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Studnicka, of 20377 Couper Rd., Milan.

MRS. RUDOLPH STUDNICKA

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Joseph Cooke, pastor of the church.

Lee Ann Toburen, the organist, accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Joseph Cooke.

The bride approached the altar with her brother, Byron Pickens. She wore an Angelo original bridal gown of white peau de soie. The basque bodice featured a bateau neckline re-embroidered with Alencon applique and elbow-length sleeves.

The Empire styled sheath skirt ended in a double chapel train. A double crown of crystals and pearls held the bride's shoulder length veil.

★

SHE WORE TEARDROP floating opal earrings, a gift of the bridegroom. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Richard Wells of Dundee was her sister's matron of honor. Another sister, Mary Pikens, was the bridesmaid.

The attendants were gowned alike in white embroidered taffeta styled with a fitted bodice and belle shaped sheath skirt accented with a bow in the back. They carried cascade bouquets.

The best man was John Karlik, of St. Johns, brother-in-law of the bridegroom. The ushers were Robert Studnicka of Milan, brother of the bridegroom and Richard Wells, of Dundee, brother-in-law of the bride.

The reception at the Odd Fellow Hall in Tecumseh was attended by 300 guests.

The bride is a beautician at the Colonial House of Beauty, Tecumseh. The bridegroom is employed at Ford Motor Co., [illegible] will live at Wamplers Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wells entertained at a buffet supper Friday evening after the rehearsal at their home in Dundee.

The engagement of Cheryl Maynard to Allen Ross is being announced by her mother, Mrs. Calvin Dixon, Jr., 404 Seneca St. Mr. Ross is the son of Mrs. Harry Reidy of Britton. Miss Maynard is a recent graduate of the Marinello-Comer School of Cosmetology of Reseda, Calif. Her fiance is employed at the General Motors plant at Willow Run.

Linda Dew, Jerry Crawford Say Vows

The marriage vows of Linda Jeanne Dew and Jerry Crawford of 501 Kilbuck St., Tecumseh, were solemnized Saturday in the Ridgeway Methodist Church in Ridgeway.

The service was performed by the Rev. Duane McNeil, pastor of the Britton Baptist Church.

The chancel was enhanced with branch candelabra, faced with palm foliage and yellow satin bows, and four bouquets of white gladioli. Single floor candelabra marked each pew along the aisle with yellow candles and garlands of stephanotis.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Loyde Hiser, of 19417 Tecumseh Rd., Dundee, and the late Floyd Dew. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thurley Crawford of Kingsport, Tenn.

Mrs. William Raeburn, the organist, played the nuptial music and accompanied the soloist, William Hetrick.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Robert Dew.

The bride's gown was of white Chantilly lace styled with a scalloped neckline, long-sleeved fitted bodice and a bouffant skirt ending in a chapel train.

Seed pearls and rhinestones formed the crown which held her veil of French illusion. The bridal bouquet of petite carnations was centered with a white sweetheart rose corsage.

Linda Clement of Britton was the maid of honor. The attendants were Brenda Palmer, of Britton, and Jean London, of Milan.

★

THE ATTENDANTS were gowned alike in yellow crepe and brocade sheath gowns which featured a [illegible]-length length train held to the low back neckline with a bow. Their headdress were matching cabbage roses and veiling. They carried imported white bone fans with crescent arrangements of tangerine carnations and green foliage.

Thuryel Crawford, Jr., of 501 Kilbuck St., Tecumseh, was his brother's best man. The guests were seated by Donald Dew, of Dundee, Bruce Dew of Newport, and Vernal Dew, of Wyandotte, brothers of the bride.

A reception for 200 guests was held in the church hall after the ceremony. Mrs. George DeVolle and Mrs. Harold Bowers were hostesses.

★

THE BRIDE'S TABLE was skirted with white nylon over yellow taffeta and was centered with the wedding cake flanked by inverted crystal snifters holding white gladioli and yellow pompons and a single yellow candle.

The wedding cake was made by Mrs. John Houseman of Britton. The groom's cake was made by Mrs. Mamie Rath of Monroe. Mrs. Robert Dew and Mrs. Vernal Dew served the cake.

Cynthia Hiser and Judy Hiser, sisters of the bride, had charge of the guest signatures on the anniversary tablecloth. Mrs. Kenneth Monk, of Dundee, served the punch.

The bride is a graduate of Britton High School. The bridegroom attended high school in Kingsport, Tenn., and is employed at Tecumseh Products Co.

A rehearsal dinner was given by the bride's aunts, Mrs. George DeValle, and Mrs. Harold Bowers, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Loyde Hiser, Friday evening.

The couple will reside at 19419 Tecumseh Rd., Dundee, upon their return from a two-week wedding trip to the Great Smokey Mountains and the southern states.

MRS. JERRY CRAWFORD

Marjorie Vaughan Weds Donn Degnon

CLINTON — A nuptial mass at noon Saturday in St. Paul's Episcopal Church at Ormond Beach, Fla. united in marriage Marjorie Ellen Vaughn and Donn Kean Degnon.

The Rev. Fr. Patrick O'Sullivan, formerly of St. Paul's and now of Tampa, Fla. performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Vaughn, formerly of Clinton, now of 307 N. Beach St., Ormond Beach.

The bridegroom is the foster son of Dr. and Mrs. Richard B. Houghton, of 406 Lenox Ave., Ormond Beach.

The bride approached the altar with her father. She wore a formal sheath of candlelight satin with a detachable train.

The empire bodice was of re-embroidered Alencon lace. Her full length mantilla veil of re-embroidered Alencon lace was in a matching candlelight shade. She carried a cascade of orchids and sweetheart roses.

★

MRS. RICHARD POLK Vaughan of Toledo, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor.

She wore a floor length sheath gown of yellow crepe with a taffeta brocade bodice in a deeper shade of gold and featuring a detachable train.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Henry Vaughan III, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., sister-in-law of the bride; Cornelia Vaughan, of Montreal, Que., cousin of the bride; Mrs. Kenneth Geiger, of Clinton; Helen Melanson, both of Daytona Beach, Fla.

Patricia Ann Vaughan, of Toledo, a niece of the bride, and Mimi Menard of Jacksonville were the flower girls.

Philip Degnon, of Virginia Beach, Va., was his brother's best man.

The ushers were: Richard P. Vaughan, of Toledo, and Henry S. Vaughan, of Fort Lauderdale, brothers of the bride; Claude Melanson, Joseph Nolan, Lewis Menard III of Jacksonville, Lt. Brian Shoemaker USN; and William Fricke.

A reception for 200 guests was held at Tomoka Oaks Country Club, where an orchestra provided music for dancing.

The couple flew to New York and will live in Naples, Italy after a two week wedding trip in Spain.

The bride attended St. Joseph's Academy in Adrian and is a graduate of Clinton High School and Eastern Michigan University.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Bolles Academy of Jacksonville and attended the University of North Carolina. He is serving with the U.S. Coast Guard at the Naval Air Station in Naples.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Mendez, of Charlotte, N. C., formerly of Clinton were among the wedding guests.

"C[illegible] now, let's get together now, and love one another, right now," sang suave Ron Wrona to a full house at The Stage Thursday night.

Refreshing seems to be the best word to describe entertainment at the new coffee house operated by the Murrays and Daltons in Adrian.

Parents attending are thrilled to see the wholesome atmosphere where their teens are enthralled by folk singers, both professional and local.

Climaxing an evening of fun Aug. 5, Ron, a cousin of Danny Mieduch, of Clinton, sang "Four Strong Winds" with Danny, Dale Close, of Tecumseh, and Audrey White, also of Clinton.

Ron, of Phoenix, Ariz., regularly sings at the Shrunken Skull coffee house in Phoenix.

Many thanks to the owners for providing such an interesting spot for young people.

By TOM RIORDAN

Old St. Peter's is gone, but the memory lingers on.

A cross, made of two-hand-hewn timbers from the historic 129-year-old Episcopal house of worship, now stands at the site of the original altar.

The Rev. Frank Hawthorne, rector, says that soon a bronze plaque will be placed near the cross giving data on the church, which was Michigan's oldest in continuous use.

Now, up pop two unique paintings of the old church, done by Charlotte Lockwood of Vero Beach, Fla. and Clark's Lake.

Miss Lockwood did them with what is known in art circles as the dry brush technique and how she came to do them is fascinating.

Things started back three years ago when the Save Historic St. Peter's committee was attempting to raise $100,000 to move, restore and care for the old building as a museum.

Old timers will recall that nearly $10,000 was donated from all over the [illegible] gifts. The idea was to get 100,000 interested people to send a buck each.

Among the donors was Mrs. Floyd Poole of Jackson, who has long been interested in architecture and especially that of churches.

She thought about St. Peter's for a long time and then in a meeting with Miss Lockwood commissioned her for $100 to do a painting of the old church.

The artist was given several newspaper pictures from which to work since the building had been leveled.

So fascinated by the job, Miss Lockwood went right ahead and did a second painting.

It was this one which she brought to The Herald office, where it currently is on display.

Following our usual custom, this week's edition starts detailed word and picture reports of local County Fair winners.

We make a concerted effort to get pictures of all top winners. Some are missed when they can't be located on the grounds during the Fair.

Club leaders always do a fine job in reporting all their ribbon getters. And if some have forgotten, this is a reminder.

We'll keep printing reports until they're all in.

Obviously, The Herald figures the work and effort young people put into their Fair projects rate full coverage.

ARTIST AND HER WORK — Charlotte Lockwood of Clarks Lake holds painting she did of St. Peter's with the cross of ancient beams from the historic church in the background. The cross now stands where the original altar was located and soon a bronze plaque will be erected nearby telling about old St. Peter's. See long and Short column.

122 Elms Have Been Destroyed

Dutch Elm Disease is still a problem for most midwestern communities.

C. A. Boyer, chief of the Plant Industry Division of Michigan's Department of Agriculture, sent a warning to Council.

Cities which have no spraying and removal program are losing from 10 to 30% of their elms each year, he said.

On the other hand, in communities which spray regularly against elm disease and cut down infected trees, the loss is about 1½%.

He emphasized that prompt removal is needed to keep the disease from spreading. A delay of one year can often mean the infection of two or three nearby elms.

Mr. Boyer added that elms "predominate 65% as our Michigan shade tree. We can ill afford to lose them because of a faultiness anywhere along the line in the program."

In Tecumseh, 122 elms and 20 maples have been removed because of disease in the past year, according to City Manager Cal Zorn.

Tecumseh Public Schools will open Sept. 7. All full time principals, both elementary and secondary will be in their respective buildings starting Aug. 26 to prepare for the school year.

AS PROTECTION for Tecumseh pupils the Board requires a complete physical for all staff members when they first enter our school system and every two years thereafter.

Tuberculosis tests are required each year and are done by the Lenawee County Health Department. All staff members must have these tests and X-rays are required if necessary.

The Board plans to have all children (except kindergartners who will come Wednesday) start school Sept. 7, at 10 locations:

High school, Junior high, Patterson, Herrick Park, Tecumseh Acres, Tipton, Sutton, Ridgeway, West Branch, and Macon.

A hot lunch program will begin opening day in the nigh school. Milk will be available in all other buildings and children will be expected to bring their own lunches.

Eligibility of elementary children to remain at school for lunches will be determined by the same rules as last year.

Children living within seven-tenths of a mile of school will be expected to walk home for lunch. Special arrangements may be made if both parents work away from home. Parents should contact the principal of the school their child attends.

The hot lunch program and the milk program were both operated without a loss for the last two years. The 35c fee charged at the cafeteria met the needs of the program and will continue for this year.

State and federal aid, both in money and surplus foods, enable our schools to provide a wholesome lunch at reasonable prices.

Milk will be available through the Federal Program at reduced prices as usual in all elementary schools. Pupils bringing lunches may buy milk at 4c per carton for white or chocolate milk.

The new addition to the high school has made it possible for all pupils to come to school at the same time, enjoy a single lunch hour together, and to leave school at the same time.

★

THE ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL of the schools consisting of the superintendent, business manager, building principals, and bus supervisor met to discuss methods of scheduling various schools so every child in the district will have the same program and the school days will start and end at the same time.

After much discussion and planning, the Council presented the following plans to the Board of Education which they approved for the new year.

All secondary schools will open and close at the same time. The early elementary programs will all start and end together. This is made possible by the rearrangement and improvement of the elementary curriculum.

Bus service to Tecumseh Public School pupils will again be on a "safety first" basis.

The State law stating that pupils from kindergarten through sixth grade may be required to walk up to one-half mile to scheduled bus routes and pupils in grades seven through 12 up to one mile, is used to determine the length of bus routes as well as to group pupils.

This year the state will again pay for the transportation of parochial school children to parochial schools on public school

Cycle-Car Accident Injures One

Dennis Edward Bourns, 17, of 6350 M-50, Tipton was injured Friday evening when his motorcycle collided with an automobile at the intersection of Tipton Hwy. and M-50.

Bourns was traveling west on M-50 at 35 miles-per-hour when he hit the side of an auto driven by I. Mary Welch, 54, of 5750 US-12, Tipton.

The Welch vehicle was going north on Tipton Hwy. and was following a truck through the intersection when the mishap occurred at 6:15 p.m.

Bourns was taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital and was reported resting comfortably and in good condition Tuesday.

Mary Welch was uninjured and was ticketed for failure to yield the right-of-way.

Council Passes Up Job Training Gift

Sometimes, city government can be quick and crisp.

Take Monday evening, for instance.

Topic was the Economic Opportunities Act — one leg of the War on Poverty, whereby the Federal Government will provide 90% of funds needed in a job-training program.

State Senator Haskell Nichols had written that city officials should make their move now if they wanted to apply for a Federal grant.

Here was the local dialog:

Mayor Harold Easton: "Who's unemployed?"

City Attorney Jim Beardsley: "Just those who want to be."

Councilman George McCombs: "It's possible that some of those who might want to ride along on it will move to a place where it is."

City Manager Cal Zorn: "I dont' think you can get personnel (to take job training). They won't work for $1 an hour."

Mayor (producing list of welfare cases in Tecumseh): "Seven families in the city are on direct relief. Six (of adults) are physically unable to work."

With that the subject was dropped.

Cast Iron Pipe To Soon Replace Old Water Line

A new four-inch water main will go in along Water St., behind A & P and the Fabricare Center.

Council told City Manager Cal Zorn to replace the old galvanized pipe, which has sprung a series of leaks.

John Kopka and his city water crew found one leak, repaired it, then discovered others. In so doing, they dug a trench 150 feet long.

Installing new cast iron pipe seemed the logical thing, Mr. Zorn told Council, now that most of the old line is exposed. Council agreed.

One-Way Street Plan Is Protested

Making Ottawa St. one-way past Tecumseh Junior High School and eliminating stops at Logan and Shawnee Sts. has brought a protest from Supt. James McDowell.

He feels routing northbound traffic past the school would be dangerous to students.

Mr. McDowell suggests that there be signal lights in operation when youngsters arrive and leave the school.

City Manager Cal Zorn has pointed out that he feels "one-way is safer than two-way" because pedestrians have to concern themselves with vehicles coming in one direction.

School bus loading on Ottawa would not have to be changed, Mr. Zorn noted. This actually could be easier since motorists would have two extra lanes in which to pass by the buses as they take on passengers.

★

COUNCILMAN George McCombs suggested that the city "try it. If it's not right, we can always change."

Mr. Zorn was told to petition the Michigan Highway Department for a traffic light at Chicago Blvd. and Ottawa St.

This would be the first step in the plan for a new downtown traffic pattern, one-way northbound on Ottawa and one-way southbound on Evans St., from the Athletic Field to Kilbuck St.

"Quicker the better," opined Mayor Harold Easton.

Former Pastor's Son Will Speak

Dwight McPherson, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Lindsey McPherson, former pastor of the Assembly of God church, will be the speaker at the 11 a.m. service here Sunday.

Project 701 Is on Agenda

A representative of the Michigan Department of Economic Expansion will attend a Tecumseh Planning Commission meeting Sept. 14.

Under discussion will be the 701 Program, in which Federal funds up to 70% will assist in future city planning projects.

$560,000 To Arrive on Friday

A tidy sum — $560,000 — is expected at city hall Friday.

This will be bond issue cash, approved last spring in the vote to enlarge the city's wastewater treatment plant.

It also covers the cost of the $100,000 sewer line to Fisher Body.

Fisher actually will pay the entire amount and, in fact, already has, on a loan basis. The city will refund GM, which in turn will start paying once more over a 20-year period, plus approximately 3¼ per cent interest.

Confused?

It is a trifle tangled, but in order to get the job done, GM dug into its treasury so that contractors could be paid as the city went through the legal red tape of bonding for the line.

★

AS TO THE treatment plant enlargement, its estimated cost is $450,000 and there is the excellent probability that Federal aid will cover 30% of this.

Again, legalities are needed — this time in the form of a resolution by Council which guarantee:

► Plans have been submitted to the Michigan Health Commission for approval.

► Financing vote for the city's share has been held.

► Construction contracts will be executed not later than May 1, 1966.

If the Federal Aid comes through, this means the city can immediately recall and pay off a $135,000 bond issue, which is being handled by the United Savings Bank as a portion of the $560,000 total.

17-month-old Girl Is Badly Injured by Power Mower

Pamela Rowe, 17-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rowe, received serious injuries Monday, when she ran into the power mower her brother was using at her Macon home.

She is a patient in the St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor, with a broken leg and severe cuts on her ankle and across her toes. She is in a cast and in traction.

BEHIND PAGE ONE

Mrs. Florence Cox, of 6947 Shull Rd., called to tell us she remembers 80 years ago when the "old folks" had whortleberries, which were the same small berries which came to be known as huckleberries. She recalls when they grew in abundance in marshy bogs near Manchester. Now, with the cultivated large variety becoming more generally called "blue" berry, it may be that some future Herald writer will be asking what huckleberries are.

Dig the sign Carl Lamb has up near the rear entrance of his store: "Do not take any boxes. The police will patrol this alley and you will be turned over."

The trials of a teen ager, in love with two girls at once. What The Herald needs is an Ann Landers to aid these kids.

[illegible] Tecumseh Products went on vacation, so did most of the city's barbers, making for a lot of long hairs left behind. Not everyone works at the Products, fellows.

All 4-H Club leaders should submit to The Herald for publication the list of all their members and their winnings at the Lenawee County Fair. We will publish these lists as they come into the office.

"Here's how they spend our money in Washington," growled Al Hammond as he thrust an unopened franked envelope from Washington, D.C. into the editor's hand... It turned out to be a printed piece from Congressman Wes Vivian, reporting on his first seven months in office. Al wouldn't go for the bait that "maybe there's a check inside. They're sending a lot out from Washington now."

Another envelope, this one with $18.09, was turned over to The Herald by The Blissfield Advance. The cash encompassed donations made when folks in that area purchased Herald Tornado Supplements in the past couple of months. (Yes, they're still selling, only a few left now from the extra printing of 7,500). The money is being passed along to the Tipton Fund, which is being administered by local residents and used in that area.

Don Purkey of the new Lenawee Fuel, Inc., is tickled with The Herald's summer resort distribution, which places free Heralds on 1,000 cottage porches for 10 weeks every Thursday morning. Four year-around residents of Mud Lake called Don to sign up for heating fuel after seeing Lenawee ads in The Herald.

"I've had it," moaned Mrs. Robert Bowers as she reached the eighth green Sunday during a round of golf at Tecumseh Country Club. She typified the linksmen who dared to play Sunday in what turned out to be one of the hottest days of the year.

After seeing Sunday's Free Press story on the good health to be obtained from jogging, some Tecumseh men are talking about starting a group here come fall. Joggers out west, in a scientific test, have proved it's great exercise for men over 35, including recovered heart-attack victims. If you want to jog, call Ted Pihl, 423-3561.

Has anyone lost a pair of glasses, pince-nez style? If so, they can be picked up at The Herald office.

United Savings Bank continued to rank ahead of the Bank of Lenawee County in Adrian in total resources according to the ranking of Michigan's largest banks. United is 55th in the state with resources at $29,476,000 and the Adrian bank is 69th with $23,533,000.

Mayor Harold Easton noted at Council Monday, during a discussion on the value of underground lines for utility services, that Tipton had telephone service within two days following the Palm Sunday tornado. Underground cables made this possible. In the Manitou Beach area, where all lines were above ground, it was weeks before phones were available in many instances.

A post card from N. Tonawanda, N.Y., arrived at The Herald Tuesday seeking information about Chuck and Luella Bigelow's Hill an' Dale Resort. Said Mrs. R. Borton, "Several weeks ago, friends were visiting and brought their newspaper along. You had printed an article about a family vacation spot near Beulah. Would it be possible to obtain a copy of that paper?

Free downtown parking was touched by Council Monday as a request by the Church of Christ to rent off-street meters was considered. People who wish to rid the city of meters should see Pat Meadows at United Savings Bank.

Presbyterian Church To Have Guest Ministers

On the last Sunday of August and the first Sunday of September, there will be guest ministers at the Presbyterian Church.

Aug. 29 the Reverend Patrick Murray, an associate in the Office of Religious Affairs at the [illegible] will occupy the pulpit.

A graduate of Baylor University and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Dr. Murray received his Ph.D. from Duke University graduate division of religion. For the past three years he has served as Assistant Coordinator of Religious Affairs at the University. His sermon topic will be "Jesus Christ and Secular Man."

Sept. 5, Dr. John Marvin, editor of the Michigan Christian Advocate, the official weekly publication of Michigan Methodists, will be guest minister.

Dr. Marvin, a frequent summer guest at this church, has been in journalistic work for almost 30 years, and speaks from a background of one who has watched and reported on the church in one of its great changing periods.

His topic will be "Victims or Victors".

The worship service begins at 9:30 a.m. during the summer. The latter portion of the service is broadcast over WLEN-FM, Adrian, from 10:00-10:30 a.m.

Children Honor Their Parents on 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lenheiser were honored on their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon at their home at 1018 River Acres Dr.

The event was arranged by their children, Barbara, a student at Ford Community College in Dearborn and Robert, a senior at Tecumseh High School.

The 75 guests came from Ann Arbor, Milan, Tecumseh, Detroit, Toledo, Britton, Plymouth and Ypsilanti.

The couple were married at Port Clinton, Aug. 5, 1940. Formerly from Detroit and Milan, they moved to Tecumseh six years ago. Mr. Lenheiser is employed as a manufacturer's representative for the Detroit Plastic Co. in Mt. Clemens.

The refreshment table was decorated with a bouquet of pink and white gladioli, roses and carnations, silver candelabra and crystal.

Decorated anniversary cake, sandwiches, and ice cream were served with punch in an antique milk glass punch bowl.

Joan Hammond of Dearborn, a sorority sister of Miss Lenheiser, assisted with the reception.

St. Elizabeth Forms New School Board

Even before St. Elizabeth's new school board has had its first meeting, one member has been lost.

Edward O'Neill, 215 N. Union St., a district representative for Western Auto, has been transferred to Cincinnati.

He was one of the original four appointees to the board by the Rev. Thomas J. Collins, pastor of the local Catholic Church.

Others on the board are John McVay, Mrs. Arthur Lopshire and Edward Rapin.

First meeting of the new group will be Sept. 7 with an agenda including appointment of founding members for a St. Elizabeth Parent-Teacher Guild, discussion of a hot lunch program and the school's new educational TV system.

Tuition in the local Catholic School has been increased to $45 per family with second grade already filled.

In the Army Now

Pvt. Ronald Lawson is beginning his basic training in the Army at Ft. Knox, Ky.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor O. Lawson of Billmyer Hwy. Pvt. Lawson was employed at Henkel's Barber Shop.

Parochial children riding Public School busses must also abide by these rules.

Children who were enrolled in Tecumseh Public Schools last spring have already received notice of the grade and school in which they will be located this fall.

However, some changes must be made due to the rapid growth of the community and overcrowding in the grades. The Board has made arrangements for two extra class rooms to meet these needs. Therefore it will be necessary to shift some pupils from assignments last spring.

Parents or children who are new to the community who have not yet enrolled should see the [illegible] the high school, Mr. Pobuda.

Pupils in the ninth through 12 Sept. 1 and Sept. 3, 8 a.m. - 12 a.m. and 1 - 3 p.m., Sept. 2, 1 - 3 p.m.; the junior high principal, Mr. Dick in the case of pupils in the seventh and eighth grades; and Mr. Wayne Kaiser, phone 423-2167, extension 51, at the Tecumseh Acres School, in the case of children in the kindergarten through the 6th grade.

These men will all be in their respective offices Aug. 30 and 31 and may be contacted on those dates.

THE TEXTBOOK RENTAL plan which was started in 1947 was revised by the Board of Education for the 1962-63 school year and continues the same for this year. The textbook fee includes textbooks, work books, and art materials except in special classes where additional supplies are necessary.

The fees are:

Kindergarten, $4; first through sixth grade, $6.50; seventh and eighth grade, $7 and ninth through 12th grade, $8.

All textbooks are the property of the Board of Education. All lost books must be paid for in full. The principals and their appointed teachers are in charge of the collecting of the money. Receipts must be issued to all pupils paying fees of any kind on official Board of Education forms.

Elementary pupils should be prepared to pay the book rental fee to the teacher on the opening day of school and parents should expect their children to bring a receipt home. Elementary pupils will remain in school as usual on the opening day.

High School pupils report to the gym at 7:45 a.m. Sept. 7.

Book fees and locker fees of $8.50 will be collected. Pupils will then secure their class schedule cards from their class advisor.

Pupils may leave after they have obtained their schedule cards, unless they are to take prognostic tests for algebra or foreign language. These tests will be given according to the following schedule:

Algebra Prognostic Test — Sept. 7 — 9 a.m. Room 38.

Foreign Language Prognostic Test — Sept. 7 — 10:00 a.m., Room 38.

Pupils are to return at 1 p.m. Sept. 7 and go to the gymnasium for a general assembly and orientation period. Regular classes will begin the next day at 7:45 a.m.

Boys [illegible] physical education should be prepared to pay a $1.50 fee for towels and locker at the first meeting of their physical-education class on Wednesday. Chemistry and biology students should be prepared to pay a laboratory fee of $1.50 and chemistry students an additional fee of $1.50 for equipment which will be refunded if there is no breakage.

★

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL pupils are to report at 7:45 a.m. Sept 7, the seventh grade to the boys' gym on the first floor, and the eighth grade to the girls' gym on the third floor.

Book fees of $7 will be collected and schedule cards handed out. Pupils in junior and senior high who do not come prepared to pay their book fees must report directly to the principal's office before receiving permission to enroll.

Pupils are to return at 1 p.m. and go to their sixth hour class for orientation.

Regular classes will begin Sept. 8 at 7:45 a.m. Eighth Grade pupils must be prepared to pay a $1.50 towel and locker fee at the first meeting of their physical education class.

Children starting kindergarten will not meet until Sept. 8, at scheduled times. On that date the parents of the kindergarten children are requested to pin a note on the child, giving the child's name and address.

These parents are requested to meet the child's teacher Sept. 7, and pay the $4 book fee at this time. Wherever possible rural kindergarten pupils have been placed in morning sections to facilitate bus schedules.

Kindergarten bus drivers will make home calls sometime Sept. 7 to acquaint parents of their school bus routines.

George Choske Completes Course at Michigan Tech

George Anthony Choske, of 707 Wenonah, Tecumseh, has completed an eight-week Summer Institute in Earth Sciences at Michigan Technological University in Houghton.

Thirty-nine secondary school teachers of earth or general science were enrolled in the program, which was sponsored by the National Science Foundation under a $51,790 grant.

The Institute schedule included lectures and laboratory work and a weekly field trip to some point of interest in the Copper Country area of Michigan.

5 Teachers Approved by Board

Five teachers recently hired by Superintendent James McDowell were approved by the School Board Monday night.

Approved were:

Mrs. Lois Fleming, for the third grade at Ridgeway. Her salary will be $6,150.

Bob Keibler, science teacher at the high school. His salary will be $5,735.

Betsy Keibler, physical education at the high school. Her salary will be $5,240.

Sally Brown, for the third grade at West Branch. Her salary will be $4,900.

Edward P. O'Hare, for junior high mathematics. His salary will be $5,350.

Miss Brown is the replacement for Mrs. Phyllis O'Neill whose resignation as third grade teacher at West Branch was accepted by the board.

Mrs. O'Neil had to resign her post because her husband will be working in Cincinnati, Ohio, next year.

Mr. McDowell still has not found a teacher to fill the position as high school shop teacher.

This is the only teaching position in the Tecumseh School System that is not filled and Mr. McDowell is doubtful that it will be filled.

If it is not filled by the beginning of school Sept. 7, then Mr. McDowell said five classes will have to be canceled. Included will be three classes in advanced woodworking, mechanical drawing and electronics.

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH POLEY

Celebrate 25 Years

An open house Sunday will honor Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Poley at their home at 311 W. Patterson St., on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary.

Hosts for the occasion will be their son, Joseph E. Poley, and their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Hendricks.

Friends, neighbors and relatives are invited to attend from 2 to 5 p.m.

Rosemary Conklin of Adrian and Joseph Poley of Tecumseh were married Aug. 23, 1940, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Conklin, of 312 N. Scott St., Adrian. Their attendants were Creita Patterson, of Adrian, and James LaBounty, of Tecumseh. The late Dr. Norman MacNaughton, of Adrian, performed the ceremony.

Mr. Poley has been employed at the Tecumseh Products Co. for 30 years. Mrs. Poley is employed at the D & C Store.

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Three cheers for 4-H members, parents and leaders. It's a lot of work to prepare exhibits and groom animals for the fair and for the past several years a good many parents, whose vacation from the Tecumseh Products is in August, have had to spend much of their off time with this activity. The whole group is to be congratulated on the fine display at the Lenawee County Fair this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bryan have sold their home on N. Union St. and will move to Britton later this month. They were in Vanderbilt Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Cornell and Mrs. William W. Grigg were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Remick at their cottage on Shupac Lake for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. David Younglove entertained dinner guests Sunday, his mother, Mrs. Jennie Younglove, of Macon, and Mrs. Harvey Gatt.

Mr. and Mrs. David Younglove and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gatt, of Tecumseh, returned home Thursday after spending a few days in northern Michigan and at Sault Ste. Marie. On Wednesday, they visited Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Williams of Tecumseh at their cottage on Clear Lake.

A bridal shower will be held Thursday evening for Sharon Russell, of Detroit, who will be the bride of Charles Fretwell on Aug. 29. Co-hostesses of the shower are Mrs. John M. Fretwell, of Adrian, and Eileen Fretwell, of Tecumseh.

An eastern vacation was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clark, Ed Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cheever and children, Deb, Mike and Lee Russell. Traveling to Boston and Quebec, they returned home through the Green Mountains of Vermont.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Colson, of Outer Dr., have recently returned from a trip to Colorado and Wyoming.

Fort Worth, Tex., is the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Cheever, formerly of Herrick Park. Mr. Cheever is a retiree of Tecumseh Products. Mrs. Cheever's son, Lt. Col. James B. Clark, and family also reside in Fort Worth.

George Surratt accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Grigg and son, Marvin, on a canoeing trip on the Au Sable River early last week.

Norman Grigg left Wednesday, Aug. 4, for Yakima, Wash., to visit Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Stahler and other relatives on the coast.

The Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Burch, of Ypsilanti, and Lavern Thomas, of Ridgeway, attended the funeral of George N. Page in Jackson, Saturday.

Expert Explains 'Why' Conduit

All wiring in new public and commercial buildings must be in conduit or with flexible metallic tubing, if planned changes to the city's electrical code become law.

And it appears as though they will.

Councilmen heard from an expert Monday and he convinced them. They approved the second reading. The final reading comes in two weeks, with no apparent opposition.

Duncan Oliphant, a member of the city's Electrical Board, told Council that, "Safety is the whole thing."

★

HE EXPLAINED that with conduit any wiring fire breaking out would be contained. Ann Arbor, Adrian, Jackson and Detroit all require the same protection for occupants in public buildings.

"We wouldn't think of putting in anything else (at Tecumseh Products)," said Mr. Oliphant, who is chief electrician of the local industry.

Council had heard earlier objections from a builder prior to the last meeting over the conduit requirement in the revised code.

"I believe the cost factor is the only thing that rubs 'em," noted Gene Tuckey.

Products Union To Meet, Discuss Contract Aug. 26

Members of the United Products Workers Union will hold a quarterly mass meeting at the Union Hall Aug. 26 between 2 and 4 p.m.

At the conclusion of the regular business a report will be given on progress accomplished in negotiations of a new contract between the United Products Workers Union and Tecumseh Products Company.

The same day a strike vote will be taken to determine whether the membership continues to work or will strike after the expiration of their present contract Sept. 1, if a satisfactory agreement cannot be reached.

A resolution will be presented to change the by-laws concerning procedure of union dues deduction. Also there will be a discussion on replacing the worn out heating system in the Union Hall.

Delegates Named

Council named Mayor Harold Easton as delegate from Tecumseh to the Michigan Municipal League convention in Grand Rapids, Sept. 15-17.

City Manager Cal Zorn was selected as alternate.

Party 'Typhoon Tilt' Is Thursday

The Devils Lake Yacht Club Teenage party, "Typhoon Tilt," will be Thursday evening at 7:30.

The DLYC teenage sailors will be hosts to the skippers from Maumee River and Sandusky, Ohio, who will participate in the Vixen Regatta Thursday and Friday.

The DLYC Ladies Auxiliary will hold their annual luncheon Wednesday at 1 p.m.

By TOM RIORDAN

A shapely 22-year-old girl named Norma Brown has a problem.

She is all set to get married, but can't decide between two young men — and the marriage date is one day off.

This is the bittersweet comedy called "Invitation to a March," the current Clark Lake Playhouse production, which concludes with performances Friday and Saturday.

Norma — in real life, Mikal Kingery of Grand Rapids and a student at University of Michigan — has to choose between:

► Schuyler Grogan, a wealthy young man with oodles of connections, but who bores her to sleep, played by Craig Rodemaker of Jackson.

► Aaron Jabionski, an illegitimate lad, 20, "who is shorter than Norma" carefree and manly. He's done by Gary Avery of Jackson.

Suffice it to say, the poor girl is torn between the pair — and I'll not tell whom she finally choses.

En route to her decision are some off-beat lines, which are intended to shock the daylights out of the audience, apparently in lieu of crisp dialog.

Although Arthur Laurents called his work a comedy, one wonders if he isn't among the army of Angry Young Men rushing pell mell to throw buckets of hot tar on christian morals.

Both Miss Kingery and Mr. Avery were outstanding. The third man in the triangle, Mr. Rodembaker, was too stilted.

★

TECUMSEH'S TWO contributions to the show, Mrs. Robert Murray, as the unwed mother of Aaron, and Mrs. James Vanzo, the socially-striving mother of Norma, were both outstanding—as they delivered some of the show's best lines.

Schuyler's stage mother, portrayed by Diane Miller of Jackson, could have been more crisp in her delivery but she displayed plenty of stage savvy.

Don Shaw of Jackson, as her husband, was much too soft-spoken. His sincerity helped, so did his neat dress, especially in tuxedo. His stage son, Schuyler, suffered in the same scene by being fitted with a tux too long in the sleeves and two short in the trousers.

This is certainly not a show for children, although, there is a youngster in the cast, Gary Brown of Jackson, who plays the 12-year-old son of Mrs. Vanzo.

Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

Clark Lake's season finals, "Bye Bye Birdie," opens Aug. 27 with Mrs. Donald Geiger of the Tecumseh Players in the lead feminine role.

Church To Rent Meters 2 Days

Folks using downtown off-street parking lots Oct. 15 and 16 won't have to feed the meters, thanks to the Church of Christ.

In a search for something new in advertising, the church will rent all 250 meters, planning to place printed sacks on them telling of a week-long series of public meetings.

★

COUNCIL established a fee of $70 for the two days, which is estimated revenue for meters on an average Friday and Saturday.

The sacks must be put on and removed by the Church. Council told a representative, with a deadline set as of Monday, Oct. 18 at 7 a.m. Meters are not in operation Sunday and the bags will be left on that day, too.

★

Councilman Gene Tuckey said he liked any idea which would give free off-street parking to shoppers.

"I'd be tickled if service clubs would buy meters for weekend," he added.

In arriving at a rental fee, Council asked Police Chief Murrel Clark about meter receipts. July produced $1,116.50 from all units, with $430 of this being from those on off-street lots, the chief explained.

★

A CAMPAIGN by merchants to eliminate meters, headed by United Savings Bank President Pat Meadows, has so far bought up bonds on 50 meters and these spaces are now free at all times.

Jan Baxter Takes Field Agent Job

Jan Baxter, 606 Stacy St., has accepted a position as field agent for the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation.

It is an agency of the Michigan Department of Education, with headquarters in Ann Arbor.

The Baxter family plans to move near his office in late November.

● MYRNA R. SERVICE

Funeral services were held Aug. 17 in Kanab, Utah for Myrna Rose Service, 72, of Kanab, a former resident of Tecumseh, who died Saturday after an illness of several months.

Miss Service was born in Tecumseh, March 29, 1893. The daughter of Eugene D. and Mary Mellon Service, she was a graduate of the Tecumseh High School class of 1910.

She is survived by two brothers Wyman E. and J. Duaine both of Tecumseh and a niece and nephew.

● JUNIOR H. LOGAN

Funeral services were held Thursday for Junior H. Logan, 49, of Onsted, who died suddenly Monday afternoon of a heart attack suffered at the drop forge factory in Jackson where he was employed as a bookkeeper.

The services were in the Dunn Funeral Home, Onsted, with the Rev. B. O. Bashore, of Tecumseh, and the Rev. Frank Thompson officiating. Burial was in Maple Shade Cemetery.

He was born in Deerfield, June 6, 1916, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Logan. In April 1941, he married Vivian Stites in Tecumseh.

In addition to his widow, he is survived by his mother of Whiteford, seven sons, Richard of Tecumseh, Thomas of the U.S. Navy, David, of the U.S. Marines, Roger, Robert, Raymond and Gary at home; two daughters, Brenda and Bonita, at home; two brothers, Victor, of Baltimore, Md., and Donald, of Coldwater; three sisters, Mrs. Buelah Derbyshire, of Adrian, Mrs. Viola Tabbert, of Whiteford and Mrs. Donna Boozer of Adrian; and one grandchild.

He was secretary of the Onsted Oddfellows and a past noble grand.

———o———

● CARL C. MILLER

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon for Carl C. Miller, 68, of Bridgewater Township, Washtenaw County, who died Friday in St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor.

The Rev. Ronald Diener and the Rev. Ernest Siechsel officiated at the services in St. John's Lutheran Church, Saline. Burial was in the church cemetery.

He was born Feb. 14, 1897 and married Luella Rothfuss, who died in 1948. On March 25, 1950, he married Myrtle Case Johnson who survives.

He is also survived by one daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Tirb, of Clinton, one son, Carl D. Miller, of Bridgewater Township, four grandchildren, three great grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. John Steudle, of Warren.

———o———

● ALBERT F. BEYER

Funeral services were held Wednesday for Albert F. Beyer, 71, a former Onsted resident, who died Aug. 14 in a Tecumseh nursing home after a lingering illness.

The Rev. Edwin Tollber officiated at the services in the Dunn Funeral Home. Burial was in the Tipton cemetery.

He was born in Birdsall April 10, 1894, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Beyer. He was a retired farmer.

He is survived by two sons, Otto, of Detroit, and Arthur, of El Paso, Tex., 12 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

● GEORGE N. PAGE

Funeral services were held Saturday in the Cavanaugh Funeral Home, Jackson, for George N. Page, 81, of 120 Lincoln Ct., Jackson, who died Wednesday, Aug. 11. Burial was in Roseland Cemetery in Jackson.

Mr. Page was born in Tecumseh, July 5, 1894, and attended school here. He moved to Jackson in 1920.

He married Lucy Moon in 1908. She died in 1937. He is survived by his widow, Margaret; two daughters, Mrs. Helen Patterson, of Flint, and Georgianna in Mexico; one brother, Charles Page, of Jackson; two sisters, Mrs. Edna Worde, of Chelsea, and Mrs. Carl Burch, of 201 W. Britton FFA Are Planning Canoe Trip

BRITTON — The Britton Future Farmers of America completed plans at a recent meeting for the canoe trip down the Pere Marquette River, in which 20 boys are participating this week.

The date for the Tractor Field Day was set for Sept. 18, with the location to be determined soon. Tom Korican, president, named the committees for the programs and the barbecue. The boys will sell ads Wednesday at 1 p.m.

The advisor, Paul Marks, explained the need for 10 members to assist at the National Corn Picking Contest in Lenawee County in October, when a crowd of over 100,000 persons is expected.

Mr. Marks explained a new method of judging the tractor pulling contest which was used this year at the Lenawee County Fair.

Tom Houseman was elected as the new chapter reporter. The boys enjoyed refreshments after the meeting and inspected the new shop equipment.

Senior High Boys Conduct Worship at Congregational

BRITTON — The Senior High Boys Sunday School Class of the Britton Congregational-Christian Church conducted the Sunday morning service in the absence of the Rev. Gustav Hannevik, who is away on vacation.

Douglas Fairbanks gave the call to worship and the unison prayer. Jack Brown read the scriptures and gave the pastoral prayer. Doug, Jack, and David Reeck gave a three-part sermon on "Prayer: What is Prayer, Why we Pray, and How Should we Pray?"

The boys are students of Mr. William Hettrick. Dennis Bryan was the soloist for the service, singing "I asked the Lord."

Basketball Starts for Six at Camp

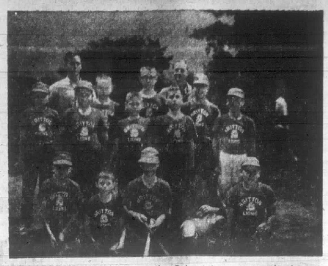
BRITTON — Six boys from the Britton-Macon High School are enjoying a week at basketball camp, at Camp Wakeshma, in Three Rivers. The boys left Sunday afternoon and will remain through Saturday.

At the camp they receive intensive training in basketball techniques and practice under expert supervision. This combined with food, swimming, and other fresh air activities will prepare the boys for the coming basketball season.

Boys who are attending are senior, Jack Brown; juniors, Ray Vershum, Doug Fairbanks, Larry Ash and Terry Godzina; and freshman, Dave Fairbanks.

Couple Celebrates 25th Anniversary with Quiet Dinner

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin VanEtten celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Aug. 10, with a dinner at their home. Their only daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Straub and children, were guests for the occasion.



LITTLE LEAGUE WINNERS — The Britton Lions were the league champs this year with a 10-2 record. They are, bottom row, left to right: Steve Hamilton, Steve Hawkins, Jeff Filter, Brad Hamilton and Ricky Smetka. Middle row: Chuck Irwin, Bobby Forgas, David Hawkins, and Randy Slick. Top row: Harley Slick, coach; Ricky Ferguson, Richard Rayburn, Wayne Filter, coach; and Wayne Sayler.

Clinton Rotary and Band Boosters To Hold Barbecue

CLINTON—The Clinton Band Boosters Club held a special meeting Tuesday evening to complete plans for assisting the Rotary Club with a chicken barbecue to be held Sept. 5 for the benefit of the band uniform fund.

The barbecue will begin at 11 a.m. and continue through the supper hour or as long as the chickens last. In case of rain the barbecue will be held Labor Day.

The Band Boosters decided to sell fruit cakes again this Christmas season and will also sell dish cloths. All projects will benefit the uniform fund.

All Accidents Are Minor

The Tecumseh Police investigated five accidents last week, all of which were minor with four tickets being issued. A summary of the mishaps is:

Thursday — Patrick Rollins, of Adrian, was cited for failure to yield the right-of-way when he collided with a car driven by Harold Leuppe, of Adrian, at E. Chicago and Oneida at 5:20 p.m.

Friday — Donna Reister, of Tecumseh, and Floyd Kitzmiller were in an accident at N. Evans and Burt St. at 1:13 p.m. Donna was ticketed for failure to yield the right-of-way.

Friday — Elmer Raper, of Tecumseh, ticketed for improper backing when he backed into a car driven by Harvey Spreeman, of Tecumseh, at Maumee and E. Cummins at 5:32 p.m.

Saturday — No tickets were issued when Peter Michajlenko, of Tecumseh, and Jesse LaVoy collided at Occidental and Shady Lane at 12:35 p.m.

Sunday — Ann Martin, of Detroit, and Ann Hunter, of Tecumseh, were involved in an accident at N. Union near Brown St. at 11:05 a.m. Police ticketed Ann for failure to stop in the assured clear distance ahead.

3 Utilities Will Huddle with City On Agreement

Representatives of three electrical utilities will be asked to meet with Tecumseh officials and work out a mutual agreement for the future.

In question are areas recently annexed to the city and those which might join the municipality in the future.

THE WESTHAVEN Subdivision, along Occidental Hwy., being developed by Marshall Coulter, 118 Park St., is the prime example.

It was recently annexed to the city. Southeastern Michigan Cooperative had served the area previously and was low bidder on installation of a complete underground system.

However, there was some doubt that since Consumers Power Co. had a franchise to service Tecumseh, SEC might be forced to sell out its interest in Westhaven.

An SEC official asked City Council to pass a resolution which would include, "in areas annexed . . . electrical service shall be continued by the organization presently supplying it or by one whose facilities are most closely adjacent."

Councilmen asked for a legal opinion two weeks ago and Monday evening City Attorney James Beardsley advised against such a resolution.

COUNCIL then decided to call for a meeting with REC, Consumers and Detroit Edison representatives. Edison territory touches Consumers area just north of the city.

The hope is to work out an agreement agreeable to all three utilities and Tecumseh.

City Manager Cal Zorn will make arrangements.

Claude Whitehead Resigns Goodwill Director Position

Claude W. Whitehead, who has directed the increase of Goodwill Industries' activity four-fold in three years, announced his resignation Friday in Adrian.

Mr. Whitehead, executive Director of Goodwill Industries of Southeastern Michigan since 1962, will leave Sept. 20, for new work under the Michigan State Department of Public Instruction.

He will become a consultant on development and expansion of workshop facilities for the handicapped in the division of vocational rehabilitation.

PROCTOR Funeral Home

TECUMSEH, MICH. & CLINTON, MICH.

Dear friends,

The average person is faced with funeral arrangements only once each 12 to 15 years. Hence, bereavement finds most people inexperienced and unprepared — funeral decisions hastily made often lead to regrets.

We hope these 'open letters' will inform our readers about funeral matters so they may be better prepared to handle funeral arrangements wisely.

Respectfully,

Lester D. Proctor

Football Activities Starting

Footballs will soon be filling the air.

Before they do, there are some dates Tecumseh High School players must keep.

► Mouth pieces will be fitted for all who don't already have them, Tuesday, Aug. 24 at the office of Drs. Robert Murray and Robert Laidlaw at 7 p.m.

► Physical examinations, Wednesday, Aug. 25 in the gymnasium.

► Conditioning work-outs at Camp Sequoia, Aug. 23 through 27.

Coach Fagan will have approximately 35 of last year's varsity and potential varsity gridmen at Sequoia, staying each night. Another 40 youths will report every day for exercises.

Two-a-day practice sessions with about 100 candidates begin Aug. 30.

The Indians, with an 8-1 record last autumn, open their season at Willow Run Sept. 17.

Home action will come Sept. 24 against Jackson St. John, the lone squad to defeat Tecumseh in 1964.

Coach Fagan will carry a 20 and 7 record for three seasons at THS into this year's football season. In Huron League play, Coach Fagan's teams have won 18, lost 2. In 1962 and 63 the Indians had perfect records and won the championship.

Dr. Robert Murray Is Singles Winner in Tennis Tourney

Dr. Robert Muray defeated Mickey Montague, 6-3 and 11-9, in the finals of the Parks and Recreation Tennis tournament to win the singles title.

In the semi-finals, Dr. Murray defeated Mike Brose, 7-5 and 6-4; and Gayle Richards, 4-6, 6-3 and 9-7.

Montague stopper Terry Berkley, 6-3 and 6-1; George Surratt, 6-3 and 6-3; and Robert Cheers, 6-4 and 6-4, before bowing to Dr. Murray.

Montague and Dr. Murray then teamed up and played in the doubles tournament and were defeated by Lee Prettyman and Richards, 6-2, 2-6 and 11-9.

There were 11 singles players in the tournament and five doubles teams that competed.

Pit Family Rate for Year Is $25

Next summer, families may buy season passes to the Pit for $25 per clan.

The new fee arrangement was approved by the Parks and Recreation Board at its Aug. 9 session.

Detroit Pistons To Play Baltimore Here Oct. 5

Professional basketball is coming to the Tecumseh area.

The Detroit Pistons will play the Baltimore Bullets in a National Basketball Association exhibition game in the Tecumseh High School gym Oct. 5, at 8 p.m.

The contest will be sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Tecumseh and Radio Station WLEN of Adrian.

"We're only too pleased to be able to play at Tecumseh," said Don Wattrick, the Executive Manager of the Pistons in announcing the game.

"Our aim is to play in as many sections of the state as possible during each exhibition season. This year, besides Tecumseh, we will appear in Bay City and Holland."

In Baltimore the Pistons will tackle a team which many experts contend will be the next champion of the NBA's Western Division.

The Bullets, after finishing third in regular season play last season, upset St. Louis in the first round of the playoffs and then gave Western Division king Los Angeles a royal battle before finally losing.

Baltimore's roster includes such standouts as Walt Bellamy, the former Indiana University All-Big Ten and All-American great who now ranks among the premier centers in the NBA.

At forward, Baltimore boasts Gus Johnson from Idaho and ex-Piston Bailey Howell from Mississippi State.

The three-some averages better than 60 points per game and 50 rebounds, making it one of the most formidable in the league.

Guard Don Ohl, Illinois, Wally Jones, Villanova, and Keith Loughery, St. John's of New York, along with veteran Si Green, from Duquesne, comprise a rugged, fast-moving and high-scoring group. Jones proved a sensation in his debut in the NBA last year.

The Pistons will be led into Tecumseh by their playing-coach Dave DeBusschere, from the University of Detroit.

★

With the loss of Terry Dischinger, from Purdue, their high scorer last year, to the Army, DeBusschere has indicated he'll move from forward to guard to help plug the gap.

It won't be a new role for DeBusschere. He played guard for the Pistons as a rookie with the team in 1962-63.

Up front the Pistons have strong-scoring and rebounding Ray Scott for one [illegible] and two standout rookies, Bill Buntin, from Michigan, and Tom [illegible] from Jacksonville, along with Joe Caldwell, Don Kojis and Jackie Moreland, three veteran reserves.

Reggie Harding and rookie Bill Chmielewski, both Detroit products who made All-State in high school, will work at center.

Rod Thorn, former West Virginia All-American; Eddie Miles, the Golden Arm from Seattle University; and Donnis Butcher, a hard-nosed performer from Pikeville, Ky., join DeBusschere at guard.

Ed Hage Big Winner at Manchester

Ed Hage was the big winner at Manchester Speedway Friday night picking up wins in the feature and first heat in addition to being the night's fastest qualifier.

Hage turned in the fastest qualifying time of the evening beating out 44 other cars for the night. Dick Slade was second and Louie Stemen had the third fastest qualifying time.

In the feature, Hage had to start in the tail position and it wasn't until the 18th [illegible] finally grabbed the lead. Once in front, however, he was never headed and he picked up the checkered flag.

Stemen was second in the feature and Dick Crup finished third.

John Porter won the semi-feature as he gained the lead on the 9th lap of the 20-lap race. Dick Carr took second and Jim Martin finished in the third spot.

In the pursuit, Lynn Hunt won the battle, as he beat out Dick Slade in second and Hage in third.

Bob Clark won the 15-lap consolation with Tom Frantom placing second and Neil Grady third.

Heat results:

1st Heat — Hage, first; Slade, second.

2nd Heat — Neil Baggett, first; Larry Marowelli, second.

3rd Heat — Ken Horn, first.

4th Heat — Frantom, first.

The spectator race was won by Ben Case.

2 More Weeks Are Required To Fix Street

Adrian St., in front of Wolf's Appliance, will continued to be closed for another two weeks.

The city is installing curb and gutter from Murray Dr. to Russell Rd. and then seal coat the roadway.

Payment for the curb and gutter is split with property owners, who are billed for 60% of cost.

Police Continue Winning Ways with 13-2 Triumph

The Tecumseh Police continued to roll along in the Slo-pitch Softball League as they downed Ed's Standard, 13-2, Sunday.

Clyde Locker was again the winning pitcher, as he has been all season, and Craig Rosacrans did the catching.

Ed's scored one run in the top of the first inning, but they were never in the game after that as the Police came back with four in the bottom of the first and five more in the second.

John Turner led the batting assault for the Police with 3-for-4. Roger Fox and Rosacrans had 2-for-3 and 2-for-2 respectively.

Altogether the Police pounded out 17 hits off losing pitcher Roger Allen.

SURE, SHE'S HAPPY — Pat Boltz is a sophomore at Tecumseh High School, and belongs to the Tipton Jets, but most important to her this week is the fact her Hereford won Reserve Champion at the County Fair.

Jets Win Big

The Tipton Jets won a share of the blue ribbons at the Lenawee County Fair.

In the sheep department Duane Radant won a blue ribbon and had the Reserve Ewe in the Suffolk breed. Mike Jackson with his fat lams had the reserve champion pen and also the individual reserve champion lamb. Rick Jackson and Elfie Buell also walked off with blue ribbons.

In the Dairy division blue ribbons were won by Susan and Gary Ries, Robert and Susan Platt, David Whelan, Bruce Smith, Jill Feight and Greg Hardy.

The club also had a blue ribbon for the Holstein Club Herd. With their Brown Swiss dairy cows, blue ribbons were won by Rosalie and Diane Spycher and Anne Moeller.

Dianne Spycher having the Junior Champion and Anne Moeller walking off with honors by having the Senior Champion and Grand Champion and also being awarded the Senior Showmanship award.

The Brown Swiss Club Herd also received a blue ribbon. Red ribbons were won in the dairy department by Larry and Gary Ries, Greg and Bruce Smith, Paula Moeller and Billie Spycher.

★

IN THE COOKING department, every member won a blue ribbon. The cooking club members are:

Mary Ann Allen, Anne, Paula, Gary and Janet Moeller, Pat Bolz, Brenda and Shirley Allen, Dianne and Rosalie Spycher, Susan Ries, Connie Anderson, Martha and Ben Osburn, Debbie Stockinger, Karen Buell, Diane Gebarowski, Cindy and Candy Jackson, Cindy Freeman, Jill Feight, Darlene Daniels, Susan Platt and Kathy VanSickle.

The only entry the club had in the freezing division was Pat Bolz and her entry won her a blue ribbon.

Blue ribbon winners in the sewing department were:

Paula and Janet Moeller, Cindy and Candy Jackson, Martha Osburn, Connie Anderson, Diane Gebarowski, Debbie Stockinger, Susan Platt and Darlene Daniels.

In crops, with a 10 ear exhibit of corn, Larry Ries won a blue ribbon and Robert Platt, Rick and Mike Jackson won red ribbons.

★

WITH ENTRIES in the beef department, Ron and Pat Bolz, Rick and Mike Jackson each won blue ribbons. Pat Bolz had the reserve champion Hereford in the Hereford class.

Red ribbons were won by Mike Jackson, Duane Radant and Joe Lewis.

Another project carried by 4-H club members is Junior Leadership. In this division blue ribbons were won by Pat Bolz, Brenda Allen and Dianne Spycher.

Red ribbons were won by Larry Ries and Rick Jackson.

Members from the club eligible for state show are Duane Radant, with sheep; Martha Osburn in flowers; Karen Buell, in photography; and Larry Ries with his corn.

In the dairy department Greg Hardy, Robert Platt, Susan and Gary Ries, Dianne and Rosalie Spycher and Ann Moeller can take their entries to State Show and Connie Anderson will take for dog obedience.

At their last meeting a nominating committee consisting of Mike Jackson, Bruce Smith and Susan Ries were appointed to meet with the club leaders Norman Ries and Mrs. Raymond Bolz to select names to be placed on the ballot for nominations for new officers for the coming year.

A hayride is to be held sometime in September and the committee for this event is Brenda Allen, Paula Moeller, Pat Bolz, Rick Jackson, David Whelan, and Douglas Feight.

Refreshments will be in charge of Mrs. Maude Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Richard VanSickle and Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Linger.

Rotary Holds Golf Day at Country Club

Between 150 and 200 Rotarians from Rotary District 640 attended the Eighth Annual Rotary Golf Day at the Tecumseh Country Club Tuesday according to Tecumseh Rotarian Hugh Walter.

The day began with registration and golf at 9 a.m. There was a buffet luncheon at noon and then more golf in the afternoon.

Also in the afternoon, the visiting Rotarians were given an organized tour of Tecumseh and returned to the Country Club for a reception and dinner.

Following the dinner, Mrs. William Flanders, of the Flanders Music Co. in Tecumseh entertained the group on the low key stereo.

ON TO STATE SHOW — Field corn entered by Larry Ries of the Tipton Jets rated a blue ribbon and qualified for State Show.

Local Sixty Now Chapter Is Begun

Chapter No. 82 of Sixty Now comprising the Tecumseh area, was organized Thursday at a meeting in the Eagles Lodge Hall at 125 S. Evans St.

Four chapter officers were elected:

President — George Milosh, 311 N. Pearl St., Tecumseh.

Vice-president — Paul Bame, 406 S. Maiden Lane, Tecumseh.

Secretary — Ellen Campbell, 210 Cairns St., Tecumseh.

Treasurer — Laurel Bame, 406 S. Maiden Lane, Tecumseh.

The 100 members of Chapter 82 of Sixty Now, will function through their local chapter, adding memberships in their locality as the organization grows.

Sixty Now is a non-profit organization chartered in Ohio to campaign nationally for a lowering of the retirement age to 60, and increasing of Social Security benefits to $200 a month, plus $100 for spouse regardless of age, if not in the labor market.

James C. Pifer was the principal speaker. He pointed out that by substantially increasing Social Security benefits "to a level that will permit older people to retire in decency and comfort", vacancies will be created to make jobs for at least half of the millions of Americans now unemployed.

Program Started To Promote Scouting

A dramatic advance in getting Scouting to more boys is expected as the result of the Breakthrough for Youth program of the Wolverine Council, Boy Scouts of America, according to Donald Dennis, the council president.

Nearly 110 Cub Scout Packs, Boy Scout Troops, and Explorer Posts in Monroe and Lenawee Counties are setting new goals that will expand the quality of the Scout program and ensure the reaching of a substantially greater number of boys, Mr. Dennis said.

"Breakthrough for Youth means that Scout leaders are determined to use Scouting's great potential to build a new generation of American boys," Mr. Dennis said.

He pointed out that a recent study of school dropouts shows an almost complete lack of skills and either a total lack of confidence or a misguided confidence not back up with ability.

"Scouting can do much to help," he said. "Scouting skills and the advancement program bolster confidence.

"Our merit badge program provides opportunities for boys to explore over a hundred subjects under the guidance of fine adult citizens from all walks of life."

The Wolverine Council now has 30 per cent of the available boys in Scouting and expects to add 800 new Scouts before the end of 1965 as a part of the national, two-year Breakthrough for Youth program which continues until 1967.

Mrs. Boyce Will Be 90 on Friday

Mrs. Samuel W. Boyce, known as Alta to all her many friends, will celebrate her 90th birthday Friday.

An open house is planned Friday afternoon from 2 to 4 at the home of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Boyce, 8607 Billmyer Rd. A family dinner will be held Sunday.

Born in Macon, Aug. 20, 1875, Mrs. Boyce is the daughter of the late Frank and Julia Gilmore. She and a brother, Ray Gilmore of Macon, are the surviving children of the family of six children.

Married Nov. 27, 1895 to Samuel William Boyce, they had two children, Wilbur, of Tecumseh and Marjory, at home. Mrs. Boyce has four grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

A member of First Presbyterian Church, she is also a life member of the Order of Eastern Stars.

The family requests that gifts be omitted for the open house.

Gordon Greimans To Be Honored with Open House

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Greiman, of 9103 U. Union St., will be honored at a 25th anniversary open house from 2 to 5 p.m. Aug. 29 at the home of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walter, of 118 S. Ottawa St.

Marie Filter and Gordon Greiman were married Aug. 31, 1940, in Wauseon, Ohio. Their attendants were Mr. and Mrs. William Rhoades, of Clinton-Macon Rd.

The couple have three children, Mrs. Walters, Pfc. Gordon C. Greiman in Fort Hood, Tex., and Carol, at home. They have two grandchildren.

The open house is being arranged by the couple's daughters. It is requested that gifts be omitted.

Tecumseh Will Receive $14,290 from Highway Tax

LANSING — The State Highway Department has started distributing second quarter Motor Vehicle Highway Fund collections to Michigan counties and incorporated cities and villages.

Tecumseh will receive $14,290, Clinton, $3,030 and Britton will get $1,300.

Howard E. Hill, State Highway Director, said net receipts of the Highway Fund during April, May and June of 1965, amounted to $52,548,373, an increase of $3,508,891, or 7.2 per cent, compared to the same period of 1964.

All state gasoline and diesel fuel taxes and license plate fees go to the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund.

After deduction of collection costs and the Waterways Commission's share, the money is distributed under provisions of the state law which provides that 47 per cent goes to the State Highway Department for use on state highways; 35 per cent to the state's 83 counties for use on county roads and 18 per cent to incorporated cities and villages for their roads and streets.

Under this formula, the State Highway Department will receive $24,697,735 as its share of the second quarter collections, while the counties will receive $18,391,931 and the incorporated cities and villages will get $9,458,707.

Travel to Germany for Dinner Party

Three former Tecumsehites celebrated a reunion on the evening of Aug. 7.

Heidi Rholand, a guest of Nancy Lee Beland in the summer of 1962, Neils Hansen, an exchange student who lived with the Robert Bonner family, and Arthur Collingsworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neri Collingsworth, who is spending a few days in Europe after completing a special mission in South Viet Nam, celebrated their reunion with a small dinner party at the Achtermann in Goslar, Germany. Goslar is Miss Rholand's home town.

7 Area Students Get Scholarships

Some additional 1,500 scholarships have been awarded for 1965-66 through expansion of the state program under Act 358 of the 1965 Legislature.

Due to the expansion seven area youths have been included in the program and will receive scholarships starting in the fall. They are:

Richard C. Brown, of 504 Herrick Park, Michigan State University; Clara F. Cooper, of 514 Seminole, Western Michigan University; Susan K. Leighton, of 306 E. Pottawatamie, Ferris State College; Chris E. Pence, of 313 N. Union, Eastern Michigan University; Linda C. Sinkey, of 1001 Murray Dr., Eastern Michigan University; Daniel Miedueh, of 3993 US-12, Michigan State University; and Ran R. Vollmar, of Route 1, Clinton, Wayne State University.

Acting Superintendent of Public Instruction Alexander J. Kloster, chairman of the Higher Education Assistance Authority which administers the program, said that the increase in appropriation has made it possible to help a total of 4,350 Michigan youth with their college expenses this year.

Dr. John Porter, Director of the Authority, noted that the $2 million appropriated for 1965-66 scholarships has enabled the Authority to direct $500,000 toward renewing 1,250 scholarship awards made last year and $1.5 million to support the [illegible] scholarships.

Financial need is carefully de[illegible]ain's detailed analysis of the income and assets of each student and his family is conducted with the assistance of persons from the colleges who are chosen for their knowledge and experience in the area of financial aids. The need analysis system of College Scholarship Service is used to determine financial need.

The examination date for the 1966-67 scholarship program will be Nov. 20, 1965. Students desiring information about the state scholarship procedures for the 1966-67 year should contact their high school counselor or principal.

By KATHRYN M. SOMMERS

AN EXPERIENCE WITH IDENTIFIED FLYING OBJECTS

We'd made up our minds. We would join the millions of other Americans who enjoy camping. We bought a dandy tent, a Coleman stove, an ice chest, some folding aluminum beds — in short, the works.

"Let's don't wait," we reasoned. "Let's try it out this very weekend. We'll leave on Friday."

The sky was darkening with rain clouds but we paid little attention. After all, a rain here in Fayetteville never amounts to much. Besides, it probably would blow over anyhow.

With all our brand new equipment stuffed into the Falcon, we joyously set out for a camping spot some 12 miles away, located in a national forest. We knew the spot offered swimming, paddle boats for hire, shade and plenty of solitude. It was just the place for novices.

"It just may rain at that," observed my spouse. "Help me get the tent up before you start supper."

I was glad to help and turned my full attention to the business of erecting the umbrella tent. Frequently we had to consult the handy direction sheet.

We were losing the race with the weather. "Let the tent lie 'til this squall blows over," directed the boss of the project. "Kids, get in the car. Mom, likewise."

Mom's training in housekeeping wouldn't let her just scoot into the car without first getting the foodstuffs into a dry spot, too.

Snatching an umbrella to divert the now-falling rain, the lady dashed to the picnic table. A husky wind came up. The umbrella jerked but stayed generally over the freshly-shampooed locks of the worker.

CRASH!

"Good grief, that was a pretty big branch that fell," our heroine observed. But no matter; she was about finished.

"What is that warm stuff trickling down into my eye?"

Realization came quickly. Through the rain towards the car dashed the slightly-dented wife, needing help.

The very wet husband caught on fast. Better not take time to gather the tent gear. Just a brief stop at the ranger's station to explain the hasty departure, then a brisk ride back along the 12 miles to the emergency entrance of Fayetteville's General Hospital.

The doctor on call was tied up in surgery. Well, we'll utilize the services of another one in the hospital for a maternity case. However, you'll have to wait in line. There's a little boy with an ugly cut on his foot who's first."

Let's hurry the story up a bit. The doctor was trained in simple needlework. He deftly put eight stitches into milady's head, talking amiably the while.

Then after taking care of the hospital fee, the family wisely gave up camping for the evening, returned to the apartment, fetched forth some supper for the half-starved (but thoroughly frightened) youngsters, and found they could laugh about the night's escapades.

The next morning, Saturday, with Mother's head only slightly aching, the determined campers recouped their equipment and again headed for the woods.

"Suppose the tent is still there?" the patient ventured.

"Of course. Whoever heard of anything being stolen at a camp site? It's the safest place in the world."

That may be, but where did our new tent go — stakes, poles, ropes, and all? Back to the ranger station. The workers probably gathered it up for us and were keeping it in a safe place.

The man in charge was away just then but his nephew, a slow-talking Texan, was minding the store.

"We'll relieve you of our tent now and thanks for taking charge of it."

"Ma'am? What tent?"

There was much activity. The prime suspects were a bunch of "woods' rats" who'd wandered down from their hill homes the previous evening and created quite a disturbance in the camp. Seems they'd had something to drink.

"Uncle" got in touch with the deputy sheriff who doubles as the conservation warden and together they spent the day sleuthing. They surveyed the camp site, looked for bona fide clues, talked to the other campers in the vicinity, and at intervals assured us that the law was diligently at work.

Funny thing happened. The "rats" some time in the after- [illegible] and the law needed to be awfully sure before making any sort of wild accusations.

Let's shorten the story again. The family whiled away the afternoon swimming and sunning and telling their hilariously funny story to any other sun worshipers who would listen. Mrs. collected all the sympathy she could find.

Around supper time Sherlock and his Watson backed the deputy's car into our camp site and proudly displayed the tent—still wet, but complete.

As it turned out, everyone owed the solid citizens an apology. Another camper had rescued the tent with its pointed poles from some kiddies intent on practicing their fencing. He'd neglected to mention this gallantry all day and was sorry for the anxiety he'd caused.

All was forgiven. We were the proud possessors once again of our tent. We set it up to dry and gazed fondly at it as we ate.

Yes, we used the same picnic table which lately had been the scene of a bloody encounter. But we took turns keeping an eye on the fallen top of a dead pine tree lying nearby.

Are we daunted? Are the Republicans? We plan to camp at Hot Springs National Park this coming weekend.

Drivers Test To Be Shown Again on TV

A second "National Drivers' Test" will be televised on CBS Aug. 30 in an effort to reduce the number of traffic fatalities during the Labor Day weekend.

This test will be similar to the one given on national television May 24. About 22 million persons viewed the first test, the largest audience ever to view a public service network program.

According to the National Safety Council, approximately half of the special panel of 1,800 persons representing a cross section of the nation's drivers either failed or rated poor on the first test.

The average score for the panel was 51 out of a possible 80 points. This was just barely a passing score, according to the Council.

Professional drivers did no better, their scores also averaging 51. Those in the panel who had had driver education, had the highest average, 53.

The panel was separated into three age groups: under 26, 26 to 45, and over 45. Those over 45 had the worst average of any category, 48. Those under 26 years had an average of 52, while the middle age group had an average of 51.

Are men or women better drivers? The panel results indicated men are. They averaged 52, while the women averaged 49.

College-educated panelists scored an average of 52; high school graduates, 50; and those who did not finish high school, 48.

Blissfield Songfest To Help Replenish Student Loan Fund

A songfest to benefit the student loan fund is scheduled for Sept. 18 in Blissfield.

As a memorial to the late Mary Magadaline DeLoach, following her death Aug. 1, 1964, her family established a student loan fund in her name to be administered by the Blissfield Board of Education. Mr. DeLoach is the publisher of the Blissfield Advance.

A Blissfield high school graduate was able to attend college this past year on money borrowed from the fund. The Folk Song Festival will replenish the fund, allowing others to realize a college education.

Some professional talent has volunteered to make an appearance as well as some talented amateurs. The board of education, showing its interest in a program that aids students, has waived the customary fee usually charged for the use of the school gym.

Tickets are on sale at The Herald office for a $1 donation.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

THIEF, THIEF, THIEF

Do you know what is just about the nicest thing in this whole wide world? It is a large, rattley piece of rather soiled plastic. At least a woodchuck, with light brown fur and four black feet, felt this way.

The action, which turned out to be a nifty bit of thievery, took place several weeks ago. It was mid-morning. Dad and I were on the porch when the thief popped over the top of the creek bank.

We watched as he waddled about in his own peculiar woodchuck fashion, they do have a funny gait, you know! Their legs are extremely short, their bodies quite fat and long. To all outward appearances this was just a casual stroll but suddenly he wandered up to the barbecue grill and the caper started.

We have, more properly I should say we had, a large sheet of plastic which served as a grill cover. On this particular morning one side of the plastic hung almost to the ground, and as always, several pieces of sandstone held the cover in place.

★

AS WE WATCHED, he circled the grill several times, sniffing and looking. When nothing happened, he became braver, sitting up ramrod straight, as only a woodchuck can, he carefully reached out with one front paw and touched the interesting white thing.

Still nothing happened so he became braver, the paw moved less gingerly and, of course, the harder touch made the plastic rattle.

One terrified woodchuck dashed back to the safety of the creek bank. My, what a narrow escape! Soon however we noticed that flat broad head with its two shiny black eyes cautiously peering over the creek bank.

In a minute our woodchuck had scrambled back to his prize, this time the rattle did not seem so frightening. He even nibbled at the edge.

Now began a regular tug-of-war. Taking a corner of the plastic in his mouth, he pulled a little but nothing happened because the cover was weighted down. The next tug was a bit harder and success, the plastic moved a fraction of an inch.

Oops, he tried pulling harder and, of course, the plastic ripped. After much trying, much running around and looking, he finally discovered how to handle the cover.

★

USING HIS TWO paws as hands, he wadded the plastic into his mouth, dropped down to all fours and started backing up and pulling. It was for all the world like a puppy playing with a knotted stocking, the only things lacking were the low throaty growls and a wagging tail.

Now the question became what would happen when the plastic was tugged far enough to pull the sandstone off the top of the grill. Gradually it was moved toward the edge, finally it teetered half on and half off.

Crash — plastic and sandstone came tumbling down and one half-scared-out-of-his-wits wood chuck went high-balling away from what must have sounded like the end of the world.

He was back almost immediately though and the dragging was comparatively easy. Easy that is until he came to the top of the creek bank and tangled his plastic prize in some small honeysuckle bushes.

Oh, how he did work now — going from one side to another, he pulled and tugged, at one time he even started biting off strips and disappeared over the creek bank.

Finally perseverance paid off — the plastic broke loose! Quickly over the creek bank and out of sight went our barbeque grill cover.

So it is that Dad and I watched a woodchuck's venture into crime but the stealing was such fun we could not bring ourselves to cry, "Thief, thief, thief!"

State Health Department Awards Certificates to 86

LANSING — The Michigan Department of Health has awarded certificates of achievements to 86 Michigan sewage treatment plant superintendents and operators, three from Ohio and one from Indiana.

Among those men who passed the difficult written test and met other educational and experience requirements are:

Class B — Allyn M. Ernst, of 201 S. Union, currently superintendent of the Tecumseh Waste Water Plant; Class C — Kenneth Allshouse, of 8947 N. Adrian Hwy., plant mechanic at the Adrian Sewage Disposal Plant.

The state health department classifies sewage treatment plants as A, B, C, or D according to size, type, and location. Different examinations are given for each classification, and an operator may be certified to operate any or all of the four classes of plants.

Under law, each sewage treatment plant in the state must be under the supervision of an operator certified by the State Health Commissioner.

School Committee Can Lead or Follow

Will Lenawee County educational leaders be compasses or weathervanes? This is the question that faces the County Committee for School Reorganization.

Eighty per cent of the students in Michigan attend schools that offer between 300 and 400 high school subjects. The average in Lenawee County is less than 80. The committee must decide if consolidation is the answer.

Michigan Public Act 289 of 1964, required the establishment of a county committee to study and develop plans for the reorganization of school districts and for elections to accomplish these plans.

Lenawee County has an 18 member committee with County Superintendent Milton Porter serving as chairman. The Committee for School District Reorganization must submit a plan to the state committee by December, 1965. If approved it will then be submitted to the voters by July of 1966.

The Lenawee County Committee on School Reorganization has met nine times. Early in their meetings they found that reorganization was not new to Lenawee County. In 1947, there were 187 school districts and today we have 12 high school and two primary districts in the county.

The local school district superintendents discussed the strengths and weaknesses of their programs with the Reorganization Committee. It was pointed out that serious problems face the small high school in the area of curriculum.

They cannot offer the wide range of subjects needed to meet the individual differences of the students. Vocational training is seriously lacking.

THE BUSINESS MANAGERS of Lenawee County schools discussed how a larger school population could lower the per-pupil cost of education. Norval Bovee, of Tecumseh, sighted transportation, payroll and purchasing as areas where savings could be made by enlarging the system.

Dr. Lorin Burt, of the University of Indiana, spoke to the school reorganization committee and gave an extensive list of advantages of a large school unit. They included:

Curricular expansion, provision for individual differences, more efficient use of financial resources, uniform school policies, less duplication of services, reduced teacher turnover, and better qualified teachers.

Dr. Russell Wilson, of the University of Michigan, spoke to the committee at the most recent meeting. He encouraged a one county school system.

"If the committee really wants equal job opportunities for it's children and wants to save money by running a more efficient school business, it will act as a compass, pointing the way toward consolidation and giving real direction to local education, Dr. Wilson said.

If not, it will act as a weathervane and simply reflect public opinion. Will you be compasses or weathervanes"

Two Team Deadlock for First

Playing under a torrid sun, two teams tied for first place in the Best Ball Twosome Tournament Sunday at Tecumseh Country Club.

Dr. Bob Bowers and Merlyn Downing turned in a best ball cards of 65 as did Ed Schwartz and Buck Miller.

Third place went to Roger Linger and Bill Koster, 66.

Fourth place won by Harvey Wilson and Frank Owen, 67.

IN THE ARMY NOW — Bonnie B. Blaska, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Penny, of 110 Muscody, was among the nine men and women who joined the U.S. Army during July, reports Recruiting Officer M. Sgt. Bailey. Miss Blaska will attend Medical School. She is a 1963 graduate of Tecumseh High School.

Patricia Hunt Marries Richard Lam

CLINTON—A former resident, Patricia Ashlock Hunt, of Paw Paw, returned to Clinton to recite her marriage vows to Richard Lee Lam, of Battle Creek, in the United Church of Christ.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 7:30 p.m. Saturday by the Rev. Paul McKenna, pastor of the church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hunt, of 500 Tuttle Rd., Paw Paw, formerly of Clinton.

The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Francis Lam, of Battle Creek.

A fan-shaped vase of white gladioli and Killian daisies centered the altar which was flanked by arrangements of palm foliage, gladioli and daisies on circular cathedral candelabra.

Richard Wegner, of Clinton, played an organ prelude of nuptial music and accompanied the soloist, Kathryn Wolcott.

As she approached the altar with her father, the bride wore an empire styled gown with a hand-clipped Chantilly lace bodice and a princess styled skirt of silk organza over taffeta. A detachable lace-bordered cathedral train floated from a bow at the neckline.

The bridal veil of imported silk illusion was held by a pillbox of rosepoint lace and seed pearls.

A white cattelya orchid corsage centered the cascade of stephonotis and Snow Song roses accented with satin and pearl leaves which the bride carried.

Joy Kay Lam, of Battle Creek, sister of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor.

The bridesmaids were Peggy Hoyt, of Toledo, Mrs. James Gass, of Ann Arbor, Sue Bostrom, of Lansing, Irene Barnes, of Detroit, and Sharon Hunt, of Adrian, cousin of the bride.

Kimberly Reels, of Bowling Green, Ky., a cousin of the bride, was the flower girl.

The bride's attendants wore floor length gowns of aqua chiffon with empire styling, and matching Dior bows for headpieces.

They carried garnet roses and rubrum lilies arranged on white bone fans.

Denny Bloomquist, of E. Lansing was best man. The ushers were Robert Hunt, of Battle Creek, brother of the bride, Jimmy Hunt, of Paw Paw, brother of the bride, Arnold VanZanten, of Detroit, Thomas Kennedy, of Ann Arbor, and Fred Evans, of Battle Creek.

The reception at the Battle Creek Elks Club was attended by 250 guests from Battle Creek, Adrian, Clinton, Honolulu, Hawaii, Bowling Green, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo.

Following a 10-day honeymoon in Clearwater Beach, Fla. the couple will reside in Pittsfield Village, Ann Arbor.

The bride has attended Michigan State University for three years and will enroll for her senior year at Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti this fall. She is a member of the Kappa Delta Sorority and is a graduate of Clinton High School.

The bridegroom will be a sophomore in the University of Michigan Medical School. He is a member of the Lambda Chi Alpha and Phi Rho Sigma fraternities.

The bridegroom's parents were hosts for a rehearsal dinner Friday evening at Weber's in Ann Arbor.

MRS. RICHARD LAM

Episcopal Church Women Name 3 at Recent Meeting

CLINTON — Mrs. George Lancaster, Mrs. Thomas Carleton and Mrs. Robert Winder were named to the program planning committee of the St. John's Episcopal Church Women, at a meeting Aug. 9.

Plans were discussed for the annual Back-to-School breakfast to be held at Lyster Hall, Sept. 7 at 8:30 a.m.

The date of Nov. 6 was tentatively set for the annual smorgasbord supper. They will not have a bazaar this year.

Mrs. John Mabry was named in charge of the Christmas card sale again this year.

Mrs. David Van Tuyle will be the hostess for the first fall meeting Sept. 8.

Readers Honored with Party Given by Mrs. Geiger

CLINTON — Mrs. Agnes Geiger, the Clinton Township librarian, arranged a party Monday afternoon for the 18 boys and girls of the County Reading Club who had each read and reported on 10 books during the summer.

Mrs. Geiger will be on vacation from Aug. 23 until Sept. 7. For the week of Aug. 23-28 Mrs. Carl Anderson will be in the library. For the week of Aug. 28 to Sept. 7, the library will be closed.

Grange Card Party

The Grange euchre party will be held Saturday, with the public invited. Refreshments will be served by a committee.

Ladder Accident Injures Mr. Neblo at Home Friday

CLINTON — William Neblo, 68, was reported still in critical condition Monday following a fall at his home Friday. He was taken to St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor with a fractured skull and fractured ribs and was still in a coma Monday.

Mr. Neblo was on a ladder fixing a roof on a new feed shed when he fell to the ground.

Donald Geiger Is the New Principal at Deerfield High

CLINTON — Donald Geiger has accepted a position as principal in the Deerfield High School.

Mr. Geiger, 33, is a graduate of Clinton High School and has a MA in education at Eastern Michigan University.

He taught science for six years in the Detroit area and one year in Clinton High School.

He was principal of Centerville High School for one year. For the past year he was sales manager for Thomas Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Geiger and their two children will continue to live at their home west of Clinton on US-12.

$434,624 Budget Approved by Clinton School Board

CLINTON — A tentative budget of $434,624 was approved at a meeting of the Clinton board of education Aug. 9, for the 1965-66 school year.

The school will be operating on a 13.2 mill tax rate.

Bids were opened for the gasoline and oil contract and the contract was awarded to the Standard Oil Co.

School bus transportation was discussed and a resolution was adopted that they be used to transport pupils and for authorized field trips.

Parochial school children in the district will be transported from their homes to the Clinton school. Further transportation will be an individual matter.

The state law stipulates that parochial school children must receive the same transportation privileges provided for public school children in a school district.

Bills totaling $2,455.58 were voted paid.

Other matters discussed were: bus costs, servicing and supervision and the secondary curriculum. New textbooks to be used for the coming school year were shown to the board.

The board will have a special meeting Monday to complete budget discussions and to plan the schedule for opening day.

Youth's Car Is Damaged by 3 Rowdies

CLINTON — Jerry King, 18, of Hillsdale, reported to the Jonesville State Police Saturday morning that his vehicle was stopped at 11 p.m. Friday near the south shore of Wamplers Lake by three youths who damaged his car when he refused to get out.

The destruction involved breaking the windshield and stomping on the trunk and hood of the King car. Charged with malicious destruction of property were Daniel Shane Wyatt, 18, and Thomas A. Girard, 18, both of Lincoln Park, and Marc Leonard Desana, 18, of Wyandotte.

The three youths pleaded guilty to malicious destruction before Justice Ernest Oliver of Tecumseh, and paid fines of $20.70 and costs of $4.30 each.

Girard was also charged with making a false report of his car being stolen, when Clinton State Police came to his home to investigate the fracas at Wamplers Lake. He pleaded guilty to that charge and was fined $100 and costs of $4.30 or 30 days in jail. He was unable to pay, so he was placed in the Lenawee County jail.

Truck, Motorcycle Mishap Injures Two

CLINTON — Electric and telephone service were disrupted in a wide area of the Irish Hills for several hours Aug. 11 when a truck and a motorcycle collided at 11:30 p.m., at the intersection of US-12 and M-124 at the entrance to the Hayes State Park.

Both drivers were admitted to Herrick Memorial Hospital with cuts and bruises: Richard Refner, Jr., 24, of 1160 Laird Rd., Brooklyn and James E. Walden, 39, of Allen, Ind.

Mr. Refner was riding his motorcycle east on US-12 and turned left at the park.

Mr. Walden, who was following Refner in the truck, told Clinton State Police the motorcyclist did not signal a left turn so he started to overtake and pass him. It turned into the path of the truck and the two collided in the middle of the intersection.

The truck leaped the ditch on the northeast corner of the intersection shearing off a utility pole and ramming head-on into a tree.

Tecumseh city police, and the sheriff's department were called to aid Clinton State Police in a blockade of US-12 from M-52 to Cambridge Junction. Traffic was re-routed on M-50 until 4:30 a.m. Electric service was restored at 7 a.m.

Speedway Is Busy Fridays

Manchester Speedway provides drivers with the urge to speed, a healthful place to release their own and their car's energy.

The speedway was begun by four men interested in a safe place for young people to drive cars fast.

Owner Veryl Schill has gradually bought out his original partners and he now operates the track that has become big business with his wife, Louise.

"We plan to keep the stock car races interesting," Mr. Schill said. "This helps to keep the young people off the road and also keeps their speed down when they are on the road."

Mr. Schill said that everyone has some speed in them and that Manchester's clay banks allow them to use it without endangering their own lives or those of others.

In order to drive at Manchester, every driver must have a driver's license, and therefore he must keep his speed down on the open road to avoid getting too many tickets and losing his license.

Racing at Manchester is every Friday night with the time trials starting at 7 and the races following at 8:30.

★

THE DRIVERS ARE classified according to how fast they qualify in the time trials and they race in heats with drivers who qualified with similar times and speeds.

There are usually five heats, a 25-lap feature, a 20-lap semi-feature, a 15-lap consolation, and a 10-lap pursuit, with the top finishers in each event dividing up a total purse of about $500.

Of the 50 to 60 cars that usually qualify, the drivers with the fastest qualifying times, about 50 per cent of the drivers compete in the first and second heats, the feature and the pursuit.

The other drivers race in the remaining events, therefore, drivers with slower cars are not competing with autos that travel from 20-25 miles per hour faster.

The rules do not allow V-8 overhead valve engines. Every engine must be built by the same company that made the vehicle.

The cars range in age from about 1929 to 1950. Most of the drivers have 292 cubic inch Chevrolet six cylinder truck engines in their cars.

Jack Withrow's auto is a 1934 Ford with a 1937 Ford flat head V-8 truck engine.

Although most of the cars that race at Manchester are Fords, Chevrolets and Plymouths, almost all of the makes of autos are seen on the track.

"The reason for the six cylinder Chevys, is that they can be bored out further than the V-8's," Jack Withrow said.

Each driver racing must pay a $2 pit pass every Friday in order to compete that night. Admission for spectators is $1.25 except for trophy nights when it is $1.50.

The $2 fee paid by the drivers is for their insurance while they are racing. Every driver is insured by Lloyds of London.

★

ACCORDING TO Jack Withrow, there haven't been any serious accidents that he remembers.

"I have never seen a bad accident when I've been out there," Jack said.

Although there are few mishaps, every driver and car must meet certain safety requirements.

Each car has to have a seat belt and the driver must wear it. The driver also must wear a shoulder harness and a crash helmet, and the car must be equipped with a roll bar.

Mr. Schill has a special interest in the safety requirement rules. His son, Harvey, owns and drives a car in the races.

Long and Short

By TOM RIORDAN

Comments have poured in (two, actually) about some recent utterings by this writer.

"Are they going to save the tree?" a nice lady asked at the County Fair.

She referred to the giant oak off Brown St., which grows in the path of the proposed entrance road of the River Raisin Estates subdivision.

Then, there was the Tecumseh school teacher, while in our office on another item, saying, "I agree wholeheartedly with your editorial that now is the time to find a new superintendent."

★

So, there you are, all sorts of reactions.

This gives me heart to plod forward, knowing that at least two people take the time to read this deathless prose.

★

AS TO THE tree, well, first of all let me report some research I did on the oak.

From a new pocket book, loaned by Walt Zarnoch and entitled "Trees, A Golden Nature Guide," the au[illegible]ed as a Northern Red.

The Black Oak is quite similar.

And there are other oaks — Bur, Overcrup, Post, Chestnut, Chinkapin, Swampwhite, Live, Gambel, California Live, Southern Red, Pin Scarlet, Blackjack, Water Shingle, Willow and Canyon Live.

★

Walt's reference book is beautifully illustrated with excellent drawings of leaves and acorns.

★

Here's what it says on the Northern Red, "Widespread common Oak of open woods. It is one of the largest Oaks, occasionally 125 ft. high. Its dark bark has conspicuous long, smooth plates between the furrows.

"The leaves tend to hang vertically on the stalks, and the lobes tend to be more triangular than in other species. The leaves are smooth on only lightly hairy along the veins.

"The middle lobes are largest. Acorns are large and rounded in a shallow cup.

"Red Oak, with its close-grained, reddish-brown wood, is regarded as the important timber tree of the Black Oaks. It is also a shade tree.

"Height: 60 to 90 ft. Beech family."

★

OK, now you know about that big fellow we hope won't be sawed down when the subdivision folks begin to put through their road.

How old is this Tecumseh oak?

The only thing I can say is it's 20 feet around at the base. Maybe a reader can help out on estimated age.

★

AS FOR that other comment, the one about a search for the man who will follow Jim McDowell, retiring next spring, into the role of Tecumseh School Superintendent.

Frankly, I was glad a teacher had agreed with my thought, expressed here some weeks ago, that the board of education should be looking diligently for a man with experience and future capacities, one who has solid administrative experience.

That's still the way I feel — bring in someone from the outside who can do the job and grow with our district.

A substantial salary offer will be in order and that's as it should be.

This could be the answer in saving the giant Northern Red Oak off Brown St. The entrance to River Raisin Estates could be a real item of beauty with a circular drive fashioned around the tree.

Political Meeting

Mrs. Melvin Wegner is inviting interested persons to attend the Shawnee Republican Women's Club meeting at her home at 710 W. Chicago Blvd. Tuesday at 8 p.m.

New Apartment with 58 Units Now Going Up

It won't be long and Tecumseh will have 58 units available in a three-building apartment now under construction.

Located just west of N. Evans St., northwest of the VFW, the work is being done by Wolf Lake Homes of Napoleon. C. & B. Construction Co. of Lansing and Jackson, is owner.

The first section will contain 12 units and be three stories. The final floor is going on this week, with plumbing and electrical work slated to begin this week also.

★

FOOTERS HAVE been poured for the southern building, which will contain 23 units. A similar 23-apartment building is slated to go in to the north.

Art Bischoff, who is job foreman, states that each unit will be 25' x 38', and include a living room with dining L, kitchen, bath and two large bedrooms. The main entrance in each building will have a large porch featuring three-story pillars.

Another multiple dwelling project is reaching completion in the south end of town.

★

TWO DUPLEX homes are being readied by Dr. Edward Waskins of Dearborn. His contractor is Chuck Sanch Construction Co. of Ida.

Living space of 950-square-feet will be offered in each unit with a basement, living room, kitchen and half bath on the first floor, and three bedrooms and bath upstairs.

Ken-Ray Drug Will Double Its Floor Space

Ken-Ray Drug Store will double its floor space, states Ray Dubrinsky.

By taking over the former National Furniture store next door, Ken-Ray will increase its floor space to 4,500 square feet.

Work on three archways to be cut between the two areas will begin about Sept. 1.

The store's pharmacy will probably be enlarged, Mr. Dubrinsky said.

He added that the bigger store will permit a greater variety of items.

★

KEN-RAY belongs to the 55-store Save-More buying combine, which is presently discussing a merger with four other independent cooperative buying association in Philadelphia, Boston, Pittsburgh and Chicago.

If the arrangement materializes, it would mean purchasing in quantities for 1,000 stores, the local druggist explained.

With the new layout here, the basement under the former National side will provide extra storage facilities.

At present, Ken-Ray employs two full-time workers and three on part-time, in addition to the owner. When the remodeling and addition is ready, there will be three full-time jobs.

WHEN THE Watkins Shop was located in the corner stores, Mrs. Marv Watkins utilized the entire 4,500 square feet for her lady's shop. It is now on the other side of Chicago Blvd., next door to Baldwin's Hardware.

New Eating Business Now Open

A new eating establishment opens this week in Tecumseh.

It is owned and operated by Roger Snyder, 219½ Chippewa St.

Being called Roger's, the restaurent is located at 112 E. Logan St., across from the present Tecumseh post office.

Hours are 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Mr. Snyder will be assisted in the cooking department by his mother, Mrs. Alton Snyder, who reports that spaghetti dinners will shortly be an evening feature.

The owner will continue to work on second shift for Bohn Aluminum in Adrian.

Guests Include Four Over 90

Four young ladies of 90 years or more were among 35 guests present at the open house Friday honoring Mrs. Samuel W. Boyce on her 90th birthday anniversary.

The event was held in the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Boyce which was also the home of the honored guest for 32 years until the death of her husband in 1935.

Those over 90 present were: Edith Ingersol, Mrs. Fred Sheldon, Jennie Satterlee and Mrs. Fred Rector.

The same residence was the setting for a family gathering honoring Mrs. Boyce Sunday when 23 were seated for dinner.

The birthday of Marie Boyce was also observed and both she and Mrs. Boyce were honored with decorated cakes. Color films of the event were taken.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gilmore and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gilmore of Macon, Donald Gilmore of Eaton Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Moe and Hilda Gilmore of Parma.

Others attending were Mrs. Alvin Clark of Manchester, Mrs. August Ruttman of Fowlerville, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Goodrich of Ypsilanti, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Santer and Carolyn and Cathy of Allen Park, Julia Boyce of Kalamazoo, Marjory Boyce and Mrs. George Kidman of Tecumseh, and John Boyce with his parents.

90 THS Gridders Expected

By JIM LINCOLN

Preparations for defending the Huron League football championship will get underway here Monday morning when approximately 90 high school prospects will greet Coach Tom Fagan and his assistants.

The squad will hold two practices daily until school commences Sept. 7, and has three weeks to prepare for the season's opener against Willow Run Sept. 17.

Approximately 32 varsity hopefuls are romping around this week on the athletic field at Boysville, getting into condition before actual practice starts.

On viewing the candidates at Boysville Tuesday morning, Coach Fagan remarked, "In size, this will be the biggest team I've ever coached."

Unfortunately, size alone doesn't make a topnotch team, and the '65 Indians lack one ingredient all coaches like to see — speed. Tecumseh could well boast of fielding its biggest team, plus its slowest team.

Another factor that will greatly affect the Indians is lack of experience. Although there's a sprinkling of lettermen back for both the offensive and defensive lines, Fagan must replace the entire starting backfield plus linebackers and safety men on defense.

3 Escape Injury in Auto-Bicycle Accidents Here

Three bike riders were involved in accidents with cars here during the past week and all escaped serious injury.

Mike Fogelsong, 14, rode his bike into the rear of a car driven by Margaret L. Cowdrey, 34, of 1105 Jane St. She was stopped at an intersection. The young boy suffered a cut finger.

Robert C. Stone, 16, of 500 Murray Dr., was entering the drive at Purkey's Garage on W. Chicago Blvd., at the same time that George W. Wright, 61, of 820 Outer Dr., was leaving. The Wright car caught the rear section of the bike.

Bob McCombs of 207 Oneida, had his bike damaged on Rogers Hwy. when motorist Bernard E. Rickard, 18, of 5744 Holloway Rd., stopped to assist McCombs and two of his friends.

The Rickard auto passed over the bike's handlebars.

Glenn Kemps To Celebrate 50th Anniversary Sept 8

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn L. Kemp of 4314 N. Adrian Hwy. will observe their golden wedding anniversary, Sept. 8.

An open house is planned Sept. 5 from 2 to 5 p.m. at the Tiptón Congregational Church. Friends and relatives are invited

Grace Mae Lowry and Mr. Kemp were married Sept. 8, 1915 in Tecumseh and have always lived near or in Tipton until the last few years when they moved to their present home.

Mr. Kemp was engaged in farming, but for the past 35 years has operated an insurance agency in Tipton.

Vandals Break Windows, Slash Tops on Autos

Four motorists here were overnight victims of malicious destruction to their cars, and none of the culprits have been identified.

Celia Serbantez of 135 E. Chicago Blvd. reported a window broken on her car last Thursday. Her auto was parked in a city lot.

Similar damages were suffered the same night by Graham B. Underwood of Mann, W. Va.; Lawrence Aubrey of Monroe; and Sam Sisson of 105 N. Oneida.

Harvey Wilson, auto dealer, reported a convertible top slashed on his used car lot Tuesday.

Guests in Tipton

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Platt and three children were Thursday to Sunday guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Platt. Mrs. Doris Belcher of Jamestown, N. Y. was also a guest, returning to her home by plane Friday.

1,000 HERALDS GIVEN TO IRISH HILLS VACATIONERS

'It's Wonderful, I Love It,' Resorter Reports

By PHIL PIERSON

"I love the ads," Mrs. Arnold Adrian said at her cottage on Sand Lake when asked how she liked getting the summer issues of The Herald.

"It gives me a lot of bargains and tells the different things that are going on," Mrs. Adrian said.

This is the fourth consecutive summer that The Herald has printed an extra 1,000 papers to be distributed to cottages around the lakes in the Irish Hills area.

This week's issue is the ninth one to be distributed this summer with the final issue to be delivered next week.

The printing of the extra papers has been paid for by local advertisers who wish to reach vacationers with the bargains and entertaining events of the area.

"I think Tecumseh gets a lot of business it wouldn't get during the summer," Mrs. Adrian said.

"It's wonderful, I love it," Mrs. J. D. Tanner said at her Sand Lake home.

★

MRS. TANNER rents out cottages to vacationers and said her customers also enjoy the paper.

"They like it because of the amusements and eating places that are listed," Mrs. Tanner said.

"I think it's a good idea because it gets a lot of people interested in Tecumseh," Mr. F. V. Lenardson said at his cottage on Wampler's Lake.

Harriet Exelby of Dearborn, who is vacationing at Wampler's Lake said the ads help very much.

"I think it's a good idea and should be continued next year," Mrs. Exelby said.

Richard Shaffer on vacation from the Tecumseh Products Co., said he likes to get the paper at his Wampler's Lake cottage.

"We've enjoyed the paper very much, thank you," Mr. Shaffer said.

"It is very enjoyable to get news about your friends and other people."

★

"THE MERCHANTS ought to benefit by it and it keeps us posted on what's happening," Walter Simpson said at Wampler's Lake.

As testimony of the fact that local businesses are benefiting from the distribution, Don Purkey of the new Lenawee Fuel, Inc., reported that four year-round residents of Mud Lake called him to sign up for heating fuel after seeing his ad in The Herald.

"I like to see what other towns advertise," Myrtle Malosh said at Meadow Lake.

"I get The Herald while I'm home and it's nice to get it while I'm here," Mrs. Herbert Munger said at her cottage on Sand Lake.

"I get the news much more quickly, this way," said Mrs. Munger, who lives at 7742 N. Adrian Hwy.

★

THREE READERS at Sand Lake said that they also get The Herald when they are in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Fairbanks said they have the paper sent to them at their home in Lakeland, Fla.

"We like it because it has more local news," they said.

★

Mrs. Elmer Green, who lives on Green Hwy., Rt. 1, said she also gets the paper when she vacations in Zephyr Hills, Fla.

"I like it," Mrs. Green said.

Lakes included in the distribution are: Sand Lake, Allen Lake, Wampler's Lake, Meadow Lake, Evans Lake, Wolf Lake, Washington Lake, Kelley Lake and Killarney Lake.

As the weeks wear on, residents will be hearing a lot about Community Antenna Television, which is nicknamed CATV. General Telephone recently made market potential studies for the Adrian-Tecumseh area, along with five other spots in Michigan. This is the system whereby a micro-wave tower is erected to nab TV signals, then pipe them into homes by leased telephone wires. Experts say viewing is terrific and variety of channels greater.

High pressure water and soap suds are forced through a hose after the operator deposits 25c in the coin slot. This process continues for five minutes, and for another 25c the operator gets five minutes of clear water to rinse his auto. There are four stalls at the Auto-Mist, enough to handle everyone on the busiest days with only a few minutes' wait.

Pony Is Major Casualty in Auto Mishaps in Town

A large pony owned by Nelson Sweet of Ives Rd. was killed early Saturday morning when struck by the Assembly of God church bus in front of the William Powell residence on Occidental Rd.

Paul Speer, driver of the bus, was en route back to Tecumseh after a church function.

Other accidents investigated by the Tecumseh Police last week include:

Thursday — Collision in intersection of W. Chicago Blvd. and Union St. between Joe Alphonz Deerberg, 69, of 209 E. Kilbuck and Lewis W. Lake, 31, of 607 [illegible] was cited for failure to yield right of way.

Sunday — Douglas R. Beasley, 18, of 206 N. Demoeratic St. and Leslie M. Gillin, 48, of 111 W. Kilbuck St., were involved in a minor mishap at Ed's Standard Service on N. Evans St. Both drivers were entering the gas station at the same time and apparently did not see each other.

Monday — Lloyd L. Watson, 24, of 1002 Murray Dr., was cited for failure to yield right of way after an accident with Mary Jane Buku, 26, of 205 E. Shawnee. The collision happened at S. Evans St. and Kilbuck St.

Obituaries

● PERCY E. BOYD

Burial services were held at Brookside Cemetery Tuesday for Percy E. Boyd, 68, a native and former Tecumseh resident who died Saturday at Ford Hospital, Detroit where he had been a patient for three weeks.

Mr. Boyd was a brother of Mrs. Lynn Harris, 502 W. Kilbuck St.

Survivors also include his wife, Ella Murphy Boyd, three sons, Percy E. Jr., Kenneth and Harold and a daughter, Mrs. James Ma[illegible]ginx.

Mr. Boyd was owner of two businesses, Punch Press Repair Corp. and Boyd and Sons Press Sales.

Besides being a member of the Tecumseh Masonic Lodge, Mr. Boyd was a member of many Masonic bodies in Detroit.

● MRS. LOIS CAROLYN ORR

Interment for Mrs. Lois C. Orr was held in Cassopolis Monday. Mrs. Orr 74, died Saturday at Herrick Memorial Hospital. She had been ill for only three days.

Born in Cassopolis July 25, 1891, she married Howard Orr March 23, 1906. He preceded her in death.

She is survived by a niece, Mrs. James Rowley, 401 Nokomis, several grandnieces and grandnephews.

Arrangements were made by the Proctor Funeral Home.

● FRED L. WHELAN

Services will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home for Fred L. Whelan, 84, who died Monday at 6:30 a.m. at his home at Vineyard Lake.

He had been ill for the past week.

Born in Franklin Township May 11, 1881, he married Minnie Stitt in Tecumseh Dec. 2, 1903.

They lived in Tecumseh and Jackson before moving to Vineyard Lake two years ago.

Mr. Whelan was a member of the Knights of Pythias in Tecumseh.

Besides his wife he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Henry Kempf of Brooklyn, and a sister, Mrs. Hazel Ostrander of Manitou Beach.

Three sisters and two brothers preceded him in death.

The Rev. Blair Bashore will officiate and burial will be in the Brookside Cemetery.

A Knights of Pythias service will be held Wednesday evening at the funeral home at 7 p.m.

● MRS. CHARLES BOWEN

Services will be held Thursday at 4 p.m. at the Green-Dunn Funeral Home for Mrs. Charles Bowen, 55, of 703 S. Pearl St. who died at 1:15 p.m. Monday at Bixby Hospital, Adrian.

She had been a patient for the last five months and in ill health for five years.

She was born May 4, 1910, at Crozet, Va., and married Mr. Bowen at Tecumseh July 28, 1951.

She was employed by the General Telephone Co. for several years.

Mrs. Bowen was a member of the Pythian Sisters and the First Methodist Church.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by six sons, Alfred Lambes of Tecumseh, Robert Lambes of Tipton, Edward Lambes of Moorestown, N. J., James Lambes of Adrian and William and Ronald Bowen, both at home; three daughters, Mrs. Hilda DeMass and Mrs. James Merillat, 9239 Macon Rd. and Mrs. Okey Howard of Clayton; 21 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Four brothers, Edward Blackburn of Cleveland, Grover Blackburn and Barney Shiflett, both of Akron, Ohio and her stepfather, Walter Blackburn of California also survive.

The Rev. Donald Porteous will officiate and burial will be in Lenawee Hills Memorial Gardens, Tecumseh.

Solicitors Warned Then Ordered Out of Town by Chief

A second run-in with the Tecumseh Police resulted in suspended fines and a stiff warning for Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Severn.

The couple, who are vagabonds with no permanent address, were sleeping overnight in their car at the United Products Union Hall and were charged with soliciting in town without a license.

Chief Mucell Clark told them the next time they're caught soliciting here they would receive a 90-day jail sentence. Both were ordered out of town.

Children Pull a Surprise on Parents

Kids will be kids and they never get too big to turn the tables on their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Raynor Sweet entertained at a barbecue Sunday, for the pleasure of their family and their children's friends.

The couple were completely surprised when a tiered decorated cake made by Mrs. Rose Service was served to honor their 25th wedding anniversary.

Gladys Lister and Raynor Sweet were married Aug. 24, 1940 in Wauseon, Ohio.

They are the parents of Raymond, recently discharged from the Navy, Gloria of Adrian, Nelson, Richard, Yvonne and Barbara, all at home.

The group also celebrated the 70th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Norlene Lister, mother of Mrs. Sweet. Her birthdate is Aug. 24, the same as the Sweet's anniversary.

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

"Last seen of them was Lula's laughing face and waving hand" and she married "a highly respected, honorable, hard working young man," thus goes the report of the wedding of the late Lula Stahler and Norman McConnell in The Herald following their wedding Aug. 31, 1919.

What a contrast between nuptial reports of that day and those found in this issue. Deluged with weddings the first week back from vacation, it seemed only fair to give parents of this writer a little thought on what could have been their 46th anniversary.

Most of the story was about the fun friends planned following the ceremony of which there is a noticeable lack in wedding write-ups today.

Monday Club Tea Attended by 45

Mrs. Clifford Knudson was the hostess for the Monday Club tea at her home this week with 45 persons including guests from Clinton and Adrian attending.

Bertha LaPointe presented a musical program including two piano solos by Linda Knudson and a vocal solo by Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney. She was accompanied by Mrs. Wilfred Waldron.

Mary McWilliams, president, announced and encouraged those present to attend the Goodwill Industries meeting in Adrian Wednesday.

Punch and cookies were served with Miss McWilliams presiding at the punch bowl.

A Friendly tea will be held Sept. 13 at the home of Mrs. Ed Aebersold.

PROCTOR
Funeral Home
TECUMSEH, MICH.
& CLINTON, MICH.

Dear friends,

The soundest advice in funeral matters is to select a competent, trustworthy funeral director well in advance of needs. When death occurs, the stress of emotions makes it difficult to think clearly and leaves little time for investigation and comparison. A funeral director performs a most intimate and personal service.

Respectfully,

Lester D. Proctor

Police End Season with 2 Victories

Slo-Pitch League Finals

Tecumseh Police	10	1
Ed's Standard	6	5
A&W-Baileys	6	6
Kemp and Murphy	4	8
Corrugated Box	3	9

The Tecumseh Police closed their regular softball season with a pair of wins that sewed up first place for them in two leagues.

The Police bombed Kemp and Murphy, 22-3, in the Tecumseh League by pounding out 29 hits and scoring in every inning.

Clarence Champanois led the heavy hitting Police with five hits in five at-bats. Roger Fox added 4-for-5 as winning pitcher Clyde Locker breezed to the mound victory.

With the win over Kemp and Murphy, the Police finished with a 10-1 record in the Tecumseh League, four games in front of second-place Ed's Standard.

In the Adrian Maple League, the Police ended the regular season Thursday with a 5-0 whitewashing of Rollo-Originals.

The blanking raised the Police league record to 13-2 and clinched first place for them.

Champanois and Randy Work sparked the Police batting attack with 2-for-3. Work's two-run double in the first inning drove home the first two runs.

*

This weekend the Police will travel to Monroe and compete in the state tournament. Their first game is Friday at 7:30 p.m. against Martin Shoe Store on Roessler Field.

Winner of the double elimination tournament will then travel to Ohio and compete in the national tourney the following weekend.

In other action in the Tecumseh circuit, Ed's Standard split a doubleheader with A & W-Baileys, winning the first game, 9-3, and dropping the nightcap, 6-5.

Corrugated Box stopped A&W-Baileys, 13-8, in a game that went eight innings.

A&W rallied with a run in the bottom of the seventh frame to tie the score, 7-7. In the eighth inning, Corrugated scored six times to insure the win. A&W managed only one marker in the last of the inning to round out the scoring.

Bill Holmes, Paul Clauda To Play for Championship

Bill Holmes and Paul Clauda will play in the Championship Flight of the men's golf tournament at the Tecumseh Country Club Sunday.

Playing in the other flights will be: Gordon Esch and C. O. Butler, first flight; H. C. Dean and Bill Powell, second flight; and Robert Winder and Merlyn Downing, fourth flight.

The third flight is still undecided. C. Welch will play Ned Rosacrans with the winner to play Maynard Johnson for the championship.

Gal Golfers Play-offs Are Sunday

Winners of the Wednesday ladies golf matches Aug. 18 were: Mrs. Harold Kelso, first flight; Mrs. Vern Manwaring, second flight; and Mrs. Arthur Schwartz, third flight;

Special events winners were Mrs. Frank Owen, Mrs. William Snook and Mrs. Charles Trickey, Jr.

The ladies have been playing their club matches for three weeks and the following have won spots in the play-offs Sunday:

Championship flight: Mrs. Robert Bowers and Mrs. Clifford Collins.

First Flight: Mrs. Bill Davis and Mrs. M. R. Blanden.

Second Flight: Mrs. Snook and Mrs. Al Merz.

Third Flight: Mrs. Manwaring and Mrs. R. A. Anderson.

Missionaries To Address City Church

The Rev. and Mrs. Earl L. Morgan, missionaries and teachers in Lebanon and the Middle East, will address the congregation of the Church of the Nazarene Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

This is the second furlough home since the Morgans went abroad for the Department of Foreign Missions in Aug., 1952.

Their second term has been largely spent in Beirut, Lebanon, where the Rev. Morgan has been a teacher and, for a time, was principal of a Nazarene Bible School. Mrs. Morgan has taught piano and assisted at the school.

The Middle East will be described in his talks here. He will tell of his work in Italy, where he spent five years and, if possible, will show colored slides.

The Rev. Morgan was born in Kane, Pa. He is a graduate of Olivet Nazarene College, Kankakee, Ill.; Missouri Valley College, Marshall, Mo.; and the Nazarene Theological Seminary, Kansas City, Mo. He has also taken graduate work at the University of Kansas City.

He was pastor of the Nazarene Church in Marshall prior to his appointment abroad.

Paul Hughes New Social Security District Manager

Paul J. Hughes of Marietta, O., has been assigned District Manager of Social Security Administration in Jackson.

He replaces Raymond C. Backus, who served as the Jackson District Manager for the past 13 years. Backus was transferred to the managership of Grand Rapids Aug. 2.

Holstein-Friesian Give Membership to Doug Feight

Doug Feight, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Feight of 1760 Russell Rd., has been granted junior membership in the Holstein-Friesian Association of America headquartered at Brattleboro, Vt.

To qualify, member candidates must be under 21 and have successfully completed one year's work in a 4-H or vocational agriculture dairy project.

Individual ownership of at least one registered Holstein is also required.

Junior members are entitled to all privileges, except voting, of the national Holstein organization.

They may register and transfer their animals at member rates and receive regular reports of breed and Association progress.

Over 39,600 young Holstein breeders have participated in the program since its start in 1923.

Local Driver Wins Twice at Speedway

MANCHESTER — Pete Dermeyer of 905 Sunset, Tecumseh, picked up two wins in the accident marred Tri-State Championship Trophy Race at Manchester Speedway Friday night.

Pete won the fourth heat and also picked up the checkered flag in the consolation event.

There were several crack-ups with the first heat having to be re-started three times due to accidents.

Louie Jay Stemen won the big feature race, nosing out Dick Crup in second and Lynn Hunt in third.

Bob Kash survived several mishaps in the semi-feature to come through with the victory. Bob Laveck took second.

Jerry Evilsizer was forced out of the semi when he crashed into the wall.

Lynn Hunt was the victor in the pursuit with Stemen second and Larry Morowelli third.

Don Earles turned in the night's fastest qualifying time with Stemen second.

Heat results:

1st heat — Marowelli, first; Stemen, second; and Hunt, third.

2nd heat — Larry Gray, first; and John Mooneyham, second.

3rd heat — Roy Pratt, first; and Bob Kash, second.

4th heat — Dermeyer, first; and Tom Frantom, second.

The Manchester Junior Jaycees will sponsor the racing this Friday at the speedway.

Nursery School Registration Is Set for Sept. 9

Nursery School rooms at the Presbyterian Church will be open Sept. 9 from 9 to 11 a.m. for registration.

Mrs. Warren Puffer, instructor, asks that all children who were registered in the spring attend with their mothers for a get-acquainted session and to complete forms.

"Registrations fees are due at this time, too," Mrs. Puffer said.

Regular sessions begin Sept. 13. Youngsters may attend two, three or five mornings per week, however the two days a week sessions have been filled. Names will be placed on the waiting list for this session.

Those attending two days will go to school Tuesdays and Thursdays and those three days a week, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

More information is available from Mrs. Puffer whose phone number is 423-4018 or from her assistant, Mrs. Claude Sebring whose phone number is 423-3873.

News from the Tecumseh Library

New books at your Public Library:

MIND IF I DIFFER, a Catholic-Unitarian dialogue by Betty Mills and Lucille Hasley. An extremely interesting and witty exchange of letters whose key phrase in the very first one was: "Since, I suspect, both Catholics and Protestants are here to stay, it is time they began to understand each other better."

As Lucille Hasley stated, the purpose of the book-to-be, "Above all else I would want our letters to demonstrate that two housewives chatting over the back fence can be just as ecumenical as the Big Deal going on in Rome."

THE DOOR IN THE WALL, a collection of stories that probe the mystery of an anthropologist's life, by Oliver La Farge.

THE GREAT DISCOUNT DELUSION. How discounting is exploiting you, destroying quality brands and killing off competition, by Walter Nelson. A thoroughly documented survey, based on years of Congressional hearings and many other sources.

THE WEDDING BOOK by Frances Birmingham. A complete "his and her" guide.

DRAMA HANDBOOK FOR CHURCHES. Concrete suggestions for organizing a drama program, with specifics as to costumes, props, scenery, lighting, script selection, casting, directing, rehearsals, publicity and program.

CANADA FROM A TO Z, by Robert Kane. A candid, contemporary, province by province appraisal, touristic, historical, political, of the world's second largest country. An exteremely helpful guide book for anyone for anyone planning a trip there, or even to read for a refresher after having been there.

THEY PEOPLED THE PACIFIC, by A. Grove Day. The Pacific Ocean is the largest and deepest body of water on our globe. Because of its immense spread and perilous depths, this area was the last to be settled by wandering peoples. Here is the dramatic story of their slow migration through the scattered Pacific Islands, braving hurricanes, volcanoes, and starvation in search for new land.

LION AMONG ROSES, by David Bradley. The author weaves a chronicle of Finland's past into a lively description of his colorful travels there. Most compelling is his account of the explosive emotions aroused by the Soviet Union's crude interference in the election of a Finnish president, when no one knew whether the republic would survive.

SAVAGE NEW GUINEA, by Jens Bjerre, a Danish author who has recently completed a five months' expedition into uncontrolled areas of the New Guinea Highlands. The purpose of the expedition was to collect ethnographical material for museums. He also writes about the political aspect of these most primitive people on earth, and their future. Illustrated with unique photographs in color.

A FAMILY OF ISLANDS, by Alec Waugh. What Columbus started in 1492 was finished in 1898 when the red and gold flag was lowered at Havana to mark the end of four centuries of Spanish dominance in the Caribbean. This is the story of those centuries, told by a novelist in an exciting novelistic style.

"A woman driver is known by the fenders she keeps."

Robert McCrates Have Busy Week

BRITTON—Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCrate of rural Britton were busy last week.

Their son, PFC Gerald McCrate, arrived home Aug. 17 from Bamberg, Germany, where he has served 19 months in the Infantry.

Daughter Patricia, 11, fell off a pony and broke both bones in her left arm. She spent two days in St. Joseph's Hospital, Ann Arbor, returning home Sunday.

Sunday the McCrates gathered for a family get-together in honor of Gerald's return. All of their 10 children were present except son Donald, who is in the Navy and stationed at Camp Le-Jeune, N. C.

The weekend guests included Mr. and Mrs. Richard McCrate of Saginaw and Mr. and Mrs. Fred McCrate of Ypsilanti.

—o—

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Underwood, Mrs. Daniel Pratt and sons, of Britton, and Mrs. Dwight Knauss and daughters of Clayton returned Tuesday evening from an eight-day vacation trip to the southeastern states. They visited Washington, D. C., Lookout Mountain and Rock City in Tennessee, and Mammoth Cave in Kentucky.

Anniversary Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Bailey, of Britton, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday.

Albert Bailey and Sophia Glenn were married Aug. 17, 1940, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Glenn, in Adrian.

The couple have four children; Mrs. Karl Kimerer, of Britton, Mrs. Larry Robison of Chicago, Kathleen and Albert, Jr., at home. There are two grandsons, Dennis and Kris.

Mr. Bailey is employed at the Tecumseh Products Co. He is a graduate of Sand Creek High School. Mrs. Bailey is a graduate of the Henry Ford's Centennial High School near Tecumseh.

Sunday the children entertained their parents with a dinner at Inn America in Ann Arbor and then the family attended the Music Hall in Detroit.

Coach Gets 'Hole-in-one'

BRITTON — Tory basketball coach, Sam Hamilton, scored a hole-in-one on Irish Hills golf course Sunday. A perfect swing with his No. 5 iron on the 118-yard third hole rolled into the cup.

Sam was playing with Russell Spaulding, former Britton superintendent who now holds the same post at Mio.

"Sam, you're right on the pin," Mr. Spaulding shouted as Mr. Hamilton drove from the tee.

The pair saw the ball strike the green and roll to the stick, but then lost sight of it. Sam asked his son, Edwin, 13, to take a look. His happy report: "It's in the hole!"

Jimmie Hamilton, Sam's five-year-old was also along and thinks golf is a great game after seeing his dad's ace. All day Monday he was practicing his swing in the family's backyard, eager to take on pop.

BRITTON BRIEFS

By CHRISTINE FAIRBANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Dunbar held a party for their son Greg Friday evening, to celebrate his 13th birthday. Nine boys enjoyed a cookout and swimming party.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tregede and family of Pittsfield, Mass. were recent guests of the Rev. and Mrs. Gustav Hannevik. They have been friends of the Hannevik since Rev. Hannevik was pastor in a church on Staten Island, N. Y.

The Rev. and Mrs. Robert A. Mitchinson and family spent several days at Portage Lake in the Waterloo Recration Area last week.

The Rev. and Mrs. G. O. Hannevik spent a few days at Winona Lake, Ind. last week.

Douglas Straub Receives Baptism at Three Weeks

BRITTON — Douglas John Straub, three-week-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Straub of Britton, was baptized Sunday in St. Elizabeth Catholic Church in Tecumseh.

His sponsors were Judith Atchison of Maybee and Howard Atchison of Detroit.

A baptismal supper was served by Mr. and Mrs. Herman Straub of Maybee, the child's paternal grandparents.

Water Tank Gets Early Cleaning

BRITTON — The village water tank has undergone a fall housecleaning a bit early this year, it was reported at the village council meeting.

The tank was inspected, cleaned and painted for $1,365, and the interior of the tank was replaced at a cost of $3,942. The work was done by Pittsburg Tank and Tower Company of Pittsburg, Kan.

70-FOOT WATERFRONT LOTS

Low Down Payment — $37 per month. Trout Fishing, good swimming. Office open 11 a.m. 'till dark daily. Drive west on Route 50, turn left on Route 12 and follow signs, 3 miles past Route 223 intersection. Pine Hill Lake.

Tories Start Practicing on Monday

BRITTON — Uniforms are being issued to 28 varsity football candidates at Britton-Macon High School, reports Coach Al Vadasy.

The Tories will begin two-a-day workout Monday in preparation for the season's opener with Clinton on the local gridiron Sept. 17.

Prospects for the Tory 11 are rather dim at this point as the candidates are small and inexperienced.

Last year the club went without a win in eight contests.

Britton-Ridgeway Methodist News

Sunday is Promotion Sunday in the Sunday School. Sunday School will be at 10 a.m.

There will be a new class for young adults beginning Sunday. Paul Frazier will be the teacher.

The Methodist Young Couples and families will meet at the Paul Hamiltons' for a swimming party and picnic supper Sunday at 5 p.m. Bring hot dogs and a dish to pass.

The MYF will meet at the church at 7 p.m.

The Women's Society of Christian Service will meet at the church Sept. 2, at 7:30 p.m. This will be the 25th anniversary of the WSCS. Mrs. Paul Frazier will be in charge of the meeting.

Yearbook Dance Has Been Canceled

BRITTON—The Annual Yearbook Dance, usually held late in August when the "Brittonians" are passed out to those who ordered them last year, will not be held this year, it has been announced by Supt. William Saxton.

He has received word that the books will not be shipped from the printers until September. The annuals will be passed out at school after school starts.

See Ray Jackson for Federal Aid

Township Supervisor Ray Jackson says that anyone in the township needing federal aid in Tornado Cleanup on private property should contact him and sign a release for work being requested.

Tory Faculty Almost Set

BRITTON — School will officially open at the Britton-Macon Area School Sept. 7. There will be a teachers' conference and organizational meeting at 9 a.m. in the school cafeteria Sept. 3.

Classes will be dismissed at noon on the first day except the Kindergarten where classes will begin Sept. 8.

Parents of Kindergarten children who did not register last spring will register them on Tuesday, Sept. 7.

All children living northwest of the Wabash Railroad tracks will attend classes in the morning and those living southeast of the tracks will go in the afternoon.

Supt. William Saxton asks that mothers of Kindergarten children put them on the bus the first day, rather than bringing them to school. Those who do bring their children Wednesday are requested to leave them in the room with the teacher and not remain.

New students are asked to enroll at the Principal's Office during the week until Sept. 2, from 9 to 12 in the morning and from 1 to 3 in the afternoon.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 26, 1965

Linda Dicks and Jan Radke Say Vows

Linda Sue Dicks and Jan R. Radke recited their nuptial vows Saturday in the First Presbyterian Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Dick of 4460 Macon Rd.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Edward Radke of 1828 N. Rosevere, Dearborn, and the late Mr. Radke.

The Rev. Julian R. Gresham performed the candlelight service at 7:30 p.m., before an altar enhanced with gold vases of white gladioli and white chrysanthemums. Six cathedral candelabra faced with white flowers and greenery formed the chancel background.

Mrs. Fred Oberlin played the wedding marches on the organ and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Robert Bagdon. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

★

THE BRIDE'S semi - sheath gown was fashioned of Angelskin peau de soie with re-embroidered lace on the bodice, featuring an empire styling and a floating watteau panel over the removable chapel train.

A matching pillbox held her veil of French illusion. She carried a cascade of white Snow Song roses and ivy. Sherry Dicks of Tecumseh, sister of the bride, was the maid-of-honor.

Ellen Radke of Dearborn, sister of the bridegroom; Janice Fick of Grand Rapids, and Mrs. Robert Feldkamp of Saline were the bridesmaids. Their gowns were fashioned alike of turquoise chiffon with empire bodices and floating chiffon panels in the back. Their headdresses were double Dior bows of matching turquoise.

The maid-of-honor carried a petite cascade bouquet of pale pink carnations centered with a deeper pink cluster of rosebuds. The bridesmaids carried bouquets of pink carnations centered with purple seafoam statice.

David Price of Lansing was the best man.

★

THE USHERS were Gene Pawlick of Addison, Ill., Steven Cook and Robert Baldori, both of Dearborn.

The reception for 250 guests was held in the Odd Fellows Hall on Green Hwy.

The tiered wedding cake centered a round table flounced with white nylon over pink taffeta and draped with pink ribbon and bows. Pink and white flowers and seven-branched candelabra centered the pink draped serving table.

Mrs. Hebert Short of Macon and Susan Owen of Tecumseh assisted with the reception.

The bride is a 1962 graduate of Tecumseh High School and attended Michigan State University for three years.

★

THE BRIDEGROOM is a 1961 graduate of Dearborn High School and is a 1965 graduate of Michigan State University affiliated with the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. He will enter the University of Wisconsin School of Medicine this fall.

The couple will live at 1341 South St., Madison, Wis., following their return from a week at Niagara Falls.

The bride's mother entertained at a rehearsal dinner at her home Friday evening.

MRS. JAN RADKE

MRS. DAVID MacDONALD

Carol Davenport Weds Ralph Darch

Carol Ann Davenport, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Davenport of 111 N. Pearl became the bride of Ralph L. Darch Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Darch Sr. of Corbin City, N. J. in a ceremony Saturday at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church.

The Rev. Fr. Thomas Collins performed the ceremony before the immediate family and close friends. Mrs. Donald Johnson presided at the organ.

White gladioli were used to enhance the altar. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father wearing a gown of white Alencon lace over taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, long tapered sleeves and a full hoop skirt.

Her elbow length veil of illusion fell from a crown of pearls and crystals. She carried a cascade arrangement of white daisies centered with pink rosebuds.

Elizabeth Ann Hammack of Traverse City was maid-of-honor in a floor length gown of aqua taffeta with fitted bodice and matching head piece. She carried white daisies and asters to match her dress.

Jay Duncan of Corbin City, cousin of the groom, was best man.

★

A RECEPTION FOR nearly 100 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents where the bride's cake decorated with touches of blue was cut by Mrs. Miriam Duncan, aunt of the groom.

Mrs. Walter Davenport of Bay City, aunt of the bride, served punch. Other special guests attending were Mrs. Miriam Duncan and son, Jay, of Corbin City, Mrs. William A. Davenport of Mayslanding, N. J.

All were houseguests of the bride's parents as were Mr. and Mrs. Darch Sr. The rehearsal dinner was held at the Davenport home Friday evening.

The bride is a graduate of Vineland High School, Vineland, N. J. and attended Hospital Technicians School at Newcomb Hospital in Vineland.

Her husband is a graduate of Ocean City High School in New Jersey and is employed at Tecumseh Division of Aero Commander.

Following a week's trip to the eastern states, the couple will make their home at 111 N. Pearl St., Apt. 2.

MRS. RALPH DARCH

Evelyn Schroeder Marries Carl Yenor

Evelyn Jane Schroeder and Raymond Carl Yenor were married Saturday in the Trinity Lutheran Church in Saline.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Schroeder of 9747 Welch Rd., Tecumseh.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Gus Doyle of Paul's Trailer Court, N. Union St., Tecumseh.

The 2:30 p.m. ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. E. Engle, pastor of the church.

The bride wore a ballerina-length dress of Chantilly lace with a fitted bodice and long tapering sleeves. Tiers of ruffles edgel with sequins accented the sides of the bouffant skirt which had a hand made cabbage rose centering the back of the waist. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Mrs. Larry Whelan of Tecumseh was the matron of honor. She wore a sheath dress of blue and white crepe. Her corsage was of blue and white carnations.

Larry Whelan was the best man.

★

A RECEPTION for 50 guests was held at 5:30 p.m. Saturday at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride is a student at Britton High School.

The bridegroom attended Tecumseh High School and completed his high school education while serving three years in the Navy aboard the U.S.S. Sunbird. He is now employed at the Ford Motor Co. plant in Rawsonville.

The couple will live at 213½ E. Chicago Blvd. Apt. 3, Tecumseh.

MRS. CARL YENOR

Jane Van Valkenburg, David MacDonald Wed

Jean Van Valkenburg and David MacDonald were united in marriage Saturday in ceremonies performed by the Rev. Paul Brantingham at the Tecumseh Friends Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Van Valkenburg of 108 S. Van Buren and Mr. and Mrs. Robert MacDonald of 901 Sunset Drive.

Carol Cole was the soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Brantingham. An arch of 35 candles fronted with smilax and stephanotis and four palms formed the altar background.

The petite bride wore a floor-length gown of white taffeta as she approached the altar on the arm of her father. Her gown featured pearl and lace appliques on the bodice and skirt ending in a chapel train. The long sleeves ended in points over her hands.

Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to a Swedish crown of pearls, crystal and lace. She carried a gold throated white orchid centering a cascade arrangement of stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. Ronald Johnson of Lawrence, Kan. was her sister's matron-of-honor in a floor length dress of yellow organdy over satin. A moss green velvet ribbon ending in a bow and long streamers at the back accented the empire waistline.

★

SHE WORE an open pill box with circular vail attached and carried a cluster of Snow Crystal chrysanthemums centered with yellow blooms and ivy.

Mrs. Thomas Rufner of Huntington, Ind., Mrs. Jerry Cramer of Manitou Beach and Elaine Tatsch of Cleveland, Ohio, were the bridesmaids attired as the matron of honor.

Barbara MacDonald, sister of the groom, was the flower girl in a floor length dress of white dotted Swiss with yellow bow and streamers at the front.

She wore a tiny pillbox hat and carried a basket formed of yellow nylon leaves with satin tubing handle filled with Snow Crystal and yellow chrysanthemums accented with strands of ivy.

Paul MacDonald, brother of the groom, was the ring bearer. Larry Brown of Clinton served as best man and the guests were seated by Larry Stein of Fresno, Ohio, Jerry Cramer of Manitou Beach, brother-in-law of the groom, and Daniel Van Valkenburg, cousin of the bride.

★

A RECEPTION for 175 guests was held in the church basement. The bride's table was covered with yellow taffeta and nylon and was garlanded with white daisies. The wedding cake was flanked with arrangements of Boston daisies on crystal candelabra.

Carol Corts of Amherst, Ohio served punch. Adelle DePuy registered the guests. Others serving at the reception were college friends of the bride, Andrea Miller, Linda Detwiler, Linda King and Mrs. Robert Nixon.

The bride is a junior majoring in elementary education at Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti.

Her husband took pre-mortuary courses at Malone College and Olivet Nazarene College and is presently serving his apprenticeship at the Braun Funeral Home, Adrian.

Following a trip to the Smoky Mountains and southern states, the couple will live at 1501 W. Maumee St., Adrian.

The rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's parents at Don's Beef Buffet Friday evening.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Berkhoff will live in Champaign, Ill. where he will work for an advanced degree in library sciences.

Attending the wedding ceremony from Tecumseh were Mr. and Mrs. Orville Laidlaw, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Comfort, Mrs. Perry Hayden, Miss Beth Satterthwaite, Perry Satterthwaite and Miss Geneva Satterthwaite.

Interlochen's 'Les Preludes' Signals Fini

INTERLOCHEN — The performance of Liszt's "Les Preludes," the traditional grand finale, climaxes the 38th National Music Camp season and ushers in the second annual Interlochen Arts Festival this week.

Other highlights during the last week of the National Music Camp season include the presentation of Berlior's "Requiem" by the 300-voice Festival Choir, the annual student dance concert, and the final high school drama production, "She Stoops to Conquer."

Defined literally as the beginning, "Les Preludes" is interpreted by National Music Camp founder and president, Dr. Joseph E. Maddy, as marking the awakening or beginning of a fuller and richer life for the more than 1,500 students who have spent the summer at Interlochen.

More than 900 performers, including all of the high school musicians and dancers will take part in the gala grand finale.

The 110-piece World Youth Symphony Orchestra will be featured during the Arts Festival.

The three-day arts festival, which begins Tuesday, Aug. 24, ends Thursday, Aug. 26.

Deanna Owens Wed to Richard Dorner

Deanna Rose Owens, daughter of Mrs. Verna Owens and the late Albert Owens, former residents of Tecumseh, became the bride of Richard G. Dorner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Dorner of Adrian in a candlelight ceremony Saturday at 8 p.m.

MRS. RICHARD G. DORNER

The Bethany Assembly of God Church was the scene of the double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Arthur G. Clay.

Mrs. George Frye, organist, played a program of nuptial selections as the ushers, Ted Tabbert, Arnold Sayler and Mack Vickery all of Adrian, seated the guests. Mrs. Frye also accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Bernard Wolcott.

Proceeding the bride to the altar were her attendants, Linda Owens, sister of the bride, maid-of-honor, and the bridesmaids, Sharon Conklin and Carol Shoemaker of Adrian and Barbara Nine of Hudson.

Jack Cruickshank served as the best man.

★

GIVEN IN marriage by her brother, Charles E. Owens, the bride approached the altar wearing a controlled sheath silhouette, designed for her in organza over taffeta.

Accented with chantilly lace arranged in a pyramid appliqued band around the bateau neckline and hemline of sheath, it fell in graceful swirls and ended in a cathedral train.

Her fingertop bouffant veil of off-silk illusion was caught in place with a cluster of peau de soi petals trimmed in pearls. On top of her Bible she carried a cascade bouquet of white Australian phaelanopsis orchids, stephanotis and smilax foliage.

Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

The attendants wore brocade and crepe floor length dresses in a two-tone pink and rose shade. Designed in an empire sheath each had a floor length train of rose brocade.

The attendants wore rhinestone tiaras with filmy c... of matching French ollusion on their heads.

Each carried a cascade bouquet of sweetheart roses and pink carnations with smilax foliage.

Kim Vickery was the flower girl. Steven Vickery was the ring bearer. They are niece and nephew of the bridegroom.

A reception for 300 was held at Ritchie Hall on the Adrian College Campus following the ceremony.

★

THE YOUNG couple are on a two-week honeymoon to the Pocono Mountains, the World's Fair and Niagara Falls. They will reside at their home at 566 Lake St.

Mr. Dorner is a 1963 graduate of Adrian High School and is employed as assistant to the auditor at the Commercial Savings Bank of Adrian.

The new Mrs. Dorner attended Tecumseh Public Schools before moving to Adrian. She graduated from Adrian High School in 1964 and is secretary to the Department of Public Recreation of Adrian.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dorner entertained at a rehearsal dinner Friay evening in their home.

Richard Krebs Back from Bible Meeting

Richard Krebs, Jr., of Tecumseh, local presiding minister of Jehovah's witnesses, just returned from a four-day Bible convention held in Buffalo, N. Y., which ended Sunday evening.

Krebs was part of 24,044 that overflowed Memorial Auditorium.

"The convention was held to help Jehovah's witnesses and interested people to understand how to discharge their scriptural responsibilities in a more effective way," Mr. Krebs said.

"The convention high point was the talk given Sunday afternoon by the vice-president of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society, F. W. Franz, entitled 'World Government on the Shoulder of the Prince of Peace.'

"Vice-president Franz emphasized that world government for all mankind will mean only one supreme government over all the earth," Mr. Krebs said.

"It will be a symbol of the oneness of all the people, in peaceful brotherhood. It is staggering to think of what such a government could do for the good of all the people under it, without favoritism or prejudice."

★

AS THE TALK developed Franz asked:

"Will such a world government ever come into existence over our one human family? Until now such a political rulership has never been undertaken with the support of all the people who would come under its sway.

"Humanly speaking, world government needs a widespread desire of the people for it."

Explaining how neither the League of Nations nor the United Nations could possibly accomplish this, the minister continued:

"World government is necessary to the preservation and happiness of the human family. There is a great Governor of the Universe of which our earth is a tiny part. As earth's Creator, He should be expected to govern it, and He will."

"In showing what man should now put his trust in, Franz quoted Isaiah 9:6-7, dealing with the promised Prince of Peace, Christ Jesus, as mankind's only hope for lasting peace," Mr. Franz said.

MRS. GEOFFREY K. HOGAN

Gretta Porter Is Wed to Lawrence Estey

NEW YORK — Gretta Marlene Porter and Lawrence Mitchell Estey were married Saturday morning in St. Mark's Church-in-... (Episcopal), New York City.

Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Willis G. Porter, 4208 Comfort Rd., Tecumseh, and the L. Wendell Esteys of Princeton, N. J.

Celebrating the nuptial Eucharist was the Rev. Thomas Pike, rector of St. Andre... Church, Yonkers, N. Y. Assisting him was the Rev. Allan Ford, assistant at St. Mark's.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of white Israeli cotton designed and made by her sister, Mrs. Louis J. Alpinieri, Los Angeles, Calif. The gown was made on princess lines and had long lace sleeves. The new Mrs. Estey carried a white prayer book and roses.

Attending the bride were Catherine Rodenmayer, as maid-of-honor and Carol Estey, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid.

They wore floor-length pink gowns with lace overskirts and carried roses.

George A. Buckhout, Jr., were the best man. Ushering were Andrew Godfrey, Princeton; and Eldridge Cooke, Jeffrey Sammons and Ralph Cook, all of New York.

Following a reception in the church parish hall, the newlyweds left for Puerto Rico. Their new home will be at 343 East 8th St., New York City.

Hamilton Moores Host Community Club Picnic Supper

MACON — The Macon Community Club members and two guests enjoyed a picnic supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Moore Aug. 17.

Clayton Bigelow led the group in giving the pledge to the American Flag and repeating the Lord's Prayer. There was more discussion about having some signs made for Macon.

Mrs. Moore read an article from the Michigan Advocate, "Methodist Impediment to Ecumenism," written by Dr. Frank Littell, formerly a pastor of the Clinton-Macon Churches. She also gave a recipe for "Happiness". Clayton Bigelow read a poem that had been written by a former schoolmate, for their 50th school reunion.

Mrs. Avery Bigelow of Bluffton, O., and Harvey Powers were guests.

Suzanne Rohweder Wed to Geoffry Hogan

Dinner was served in a large pink and white striped tent on the south lawn at the Tecumseh Country Club to guests attending the wedding of Suzanne Rohweder and Geoffrey Karl Hogan Saturday.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. J. H. Rohweder of 607 E. Logan St., and the late Mr. Rohweder and Mr. and Mrs. Karl Hunter Hogan of Saginaw.

The Rev. Julian Gresham performed the ceremony in St. Peter's Episcopal Church before the altar adorned with a long fan-shaped arrangement of white Fuji chrysanthemums and Emerald foliage.

The white carpeted aisle was marked with clusters of Jade and Emerald foliage and gold pedestal baskets filled with white gladioli and Fuji chrysanthemums enhanced each window in the sanctuary and foyer of the church.

Mrs. Donald Bush was the organist accompanying Mrs. Al Merz, the soloist.

★

THE RADIANT bride entered the aisle on the arm of her brother, Dr. T. C. Rohweder, of Beachwood, O. She wore a gown of candlelight silk peau de soie styled with empire bodice and wide panel of re-embroidered Alencon lace on the A-line skirt and bordering the chapel train.

Her four-tiered veil of illusion was secured to a lace crown. She carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias and ivy.

Marilou Layton of Ann Arbor served as maid-of-honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Thomas Rudd and Mrs. Thomas Rohweder, sister-in-law of the bride, of Beachwood, O.

The bride's attendants were attired alike in gowns of copper green crystella fashioned with long A-line skirts and matching lace edging the elbow length sleeves.

They carried exotic, single glamellias shaded with deep red in the center to light yellow at the edges. They wore circlets of natural green leaves in their hair.

Frederic C. Baker of Ann Arbor served as best man and the guests were seated by Harry G. Boettcher, David Wentworth, Sherman J. Randerson and Andrew L. Sawhill, cousin of the bride.

Modern candelabra and bouquets of gold, yellow and red flowers were used in front of the gold draped wall at the Country Club behind the receiving line. Other arrangements of the same blossoms were used throughout the reception room.

★

YELLOW ROSES topped the tiered wedding cake placed on a gold drum-shaped table draped with smilax and clusters of yellow roses and chrysanthemums.

Two large hurricane arrangements based with Rubrum lilies, roses and carnations were used on the serving tables for the dinner in the tent.

Guests were seated at round tables covered with pink linen and centered with hurricane lamps nestled in arrangements of red roses, pink carnations and daisies. The tent was lighted with Italian twinkle bulbs enewined on each post with boxwood roping. Large baskets of flowers were placed at the entrance.

The couple will make their home at Huron Towers in Ann Arbor following a trip to northern Michigan.

The bride attended the University of Michigan and received her degree from Northwestern University. She is associated with Alpha Phi sorority.

Her husband is a graduate of the U. of M., and is presently attending graduate school there. He is affiliated with Alpha Delta Phi fraternity.

The rehearsal dinner Friday evening was given by the groom's parents at the Tecumseh Country Club.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

THE NOISE OF DESTRUCTION

Instead of listening to the sassy chatter of a squirrel or cardinal's clear whistle, we have just lived through two weeks of noise — loud, ear-splitting, nerve-shattering noise.

The din of heavy earth-moving equipment sets teeth on edge and stretches tempers to near breaking points. The cause of all the commotion was the construction of a section of the Evans Creek interceptor sewer.

The part which directly affects us dips into the creek east of Updike's beautiful big elm and follows the stream bed past the tree. Coming out of the water, it more or less follows the creek's bend and passes us. Aylesworths and Gertie in that order.

We had a ring-side seat but to say that we were, and still are, unhappy about the whole thing is a gross understatement. The necessity of the sewer is not questioned, but just why this particular route was chosen has never been satisfactorily explained.

Many things are done in the name of progress but this in itself does not necessarily make them good. Tecumseh is growing at a dizzying pace — let us hope that future projects are well thought out and carefully planned.

★

THE INITIAL WORK was not quite as disastrous as we feared. Many of the trees, which we had been led to believe would be taken out, were left.

They were not left undisturbed however — just how close to a tree can a big shovel work and how many roots can be destroyed without killing the tree eventually? How much damming and dumping dirt into it will our creek tolerate before its character changes?

What about the birds, squirrels, woodchucks, raccoons, opossums and rabbits? Time will answer these and the many other questions which pop into the minds of those of us who dearly love Evans Creek.

But the big shovel and the bulldozers came and so we watched. Actually we heard the roar and clank and screech for almost a week before we could see the machines.

As much as we hated it, it was also fascinating. The power and brute strength was just unbelievable.

Also, the fine touch which controlled all that power was amazing. I am convinced that the man running the shovel can do anything with it from scratching a co-worker's back to uprooting a large tree.

WE DID NOT see him do the former but the trees which came out were not cut down by chainsaws, the shovel cleared the path. Digging and pulling took care of in an agonizing few minutes, what Mother Nature spent years growing.

Unpleasant indeed is the sound of trees being twisted and torn, broken and snapped, and finally crashing to the ground with a dull thud.

Late in the afternoon of the day they dammed the creek, there was a great deal of unexpected excitement. The big bulldozer got stuck. What I believe happened was that it mired down in a little patch of quicksand.

They finally had to call in another 'cat,' and after more than an hour with the extra bulldozer and the big shovel working to help, the stuck bulldozer was freed. Fortunately I was in braces and sitting in my wheel chair.

The view from the porch could not have been more perfect. It was most interesting watching the work to free the big machine.

By the way, it was just a pleasure to watch these men work any time. They were a well knit group — they worked hard but they seemed to enjoy it and had fun with each other. There was much good natured joking and pleasingly little profanity.

★

WELL, the shovels and bulldozers have moved on, the trench is about all filled in but the ugly scar remains. Next winter's weed seed crop and the thicket which offered protection are gone as are several sections of the squirrel's tree roads.

I wonder if the birds, squirrels and other wildlife join us in asking, "Why?"

So it is that although some will say it was the sound of progress, we still think of it as the noise of destruction.

Choral Union Auditions Being Held

ANN ARBOR—The University of Michigan Musical Society announces that auditions are now being held for membership in the University Choral Union.

Membership is open to qualified singers. Appointments for auditions may be made now at the offices of the University Musical Society on the first floor of the Burton Memorial Tower by new applicants.

Former members in good standing will be re-admitted without audition, provided application is made before Sept. 7.

The University Choral Union combines the talents of students, faculty, townspeople, and singers from out-of-town, to form the 330-voice chorus, which annually performs Handel's "Messiah" in December, with members of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Lester McCoy, conductor; and soloists; and will also be featured again in major choral works at the annual Ann Arbor May Festival, May 5-8, with the Philadelphia Orchestra.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Would you like to be as young as she is? Would you like to wake up tomorrow and find yourself standing in a field of Queen Anne's lace, with the summer breeze blowing and fleecy white clouds sailing overhead?

Would you really like to be as young as she is? If you've been measuring up to life, the answer should be no. Naturally, you can look at her with nostalgia. But think of the lessons she has yet to learn — lessons you learned long ago. Add up your experiences, both good and bad, which wouldn't be yours were you to revert to youth. The total should make you glad that you are exactly the age you are.

If you aren't — something's missing. Somewhere, you've gotten off the track. In this case, you don't need to return to childhood. You need, rather, a new approach to adulthood, a new grasp, a new understanding. Start finding it now . . . in the church of your choice.

CAMPING, REVISITED

Success!

We camped without unpleasant incidents in a recreation area of the Ouchita National Forest. Now we can applaud when camping enthusiasts carol.

We wanted to visit Hot Springs, Ark., the well-known health spa. What a city! The weather is hot and so are the 47 springs. Somehow it's hard to believe that springs can contain hot water without actually sticking your own fingers in for proof. The signs and even the tourist just in front of you who says, "Sure enough, it's hot," don't convince. Particularly intriguing is the Hot Water Fountain where a doubting-Thomas can receive a mild burn for proof, if necessary.

There are only two "display" springs for viewing. The thermal water of the others is collected in a reservoir and piped into the 18 bath houses.

All of Hot Springs National Park which includes the springs and the water, is under government control. Uncle Sam enforces rules and regulations which cover sanitation, hydrotherapy and administration of the baths. The instructions and training programs for bath attendants are conducted by the U. S. government, as well.

Persons afflicted with arthritis, rheumatism, polio, stroke, and industrial injuries are some of the many who visit the baths regularly.

Anyone may take advantage of the warm baths and massages, but this is not encouraged. All would-be bathers are urged to consult one of the federally-registered physicians in the city.

Residents of Hot Springs and the surrounding areas are convinced that the thermal water is healthful to drink. There is a steady stream of people with their huge water jugs coming to the public faucets to tote a supply home. Of course, this water must be cooled somewhat, as the temperature in the main reservoir is always over 140 degrees Fehrenheit.

The baths are not the only attractions in Hot Springs. Right across from "Bath House Row" are some auction houses. Here the fast-talking artists continually spew their lingo as they sell repossess merchandise. Small appliances, china, silver and objects d'art are the wares.

The auctioneers use gimmicks to attract an audience — drawings for free merchandise, a liberal amount of 'wife' jokes, mystery boxes and a carnival atmosphere.

We thought our children would enjoy the spectacle and sat for a few minutes in the plush opera seats watching such items as electric coffee percolators go for $4.00.

Or, the visitor can ride an amphibian White "Duck". This vehicle takes its passengers from downtown Hot Springs, travels along the highway for five miles, and enters Lake Hamilton for a tour. On this lake are the fabulous houses of the rich.

The captain of the "duck" said that once Lake Hamilton was useless land, unsuitable for any type of farming. Today, with the help of Carpenter Dam, the land value has risen to $100 per running foot along the shores. There are some $175,000 homes to drool over.

A real treat for the kiddies are the famous educated animals at the I. Q. Zoo. This enterprise, operated by the Keller Brelands, features common animals such as a tiger cat, a racoon, ordinary chickens, a goat and rabbits which are scientifically trained to perform. They do such things as walk tight ropes, play the piano, dance and lop a basketball through the loop.

It is these animals that have appeared on such television shows as those of Jack Paar, Ed Sullivan, Garry Moore, and Wild Kingdom.

Free of charge, a visitor may tour the Dryden potteries. It's fascinating to see the potter throw a lump of grey clay on the potter's wheel and with nothing other than his own hands and a wet sponge, fashion a bowl right before your eyes. You get the feeling that such artists are born with their skill. This gentleman told us that he received a few lessons from another person and then perfected his own technique.

Among the many other attractions which Hot Springs can boast are a fish hatchery, a 165-foot-high observation tower atop Hot Springs Mountain, Hughes Museum, containing automobiles, guns, and a hand-carved miniature city valued at $50,000; Wildwood 1884, which is a glimpse of the elegant Eighties; an alligator farm, two lakes, three dams, two golf courses and 47 churches.

Though we were hot and tired as we drove back to our campsite, we were happy. It's quite a temptation to divide our loyalties.

We are Michiganders and proud of it, but we also would like to join the growing group of people who are trying to build a new profile of Arkansas. No longer do these people have to be the butt of many jokes and unceasing ridicule. A visitor's bulletin for Hot Springs says, "The woim has toined". We couldn't agree more.

More Men Means Faster Training for A F Cadets

Sgt. Thomas Foulds, local Air Force Recruiting Officer, has announced a step-up in training of new airmen.

The action is being token as a means of meeting training requirements for increased manpower procurement set by the U. S. Air Force.

Beginning with the August increase, students will now receive four weeks of basic training at Luckland AFB, San Antonio, Tex., and two weeks of military training at either of the Air Training Command's Technical Schools located at Chanute AFB, Ill., Keesler AFB, Miss., Lowry AFB, Colo., and Amarillo and Sheppard AFBs, Tex.

Sgt. Foulds is at the Eagles' Hall, Adrian every Tuesday and Thursday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

A WINNING SMILE — [illegible] Tipton, saw his entry win Grand Champion in the Individual Market Lambs class. The State Show is next for this member of the Round Top Club.

State Fair Opens Friday

"Come early and stay all day," Michigan State Fair officials are urging the public this year.

The fair opens Friday and runs through Labor Day. As always, agriculture and industry will be well represented.

The state's farmers will be competing with their best livestock and crops. Automotive and other industries will have extensive exhibits.

In the Community Arts field (it was called Home Arts until this year, there'll be prize-winning exhibits of canning, baking, needlework, hobbycraft, fine arts plus a Food Show and Fashion Show.

And while the men are looking over the animals and watching the judging, the women will have an opportunity to see cooking and other demonstrations in the new Community Arts Building.

Music Shell shows will star the Serendipity Singers and the NBC television "Hullabaloo" dancers with special guest stars The Four Tops, Lesley Gore, Johnny Rivers and Tony Clarke from Friday through Wednesday.

From Thursday through Labor Day, the Music Shell shows will have the Supremes, and ballad singer Jack Jones with the Jimmy Wilkins Orchestra.

An Honors Band, made up of the top high school musicians in the state, will play concerts in the Music Shell Sept. 3-5. Guest soloist will be trumpeter Carl (Doc) Severinsen, assistant director of the TV Skitch Henderson Orchestra.

In front of the Grandstand, the Barnes and Carruthers Circus will perform three shows daily from Saturday through Sept. 3.

The Joie Chitwood Thrill Show, with daredevil drivers, will perform in front of the Grandstand Sept. 4-6. Auto races are scheduled Sept. 5 and 6.

Other entertainment highlights of the fair will be strolling musicians throughout the grounds; shows in the Coliseum Grove featuring acts from theatrical and dance schools; round and square dancing in the Old Timers' Grove; Avenue A-Go-Go with music and features for the teen-age set; children's contests and features such as the TV Fun Circus; and shows and rides on the Gay Midway.

In the Coliseum, 15 free horse shows are scheduled, with Appaloosas, giant Clydesdales and Percherons, Arabian and Morgans, and a host of ponies stepping through their paces. The Detroit Mounted Police will perform at each horse show except Labor Day.

Gate admission is $1.25 and children under 12 will be admitted free when accompanied by adults. Here's the schedule of special days at the fair:

Friday — Grand Opening Day, with downtown Detroit parade at 8 p.m., ribbon-cutting at the Fairgrounds at 6 p.m.

Saturday — Veterans' Day. Special programs featuring drill teams, the firing of a Civil War cannon, a memorial service, and a jet flyover. All veterans and members of veterans groups and auxiliaries admitted free until 3 p.m.

Sunday — Religion Day. Sunrise service at 8 a.m. in the Music Shell. Everyone admitted free until 8 a.m.

Monday — Old Timers' Day, with special events, awards and contests. All senior citizens admitted free until 3 p.m.

Tuesday — Children's Day. Reduced prices for the kids on the Midway.

Wednesday — Beauty Queens' Day, with preliminary judging in the Miss Michigan State Fair contest.

Thursday — Salute to Agriculture Day.

Sept. 3 — Teachers' Day, special ceremonies and presentation of awards. All educators admitted free to the Fairgrounds until 3 p.m.

Sept. 4 — Governor's Day, honoring Governor Romney.

Sept. 5 — 250-Mile Race Day.

Sept. 6 — Labor Day, with special salutes to labor.

Outing Is Next Week at DLYC

The annual Leawee County Republican summer outing at Devils Lake Yacht Club will be Aug. 26 at 7 p.m.

William McLaughlin, vice-chairman of the State Central Committee will be the speaker.

Tickets are on sale at The Herald office and from Hugh Walters.

They Eat Well in Plymouth

A four-day whirlwind of activity will engulf the community of Plymouth, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 9-12.

It's the annual Plymouth Community Fall Festival.

People of the area move the clock back to the turn of the century for an event that has mushroomed from a small service club chicken barbecue for 300 to a celebration drawing nearly 40,000.

Major activities:

► Thursday, Sept. 9 — "German Night" with knockwurst and sauerkraut.

► Friday, Sept. 10—A melon and ice cream social.

► Saturday, Sept. 11 — All-day pancake and sausage festival.

► Sunday, Sept. 12 — Chicken barbecue, noon to 6 p.m.

During the entire four-day period, the Plymouth Symphony League will sponsor an antique mart open from noon to 10 p.m. Other activities include a German band, harmonica and banjo groups and a female barbershop singing group.

Frontier City Adds Train

For family enjoyment, Frontier City is outstanding. Located on M-50 just south of US-12 the authentic old West attraction offers a variety of entertainment seven days a week including many special events.

An old fashioned threshing bee with antique threshers and engines arranged by Robert Bender of Napoleon was displayed last weekend.

Owner Ivan Hunt recently purchased a thresher from George Rambow of Britton and Mr. Bender furnished the engine that actually threshed the grain by the old method.

Stars of the Grand Ole Opry are scheduled from July 4 through Labor Day appearing in three big shows each Sunday. The popular Ernest Tubbs is appearing this weekend.

Two Civil War skirmishes are held each summer in Michigan, one at Greenfield Village in Dearborn and the other at Frontier City. Labor Day weekend the City will be the setting for a colorful muzzle loading and cannon shoot when both men and women dressed in the costumes of the Civil War era.

Mr. Hunt said that about 700 people plus the participants attended last year and about the same number are expected again this season. He had a recent communication telling of a bus load of perhaps 60 or 70 from Washington, D.C., planning to come.

A SQUARE DANCE demonstration is planned for Sept. 19.

The season gets off to a good start on Memorial Day when the Midwest Rock Swap is held at the City under the direction of Clare Handy, a member of the State-line Gem and Mineral Society.

Tots and Teens enjoy a day at the City perhaps having lunch in the "saloon" or in the picnic area.

Little people love the many small animals in Old MacDonald's Farm which they may feed. Most recent addition at the City is a baby buffalo born about 10 days ago.

"The tame deer herd has grown to 150, more than we really want," said Mr. Hunt, "but they keep having fawns every year."

The little folk enjoy riding on the real steam train operated each weekend by a machinist from Galesburg. Stagecoach and paddle wheel boat rides are also featured.

Six exciting gunfire shows are held each day except Monday and the stagecoach is held up by bandits or Indians regularly.

The old West lives again at Frontier City with activities aplenty for adults and children. Group rates may be obtained by simply writing Frontier City, Onsted, Mich.

Go to 4-H State Show

The Tecumseh Top-Notchers 4-H Club will have four members and one parent at the State 4-H Show on the campus of Michigan State University Aug. 30 to Sept. 2.

These people were selected at the county fair to represent Lenawee County in four project areas and senior demonstration:

Rick Skinner, with his electronics action exhibit which he will present Tuesday at the State Show.

Beth Frownfelder won on two scores, with her flower arrangement and her flower arrangement demonstration.

Sylvia Fritz's art was selected to go to state competition.

This is the second year that Sharrie Johnston has had her wildflower exhibit selected. She will be spending the full time on the campus with Rick, Sylvia and Beth.

Carol Alexander will also have a wildflower exhibit at State Show but is too young to stay. She will spend the day visiting and attending the conservation judging and evaluation sessions.

Ruth Ann Warner was selected to be a State Show alternate in foods and nutrition with her action exhibit — Breakfast, Bogus or Bonus.

Mrs. Elroy Johnston will accompany the group and help chaperone the Lenawee County delegation.

Beamer Flower Arrangement: blue ribbons, Barbara Hammel, April Cook, Rosella Dotson, Carol Alexander and Beth Frownfelder; red ribbon, Kim Sieverts.

Joseph Shewards Honored at Open House at Church

MACON — Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sheward were honored at a farewell open house at the Macon Methodist Church Sunday afternoon.

The church dining room was furnished with card tables centered with bouquets of snap dragons.

The lace covered serving table also had a centerpiece of snap dragons that were grown by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller in Saline.

Mrs. Russell Collins baked, decorated and served the cake that was shaped like a moving van.

Mrs. Charles Gorton served tea, Mrs. Arthur Miller served the punch. Mrs. Carl Hawkins and Mrs. Andrew Goodwin assisted in the kitchen.

The Shewards were presented a gift of money. They will be moving to Erwin, Tenn., at the end of the month.

Want More Recruits

By PHIL PIERSON

USAF Sgt. Thomas Foulds told 13 people at an Air Force luncheon in Jackson Aug. 13 that the Air Force wants twice as many recruits from Michigan next year as they have gotten this year.

"We recruited a little over 3,000 men from Michigan last year," Sgt. Foulds said, "and this year we would like a little over 6,000."

Sgt. Foulds, who is the recruiting officer for the south central part of the state, including Lenawee county, said the Air Force does not want to use subscription to fill their quotas.

"We want to get our men on a voluntary basis," Sgt. Foulds said.

The quota from Lenawee County for the month of August is 30 men according to Sgt. Foulds. Last month the Air Force recruited about 20 from the county Sgt. Foulds said.

"One thing I would like to make clear," Sgt. Foulds said, "is that the person who joins the Air Force today is not going to be sent to Vietnam tomorrow.

"We don't need untrained and unskilled men over there. It takes at least three years of training before a man would be ready to go to Vietnam.

"Right now we have plenty of qualified personnel who want to go to Vietnam," Sgt. Foulds said.

"Our biggest problem is to train personnel to be qualified enough to replace those who are sent to Vietnam."

Also present at the luncheon was Maj. Lawrence E. Stephens, the commander of Air Force recruiting in Michigan.

"If there ever was a time when we need help, now is the time," Maj. Stephens said.

Sgt. Foulds is recruiting in Adrian at the Eagles Hall every Tuesday and Thursday from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m.

International Touch

The Blissfield Folk Song Festival Sept. 18 will be an international affair with the top stars both from Toronto.

Headlining the show will be folk singer Roberta Corey and guitarist Jim Tait.

Duane DeLoach, editor and publisher of the Blissfield Advance and sponsor of the event, persuaded the two to appear after seeing them perform at a banquet for members of the U. S. Editors' Goodwill Tour of Ontario in June.

Non-professional folk singers from all over Lenawee County will sing on the program.

Proceeds from the show will go to the Mary Magdaline Student Loan Fund to help students with their college expenses.

Established last fall by the members of the family of the late Mary Magdaline DeLoach, the fund has so far enabled one student to enroll in college.

Donations for the program are $1 with the hope that the show's proceeds will help swell the fund to over $1,000.

Tickets are available through the Blissfield Rotary and Kiwanis clubs and the Blissfield Jaycees and the Blissfield Advance.

Tickets are also available at The Herald, the Clinton Local and at The Stage in Adrian.

Large Hole Being Checked

A deep hole near the Maumee St. sidewalk at the south end of Kiwanis Park, is being checked by City Manager Cal Zorn.

The land in which the hole is [illegible] belongs to Dr. Ralph Helzerman, who recently completed a home in Tonneberger Estates and apparently had transferred top soil from the Maumee St. lot to the new home.

Motorists Test on TV

Michigan motorists will have a "second chance" Monday when the National Drivers Test will be rebroadcast by the CBS Television Network.

Program time is 10 p.m.

The tremendous response to the May 24th program has prompted the network to present the show again preceding the Labor Day weekend.

Viewers, projected into a "driver's seat" situation, will keep score as they face driving conditions demanding knowledge, judgment and skill.

Berkley Attends Workshop

Donald J. Berkley, of 716 Ternes Rd., is among the 20 teachers, counselors and administrators from Michigan high schools and community colleges who participated in a summer workshop program at the University of Michigan from June 28 to Aug. 18.

The workshop is designed to prepare them for leadership positions in the administration of vocational and technical education.

The Michigan Leadership Development Program for Vocational and Technical Education was developed in the summer of 1964, by Ralph C. Wenrich, professor of vocational education and director of vocational education and director of vocational teachers education; and Lewis H. Hodges, lecturer in vocational education and the practical arts at Michigan.

DONALD J. BERKLEY

The workshop members were selected from nearly 400 nominations submitted by Michigan high school principals and community college administrators on the basis of teaching experience in their particular field, education, and their leadership potential.

At the conclusion of the summer workshop, in addition to their regular professional duties, the trainees will participate in an internship program during the 1965 school year.

They will meet in monthly seminars to discuss mutual problems and the latest administration developments in vocational technical education.

Mr. Berkley has been in industrial education teacher for ten years in the Tecumseh Junior High and High School.

He is a graduate of Milan High School and has a Bachelor of Science degree from Eastern Michigan University and Masters degree from the University of Michigan.

In 1953 he was accepted as a candidate for a new degree, specialist in education, which he is working for at U of M.

One Day Later

Next City Council meeting will be Tuesday, Sept. 7, at 7:30 p.m., coming one day later than usual because of Labor Day.

THE LANSING REPORT FROM senator GIL BURSLEY

The deer season will be here before we know it. So lets review the latest legislation and conservation department regulations affecting this fall's hunting.

Deer will be hunted in the lower peninsula from Nov. 20 until Dec. 5. In the upper peninsula the season is a week earlier, from Nov. 13 to Nov. 28.

The archery season will be from Oct. 1 to Nov. 5. Archers will be authorized this year to take any deer since the Legislature eliminated the "bucks only" provision.

Antlerless animals can be hunted in 57 designated areas. Total permits available this year will be 228,000 as against 192,000 last year. Permit application deadline is Oct. 1 and drawings will be held in areas where applications exceed quotas.

ELK WILL BE hunted under about the same conditions as last year. Again 300 licenses will be issued by special drawing. Application deadline is Aug. 27 and the fee is $25.

Bear hunting will be closed for two years in the lower peninsula. In the upper peninsula special seasons will be held Sept. 1-15 and Oct. 1-Nov. 5 and during the deer season.

Quail may be hunted for the first time between Nov. 11 and 15 in Lenawee, Washtenaw, Jackson, Monroe and several other lower peninsula counties. Limits are four per day or 12 to a season. An ordinary small game license is required.

Bobcats may be hunted all year in the upper peninsula and during January and February in the lower peninsula. No bounties will be paid.

Fox bounties have also been removed but $15 is still paid for male and $20 for female Coyotes.

Work Started on Information for Telephone Book

Information is now being compiled for the new Lenawee County telephone directory, K. L. Conway, district manager for General Telephone, announced.

Sales representatives of the General Telephone Directory Company will contact all business telephone customers in Tecumseh, Britton, Clinton, and Tipton within the next few days to discuss Yellow Pages advertising space, Conway said.

"We want to be sure that all businessmen have an opportunity to review and discuss their listing in the Yellow Pages," he said.

Winners Forgotten

TIPTON — The following girls were omitted from the Tipton Jets 4-H Knitting Club project listing:

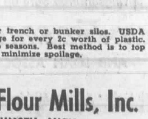
Janet Moeller, Candy Jackson, Darlene Daniels, Mary Ann Fisher and Cynthia Freeman. They were all blue ribbon winners.

DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING.

RAT CONTROL IS PROFITABLE. Rats spread 35 diseases, eat one-third as much feed as a laying hen, causes fires and contaminate feed. Best control is to eliminate piles of trash, brush, weeds and tall grass. Make feed bins rat-proof — close cracks around pipes and vents, and screen drains, sewers, vents and windows. If rats remain, control them with a concentrated anticoagulant bait. A new poison for rats on the market contains norbromide — one dose is lethal.

FENCE-LINE BUNK OR AUGER? Michigan economists found that if you feed less than 250 head of cattle, the auger and bunk method has the lowest annual cost. At 250 head, costs are about the same. Annual costs for feeding 500 cattle were $300 less for the fence-line bunk. Above 100 the advantage widens for a fence-line bunk system. System used might depend on location of buildings and storage. Also it is easier and less expensive to expand using a fence-line bunk system.

TOP MILK PRODUCTION starts with feeding dry cows properly. Two weeks before calving, step up grain to about 1 pound per 100 pounds of bodyweight. Feed highest producers 1½ pounds per 100 pounds of weight to get highest production from next lactation. Remember that raising the average production of a 40-cow herd from 10,000 pounds to 12,000 pounds per cow is equivalent to adding eight more cows averaging 10,000 pounds.



PLASTIC COVERED SILAGE PAYS for trench or bunker silos. USDA reports that you save 15c worth of silage for every 2c worth of plastic. Four to six mil plastic will last for two seasons. Best method is to top plastic with 2 or 3 inches of sawdust to minimize spoilage.

Motion Hamilton and seconded Puffer, the proposed zoning ordinance be accepted for the second reading by title only with the hearting date set for September 7th, 1965, at 8:30 p.m. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion McCombs and seconded Tuckey, the "Church of Christ" be granted permission to cover the meters in the Off-Street areas on October 15th and 16th at a cost of $70.00. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion Hamilton and seconded Tuckey, the following resolution be adopted. Motion carried unanimously.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS diverse funds are available from the Federal Government for use by this Municipality in the construction of the addition to the sewage treatment plant; and

WHEREAS it is the desire of the City Administration to apply for such funds in order to decrease the burden on the local municipal taxpayer ; and

WHEREAS plans and specifications for the addition to said sewage disposal plant have been completed, and have been approved by the State Health Commissioner; and

WHEREAS a properly called election of the City of Tecumseh on April 6, 1965, resulted in an affirmative vote by the City electors that such construction be commenced and a bond issue in the sum of $560,000.00 be authorized.

NOW THEREFORE THE CITY OF TECUMSEH RESOLVED:

1. That the construction of the said addition to the sewage treatment plant be commenced no later than May 1, 1966.

2. That Calvin Zorn, City Manager, be authorized to file the application for Federal Grant for sewage treatment works; and

3. That this Municipality agrees that if the Federal Grant for the project be made pursuant to the Federal Water Pollution Control Act this City will pay the remaining costs of the approved project and further agrees that it will provide proper and efficient operation and maintenance of the project after completion of the construction thereof; and

4. That, in consideration thereof, this City further agrees to comply with title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and any regulations issued pursuant thereto and further states that the Assurance of Compliance with such Regulation (HEW-form 441) which is attached, applies to this project.

AYES: Unanimous.
NAY: None.
RESOLUTION DECLARED Adopted:
Dated: August 16, 1965.
Attest: NAOMI SALLOWS
City Clerk.

Motion Hamilton and seconded Puffer, the next regular meeting be held on Tuesday, September 7th, since the regular meeting night falls on Labor Day, a legal holiday. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion Hamilton and seconded Puffer, to adjourn the meeting. Motion carried unanimously.

HAROLD EASTON,
Mayor.

12 Vacation Days Left

Classes at Clinton Schools Will Begin on Sept. 7

CLINTON — Only 12 days remain until the Clinton Community Schools open Sept. 7 and parents of school children have a relatively simple problem of wondering how many pair of shoes they will have to provide this year.

In contrast — school administrators are busily pondering a more difficult question — how many pair of feet will soon be racing through the academic halls seeking a desk?

★

During the vacation months Lenawee County has seen continued industrial expansion with Clinton receiving a share of the new families who have moved into the area.

Many of these families have school age children. Supt. Richard Wegner said this week that he expects about 1050 children — the same number which finished in June.

Secondary classrooms are adequate for a limited increase in students, he said. However the elementary school is scheduled for three sections in every grade except the sixth, which has a total of 68 children in two sections.

★

"Any increase in the sixth grade would create a serious dilemma," Mr. Wagner said, "since we would not have another room available even if a third sixth grade teacher were added.

"It'd like to see the Clinton school have 1150 children enrolled this fall, which would show a healthy growth for this community.

"Unfortunately we've recently had four new teachers who wanted to live in Clinton but couldn't because there were no houses available," Mr. Wegner said.

One kindergarten class will be held in the Smith-Kimball Community Center.

An extra classroom will be utilized in the elementary building by moving the library into another small room, which will provide library facilities for the elementary pupils.

The maintenance staff has been busy all summer redecorating and painting where necessary. A new ceiling has been installed in the home economics room. New sound equipment is being installed on the football field.

Schools To Open Earlier

CLINTON — The opening of school half an hour earlier marks the most important change in the Clinton Community Schools this year. Both elementary and secondary classes will begin at 8:30 a.m. and will be dismissed at 3:25 p.m.

The first day of school will be a half-day session Sept. 7 with the first all-day session Sept. 8.

With the addition of nine new faculty members, there are now 45 persons in executive and teaching positions.

Donald M. Quick will be the first principal of the elementary school. The new teachers are:

★

First grade — Mrs. Larry Brown, formerly of Richmond, Ind., a graduate of Olivet Nazarene College and a newcomer to Clinton; Mrs. Steven Halchishak of Clinton, a graduate of EMU.

Second grade — Mrs. Richard Content of Clinton.

Fourth grade — Mrs. Donald Houghton of Clinton, a graduate of EMU.

Fifth grade — Graham Teague of Adrian and a graduate of Adrian College.

Mrs. Susan Kelly of Adrian, chemistry and physics; Karen Osterberg, of Waukegan, Ill., a graduate of U. of M., journalism, English and dramatics; Mrs. Richard Myers of 512 Nokomis St., Tecumseh, a graduate of Siena Heights College, commercial.

★

An English-art teacher in the high school is still needed.

A vocational work-study program may be inaugurated and more teachers hired in that department if a request for financial assistance is granted by the state department of public instruction.

Among the newcomers in non-teaching positions are secretaries, Mrs. David Fox and Mrs. Richard Frolich; custodian, Charles Kotts; cafeteria workers, Mrs. Kenneth Martin and Mrs. Earl Troll; and substitute teacher, Mrs. Herbert Blumhardt.

There was a special meeting of the board of education Monday to complete details of such matters as the cost of book rentals, insurance, hot lunch and milk, which will be announced to parents in a news letter from the school.

Enrollment for all new pupils in the district and all kindergarten children not registered last spring, is being held at the school office this week.

Bride-To-Be Janice Roe Guest at Bridal Shower

CLINTON — Bride-elect Janice Roe was the guest-of-honor at a bridal shower Aug. 12 at the home of Judy McMichael in Tipton.

Guests were 10 classmates of Clinton High School and from Tecumseh where Miss Roe formerly attended school, her mother, Mrs. Robert Roe, and Mrs. Charles Knight of Clinton, the mother of Miss Roe's fiance.

A shower of personal gifts were presented to the bride-to-be. Her marriage to Rick Knight will take place Sept. 17 in the Clinton Methodist Church.

The engagement of Rose Marie Cubberly to Michael O. Partridge is being announced by her mother, Mrs. Thelma Cubberly of 120½ W. Chicago Blvd. Mr. Partridge is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Partridge of Occidental Rd., Tecumseh. Miss Cubberly is a 1963 graduate of Tecumseh High School and is employed at Larry's Grill. Mr. Partridge is employed at Tecumseh Corrugated Box Co. A fall wedding is being planned.

Auto Is Wrecked When Driver Runs off Road Saturday

CLINTON — A car driven by Gary Lee Howard, 20, of Shepherd Rd., Onsted was demolished at 9:55 p.m. Saturday, when he failed to see the end of the T-intersection of Wisner Hwy. at Robbins Rd., and ran off the end of the road.

Gary and his three teen-age passengers were uninjured.

Automobile Blaze

CLINTON — John Kickliter of 603 Center Dr., Tecumseh, stopped his car on W. Michigan Ave., in Clinton at 1 a.m., Monday to see why his generator light was coming on repeatedly.

As he did so, the wiring in the car caught fire and the Clinton Fire Department was called to ... the blaze.

The 1 p.m. potluck dinner was attended by 45 persons from Saginaw, Chicago, Metamora, O., Adrian, Holloway and Palmyra.

Later in the afternoon, the hostess served ice cream and cake.

The new officers elected are:

President — Mrs. Carson Garrison.

Vice-president — Mrs. Richard Sickle.

Secretary and treasurer—Mrs. Audrey Stutzman.

Bands Playing at High Scope

CLINTON — High Scope camp facilities, on Sheridan Rd. near Clinton, are being used for the next three weeks by high school band groups for marching band training sessions.

This week there are 92 members of the Taylor Center High School at High Scope for the five-day training.

In successive weeks the Albion High School band and the Kennedy High School band from Taylor Center will be training there.

Oct. 16 and 17 the Detroit area International Folk Dance festival is held at the camp.

High Scope directors, Mr. and Mrs. David Weikart and Mr. and Mrs. John Salcau, provide the services of the camp for rental groups of up to 100 persons.

They have the assistance of the camp's cooks, Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett, Mrs. Howard Brooks and Mrs. John Sherman, all of Tecumseh.

Clinton Youth Can Earn-A-Bike Before Sept. 11

CLINTON — There is still time for Clinton boys and girls to earn a bike by selling 15 new subscriptions to the Tecumseh Herald.

Ten new subscriptions will earn a fine transistor radio.

Phone Mrs. Harold Calhoun evenings for information, 456-4512, or come to The Herald office.

Driver Misses Dog but Damages His Automobile

CLINTON — Randall Mangus, 16, of Brooklyn wrecked the car he was driving at 9:15 p.m. Saturday on Knapp Rd., one mile north of US-12.

He told Clinton State Police that he ran off the road and overturned when he swerved to avoid a dog in the road.

Mangus and his four passengers were not injured.

Herman Schmidt House Is Robbed Last Weekend

CLINTON — Herman Schmidt of 1160 Dinius Rd., Tecumseh, reported to Clinton State Police that someone removed a TV and radio-phonograph from his house while the family was away last weekend.

Woman Ticketed for Leaving Scene of the Accident

CLINTON—Nellie Armstrong, 39, of Austin Rd., rural Manchester, was given a summons by Clinton State Police Saturday evening when she failed to stop and identify herself at the scene of an accident.

Mrs. Armstrong swung wide at the intersection of Washington St. and Clinton St. in Clinton and struck a parked car owned by Cecil C. Woodward of Zephyr Hill, Fla.

Clinton Methodist To Present Bibles in Church Sunday

CLINTON — The Methodist Church will have a Promotion Sunday service on Sunday when Bibles will be presented during the morning service.

A Rally Day program will be held Sept. 26.

Henry Van Riper Seriously Hurt While Working

CLINTON—Henry Lee (Jack) Van Riper of rural Clinton is in critical condition in St. Joseph Hospital, Ann Arbor, with severe head injuries and a broken collarbone resulting from an accident Aug. 18.

Mr. Van Riper was working for a construction company at the U of M Microfilm building when the hook on his artificial arm became caught in a steel llft crane which pulled him up and threw him against concrete.

Mrs. Van Riper is a cashier in Vesecio's in Clinton.

Cold War Law To Aid Servicemen

The Cold War Veterans Readjustment Assistance Act has passed the United States Senate and is now before the House Veterans Affairs Committee for consideration, reports Congressman Wes Vivian.

The bill establishes a program of readjustment assistance for veterans who serve on active military duty between Jan. 31, 1955 and July 1, 1965. It requires 180 days of active service for participation in the program (disability cases excepted).

★

THE PROGRAM includes education and training (including farm training), home and farm loans. It would provide monthly payments for education and training), home and farm loans. It would prove monthly payments for education and training of $110 for veterans with more than one dependent.

"The World War II G. I. Bill of Rights' was, in my opinion, one of the most significant pieces of legislation enacted during the past two decades. The aid which the GI Bill gave to millions of veterans had a tremendously beneficial impact on the successful readjustment which the entire economy made, at the termination of hostilities," the Congressman noted.

Similar legislation was enacted to benefit the veterans of the Korean conflict.

Fisher Body NLRB Vote To Be Oct. 7

The Fisher Body Tecumseh Division plant will hold a secret ballot election Oct. 7 to determine union representation.

The UAW filed petitions July 5, in behalf of all maintainance and production employees of the Tecumseh plant.

Milton Fisher, National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) attorney, was in charge of a conference held in Detroit Aug. 18.

Representing the UAW were Steve Schlossberg, general counsel; Bill Keeter and Bert Lambert, international representatives; Kay Bertridge, sewing machine operator, second shift; Ron Kohlman, cutter, first shift and Harry Spriggs, machine repair, first shift.

Representatives for General Motors Corporation and Fisher Body were Doug Mann, assistant general counsel and Harvey Vogt, Fisher Body, Industrial Relations Director of the Tecumseh plant.

All employees in maintainance and production on the payroll the week ending Oct. 3 will be eligible to vote in the Oct. 7 election.

Approximately 275 persons are currently employed with an anticipated total of 400 by the election date.

Specialist or Jack-of-all-Trades?

More and more, our graduate schools are preparing young men and women for the "Age of Specialization." Scientists who will specialize in a single segment of one part of the complex world of science. Doctors who will concentrate in one particular field of medicine. Lawyers who will devote themselves exclusively to one branch of the law. Accountants who will pursue the special problems of tax legislation.

The jack-of-all-trades can no longer give satisfactory service if he tries to cope with all of the problems in any particular field. Specialization has become almost mandatory as the horizons of knowledge continue to expand.

Savings and loan associations are specialists. They specialize in two fields—savings and home loans.

Today, savings and loan associations provide the facilities for 37,000,000 people to save their money with safety and profit.

Today, savings and loan associations make more home loans than all other financial institutions combined, over 1,000,000 in 1964 alone.

This specialization provides better services for you and the people in your community. If you are planning to open a savings account or want a home loan to fit your individual need, come in and see us. We are specialists.

Long and Short

By TOM RIORDAN

Grab a mug of Mocha Java with whipped cream on top, pull up that soft cushion over there and plop down while Candy Forest of Chicago does a little folk singing.

You're spending your first evening at The Stage in Adrian, a club established last spring by two Tecumseh couples in what once was a used furniture store.

The originators, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dalton and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Murray, tell you their spot offers "live, professional entertainment in a unique atmosphere."

That's so true.

There are no alcoholic beverages, only exotic coffees and fancy soft drinks. Nothing is sold while the entertainers perform.

Room is provided for about 100 guests and you note nearly all are seated on cushions behind long, low tables right on the floor.

A few [illegible] are arranged on benches along the outside perimeters and right away you see "[illegible]" — from 40 up — hustle for these places.

You recognize the good-looking ticket salesman and master of ceremonies, who sports a bright red vest, Hal Weakley of Tecumseh.

As you wiggle a little to get comfortable on your cushion, your eyes become accustomed to the low lighting — and wasn't that fun when you cracked a shin on an unseen bench in the shadow.

The walls have been neatly done in burlap and feature a string of paintings and objects d'art.

★

THEN, handsome Hal is bounding onto the tiny stage and welcoming the evening's guests. He tells you a little about Candy and then invites her to the mike.

She's an accomplished singer with a lovely vibrant voice and strokes her guitar with a gentle touch. Candy is also a pretty fine stand-up comedienne.

Looking about the room, she tells of arriving in Detroit on a flight across Lake Erie from Cleveland, where she had completed a song date the evening before. A rather anelent airplane brought her over the waves of Erie.

"The little man who sold me the ticket turned out to be the pilot, too. He took off one hat, stepped out of the ticket booth, put on another hat and headed for the ship.

"He began to shake one wing and I told the people I was with if he wiggled it one more time the darn thing would probably fall off," grinned Candy, obviously relieved that she didn't end up in the lake and found herself swimming to Adrian.

As an extra tidbit, you discover that Thursday is "hoot night" which means amateur talent is welcome to do a guest set between Candy's appearances.

The L Trio of Adrian features Barbara Luke as vocalist and she turns out to be exceptionally talented, backed up by Dave Lane and Dick Limbacher on guitars.

Cin and Star, two Adrian volunteers-to-entertain named Cindi Kidd and Sarah Freligh, weren't nearly as good, being suddenly struck with the fact they were in the spotlight and it's not like harmonizing in the kitchen.

But even so, the audience listended attentively and applauded with genuine enthusiasm when the girls concluded a number.

You chuckle as Jamie MacWilliams of Tecumseh takes over for a set, wondering if he was going to do his old standby, "How Ire-Got Its Name."

But Master MacWilliams surprised with "I Fell in Love With a Bunny at the Playboy Club."

Jamie is growing up.

But the funniest part comes as he chatters along what you overhear his mother whisper to a friend, "Why doesn't he stop talking and sing?"

★

IT WAS a fun-filled evening and as you chat with kids from Tecumseh like Penpy Davis, Mike Walter, Bob Hart, Melissa Sage, you learn that The Stage is highly-regarded as a place to spend an evening.

Once an entertainer showed up in unwashed beatnik fashion. He was asked to go take a bath, wash his hair and then would be welcomed back.

You gather The Stage is an upgraded version of The Coffee House, "a place where you can send the kids and never be concerned.

Besides that Mocha Java, there are other wild coffees — French Maple, Black Walnut, Dutch Almond, Irish Clover, German Vanilla, Bermuda Rum.

As you step out the front door of The Stage you make a mental note to suggest to friends that they'd enjoy an evening there — any Thursday, Friday, Saturday or Sunday night.

Add Monday to that for the Labor Day weekend.

FOLK SINGER CANDY FOREST ENTERTAINS AT THE STAGE AS GUESTS PERCH ON PILLOWS BEHIND LOW, LONG TABLES

OK, Moms, You're Free

Parents rejoice!

The 1965-66 session of the Tecumseh Public Schools starts Tuesday and with another record enrollment anticipated.

Last year, the schools topped 3,000 for the first time. It is almost a certainty that when the official enrollment is taken Oct. 1, Tecumseh's total will go over the 3,300 mark.

School starts at 7:45 for the secondary grades, and at 9 a.m. for the elementary. Bus supervisor Mike Anderson says bus runs for the elementary will be approximately the same time as last year.

Transportation for the secondary schools will be about 15 minutes earlier. Only late change in the school day schedule is the noon hour for the first six grades. Instead of 11:45 to 12:45 [illegible] 12 to 1 p.m.

Construction and [illegible] of two portable classrooms at the Sutton School has not started, but school officials have been promised that the two units will be ready for classes by late September or early October.

A third grade originally assigned to one the units will meet the first few weeks in the basement at the Tecumseh Public Library.

See Guidance Director

Neville Hart, Tecumseh High School principal, emphasizes time and place to pay book and locker fees to newcomers to the community.

Mr. Hart requests that new students see Guidance Director John Pobuda this week. His office will be open from 1 to 3 p.m. Thursday, and from 8 a.m. until noon and 1 to 3 p.m. Friday.

Those entering grades nine through 12 will meet in the gym at 7:45 a.m. Tuesday, when book and locker fees of $8.50 will be collected.

Pupils will then secure their class schedule cards from their advisors. They may leave at this time unless they are to take prognostic tests for algebra or foreign language.

These tests will be given according to the following schedule:

Algebra Prognostic Test — Sept. 7 — 9 a.m., Room 38.

Foreign Language Prognostic Test — Sept. 7 — 10:00 a.m., Room 38.

Pupils are to return at 1 p.m. Tuesday and go to the gymnasium for a general assembly and orientation period. Regular classes will begin the next day at 7:45 a.m.

Pupils enrolled in physical education should be prepared to pay a $1.50 fee for towels and locker at the first meeting of their physical education class Wednesday.

Chemistry and biology students should be prepared to pay a laboratory fee of $1.50 and chemistry students an additional fee of $1.50 for equipment which will be refunded if there is no breakage.

Products Worker Dies Aboard Plane

A machinist from Tecumseh Products Co., Charles Lane, 406 S. Maiden Lane, died aboard a Northwest Airline plane as it sped between Seattle and Chicago Saturday.

Apparently a heart attack victim, Mr. Lane, 65, was returning from the west coast with his wife.

Feminine Golfers Take Over Club

Two male golfers strolled onto the 10th tee, obviously unhappy at discovering a gals' twosome was playing in front of them.

Bill: "Wouldn't you think they would let us through when they're so slow? (Shouting down the fairway.) For gosh sakes, sister, hit the ball!"

Charlie: "Let's face it, Bill, we've been having trouble with them ever since they fed us the apple. We vote — they want to vote. We drink — they want to drink. We smoke — they want to smoke. We start golfing — now they want to golf. What next?"

Bill: "I suppose it'll be our locker room next because I understand theirs is too small. Kick them off the course."

Charlie: "Well, I don't think we'd have to go to these lengths. you know they say over in Japan women make excellent caddies."

Bill: "Say, I never thought of that. I wonder if I could teach my wife to . . . ? Naw, she'd be yakking all over the course."

★

LAUGHTER engulfed the place as 200 folks watching "My Fairway Lady" at Tecumseh Country Club Saturday evening chortled in delight.

Charlie Butler and Bill Hanna were portraying the roles of unhappy husbands in a skit about golf from a stage in the dining room which resembled a regular tee.

The golfing wives were Mrs. Robert Bowers and Mrs. Al Merz. The club pro was Bill Keith of St. Petersburg, Fla., and a regular visitor to Tecumseh during the summer.

The pro joined the frustrated men on the tee and tried to sooth their nerves: "You shouldn't be harsh with the girls. Don't forget there was a woman behind every great man."

This prompted Charlie to shout, "That's exactly where they should be — behind us!"

★

THERE WERE a variety of songs in the program, bearing a marked resemblance to a famous Broadway musical, like the one sung by Mrs. Bowers to the lilt of "Wouldn't It Be Loverly?"

"Wouldn't it be just simply great
"Not to swing like a rusty gate?
"To drive them long and straight.
"Oh, wouldn't it be loverly?
"No more hacking from spring to fall.
"No more searching for my lost ball.
"And no more slice at all.
"Oh, wouldn't it be loverly?"

★

IN A MOCK of "With a Little Bit of Luck," Bill vocalized:

"You shouldn't talk when someone else is putting.
"You should be quiet when someone else is putting, BUT "With a little bit of luck, with a little bit of luck
"You can sneeze and he will pardon you."

Climax of the zany show comes when the pro teaches the women new skills and bets the men the gals can beat them.

That's the way the match turns out and how the fellows moan. Charlie does it in song, a la "I Could Have Danced All Night."

"I should have sunk that putt
"And gotten down in five."
"I never knew that green was so deceiving.
"Til all at once my ball took flight.
"Til ever hear the end
"Of this sad day, my friend.
"I should have sunk that lousy putt!"

★

IN THE finale, the cast joins in a ballet, concluding:

"No matter what the score,
"You're always back for more,
"It looks like golf is here to stay."

The entire production was punctuated with gales of laughter. Even Mrs. Robert Moore, who changed the cards which announced the scenes, got her share.

Mrs. Herb Dillon provided piano accompaniment.

Gerald Hale Participating in Cruise

NEW LONDON, CONN. (FHTNC) Aug. 23—Coast Guard Cadet Fourth Class Gerald L. Hale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hale of 108 Evans Creek Dr., Tecumseh, is participating in an annual two-week cruise from the Coast Guard Academy in New London, Conn.

This year's cruise began Aug. 20 and will include training exercises in the South Atlantic and port visits to Hamilton, Bermuda, Yorktown, Va., and Narragansett, R. I.

The cruise will end Hale's "Swab" summer training in science, history, seamanship and Coast Guard orientation, which is designed to prepare him for the academic year beginning in September.

JERRY HALE

St. Elizabeth Starting at 9

St. Elizabeth School will start at 9 a.m. daily for all pupils including junior high and will conclude at 3 p.m.

The Regional MEA Institute will be Nov. 4 and 5 in Ann Arbor.

Union Votes To Extend Negotiations

A 15-day extension on contract negotiations between Tecumseh Products Co. and the Products Workers Union pushes the deadline for agreement to Sept. 15.

The additional two weeks was OKed by Union members at a mass meeting last week.

★

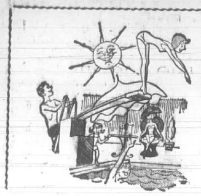
At the same time, workers voted 1,272 to 80, that if the new contract is not ratified at that time they will strike.

In its 31-year history, the Products has never had a strike.

Couple Celebrates 50 Years Sunday at Open House

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn L. Kemp of 4314 N. Adrian Hwy. will observe their golden wedding anniversary with an open house Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m. in the Tipton Congregational Church.

The Herald story with their photo last week neglected to mention that the couple wish to have gifts omitted.



BEHIND PAGE ONE

Fisher Body hourly folks in Tecumseh are getting a 2c per hour cost-of-living salary raise next week, along with 410,000 other GM employees.

Still time for youngsters to earn a bike or transistor radio by selling subscriptions to The Herald. All last week's end we had the honor of presenting bikes to seven youths. To score, kids need 15 new subscriptions for bike and 10 for radio. Campaign continues until Sept. 11.

Last weekend's long john weather prompts us to note that the Red Flannel Factory in Cedar Springs has some fetching garb, will probably furnish the cold-blooded with catogs.

Cat Lovers of America, Tecumseh Chapter, will no doubt be calling on our Marda Gene Duncan, after reading her column this week.

Boy! The Lenawee license plate looks real good when you are traveling on an expressway or any other highway miles from home. A Sand Creek couple happened to bounce along Route 80 in Iowa with their family in a station wagon the same day Dorothy and Lyle Grigg came that way last week.

Latest Labor Department statistics relating average lifetime income with the level of educational attainment reveal that:

- Persons having less than a grammar school (eight years) education will have life-time earnings of $143,000.
- Those with a grammar school education will earn $184,000.
- High school graduates will make $247,000.
- Individuals with some college education will get $293,000.
- College graduates will earn $417,000.

"Christianity that DOES nothing, COSTS nothing, and SUFFERS nothing is WORTH nothing."

Word of the week — corundum. In "Touch of the Past" it sez, Albert Southworth found the stuff on his farm in Raisin in 1875. Webster sez corundum is the hardest mineral except the diamond, an excellent abrasive.

Turnips, turnips and more turnips. Neil DePuy, 708 Ternes Rd. is a vegetable gardner for sure. He brought two huge turnips, one 18½ inches around, to The Herald office Tuesday and said that anyone who would like some need only furnish the bag. He has about 20 bushels and is home most of the time.

How come department — our favorite brand of hot dogs suddenly takes on the flavor of unknown filler ingredients in spite of the fact that they have raised the price from 49c to 55c in recent months. Since beef prices to the farmer are only about 2c per pound higher than a year ago, this seems a bit out of line.

Others also loved St. Peter's Church. Mable Lockwood met a Jackson resident on her recent trip to Alaska while they were en route via the inland passage. The gentleman remarked to her that he thought Tecumseh a pleasant city, he remembered especially the beautiful old church with the white pillars on the north entrance.

So live that you won't hesitate to be the first woman to leave the bridge party.

You would swear she couldn't do it, but our aunt — the traveling one — writes as much on a picture postcard as she did when the postage was only a penny.

Moderation should not be practiced to excess.

Middle age is not a prestige age. It's only an average between the 18 you feel tonight and the 118 you'll feel tomorrow morning.

Our first clue has arrived about the mysterious letter reported in The Herald last week about the Tarantula spider. Mrs. Margaret Van Vorst stopped in the office to say that her nephew, David Burns, 9, reported the incident mentioned in the letter.

"What shall I wear?" said one excited little lady when told that she had succeeded in earning a bicycle and it was waiting for her at The Herald office. The happy girl was Diane Schooley, daughter of the Herald's Linotype operator Bill Schooley, who became the first girl to win a bike in the Earn-a-Bike subscription drive sponsored by The Herald.

Special holiday traffic patrols will be operated by the Michigan State Police during the 78-hour Labor Day weekend, from noon Friday to midnight Monday.

Paul Klanke was the driver of the Assembly of God bus which struck the pony last week in front of the William Powell residence. Paul Speer, who was earlier reported driving the bus, is attending the General Motors Institute in Flint.

Bill Lamson and his wife saw falling snow in Tecumseh at 7:10 a.m. Saturday. When asked if his glasses could have been fogged up, Bill said he didn't have his glasses on at the time. He was looking out the window of his shoe repair shop toward the fire barns on Evans St. when it began — lasting about five minutes. Mrs. Lamson also saw the same phenomenon from their apartment window.

Tecumseh Players Sponsoring Dance to Get Acquainted

The Tecumseh Players will hold a get-acquainted dance entitled "Footlight Frolic" at the Odd Fellows Hall Sept. 11 from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

The dance is open to the public and anyone who would like to learn more about the local thespian group is cordially invited by The Players to attend.

"Not everyone is interested in acting, so don't let that frighten you away," Mrs. James Vanzo, a member, said.

Besides dancing to the refrains of a dance band, there will be a floor show with members of the group displaying their talents.

Tickets may be purchased from any Player member and more information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Robert Bagdon, 423-7375 or Mrs. Howard Gentry, 423-3625.

Tipton Jets Meet Saturday Evening

TIPTON — The September meeting of the Tipton Jets 4-H Club will be held Saturday, at 7:30 p.m. in the basement of the Tipton Community Church.

A flower gardening demonstration will be given by Rosalie Sypcher, Martha Osburn and Karen Buell. A freezing demonstration will be given by Pat Bolz.

Reports of projects are due and election of officers will be held. The committee in charge of the recreation is Ann, Paula, Gary and [illegible] Moeller a[illegible] Turlukowski.

The refreshment committee is Mr. and Mrs. Don Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turlukowski and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones.

Visit in Ohio

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bigelow have returned from visiting friends and relatives in Bluffton and Fairborn, Ohio and Decatur, Ind.

NEAT GREETING — Three young men take a look at the sign which adorned a tree in front of the Ogland Lay home, 215 W. Brown St., welcoming the family home from vacation. Viewing the sign shortly before the Lays arrived back in Tecumseh were Bruce Smith and Mike Murphy (standing) and Denny Puffer. The Herald had to do a little detective work to find out that the "arteeeeeeeeests" were Mr. and Mrs. Rusell Cheever, Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs Barber and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Andrews.

Couple Views Mock Wedding at Shower

A mock wedding created much hilarity at a miscellaneous shower given recently in the Youth House of the First Baptist Church honoring Diana Green and James Bashore. The young couple will be married Sept. 11.

As Miss Green and her husband-to-be entered the reception room, a corsage of baby pink rosebuds was pinned to her shoulder and a white carnation was placed in his lapel.

★

COMMITTEE members including the mother of the groom wore white and pink sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Eddie Kirkland, mistress of ceremonies, opened the festivities by leading group singing accompanied by Mrs. James E. Danforth.

Mrs. Danforth sang "I Love You Truly." Then exemplifying "from the sublime to the ridiculous," Mrs. Kirkland announced that a wedding would take place.

As Mrs. Katharine Hunt played "Just Before the Battle, Mother," Mrs. Mel Partridge proceeded to the platform as the bride where she was awaited by her husband, the groom, and the Rev. Bashore, both attired in flannel shirts and Mel with a Grandfather Amos felt hat.

Mrs. Partridge made her own costume of lace curtains and she carried a brown paper bag with her trousseau inside which also included a red flannel night shirt and some Shredded [illegible] for Mel.

★

REFRESHMENTS were served as Miss Green and Mr. Bashore opened many gifts and were extended good wishes by more than 100 church members and friends.

A centerpiece of pink and white chrysanthemums flanked by crystal candle holders were presented to the couple by the Women's Society who hosted the colorful event.

Mrs. Orville Bishop, president, and her officers, Mrs. L. Sisson, Mrs. C. O. Baily, Mrs. Thomas Gallant Jr., Mrs. Thomas Brooks and Mrs. Kirkland made arrangements for the shower.

Mrs. Harold Kelso, Mrs. John Surratt, Mrs. Robert Montgomery adn Mrs. Carl Fosbender, Kathleen Butler served the refreshments.

George Sipel Wins Fleet Race Sunday

George Sipel Jr. captured the Commodore's trophy Sunday in the Lightning Fleet 31 race at the Devils Lake Yacht Club.

Geoffrey Moehl placed second and Steve Benz was third in the event. Dick Stanbridge won the Captain's trophy with Dr. Jim Reynolds second and Ed Engle third.

Clinton Woman Has Herald, Vol. 1, No. 32

By MAXINE CALHOUN

Mrs. Ralph Halladay of Clinton has a priceless antique — a copy of the first Tecumseh Herald, dated June 5, 1851.

The masthead reads:

Volume 1, Number 32.

L. G. Sholes & Co., Proprietors.

Devoted to Literature and Science — Progress and Truth — Morality and Religion.

Terms: One Dollar and Fifty Cents.

The handset front page is completely devoid of any Tecumseh news, composed almost entirely of poetry and stories from other publications.

Stories include "The Pig in Cincinnati," "Life in Mississippi" and a sketch dubbed "Love in a Cottage," all rather rambling essays.

★

CENTERING the page is a 10-stanza verse written in memory of Albert Fillmore Pennington, infant son of Isaac and Mary Pennington of Macon, who had died two years before the paper began publishing.

It was because of this poem and its meaning for the Penningtons that the paper was treasured carefully in a muslin bag by Mrs. Pennington and was kept by a daughter, Anne Mary, who in later years became Mrs. Will Richmond.

The copy was found 87 years later, in 1938, when Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Halladay went to live in the Richmond house on Clinton-Macon Rd. in Macon. Dr. A. H. Brown of Tecumseh lives there now.

Mrs. Halladay has preserved the paper by placing it under glass in a large frame. It can be seen at The Herald office for the next two weeks.

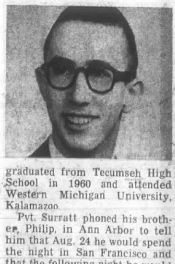
★

MRS. HALLADAY says that the Isaac Penningtons were to know further sadness years later when their second son met an untimely death at the age of 25.

Callers at the home months afterward told of seeing the withered funeral bouquets, still standing in the parlor. At the dining table there was a place still set for the deceased son.

Anne Mary Pennington, the only surviving child, was a graduate of Tecumseh Union School in 1871 and attended the Raisin Valley Seminary.

Pvt. Paul Surratt Completes Course



FORT BELVOIR, Va. (AHTNC) — Pvt. Paul R. Surratt, son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Surratt of 203 N. Union St., completed a 16-week topographic computing course at the Army Engineer School, Fort Belvoir, Va., Aug. 23.

During the course Surratt received instruction in basic engineer subjects, with emphasis on map and aerial photograph reading, computations and elevation adjustments.

Surratt entered the Army in February and completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

The 22-year-old soldier was graduated from Tecumseh High School in 1960 and attended Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo.

Pvt. Surratt phoned his brother, Philip, in Ann Arbor to tell him that Aug. 24 he would spend the night in San Francisco and that the following night he would be in Tokyo, Japan.

Local Auto Dealer Attends Preview

Harvey Wilson, owner and president of Wilson Motor Sales on W. Chicago Blvd., and Seaton Warren, salesman at Wilson Motors, attended a preview showing of the 1966 Imperials, Chryslers and Plymouths in Detroit Tuesday.

The cars were unveiled in an original Broadway-type musical revue, "1966 Swing Up," featuring a cast of 13 singers and dancers.

The two went as members of the Detroit Region of Chrysler-Plymouth dealers. This was their first look at the new cars.

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

"The kindly Mr. Riordan" has done it again. Started the bicycle campaign, I mean, and The Herald office is flooded with starry-eyed youngsters and their parents.

Gregory Downard, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Downard earned one of the nine spanking new bikes given to date in this year's drive.

Seems like Herald bikes are getting to be a traditional in the Downard family. Greg's brother, Doug, earned a bike in the 1960 event when he was seven. "Now," Mrs. Downard remarked, "Christopher is next, he's only three."

DLYC Schedules Party Saturday

To celebrate the 25th anniversary of Devils Lake Yacht Club, the Commodore, Mr. Clem Houtz has proclaimed a party for Saturday.

There will be a social hour at 7 p.m. The dinner will feature steaks, broiled over an outdoor charcoal grill by some of the 'old timers'.

The Rhythmaires will make the music for dancing. The chairman, Barney Crittenden is sending a special invitation to all of the charter members.

Sharon Russell Married to Charles Fretwell

Nuptial vows were exchanged Sunday afternoon, by Sharon Gay Russell and Charles LaVerne Fretwell in the Lola Park Evangelical Lutheran Church in Detroit.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Worth Russell of 16123 Pomona Dr., Detroit.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Fretwell of 311 E. Shawnee, Tecumseh.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edward Zell, pastor of the church.

A prelude of nuptial music was played by the organist, Stephanie Grigsby. She accompanied the soloist, Margaret Westendorf.

The bridal gown was fashioned by the bride's mother, of white crystal peau de soie with a sleeveless bodice and modified bell skirt. The Chantilly lace jacket had elbow length sleeves.

A crown of matching Chantilly lace held the bride's veil of silk illusion. She wore pearl earrings.

★

SHE CARRIED a cascade of white roses and stephanotis.

Patricia Schwede of Tecumseh was the maid-of-honor. Linda Oakley of Detroit and Ann Bremer of Bay City were the bridesmaids.

The bride's attendants were gowned alike in pastel yellow peau de soie styled like the bride's with a sleeveless bodice.

Their headdresses were matching veiled circles of peau de soie with a bow in front. Their colonial bouquets were formed of chrysanthemums in shades of yellow, orange and bronze.

The best man was Larry Flowers of Tecumseh. The bridegroom's attendants were J. Michael Fretwell of Adrian, brother of the bridegroom, and Alex Backus, Jr. of Tecumseh.

★

THE GUESTS were seated by Steven Fretwell of Tecumseh, brother of the bridegroom, and David Grainger of Dearborn, brother-in-law of the bride.

A reception dinner at the Kenwood Inn, Detroit, was attended by 150 guests.

Following a four-day trip in northern Michigan, the couple will be at home at 707 Cross St., Ypsilanti.

The bride is a 1964 graduate of Michigan Lutheran Seminary and is attending Eastern Michigan University.

Mr. Fretwell is a 1961 graduate of Tecumseh High School. He attended Jackson Junior College and graduated from Eastern Michigan University in August. He will be teaching fourth grade at Smith School in Plymouth this fall.

A buffet luncheon in the home of the bride's parents preceded the rehearsal.

MRS. CHARLES FRETWELL

Pamela Eastwood and Van Flanders Are Married

Pamela Eastwood and Pvt. Van R. Flanders were married at the Lakeview Baptist Church in Ypsilanti Saturday while the groom was on an en route furlough to Fort Lewis, Washington where he will attend missile school.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne R. Eastwood of Ypsilanti and Mr. and Mrs. William M. Flanders of 305 Miami Ct.

The Rev. William Laudermich performed the ceremony and Gerald Bartlett provided organ music.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father in a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace. She wore pearls at her throat and carried a bouquet of gardenias. Her veil was made of nylon net.

Linda Womack of Madison Heights, cousin of the bride, served as maid-of-honor and the bridesmaid was Janice Eastwood, sister of the bride. Bonnie J. Flanders, sister of the groom, was the junior bridesmaid.

Brian Stafford of Ypsilanti carried the rings. Michael L. Eastwood, brother of the bride, was best man and the 225 guests were seated by Gary Flanders, brother of the groom.

★

A RECEPTION was held at the church immediately following the ceremony and then there was an open house at the Flanders' home in Tecumseh.

Guests attended fror Chicago, New York City, Rome, N. Y., Karnak, Ill., Grosse Pointe and Madison Heights.

The bride is a graduate of Ypsilonti High School and her husband is a graduate of Ann Arbor High School and studied two years at Cleary College before entering the army.

The couple will live in Seattle, Wash.

No Parents Night After Pool Session

Because of the Labor Day weekend, there will not be a parents night at the pool following the current session.

After school starts next week, the pool will be open from 3:30 to 5:30 in the afternoon and from 6:30 to 8:30 in the evenings, weather permitting.

The regular pool hours will be observed during the weekends.

Dr. Harry M. Currier's office will be closed until 9 a.m. September 8.

MRS. DALE DOWNS

Carol Green Exchanges Vows with Dale Downs

Carol Ann Green, former Tecumseh resident, became the bride of Dale E. Downs Aug. 21 in a double ring ceremony performed by Dr. James W. Wright at the First Methodist Church, Kalamazoo.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George E. Green, Jr. of Three Rivers, formerly of Tecumseh. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Russell L. Downs of Grand Rapids.

The bride's silk organza over taffeta gown was fashioned with a scoop neckline, fitted bodice, a controlled skirt and Alencon lace.

She wore a mantilla bordered with matching lace, and carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids, ivy and stephonotis.

Mrs. David D. Carter of Kalamazoo was matron-of-honor and bridesmaids were JoAnn and Gloria Green, sisters of the bride.

★

ALL THREE wore floor length sheath gowns of pale yellow crepe featuring the empire waistline and bell sleeves. They carried cascade arrangements of cymbidium orchids and ti leaves.

Dawn Marie Downs of Grand Rapids, niece of the groom, was flower girl.

Russel L. Downs, Jr. of Grand Rapids was his brother's best man and ushers were Frederick S. Faiks of Grand Rapids and Kenneth F. Homrich of Kalamazoo.

Russel E. Downs, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

Following a buffet reception in Carver Center, the couple left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls.

★

THEY WILL make their home in Utica after Sept. 1, where Mr. Downs is a teacher in the Utica school system.

Those attending from Tecumseh were Mrs. George Green, Sr., Mrs. Viola Marks, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Baily, Mr. and Mrs. Dow Bilby, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Barron and Jana, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Driscoll and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lowe and Katharine and Beth.

Carol Coffey, Taylor Harvey Wed Saturday

The altar of St. Peter's Episcopal Church were filled with long arrangements of white gladioli and yellow chrysanthemums for the wedding Saturday of Carol Susan Coffey to Taylor C. Harvey.

Traditional seven-branch cathedral candelabra with lighted tapers and faced with greens, yellow satin bows and natural palms enhanced the setting.

The gold prie dieu was flanked with large lighted circular candelabra faced with white and yellow blooms. Single entrance candles were used at the white carpeted center aisle.

The Rev. Frank Hawthorne performed the ceremony. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Coffey of Adrian and Mrs. W. W. Ring of 704 W. Chicago Blvd.

★

THE BRIDE wore a floor length gown of delustered satin and Venice lace with fitted bodice and long tapered sleeves. Alencon lace appliques trimmed the scoop neckline, waist and back, extending to the full chapel train.

Three tiers of shoulder length bridal illusion were caught to a pearl crown with tear drops of crystal. She carried white Snow Song roses and stephanotis, outlined with miniature ivy.

Cynthia E. Harvey of Washington, D. C. served as maid-of-honor. She wore green Fuji chrysanthemums centered with Golden Tiara roses.

Beth Emrick and Janice Sullins of Adrian were the bridesmaids, each carrying mint green Fuji chrysanthemums, backed with a bow of moss green velvet ribbon.

★

Scott Harvey of Ann Arbor was best man for his brother and the 150 guests were seated by Gary Elliott, William Sturdevant and Steven Ring, also a brother of the groom.

Yellow and gold colors were used at the United Products Workers Union Hall where the reception was held.

Yellow tulle and gold taffeta draped the bride's table, and the serving tables were flounced with the same colors and centered with candle arrangements, based with flowers. Smilax was used to edge the tables.

The bride attended Adrian College and Wayne State University and the groom attended Central Michigan University and Adrian College.

Both are employed at the Tecumseh plant of the Fisher Body Division of General Motors. Their home is at 514 W. Chicago Blvd.

GUEST HOOTERS — Cindi Kidd and Sarah Freiligh of Adrian were guest hooters at The Stage last week—and dig those bare feet. "We're more at ease without shoes," the girls giggled. Amateurs are welcome to entertain each Thursday evening. They always get warm welcomes.

OBITUARIES

● KENNETH L. CALLENDER

Services were held Saturday in Blissfield for Kenneth Callender, 58, who died Thursday at Bixby Hospital where he had been a patient for four weeks. He had been in ailing health for six months.

A veteran of World War II, Mr. Callender was an employee of the Tecumseh Products Co. for 19 years.

Born in New Kensington, Pa., April 19, 1907, he married Ruth Gafner Jan. 2, 1943.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by a son, Kenneth L. Callender, Jr. at home.

Burial was in Pleasant View Cemetery.

On Private Property

Four of seven accidents checked the past week by the Tecumseh police occurred on private property.

Carlo Mobley, 77, of 508 W. Pottawatamie St. ad Richard A. Fritz, 16, of 6908 N. Adrian Hwy., bumped as they pulled into Ed's Standard Service on N. Evans St.

Paul Sparks of Brooklyn and Douglas DeGood of Adrian had a minor scrape in the parking lot at Bud's A&W Drive-In.

Robert B. King, 49, of 411 Adrian St., reported to the police that his car rolled forward after he parked it, and broke a glass window at the All-Day All-Night Laundromat on W. Chicago Blvd.

Robert J. MacLean of 401 W. Brown St. and Bradford C. Meyers of Adrian were involved in a mishap at the H. W. Tuttle Co. parking lot when Meyers backed into MacLean's car.

In other accidents, Snow W. Kelly, 80, of 418 Adrian St., was cited Thursday for making a left turn in front of another vehicle driven by Lowell R. Selders, 33, of 7590 N. Adrian Hwy.

Percy Kelly, 91, of Manchester, was taken to Herrick Memorial Hospitaly with minor injuries.

Friday, Charles E. Miller, 25, of Ottawa Lake was charged with improper backing after his truck rammed a parked car owned by Edith Mae Hayford, 27, of Manitou Beach.

Virginia L. Dollison, 44, of 402 Herrick Park Dr., was cited for improper backing when she hit a passing auto driven by Grace E. Rehberg, 76, of 307½ N. Pearl

Civil War Relived Twice on Weekend

Robert Lenheiser of 1018 River Acres Drive will be among those of the Fourth Michigan Infantry of Dundee and the Third Michigan Artillery of Jackson to host units at a Civil War Skirmish this weekend at Frontier City.

This will be the largest Civil War demonstration ever staged in the Mid-West, with over 40 eight-man teams firing live minnie balls in their muskets at breakable targets.

They will be dressed in colorful Union blue and Confederate gray uniforms with unit flags displayed.

Adding to the re-living of the colorful historical event will be many shooters in Indian and frontier costume using flintlock and percussion firearms. Women and children in period costume will also be present.

★

SHOOTERS WILL fire for high individual scores Saturday. Five-man team matches using original Civil War carbines will highlight the day.

An impressive full dress parade and flag raising ceremony will be held Sunday, at 11 a.m. immediately followed by musket team match shooting.

Sgt. Lou Capek and the 19th Michigan Infantry of Bangor will demonstrate with their Gatling gun. This machine gun was developed during the Civil War and is capable of firing several hundred rounds per minute.

Many Civil War cannons will be fired in competition Sunday afternoon.

Climaxing the day's events will be a mock Civil War battle with Confederate troops, trying to drive the Union Troops out of town and take over Frontier City.

Bachelor's Degree to Former Clinton High School Grad

Mrs. James R. Crane of 1000 Senate Dr., Lansing, nee Carolyn Tonneberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Tonneberger, received her BA degree in social science Aug. 26 at Adrian College.

Mrs. Crane is a 1961 graduate of Clinton High School. She plans to accept a social work position in Lansing.

'Face the Music'

The Devils Lake Drive-In concludes the 1965 season with the film "Face The Music" featuring Thurlew Spurr and the Spurlows.

Gals Drive Friday Night at Speedway

MANCHESTER — Manchester Speedway will kick-off its Labor Day racing with a combined men and women's destruction derby.

According to owner Veryl Schill, women drivers have never competed in this event before and so far three are entered.

Another feature of Friday night's race will be the 15-lap duel between five top cars from Manchester and five Canadian autos.

Driving from Manchester will be Don Earles, Dick Crup, Chuck Winkle, Jim Martin and Ed Hage.

Sunday will be the Labor Day Trophy Races with the winners in every event receiving a trophy in addition to money.

Time trials Sunday will begin at 6 p.m. and the highlight of the evening will be a 35-lap feature race.

Racing at the Speedway was caceled last Friday because of the rain, so the cars raced Sunday.

WHEN DOES 1+1+1=1 ?

Answer: when you replace three or more separate fire-theft-liability policies with ONE Homeowners Policy from The Hartford Insurance Group. This outstanding package of protection gives you all-around coverage . . . greater convenience . . . probably can save you money. See us today for details.

BILL HOLMES
1965 Tecumseh
Country Club Champ

Two familiar faces reign as golf champions at Tecumseh Country Club.

Pharmacist Bill Holmes regained the club crown, defeating Paul Clauda, 13 down with 11 holes to go in a 36-hole match Sunday.

Mr. Holmes captured his first club laurels in 1963, shortly after moving to Tecumseh.

In the women's championship match, Mrs. Robert Bowers stopped Mrs. Clifford Collins, 5 and 4, to repeat as club title holder.

Winners in other flights:

MEN

FIRST — Charlie Butler defeated Gordon Esch of Saline, one-up on the 18th hole.

SECOND — Bill Powell defeated Brick Dean of Dundee, 6 and 5.

THIRD — Karl Welch of Toledo defeated Howard Johnson of Saline, one-up on the 18th hole.

FOURTH — Merlyn Downing defeated Bob Winder of Clinton 7 and 5.

WOMEN

FIRST — Mrs. Merwin Blanden defeated Mrs. William Davis, 3 and 1.

SECOND — Mrs. Al Merz defeated Mrs. Bill Snook, one-up in 19 holes.

THIRD — Mrs. Vern Manwaring defeated Mrs. Ray Anderson, 7 and 6.

All winners and runnerups will receive trophies at a presentation dinner, scheduled for next Monday night. Frank Rice is in charge.

Fagan Plans Scrimmage for Indians Saturday

A coach from another Huron League school once remarked, "Tecumseh could lose its entire football team and still be too tough the next year."

Coach Tom Fagan would refute this appraisal, and probably violently. This may be the year to see which one is right.

With only seven lettermen returning, Fagan has more positions to fill with inexperienced gridders than ever before. The entire starting backfield from both offensive and defensive units graduated in June.

Four offensive linemen must be found to succeed others who picked up diplomas, and linemen, linebackers and safety men for the defensive unit must be found.

The Tecumseh mentor has a small nucleus to build around: linemen Ron Bolz, Mark Blatchford, Henry Mensing, Gordon Gibson, Ron Forsythe and Bill Chandler. Doug Hall is the sole returnee who lettered in the backfield.

These lettermen and size — the Indians are big — are the only pleasures the Indian coaching staff can boast of.

"We're way behind compared to this time last year," remarked Fagan Tuesday morning. The experienced '64 squad was loaded with lettermen and went on to post an 8-1 season.

All backfield positions are up for grabs with Hall and Roger Young, track star, slightly ahead for regular roles. Young has impressed the coaches in early drills.

Fagan said the coaching staff will have to sit down and evaluate the players before determining which player will play where.

An intra-squad scrimmage may help the coaches in their selections, and also give some of the candidates an opportunity to prove their worth.

A tri-scrimmage is scheduled for late next week against Dundee and Jackson Northwest. Date, time and place for the scrimmage has not been settled.

Parachutes To Blossom on Weekend

The Michigan Sport Parachuting Council has chosen the Tecumseh Airport to be the site of the First Annual Michigan Sport Parachuting Championships to be held Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

Between 400 and 500 jumps are expected to be made with the first jump each day starting at 10 a.m.

Don's Beef Buffet and the Bucket Bar in Clinton will sponsor the ever-[illegible] Chuting Angels as hosts.

Pat Murray assistant instructor for the Chuting Angels recently received a trophy for making his 1,000th jump.

The new location for the Chuting Angels is the northwest corner of the airport. It can be reached by using the south entrance of Jerry's Market on Tecumseh-Clinton Rd.

4-Week Migrant School Teaches Reading, Health

RIDGEWAY — Michigan Migrant Opportunity, Inc. will conclude a four-week youth education program for migrant and ex-migrant children in the Britton and Tecumseh area this week.

The school has been held at the Britton-Ridgeway Methodist Church in Ridgeway with 25-30 students in attendance each day.

Merell Soldwin has been in charge of the Ridgeway School under the direction of Robert Jones, regional director, and Harris Jackson, service coordinator, with headquarters in Blissfield. The four counties included in this region are Monroe, Lenawee, Eaton and Ingham.

Michigan Migrant Opportunity, Inc., is an organization established by a grant from the federal government through the Economic Opportunity Community Action Program.

MMOI is sponsored jointly by the Michigan Council of Churches and Michigan Catholic Conference and is 90 per cent funded by the federal government.

THE PURPOSE of MMOI is to upgrade the education, health and living standards of migrants and ex-migrants throughout the state.

This year youth education programs have been established in Blissfield, Ida, Erie, Temperance, Adrian, Eaton Rapids, and Ridgeway. These programs are primarily geared to reading, writing, and arithmetic with health education stressed.

★

Adult education classes are being formed with one class to be held in Tecumseh. A large number of people are being reached with adult education in Erie with an attempt at making English the number one language instead of Spanish.

Recreation, counseling, housing, legislative education, and health and nutrition are offered in addition to reading and writing.

Michigan Migrant Opportunities, Inc., is not sponsoring a give-away program but a community action program where migrants and ex-migrants are encouraged to help themselves by becoming more conscientious and involved in community activities and civic responsibilities.

MMOI has been set up for a two-year duration, after which it is hoped that community groups will accept this responsibility.

★

MOST OF THE schools have certified teachers and volunteers as assistants. Lenawee Migrant Ministry has acted as coordinator between volunteers from area nished hot lunches for the youth churches and MMOI.

The following churches furnished education program held in Ridgeway as well as volunteers to act as teacher assistants:

Macon Methodist, Ridgeway Church of the Nazarene, Ridgeway-Britton Methodist, Lambertville Methodist, Clinton Methodist, and in Tecumseh, Missionary Baptist, Gloria Dei Lutheran, St. Elizabeth's Catholic, First Methodist, First Presbyterian, St. Peter's Episcopal, Tecumseh Friends' and several Adrian churches.

Various churches have been cooperating with the Lenawee County Migrant Ministry in the Britton area by sponsoring family nights, park parties at the Britton Park, Sunday evening worship services at the Britton-Ridgeway Methodist Church, sewing classes and rummage sales.

SIMILAR activities have been conducted in the Blissfield area. The county migrant ministry activities have been under the co-direction of the Rev. Richard Hofmann of Blissfield and Mrs. Charles Bishop of Tecumseh.

The four college students working in the county as staff members for four years are Roland Price from British Honduras, Lois Kellenbenz of Golden, Colo., Aaron Ambrosier of Mexico City and McKinley Young of Atlanta, Ga.

TEACHER FROM KINGSWOOD-CRANBROOK — Dean Sousanis, who is one of instructors in migrant school at Ridgeway, is a science teacher at Kingswood-Cranbrook in Bloomfield Hills. He holds a master's degree from the University of Michigan.

Walter Millers Back from Trip Through the West

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Miller and daughter, Jeanette of rural Britton returned home Friday night from a three-week tour of the Western States.

They visited the Badlands, Black Hills, Mount Rushmore, Glacier National Park and traveled down the entire coast of California.

They also visited the Rev. and Mrs. Ibew in Portland, Ore., their former pastor here at Emmanuel Lutheran Church. They spent a day at Disneyland and went on down to Tijuana, Mexico.

They visited Grauman's Chinese Theater in Hollywood, Calif. and spent some time with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Karcher, a cousin of Mr. Miller, in Monrovia, Calif.

They also went to see the Las Vegas, Nev. strip.

Pat Eberhardt Guest-of-Honor at Bridal Shower

BRITTON — Pat Eberhardt was the guest-of-honor at a miscellaneous bridal shower Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. T. Claxton.

The assistant hostesses were Mrs. Willard Exelby, Mrs. Archie Spohr and Mrs. Donald Judd.

The 22 guests were seated at tables covered with pink cloths and centered with arrangements of pink petunias and overlooking the Claxton's beautiful flower garden.

Bridal games were played and prizes were won by Mrs. William Raeburn, Mrs. Milton Porter and Betty Lutton.

"Nothing" was served for dessert, with coffee and punch. "Nothing" is reported to be the name of a new whipped cream concoction.

Out-of-town guests were from Tecumseh, Adrian, Deerfield and Detroit. Miss Eberhardt's wedding will be Sept. 25, at St. Elizabeth Church in Tecumseh.

Back to Normal

BRITTON — The Congregational-Christian Church will resume its regular Sunday morning service Sunday at 10:30.

Sunday School will be at 11:15.

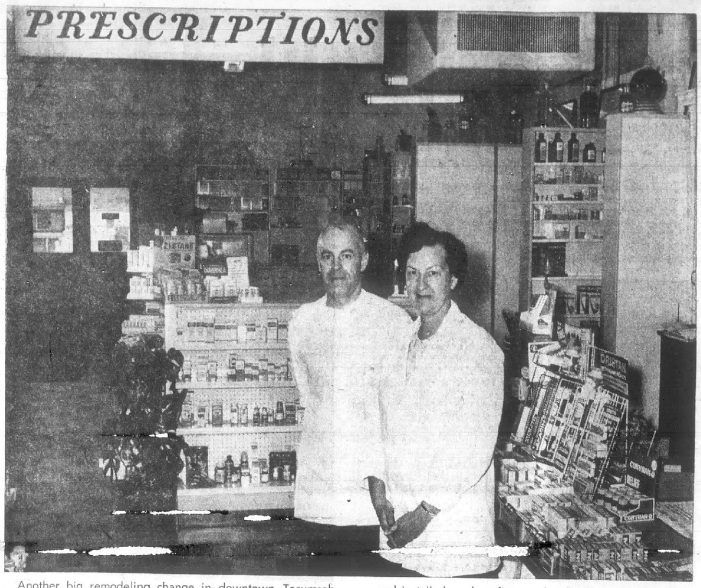
Changes in Tecumseh



Another big remodeling change in downtown Tecumseh shops was recently completed at Wright's Drug Store. Owners William and Ruth Wright modernized their pharmaceutical department, eliminated an old soda fountain and installed modern fixtures for displaying books, magazines, cards and other items. Much of the store was redecorated. Wright's was established in 1846 and is one of the oldest stores in this area.

City Couples at Caberfae for Weekend

Mr. and Mrs. Al Merz of 9251 Tonnebergen Rd., and Mr. and Mrs. J. Richard Gates of 9716 Tecumseh-Clinton Rd., spent the weekend at Caberfae Lodge in Cadillac as winners of the "Operation Open Door," sales contest for Michigan dealers.

Mr. Merz is an International Harvester dealer and Mr. Gates is an International Motor Truck zone manager.

At the Friday night dinner Mrs. Merz entertained the 90 guests with a solo from her part in "My Fairway Lady," held Saturday night at the Tecumseh Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Merz left the lodge early Saturday afternoon to return to Tecumseh for the performance at the Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Gates returned Sunday.

Britton Board Grants Contracts to Two Teachers

BRITTON—The Britton School Board approved the contracts for elementary teacher June VanCamp and science teacher John Evans, Jr. at the August meeting.

The two new additions reduced the unfilled positions to three. Still needed are teachers for mathematics, girls physical education and a librarian.

In other action the board granted a five per cent increase to the bus drivers.

The board discussed the cafeteria equipment that is needed and decided to accept bids from three companies handling the equipment.

The monthly bills amounted to $4,005.73 and the board passed a motion to pay them.

Topic Concerns Delinquent Youths

"Delinquent Youth: A Primary Concern" is the topic of the meeting of the WSCS of the First Methodist church Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Carl Hale will have charge of the program and Mrs. Fred Nash will be the hostess for the evening.

Show Off Homes

MARSHALL — Long known for its beautiful homes, Marshall will again permit the tourist a view inside some of its gracious mansions.

The annual Historic Home Tour is scheduled for Sept. 11. This tour, which last year drew over 2,000 people, is sponsored by the Guild Council of Trinity Episcopal Church, under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Christner and Mrs. Peter Houghton.

The homes selected for this year's tour reflect an excellent cross-section of the many historically-unique homes to be found in the Marshall area. All of them are recognized as exceptional examples of period architecture and most are well over a century old.

Perhaps the most imposing and stately of the homes to be shown is the residence of Harold C. Brooks, 310 N. Kalamazoo, foremost authority on early Marshall history.

★

BUILT IN 1838, only eight years after the founding of Marshall, this home is sited on a high knoll overlooking the town and is a classic example of Greek Revival architecture.

Some of the other gracious homes to be featured include:

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Paul P. Brown, 1110 Verona Road, a square-bracketed Italian Villa; the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nyal W. Deems, 222 W. Mansion, which is modified Victorian with the Queen Anne influence; the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter C. Sisserson, representing the elegant Gothic revival period; and the home of Mr. William Trupiano, one of the oldest homes featured and noted for its early cottage-type appearance.

In addition to the above homes, also on the tour will be Trinity Episcopal Church, built in 1861, and the famed Honolulu House, home of the Marshall Historical Society.

GREEK ARCHITECTURE — The residence of Mr. Harold C. Brooks, is one of the finest examples of Greek Revival architecture in the United States. Built in 1839 by Jabez S. Fitch, it is one of the five homes to be featured on the annual Historic Home Tour, to be held in Marshall, September 11th.

Jolly Farmers Meeting Topic about Pesticides

"Pesticides — How Liable is the Farmer?" was the topic of discussion led by Herbert Willmoth at the meeting of the Jolly Farmers Farm Bureau Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Young.

Members reached the conclusion that the farmer is liable if he fails to store the pesticide in a secure place, if he fails to dispose of or clean up containers and mixing equipment or if he uses higher concentrations than prescribed by directions.

The farmer is also responsible for his employees when they are applying the pesticide and for dangerous conditions which he does not remove.

Members voted to retain the present slate of officers for the coming year. Ice cream and cookies were served by the hostess.

Tipton Grange Meets Friday

TIPTON — The Tipton Grange will meet Friday at the Grange Hall at 8 p.m.

After the business meeting the food tent supplies will be taken care of. Members are to bring sandwiches and cake or Jello.

Air Force Cuts Basic Training to Four Weeks

Sgt. Thomas Foulds, Air Force recruiter for Lenawee County, announced that the Air Force basic training had been cut drastically to accommodate the increased input of Air Force enlistees and prepare for the added Air Force objective for fiscal year 1966.

A modified two phase concept is being applied to basic military training. In the first phase the basic airmen complete 22 days of their training at Lackland AFB, Tex.

The second phase is accomplished at the technical training center to which they are assigned. This phase is an additional eight days of training, at the end of which they normally receive their first promotion to Airman Third Class.

The technical training centers to which they may be assigned and where the second phase is completed are: Amarillo AFB, Tex.; Chanute AFB, Ill; Gunter AFB, Ala.; Keesler AFB, Miss.; Lowry AFB, Colo.; and Sheppard AFB, Tex.

Sgt. Foulds states that this new concept has eliminated the main delay in processing Air Force applications and removes any future possibility of a lengthy waiting list.

Special Offering To Aid Migrant Ministry Program

A special offering for the migrant ministry program in this area will be [illegible] morning following the morning worship service at the First Methodist Church.

Vera Gilbert, chairman of the Christian Social Concerns committee of the church, announced that this offering will be used to support the work being done in the Ridgeway Methodist Church.

Daily instruction is given to the children of the migrants and also those connected with the anti-poverty program in this area.

Approximately 40 persons are served hot lunches daily at the school. Aiding in this program will be the proceeds from a rummage sale to be held Sept. 11, at the Ridgeway church with a park party the following day.

Anyone wishing to contribute to this special offering will find a collection plate in the back of the sanctuary.

Station Operators

TIPTON — Frank Keeney and Ron Roe began operation of the Standard station and the adjoining garage Wednesday.

They will specialize in automotive, electric and light repair service in addition to handling Standard Oil products.

VOICE of THE HERALD

A Day for All

Labor Day is everybody's day — for almost everybody does some physical or mental toil, bodily or intellectual exertion. It may be the newspaper delivery boy making his daily round in the neighborhood. It may be a typical mother's day, where the 40-hour work week is unknown. It may be a composer working on a symphony. It may be the work of the military sweating-out the insect-infested swamps of Vietnam.

When Labor Day was first celebrated in New York in 1882 under the sponsorship of the Central Labor Union, it became the day set aside for commemoration by organized labor.

However, today, Labor Day, in a broad sense, is dedicated to all those in the work force, skilled and unskilled, white collar and blue, educators, artists, and members of all the professions.

Labor, of course, is not limited to brawn alone. Labor of the mind is exemplified by the men of science; labor of the spirit is epitomized by the religious, and labor of the heart is personified in the work of medicine and social service, among others.

Therefore, let us pause during Labor Day in tribute to the opportunity in America for physical, mental and spiritual work, the responsibility each entails and above all else, the pleasure to be derived from work that is well-performed.

Few Have Read It

Excerpts from "Christopher News Notes"
Uphold the Declaration of Independence

Any attempt to eliminate the Declaration of Independence would bring indignant protests from tens of millions. But the Declaration may become a "dead letter" if too many people forget or ignore its basic truth: that each person derives his rights from God and a chief purpose of government is to protect those rights.

Facts to be faced:

► Few Americans have ever read the Declaration — only 1321 words long — even though it explicitly sets forth the principles that are the cornerstone of our nation's freedom.

► Fewer, still, appreciate that without the Declaration, which strongly affirms the divine origin of human rights, the Constitution and Bill of Rights lack a clear, profound basis.

► It is up to you to help reverse this dangerous trend — to make facts like these known in your home, church, classroom, shop, office, organization:

The Signers of the Declaration of Independence did not act only for themselves or only for the three million inhabitants of the 13 colonies. They had a burning desire as well to secure the God-given freedoms of generations yet unborn. Consequently they willingly endured amazing trials and hardships.

Here is personal testimony from two Signers indicating how well they realized the tremendous risks that all 56 were bringing upon themselves:

The night before the Declaration was adopted, John Adams of Massachusetts wrote his wife: "I am well aware of the toil and blood and treasure it will cost us to maintain this Declaration."

William Ellery of Rhode Island made it a point to watch his fellow signers affix their names to the document. "I was determined," he said, "to see how they all looked as they signed what might be their death warrants."

Richard Stockton of New Jersey sacrificed his post as chief justice of the state Supreme Court by becoming a signer. He was betrayed, dragged from his bed and thrown into prison by the enemy. His private library, one of the finest in the land was burned. His thoroughbred horses were stolen and his farm laid waste. He died prematurely, at 51, broken in health by his mistreatment in prison.

John Morton of Pennsylvania died eight months after signing the Declaration, ostracized by relatives and friends. His dying words were: "Tell them that they will live to see the hour when they shall acknowledge it to have been the most glorious service that I ever rendered to my country."

Don't let your car look like this after the Labor Day Weekend. With millions of motorists expected to be on the highways for the summer's last holiday, increasing emphasis is placed on smart, safe driving. Remember, it is the safe driver who avoids becoming an accident statistic.

Obituaries

● CHARLES A. LANE

Services were held Tuesday for Charles A. Lane, 65, of 406 S. Maiden Lane who died aboard a Northwest Airlines plane Saturday morning.

Mr. Lane was on his way home from visiting a daughter in Washington State and was pronounced dead of an apparent heart attack when the plane landed at O'Hare International Airport in Chicago from Seattle.

Mr. Lane was born March 10, 1900, at New Carlisle, Ind.

He married Margaret Bissel at Bonner's Ferry, Idaho Nov. 25, 1920.

Mr. Lane was employed at the Tecumseh Products Co. for many years, retiring in February 1964.

He had been in failing health for the last two years.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Robert Jacob of Parma, Mrs. Paul King of Ashford, Wash., and Mrs. Paul Bame of Tecumseh and 10 grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by a daughter in infancy, two brothers and a half-sister.

The Rev. Blair Bashore officiated and burial was in the Lenawee Hills Memorial Gardens.

● NORMAN U. SNEDECOR

Services were held in Chinook, Mont. for Norman Snedecor, 68, who died Saturday there at his residence.

Mr. Snedecor was a nephew of Mary, Ellen and Lavie Snedecor, 125 W. Brown St. and Glenn Snedecor, a patient at Herrick Nursing Home.

He spent several winters in Tecumseh and was employed at the Tecumseh Products Co.

The son of C. Lee and Imo Sisson Snedecor, he was born in Adrian, living there until the family moved to Montana in 1903.

They were engaged in ranching, later working in the bee business.

Mr. Snedecor continued in the honey works for several years after the death of his father.

Mr. Snedecor returned home last Wednesday from a hospital where he had been a patient for several weeks, suffering from a heart attack.

He was a member of the Chinook Assembly of God.

Visit Disneyland

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Adams have returned from a 12-day vacation trip by plane to Los Angeles, Calif., where they visited their daughter, Kay. While there they visited Disneyland, the Wax Museum and other sites along the West Coast.

Live in Apartment

Mr. and Mrs. John Baker are living in an apartment at the home of the Clifford Adams. They moved there Aug. 1.

Indian Film To Be Shown at Church

"The Unknown Indian," a color film will be shown at the Assembly of God Church Sunday at 9 a.m.

The 28 minute film portrays actual living conditions of the Indians of the Southwest.

Willard Cantelon cartoons famous Indian personalities of the past, and shows the contrast between the Indian of the warbonnet and paint and the Indian of today.

★

SOME OF the dramatic scenes show the rough rider's last ride, an Indian child bitten by a rattlesnake, the chant of the medicine man and the triumph of the Christian faith.

The film closes by showing the work of the missionary, in some cases improvising a language for the people, then teaching them to read and write.

The Rev. Harold Speer, pastor of the church, is extending an invitation to the public to attend.

The Rev. Speer remarked that 80 per cent of the Protestant missionary work done among the American Indians is being done by Assembly of God Churches.

Pythian Sisters Meet Wednesday

The host committee for the Pythian Sisters meeting Wednesday, will be Mrs. Harry Schuck, Mrs. Duncan Oliphant, Mrs. Fred Marsh, Mrs. Neva Jacobs and Mrs. Robert Wood.

Meetings will be held the second and fourth Wednesday of the month at 8 p.m. at the Pythian Home.

NOTICE

BOARD OF APPEALS MEETING
Wednesday, September 15, 1965
8:00 p.m.

There will be a meeting of the Board of Appeals to review the appeal of Frank I. Horton, 747 N. Union St., regarding an addition to the front of the house at this location.

All interested persons are invited to be present.

Sure, I'm proud and thrilled! Who wouldn't be?

It was quite a surprise, believe me, when CITGO selected my station as an On-the-Job Training School for new managers of our company outlets. There were only two out of more than 1,000 CITGO stations in southeastern Michigan, which is part of the Cleveland Zone, selected. Sure, I'm proud and thrilled, and I'm determined to continue offering the finest service possible when you bring your car to my station.

IN THE WAKE OF A SONG

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Carols in the night . . . the old story made ever new again . . . the love for the Christ Child, poignant, deep . . . the nostalgia of past Christmases remembered.

In the wake of a song, "Silent Night, Holy Night," all this comes to mind. And we endow Christmas with the trappings of holly and mistletoe, the flash of bright red ribbons, the glitter of the tinsel on the tree.

Yet, south of the Equator, Christmas comes in mid-summer. There is no holly, no mistletoe, and there's not apt to be a tree. But it is Christmas just the same.

This is not merely a season, this time of the birth of Christ. It is much, much more. To understand it fully . . . to see it in its entirety . . . turn to the Church.

Loans Are Available

The Farmers Home Administration Office serving Lenawee, Washtenaw and Monroe Counties has moved its office from Ann Arbor to Saline, 111 S. Ann Arbor St.

The telephone number will be 429-7782.

This change makes the office more readily excessible to the three counties.

FHA makes available to qualified rural people a variety of loans and farm management services.

Supervised loans are extended to individual persons for:

- ► Family operations;
- ► Farm purchase and development;
- ► Rural housing;
- ► Emergency credit needs;
- ► Purposes authorized under the Economic Opportunity Act.

The opportunity loan program is part of the President's war on poverty and provides loans up to $2,500 to low-income farm and rural families to develop farm enterprises or business services that will bring added income.

News from the Tecumseh Library

New books at your Public Library:

FRED ALLEN'S LETTERS, edited by Joe McCarthy. The distilled wit, sometimes warmhearted, sometimes biting of one of the century's great comedians.

ELIZABETH, QUEEN AND MOTHER by Graham Fisher; the story of Queen Elizabeth II and the British royal family; a warmly human story of the woman who must play two widely divergent roles.

IT'S YOUR COMMUNITY; what to do, how to do it, and what you can do to make your town a better place to live in. All across America, our communities have been changing and growing with unprecedented speed, too often with untold damage to our surroundings. Potentially the most powerful constructive influence, that of the private citizen in his own community, is seldom felt because he does not know what he can do nor how to do it.

YOUR HUNDRED BILLION DOLLARS by Jacob Rubin. About $100 billion have been spent since the inception of the various forms of foreign aid programs, but the general public that made these vast amounts available has not had an opportunity to learn what this money has accomplished in faraway lands. This is the purpose of the author. The scores of photographs add a special dimension to the text illustrating vividly what words can convey only in a limited way.

Two currently popular plays:

FIDDLER ON THE ROOF and LUV MARS by Robert S. Richardson; a leading astronomer and a distinguished painter present a definitive view of Mars, including recent findings, historical facts and fancies, and speculations on future explorations.

12 reasons why you've got a good thing in our HEATING OIL

LENAWEE FUELS NOW OFFERING:

(1) Immediate Delivery of Storage Tanks and Pumps to Farms.

(2) Summer Savings on Fuel Oil Fill-Ups Now. Save $$$

(3) Insured Payment Budget Plans

(4) 24-Hour Burner and Furnace Maintenance Service

1. SAFE — PURE Heating Oil is safe because it must be vaporized or atomized mechanically before it can burn.
2. CLEAN — PURE Heating Oil moves through your burner and is completely consumed in the sealed combustion chamber. Your chimney is the only outlet from the combustion chamber. Oil heat creates no film, ashes or dirt.
3. SURE — No supply lines to break down . . . no cold-weather pressure drop to chill you. Your storage tank holds weeks of warm, safe, clean heat.
4. CUSTOM-MADE—Pure Oil is scientifically refined to give you more heat per dollar. It's crystal-clear — made clean to burn clean clear through.
5. AUTOMATIC—Just set your thermostat and your oil burner does the rest. We keep your tank supplied with Heating Oil — always — automatically.
6. CERTIFIED VALUE — Your Heating Oil delivery ticket is stamped by a regularly inspected and certified meter. You only pay for the oil you receive.
7. EASY-TO-CHECK BILLS — No complicated formula is needed to compute your bill as with other kinds of fuels. The price per gallon multiplied by the metered number of gallons delivered, plus state sales tax, gives you the cost of any delivery.
8. FITS YOUR BUDGET — You can pay for your Heating Oil in three ways: monthly charge account, budget payment plan, or pay the driver on delivery.
9. FREEDOM OF CHOICE — When you heat with oil you can choose your own source of supply. You are not restricted to one supplier.
10. PRICED BY COMPETITION — Heating Oil prices are arrived at by competition, not by government legislation. Regulated fuel prices show a continuing upward trend and are rising seven times faster than heating oil, according to government figures.
11. $150 IN YOUR POCKET — "Convert", says the salesman. But a safe, approved conversion to the other automatic fuels costs $150 and up. You may never recover your $150 — and, think of the many important advantages you would lose.
12. LOW COST — Any way you compare it, oil heat is a bargain. You get more comfort, safety and dependability for your oil heat dollar than from any other fuel.

YES, you can depend on 'round-the-clock, season-long comfort with crystal-clear PURE Heating Oil. It's made clean to burn clean clear through.

Nebraska's Tecumseh Is on Rt-50, Too

(Editor's note — Herald Woman's Editor Dorothy Grigg and her husband, Lyle, made a vacation trip to Nebraska in mid-August. They were off to Beatrice to find former members of the 35th Division, Nebraska National Guard outfit with which Mr. Grigg served in World War II. Once in the Cornhusker State, Dorothy discovered they were going right through Tecumseh. So, naturally, the Griggs stopped.)

By DOROTHY GRIGG

TECUMSEH, Neb. — "Where are my Chieftains?" asked the irate fifth-grade teacher, Mrs. Esther Phillips.

Snickering, I looked up from my task of wrapping several of the weekly papers in question and almost expected to see our own Jack Metcalf answering the lady.

The situation was so similar to many instances in our own Tecumseh, except for the name of the pupil. Mrs. Phillips had been in Portland and Seattle most of the summer and now that she was home, her hometown news was high on the desire list.

We entered Tecumseh, a city of 1,890 population, on Nebraska Rt. 50 — a coincidence even though that Rt. 50 runs north and south.

The homes are old and rambling with large sweeping lawns and as we entered the business district we were surprised with the size of it.

Built with brick streets on four sides of the court house in the city square, there are many more business places than we have. A familiar Tecumseh Office Supply stood out.

Heading immediately for the newspaper office, we were brought up short by a penciled sign on the door, "Vacation Closing — August 16-21."

They meant it too, no amount of searching brought up the editor, Maurice Stull.

A Minnesota car and another were parked in the drive at his home, but a neighbor informed us that the Stulls were really out of town.

We got a current issue of The Chieftain, which was established in 1896. Anyone interested may read it at The Herald office.

★

WAYNE McCOY, clerk at the Johnson County Court House, and Deputy Harlan Rengstorf, gave us considerable information about the town and directed us to Chris Kuster, a retired postmaster, the town historian.

From Mrs. Kuster (he was fishing) — we learned that there are five cities named Tecumseh in the United States, Kansas, Oklahoma and Alabama, besides Michigan and Nebraska.

Our own Tecumsehites know of the one in Canada.

The gracious Mrs. Kuster stopper her catsup making and showed us her back lawn, which adjoins the beautiful public swimming pool. She and her husband have recently given an adjoining lot to the city to be made into a park.

The Kusters celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in May by taking an extensive trip to Alaska. It was Mr. Kuster who wrote the history of Tecumseh, Neb. for the centennial celebration there in 1956. In it he told how the town got its name. It seems that Col. Johnson, for which the county was named, was supposed to be the one who killed Chief Tecumseh.

★

CURIOSITY abated, we left the delightful quiet farm town, much like our Tecumseh used to be in the 1930's.

But before going we talked with friendly Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Olsen. He told us the obvious — they are Swedes — and that he was sheriff of Tecumseh for 12 years before his retirement.

Only industry in the town is a Campbell factory, where chickens are killed and the meat prepared for shipping to Omaha for canning.

One worker — 70% are women — blasted the theory that the chicken only "walks through the soup" when she said that she had helped bone about 23,000 pounds of chicken in the eight-hour shift she had just left.

The county hospital has about 30 beds.

It was a pleasure to spend a day in Tecumseh, Neb., built at the crossroads of the first overland trails to the West.

1,000 Attend Convention for Cities

GRAND RAPIDS — More than 1,000 municipal officials from over 200 Michigan cities and villages will gather here for the 67th Annual Convention of the Michigan Municipal League, Sept. 15-17.

Tecumseh Mayor Harold Easton will represent his city with Cal Zorn, city manager, as delegate.

Mayor Jerome P. Cavanaugh of Detroit and newly-elected President of the National League of Cities will be the keynote speaker Sept. 15.

His remarks will kick-off a three-day series of general sessions, workshops and affiliated organizations' meetings.

Gov. George Romney will appear at the opening luncheon.

State 4-H Show Began on Monday

EAST LANSING — Michigan's top 4-H event, the 50th annual State 4-H Show began activities Monday at Michigan State University.

More than 3,000 4-H'ers from Monroe to Ironwood brought nearly 5,000 exhibits to the MSU campus.

Ever since the World War II years when the Michigan State Fair was suspended, club members have staged their own state finale on the MSU campus. While some of the inevitable fair flavor is evident, the show emphasis is on education. The clubsters represent nearly 80,000 4-H boys and girls across the state.

The state's top 4-H member award, delegate to the National 4-H conference in Washington, D.C., next April will be made to four outstanding [illegible].

Some 40 others will be selected for an educational trip to Chicago later [illegible] few will be named as Michigan representatives to the National 4-H Club Congress in the windy city next November.

Citations will be made to "Friends of 4-H", 4-H alumni and veteran 4-H leaders.

Folk Festival in Blissfield Seeks Talent

BLISSFIELD — This community's first Folk Song Festival, planned as a benefit for the Mary Magdaline Student Loan Fund, looks like it will attract a lot of teen-age talent.

Scheduled for Saturday night, Sept. 18, in the gymnasium of Blissfield High School, tickets already are on sale at The Clinton Local and The Tecumseh Herald as well as The Blissfield Advance and The Stage in Adrian.

Among the folk-singers who already have agreed to appear at the Blissfield affair is Audrey Wight, a freshman this fall at the University of Michigan and daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin E. Wight of Clinton.

AUDREY WIGHT

She made a guest appearance last week at The Stage, backed up by the guitar-playing of Allen DeLoach of Blissfield, who also joined her in a couple of duets.

Sarah Mellon of South Lyon, who made an earlier appearance at The Stage with other "hooters" of amateur status, also is coming to sing in Blissfield.

David Clawson of Toledo, who has sung in hootenannies with the DeLoach clan, is a banjoist of no mean ability who also will appear.

So will Ron Follas of Sylvania, a [illegible] and music student at Bowling Green State University, who is recruiting some of his friends to appear with him as a combo at the Folk Song Festival.

OTHERS are being contacted for auditioning, among them a quartet from Hudson, and some folk-singers attending Adrian College.

It is hoped that all of Lenawee County will be represented before the full repertoire is posted.

Headliners, of course, will be the Toronto team of Roberta Corey and Jim Tait.

Tecumseh, Britton or Clinton youths who would like a spot on the program should [illegible] DeLoach at The Advance in Blissfield.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

CATS

My aim is not to offend any of our "cat owning friends," but the time has come when we must discuss an unpleasant situation. Here at the west end of Logan St. we are being overrun by cats.

They are everywhere — never in the many, many years we have lived in our little gray and white house at the edge of Evans Creek has the neighborhood been so full of wandering felines.

Most of them are tramps. I believe. They slink in, find a good thing and take up residence. Unfortunately, cats and pretty birds do not mix well.

In fact, birds that are not even pretty, do not get along well with cats. Since we encourage birds to come visiting, sneaky cats are definitely persona non grata.

★

WHAT DO WE mean by cats being everywhere? Just listen. One of their favorite stopping places is under the bird feeder just outside the window.

Occasionally we have even opened the drapes in the morning and found a sneering cat on top of the feeder. It is surprising how much "pounding upon" a large sheet of glass will take without breaking.

I have never liked cats. They are cold and not to be trusted. They give me shivers. After seeing a cat on or near the feeder and then spotting a fist-full of blood stained feathers in the yard — well, this does nothing to change my opinions.

I will grant that some people — some misguided people — like cats and, of course, that is their business, or problem. I just wish they would keep them away from us.

★

ANOTHER favorite stalking ground is along and on the creek bank. Just the other day we were enjoying the antics of a robin furiously scratching through the leaves when suddenly, from under a nearby bush, pounced a would-be murderer.

By the last barbule on his tail did the robin escape. Needless to say, there was little bird action there for the rest of the day.

Our large honeysuckle bush, the clump of barberry by the drive and the yews beneath my west window are being changed from places of food and shelter into death-traps for the birds.

Cats lurk beneath them and often, in the morning when Mom takes Dad to work, they surprise cats who have apparently spent part of the night prowling around the shrubbery.

Unfortunately, several of the cats are pets. They are sleek and well-fed — and let's not think upon what — anyway, their friendliness indicates that they belong to someone.

It is almost impossible to chase them out of the yard, they would rather play than run. Again, why don't people keep their pets at home?

★

AND THIS will stir up a hornets nest, but it is something about which I have often wondered. We, who have dogs, must try to keep them under control, we must buy licenses for them and have them vaccinated against rabies.

Why are there no regulations for cats?

Why are they allowed to run wild?

Of course, two cat incidents have afforded laughs. The morning we watched one chase squirrels into the wren tree — that was funny because the cat was hopelessly out-classed.

We also enjoy the blue jays when they spot a sneaky destructive feline. The uproar is beautiful, they scream and holler alerting everyone to the danger.

So it is that we have had our troubles lately with uninvited and unwanted and unappreciated visitors — cats

Spanish Speaking Americans Theme of WSCS Meeting

MACON — Spanish speaking Americans was the theme of the WSCS meeting Aug. 24.

Mrs. Willard Wedemeyer, who opened the meeting, had several items that her daughter brought back from her month's stay in Mexico City.

Assisting Mrs. Wedemeyer and Mrs. Robert Osborne in presenting the meeting were Mrs. Paul Hover, Mrs. Andrew Goodin, Mrs. Edmund Mueller and Mrs. Bernard Tucker.

Mrs. Hawkins read "Religion Should Be the Motor of Life." An invitation was read from the Clinton Woman's Society to a silver anniversary dessert luncheon Oct. 5 at 1:30 p.m. Reservations should be given to Mrs. Hawkins by Sept. 30.

The societies of Clinton, Tecumseh, and Britton-Ridgeway will be invited to the week of prayer and self-denial in October.

Mrs. Ray Williams gave a report on the migrant program. Mrs. Herman Mehler and committee served dessert in the dining room. Roses were used in decorating the tables.

14 Youths Plus Their Counselors Attend Retreat

MACON — The Rev. and Mrs. Ronald Corl and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Ruhl were counsels for the Youth Fellowship Retreat at the Waterloo Re... area Aug. 27-29. The following Macon Youth attended:

Pamelia Haines, Diana and Deanna Reece, Judy Mueller, Mary Harsh, Lorraine Ruhl, Julie Hewlett, Susan Sally, Bob Haines, Ricky Ruhl, Don Reece, Larry Santure and Toby and James Scudder.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry also work with the youths but were unable to accompany them.

Surgical Nurses Sought by Army

EARNS HIS BIKE — Kids who sell Herald subscriptions have their choice of bike style they can get for signing up 15 new customers. William Jennings, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jennings, 1104 Willow St., said he wanted this standard model. Junior salesmen can also get English racers, either in girl's or boy's models. The Earn-A-Bike campaign continues until Sept. 11. Incidentally, youngsters can get a neat nine-transistor radio for selling 10 new subscriptions.

THE LANSING REPORT FROM senator GIL BURSLEY

Michigan's State Scholarship Fund, which it was my privilege to sponsor last year, is now entering its second season with a program tripled by the Legislature.

Scholarships are for tuition only up to a maximum of $800 or actual tuition, whichever is lesser. Students may select the Michigan college of their own choice.

For a legislature it is very gratifying to receive letters from able and needy students who win grants. Recently I met a charming young lady who had won an award and was headed for Siena Heights College on a day I was conducting a Senate Citizen Session in Blissfield.

For 1965-66 a total of 15,057 students took tests to win awards under this program, and 9,847 were adjudged qualified. So far 2,842 scholarship winners have been announced. A total of 785 high schools participated with 609 having at least one winner.

Four-fifths of the students elect to go to a public college or university although only three-fifths of the money goes to these schools due to the higher tuition rates of private colleges.

Lenawee County had 85 students taking tests and has about 35 receiving awards.

Washtenaw County had 300 students participate with 225 qualified and about 50 thus far receiving awards.

The University of Michigan was first choice of most students with 800 winners. Eastern Michigan had 42. Thus far Adrian has eight and Siena Heights nine. The Lenawee institutes also have about 20 second-year award winners back from last year.

The State Scholarship Fund is administered by the Michigan Higher Education Assistance Authority which also handles a loan program to students. Average loans at Adrian College are $735; at Eastern Michigan $642 and at the University of Michigan $830. Siena Heights has the available unused loan funds.

There are also federal loan funds available to students on which I would be happy to answer inquiries.

NO NEWSPAPER LOVES TECUMSEH LIKE THE HERALD.

329 million miles of driving experience have produced these tips for a safer Labor Day.

The drivers at the GM Proving Grounds in Michigan and Arizona have learned quite a bit about safe driving in testing our Chevrolets, Pontiacs, Oldsmobiles, Buicks and Cadillacs. Here's how they'll be putting some of this experience to work when they take their families out on the road this weekend:

First, they'll probably plan their trips a little more carefully than the average motorist. They'll look over maps. Check the weather ahead. And though they're expert drivers, they don't like snarled roads any better than you. They'll try to leave when there's less traffic. They'll try to avoid cities at rush hours. And they'll take freeways whenever they can. (They've found them not only time savers, but safer.)

Driving is their No. 1 job

During the week, when these drivers run a test on a GM car that requires a lot of gauges and charts, another technician goes along to handle these things. On weekends, too, driving is a full-time job for them. Their wives will act as navigators, checking maps and road signs; and if there's a backseat full of kids, they're the navigator's job, too.

Another thing that GM test drivers do on the job is wear seat belts at all times. In our Impact Sled tests and in crash barrier and rollover tests, they've seen how vital the wearing of a belt can be. It's a cardinal rule on any proving ground—and it's just as important on weekends.

They're not supermen

Though they're among the best on the road, GM test drivers are realists about themselves and their cars. They've had too much experience running tests on proving ground "brake pads" to have any illusions, for instance, about being able to "stop on a dime." They know that at 40 mph, it doesn't take twice as long to stop as at 20 mph—it takes four times as long.

Experience on special "skid pads" has taught them the value of anticipating trouble before it happens. When potentially dangerous situations practically scream "slow down," they're the first to do so.

If you could watch their eyes in a rearview mirror, you'd see them always moving. Always sweeping back and forth across the road, taking in the mirror every few seconds, too. Never staring.

They make rest stops every hour or so. Switch drivers every few hours. Keep the front vents or a window open for fresh air. They wear sun glasses on bright days, but never at night. To break monotony, they vary speeds, listen to the radio, talk, maybe even sing.

They "float" with traffic

Another way GM test drivers keep out of trouble is by "floating" with traffic—keeping up with the prevailing speed of the other cars on the road. Usually they'll start out early in the morning, stop by late afternoon. Eat lightly along the way. Check their tires every once in a while to keep a slow-leak puncture from becoming a flat on the highway.

One more thing about freeways: these drivers who are used to high-speed durability tests for hours on end are keenly aware of the way that sustained speed can dull perception in judging distances. They know that it takes a conscious re-adjustment when you get back on ordinary roads.

You and your family

The car, the road, the other guy—all these factors affect safe driving. But these drivers know that they themselves are the single most important safety factor their families have going for them this weekend.

The same goes for you—and your family. You'll be the single most important safety factor going for your family this weekend.

We hope these next few days will top off a wonderful summer for you. Just remember that Labor Day is a time for taking it easy—especially behind the wheel of a car.

General Motors Proving Grounds

GM cars are proved all around the clock, all around the calendar, all around the country, all around the car.

LOCAL BUSINESS

North Americans have been criticized for consuming too much. At the same time, government economists are saying that the key to prosperity in Latin America is to convert the mass of people into consumers.

It is significant that mass-advertising has never been utilized in an under-developed country. Countries which have progressed most rapidly since World War II — Germany and Japan — have adopted and even excelled North American advertising and sales methods.

It is difficult to prove which comes first, development or advertising. Perhaps it is a seesaw process. But certainly people who desire better material goods will work harder and employ more ingenuity to obtain them than those who only have a passing wish to obtain the goods.

In addition to creating desire, North American advertising, especially at the retail level, removes the aura of dreaming from the possibility of ownership. Importantly, good retail advertising tells the prospective consumer how he may pay for a new product.

This often means installment buying, a form of consumption which frugal people often find difficult to accept. Yet installment buying is often more economical than saving and cash purchasing. It may provide a needed product at a of most value to the consumer.

cheaper than rent price, and at a time when the product is

Good advertising helps to create wealth by putting goods into use where they will be of more value than the consumer investment.

Joseph C. Satterthwaite has been appointed station agent for the Southern Michigan Railway here.

1875

James Elliott has purchased the blacksmith and wagon shop formerly owned by James Pencil on Railroad St.

H. J. Snell and D. T. Fargo have opened a lumber yard north of the Hayden warehouse.

Albert Southworth has discovered a bed of genuine Corundum on his farm in Raisin.

1885

The new brick house of Horace Eaton east of town is nearly completed replacing the old one which burned down in 1894.

1905

An eclipse of the sun is scheduled for Aug. 30.

The post office has announced there will be no more rural mail deliveries Feb. 22, Decoration Day, July 4, Labor Day or Thanksgiving.

J. Benjamin Swan and daughters have arrived here from California to make their home.

Ross Biddle of Macon has harvested 91 bushels of oats from 100 pounds of seed sown.

Mrs. Addie Kemp of Tipton has been made Grand Chief of the Pythian Sisters at their recent state convention in Saginaw.

1925

Jennie Gillespie, R.N., has taken the position of general assistant and laboratory technician in the office of Dr. P. B. Hardy.

1945

A new modern fire truck has been purchased by Tecumseh Township to replace the outmoded equipment now in use. It will be housed in the village fire barn and manned by the village fireman. It will answer both rural and town calls when needed.

Bruce Foundry & Manufacturing Co. was planning a 50 per cent step-up in production and a payroll of $360,000 for the next year, making it one of the largest in Southern Michigan specializing in jobbing work.

Perry Hayden was urging Tecumseh area farmers to purchase Dynamic Kernals wheat for the sixth and final planting of the tithing project which began with the planting of a cubic inch of wheat. A tithe of the wheat crop was to be presented to the farmer's own church.

1955

A new 46-acre cemetery, to be known as Lenawee Hills North Memorial Gardens, was to be constructed on the Billington farm at the intersection of M-50 and M-52.

St. Elizabeth school was to reopen for the second year, Sept. 8. Enrollment was expected to reach 230 students. Two classrooms had been added.

An editorial reported that the county board of supervisors appeared unconcerned about the Dutch elm disease in the county. Seventy-eight per cent of the shade trees in Michigan were elms according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture, which had ordered owners to remove or destroy diseased elms within 10 days of the time they receive a condemnation notice. Ed Nelson, Tecumseh's City Manager had no reports of the dreaded disease in the city.

Citgo Honors George Ruhl

George Ruhl has been presented an Award of Excellence by the Citgo Co.

In addition, his service station has been designated as an on-the-spot training school, only one of two in southeastern Michigan.

This means that new Citgo station leasees will be sent to Mr. Ruhl for a one-week course in operation of a Citgo outlet.

The engraved plaque noted it was awarded for "Customer relation, business standards and knowledge of the service station business.

"The independent dealer operating this service station has been selected to conduct 'on-the-job' training for new dealers and service station personnel."

Since Mr. Ruhl took over the Citgo station on W. Chicago Blvd., across from Krogers, in October 1963, he had doubled the gross sales.

Mr. Ruhl has 15 years experience in the gasoline business.

Conlin Named to 3 Committees

Rollo Conlin, state representative of Lenawee County, has been appointed to serve on six interim committees between sessions of the Michigan Legislature.

Rep. Conlin will work on taxation, constitutional implementation and inheritance, estate and gift tax committees.

Redskins' Season Depends on Line

CLINTON — Clinton gridders began preparation for defense of its Lakeland C title with 68 candidates turning out at the first practice session Monday.

Coach Phil Bareis expects about 30 players to be on the varsity squad with the remainder comprising the junior varsity team.

The biggest problem according to Bareis will be on the line as five regulars on last year's squad are gone.

Missing are tackles Dave Papsdorf and Jim Englehart; guards John Basinger and Terry Grinnell; and end Roger Mann.

"Our success depends on how well our line comes along," Bareis said.

Jerry Bellmore, Ray O'Connor and Phil Smith are the prime prospects for the tackle positions and one of the starting guards should be Roger Proctor, who also does the team's kicking.

Center Brian Baker and Bill Jedele, end, are the only returning linemen from the 1964 championship team.

In the backfield, quarterback and co-captain Dennis Drazic heads the returning regulars.

Terry Brooks, Larry Heirholzer and Dennis Sweet all saw plenty of action at halfback last year and are back.

However missing will be all-county fullback Wayne Poore, who graduated [illegible] county in scoring last year.

The Redskins will also be lacking size this year [illegible] pounds will be the biggest player on the squad, according to Bareis.

Clinton's offensive formation will be basically the wing T with a split end.

"We're going to try and gear our offense to the personnel we have," Bareis said.

Opening night for the Redskins is Sept. 17 when they take on the Britton Tories in Britton.

In addition to Britton, Clinton will also play non-league foes Saline and Hudson as their schedule has expanded to nine games from last year's eight.

Bareis declined to say which of his six league opponents, Manchester, Whitmore Lake, Ann Arbor University, Brooklyn, Ypsilanti-Roosevelt or Grass Lake, would be the best.

"They're all going to be tough," Bareis said.

Franklin Hustlers Meeting Stresses Record Keeping

[illegible] Fair meeting of the Franklin Hustlers 4-H Club held Aug. 23, was attended by 30 members at the home of Patty and Cheryl Aebersole near Tecumseh.

The importance of good records was stressed by the parent advisors, Mrs. Kenneth Munger and Mrs. James Woodward, who assisted the younger members in starting their records.

Members exchanged picture negatives of club activities so each one would have a record of events.

James and Mary Anne Woodward will be hosts for the Sept. 13 meeting at 7 p.m. All records are to be completed and turned in by that time.

The top club member will be named, based on a point system. Anyone who has not given a demonstration may do so at that meeting.

Chicken Barbecue for Clinton Band Uniform Benefit

CLINTON — For many years, Clinton's marching band has been winning top awards in the state for excellent music, despite their 1930 vintage uniforms.

Last year the Band Boosters decided that new uniforms were needed and they set out to raise the money for them. Several benefit projects were held with fine cooperation of the community and most of the sum has been raised. One final major project is needed if new uniforms are to be ordered soon.

The Rotary Club offered to help by putting on a chicken barbecue with Band Booster assistance for the uniform benefit. The date is set for Sunday with a rain-date of Labor Day.

All the Rotarians who have experience with their own barbecues, will be on hand to supervise the charcoal broiling at Clinton's Memorial Park on W. Michigan Ave.

Serving will begin at 11 a.m. and continue until 900 chicken halves are sold. Carry outs will be available.

The $1.50 meal includes chicken, salad, rolls, chips and beverage. As an extra feature, the band members will have a cake booth.

LCA Endorses Race Equality at Meeting

The ecumenical movement is a "great antidote for national pride and racial nonsense," the Rev. Dr. Franklin Clark Fry, president of the Lutheran Church in America, told 1,000 guests and delegates attending the LCA Women's Convention.

Dr. and Mrs. Laszlo Gero of Gloria Dei Lutheran Church attended the four-day event held at the Hotel Sheraton, Cleveland, the week of Aug. 16.

Even to suggest that God envisions people by color, Dr. Fry said, "shows how grotesque we can be."

To further emphasize the race relations topic at the conventions, two Negroes spoke to the women assembled from the United States and Canada.

The speakers were William Ellis, a New York lawyer and Abbie Clement of Jackson, a national worker for United Church Women.

Both speakers probably won additional vote for the resolution on race which passed at the Thursday session. The four-point statement endorsed equality for all races in housing, education, churches, employment and public accommodations.

"God could have made you black had he chosen," Mrs. Jackson said.

Ellis suggested crowd hysteria, poverty, extreme heat and an almost unconscious anger against exploitation may have triggered the recent terrorism in Los Angeles.

Rookie Drivers Stake Out Bus

Classes for rookie school bus drivers were held at Adrian High School Monday and Tuesday.

New drivers were given a complete course in state laws and policies governing the operation of school buses with emphasis on the safe and economical operation of their vehicles.

Drivers had the actual experiences in staking out a bus for an emergency, first aid, fire fighting and emergency evacuation.

GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS

Los Angeles should teach us that we are dealing with social disease at an advanced stage. The gloomy statistics on family breakdown, overcrowding, crime, illiteracy and unemployment have been building up in plain view over the years.

It is to our shame that it takes something like the Los Angeles riots to give the statistics flesh-and-blood reality.

Evaluating the present machinery for dealing with urban problems is difficult since it is still relatively new and untested. Since the problems for which the machinery is set up are already nearly out of hand.

Generally speaking, the basic machinery — schools, training programs, welfare and other governmental agencies, private and voluntary groups — does exist.

What we need now is the knowledge, understanding, financial muscle, and most of all, the personal commitment and involvement to make the machinery work.

★

IF THE machinery is to move effectively, we need a massive improvement in the public's understanding of the demoralizing conditions facing the nation's slum dwellers.

With this understanding must come a sense of emergency which will energize not only government agencies, but businesses, churches, unions, neighborhood groups and voluntary organizations, into facing up to the dreary, urgent task of overcoming centuries of prejudice, discrimination and disadvantage.

Since the explosive summer of 1963, legal barriers to equal rights have tumbled at a record rate and legal safeguards of equal opportunity have been built up.

But legal victories do not eliminate prejudice. They have a hollow ring for Negro masses, ill-equipped to meet the demands and stresses of an urbanized society.

★

THE FIGHT for equal opportunity is entering a new and more difficult phase, a phase whose success depends upon three things:

First — citizens gripped by a determination to provide every American with full opportunity to overcome past inadequacies and achieve human dignity.

Second — Equal determination on the part of those provided such opportunity to convert it into equal human dignity by accepting the duty of equal responsibility and the conduct that earns respect and destroys prejudice.

Third — determination on the part of all of us to restore profound respect for law and those who enforce it.

Those of us fully familiar with the priceless advantages of being American have the greatest responsibility. On our part, there must be a compelling commitment to end injustice and attack the roots of social and economic disorder, including the hopelessness of life in the slums.

★

SUCH A commitment would impart hope to the millions of Negroes already boxed into crowded, inadequate housing.

Such a commitment would provide the education, training and economic opportunity indispensable to responsible parenthood and wholesome family life.

Such a commitment would result in urgent attention to the children and youth who are growing up without hope and without motivation, direction or responsibility.

NETS BLUE RIBBON — Jeanette Mae Starkey of the Lucky Clover 4-H Club nabbed a blue ribbon in the halter class at the Fair.

Rainsberger to Miami U

BAINBRIDGE, Md. — Fire Control Technician David B. Rainsberger, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theron Rainsberger, of Tipton, was among 146 graduates of the summer Navy Enlisted Scientific Education Program session which ended Aug. 6, at the Naval Preparatory School here.

Technician Rainsberger will now attend Miami University in Oxford, Ohio.

NESEP is one of the opportunities available to enlisted men for obtaining a commission as an officer.

The summer course of refresher studies includes English, chemistry, physics, algebra and trigonometry and is designed to prepare candidates, selected Navy-Marine Corps personnel, for entrance into civilian colleges to work for degrees.

Upon graduation from college, each will be sent to Officer Candidate School at Newport, R. I., where he will receive his commission.

PROCTOR

Dear friends,

When pain arises it is not unusual to try to ease it by taking drugs or tranquilizers. The death of a loved one is painful to survivors, but by taking tranquilizers, we only postpone the facing of our grief and interfere with the natural expression of anguish at the loss of a loved one, thus delaying the readjustment that must be made.

Tranquilizers should be used only in unusual circumstances and under a doctor's direction.

Respectfully,
Lester D. Proctor

Watershed Project Reviving

Will there be a River Raisin Watershed reclamation or not? "Yes," responds Mayor Harold Easton, chairman of the project's committee.

Mr. Easton admits that interest has fallen off since last spring, when Federal funds were denied under Public Act 566.

However, he plans to get things rolling once more.

"Vacations and other summer interests have made meetings almost impossible. The development committee has done some research and is about ready to report. That probably will be the first item to be handled," he said.

Donald Mitchell, Lenawee County drain commissioner, agrees. "We aren't dead by a long way but I do think we have some decisions to make and we should get at them soon. We can't keep interest high unless we keep activity moving."

★

THE development committee, with Mr. Mitchell as chairman, has investigated five possible courses of action.

► Proceed under the state law written especially for the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority.

► Act under the Michigan Drain Law.

► Apply under Senate Bill 448, which was tabled in the last legislature. It defines Chapter 22 of the state drain law, giving local units authority to act in river development projects.

► Prepare special legislation applicable to the River Raisin project. This would mean, however, considerable work, delay and expense.

► Disband the Raisin River Watershed and reorganize as a River Management Council. It, also might be time-consuming and costly, the committee believes.

Good Deed Cost Don Becker Money

It cost $3, but he caught the purse snatcher.

There's satisfaction in that for Don Becker of Tipton, Western Michigan University junior.

Don is a service station attendant for Sun Oil Co. in Detroit for the summer.

He and a fellow worker heard a woman scream Aug. 17 and saw a 15-year-old boy making away with her purse in his hand.

Giving chase, they finally cornered him and turned him over to police.

The boy hid in shrubbery and not being sure just what was there, Don dropped a brick in the bushes scoring a direct head on the youngster's cranium.

The thief took off again, scaling fences and leading his followers a frantic chase.

Finally cornered the youngster said, "My Mom will come down here and kill you."

Don's quick retort was, "If I had done what you did, my Mom would kill me."

The $3 was short in the till at the station when the boys returned and naturally any shortages are taken from their salaries.

Summer Vacation Over

The first "fall" activities of the Gloria Dei church last week were the painting of the inside walls, the outside sign, and cleaning up the church lot.

The pastor, Dr. Laszlo Gero, thanked the members of the congregation for their faithful services and help.

A special thank you was given to Harold Ruhl whose garden and flowers beautify the church lot.

Sunday after the service, Gregory Scott, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Sessoms, was baptized by the pastor.

Holy Communion will be celebrated Sunday and the regular worship order will be used at 10:30 a.m.

Floyd Bryans 80th Birthday Is Celebrated

Floyd Bryan of Britton was honored on his 80th birthday when 33 friends gathered at his home.

Mrs. Bryan and their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bryan, were hosts for a potluck dinner featuring several decorated cakes.

A gift was presented to the honored guest by the group. Pictures of previous gatherings of the group were shown by Fred Bryan.

Among others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Watson Cross of California, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Waldron.

A Family Project

By DOROTHY GRIGG

Stagecoach Stop on US 12, just east of the entrance to Hayes State Park, was opened this year by Fred and Dorothy Bahlau of Jackson.

The huge attraction is a family project, which started from a collection of antiques 12 to 15 years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Bahlau are assisted by their sons, Rick, Randy and Danny.

Eight local high school seniors and college students working at the Shop are Robert Brun, Linda Ward, Bill Wyman, Jim Ensor, Suzette Luckhardt, Lena Cousino, Tom Davis and Carolyn Eisenman.

The museum of carriages, one of the finest group of horse-drawn vehicles in the country, came into being when the Bahlaus purchased a small farm at Sommerset Center to raise horses. They needed a carriage.

After they bought the first buggy, the hobby grew and grew and the boys worked at restoring the old-fashioned carriages. Now the three boys switch back and forth in the several divisions of the interesting Stagecoach Stop.

Sometimes they work in the general store, filled with items from the 1890 period and featuring Pennsylvania Dutch candies from Mount Holly, homemade bread, dill pickles in a barrel, country canned goods and a variety of gifts and souvenirs.

Sometimes the young men are found in the antique carriage museum, which also holds numerous 1890 settings such as a millinery shop, blacksmith shop, doctor and dental offices and a barber shop.

Living, dining room and kitchen with hundreds of antique items are also exhibited.

Visitors can often find the Bahlau brothers engrossed in serving in the authentic Long Horn Saloon. As customers walk through the swinging door an dsash-shay up to the bar, it may be any one of the three young men who pours a tasty drink of buttermilk from the churn-dispenser on the back bar.

Numerous icy, cold, soft drinks may be obtained and there is a self-service food window, eliminating any waiting in line. Patrons approach the window, present orders to the chef and receive numbers when its time to return.

A nickelodeon, orchestra-type, coin-operated music maker is on the east wall of the Saloon, authentically reproduced in all the western splendor of the 1890's.

The Bahlaus gained much attention and experience for their Coach Stop when they managed a country store at the Jackson County Fair the past two years.

Both Fred and Dorothy were born in Jackson, where Mr. Bahlau owns the Electric Maintenance and eRpair Co. In the summer, the family lives in an apartment at the rear of the Stagecoach Stop.

Plans for next year include an 1890 coin-operated penny arcade, a train ride with hold-up and robbery and a Stew House where children's, ladies' and men's portions of a fabulous concoction from Dorothy's own recipe will be served on tin plates. Homemade bread with "slosh butter" and drinks in tin cups will add interest to the old time atmosphere.

An authentic steam engine, a covered wagon and an inviting picnic area identify this newest attraction in the Irish Hills where memories flood back to adult visitors as they meander from one exhibit to another. There is much to see without spending a penny.

Long and Short

By TOM RIORDAN

What every household needs is a 12-year-old lad brimming full with information about twin pipes, rods, stocks, over-size cams.

At our place, son Bernard fills the bill admirable and the other day he rushed in to report "a big story on N. Union St."

My instructions were to grab camera and head over to the home of P. K. Limes, age 20 (in October.)

There was a beehive of activity in the backyard of the Limes' place, where three young men, P. K. (nobody knows him by his real name of Paul Kenneth), Gary MacKenzie and Pat Vallad, were hunched over a shiney blue sports car.

The trio, 1963 classmates at Tecumseh High School, were putting the finishing touches to their proudest project, a souped '65 Chevy Sting Ray for drag racing.

In toto, the young men have a $7,000 tiger by the tail and they seem to be enjoying the sensation tremendously.

So were a bevy of neighborhood boys, including Bernie, who it turns out are constantly on hand as the gang is at work.

Calling their baby "Chevy Under Glass," the trio captured a trophy at Detroit Dragway Sunday, doing the quarter mile from a dead start in 13.3 seconds — which comes out a 104 miles per hour — pretty fair stepping.

Understanding all the phraseology about dragsters is beyond me, but Dickie Limes, P. K.'s little brother, rattled off a string of data that left my brain in a whirl.

Maybe you can catch it when I relay Dickie's report.

Anyway, there's a 327 cubic inch engine with a pair of four-barrel manifolds, hi-dome racing pistons and a 2,800-pound clutch, which is now nine months old."

★

NOW, I always thought a guy worried about his tires blowing out, but Pat patiently explained this clutch business. The whole "rear end" of a racer can be ruined unless the clutch is heavy duty.

Pat, who owns the car, should know. Before getting the big clutch, he lost two new rear ends, at $170 each, on the Sting Ray, which is now nine months old.

P.K. got the '65 Corvette engine, which was shipped to a place called Competitive Engines in Sandusky, Ohio for modification work.

It arrived back in Tecumseh last week and the friends worked three days getting the power plant installed and turned.

Pat reported after the runs at Detroit that they were "well pleased for the first time out when the engine wasn't broken in."

They're going back to the Motor City Dragway Friday and Saturday, then will run Sunday at Onondaga Dragway.

Prior to the arrival of the special engine, the boys dragged with the conventional motor and picked up 15 trophies at various drag strips.

How do 20-year-olds get to play around with $7,000 toys?

Well, you see this is the era of fat paychecks and all are working regularly. P. K. and Pat at Hawsonville and Gary at Fisher Body. And if you noted that bachelors P. K. and Pat are the major cash investors, this can be explained that Gary is married.

GARY

It's nice to see the THS Class of 1963 is noted for its hard-working young people.

Not to mention, that The Herald seems to be growing its own racing editor, who can spot "a big story" when he sees one.

ON GO THE SLICKS — Pat Vallad grins as he watches partner P. K. Limes slip an eight-inch slick onto the $7,000 Chevy Sting Ray the two lads, along with Gary MacKenzie, are dragging these days. See Long and Short column for details.

18 Months Later, City Post Office Is Moved

Postal employees made the big move to the spacious new post office on the corner of Maumee and Chicago Sts. 18 months after the scheduled completion date.

Ground was broken Nov. 14, 1963, for the building, and construction was hampered by contracting difficulties.

Tuesday morning, postal business was handled in the new facility. The yellow brick and sandstone, 5,982-square-foot building is three times the size of the old post office.

There is 17,560 square feet of manuevering area including the parking space and driveway. A new loading dock facilitates faster and easier loading.

Inside there is an all new lock box section. Keys are replacing the old combination dials on the boxes. There will be new box numbers for most persons.

The postal staff consists of 22 employees including two rural route substitutes. Equipment includes two government trucks, one leased car and two rural delivery cars owned.

The post office took possession of the old building on W. Logan St. in October, 1951.

The growth of Tecumseh which was the chief factor in the expansion program is reflected in the comparison of receipts in 1954 — $62,911 and 1964—$154,621.

The owners, Max Schwartz and George Yellen of Mt. Clemens, will lease the building to the city for 10 years and pay city taxes on its value. Leyman Construction Co. of Dearborn was the builder.

The lobby will be open from 5 a.m. to 6 p.m. There will be no change of the mail pick-up schedule.

Norris Kopka, while loading mail said:

"I think it will take time to get used to. Loading here is a bit more difficult due to only one spot at present. There may be congestion at Christmas time."

Mrs. Percy Bowen, a post office employee, thinks the added space is much better to work in making the work easier.

Mrs. Katherine Hunt, another employee, said she has been so busy scrubbing and making ready, that she hasn't had a chance to get up there to enjoy it.

Three Men Charged on Business Break-ins

Three Adrian men are in custody at the Lenawee County jail and will be charged with breaking into three local business places here.

Whelan Implement, Tecumseh Lumber and Kuhlman Concrete were burglarized either Wednesday night or early Thursday morning of last week.

Some tools, about $20 and some checks were taken at Tecumseh Lumber, $2 and some change at Whelan's, and approximately $150 and some checks from Kuhlman's.

The three men — Johnny Curtis, his brother, Donald, and Buddy Carroll, their uncle — were arrested early Thursday morning after abandoning their car just outside of Adrian.

The Tecumseh police, which assisted in the arrest with the sheriff's department and State Police, discovered Tecumseh Lumber checks in the men's car.

The local police also lifted some fingerprints at Whelan's, and these are to be checked with with the prisoners'.

The three men were originally arrested for taking juvenile girls out of state without their parents' permission.

Cops Want More Cash

A direct appeal to Council for more money for the police department was made by Police Chief Murell Clark Tuesday night.

Clark told city officals that the officers were not getting enough money. He said the department was short one man at the present and two are looking for other jobs.

Tecumseh police have sought more money for several years and were granted a hike this past spring of about $200. Most patrolmen work 44 or more hours a week with a maximum pay of $108. Take home checks are just over $90 a week.

The starting salary is $60 a week with take home pay less than $50 a week. All patrolmen moonlight or work other jobs when off duty.

Several Councilmen spoke favorably to raising the police pay from the current maximum of $5,616 to $5,816 a year.

Mayor Harold Easton told Clark that he had an applicant interested in joining the force, but when he learned about the starting salary, he was too embarrassed to give the applicant the necessary papers and information pertaining to the job.

Council asked Clark to review the salary picture with City Manager Cal Zorn and come up with a recommendation.

Council Passes Zoning Ordinance Tuesday Night

Council approved the city's new zoning ordinance Tuesday night after a public hearing for opposition was held.

Although some objections had been anticipated, particularly to the ordinance's sections about multiple dwelling, none was made.

Wallet Thief Gets Four at Hospital

Four doctors fell prey to a bit of wallet lifting last Thursday morning at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Dr. George C. Wilson of Clinton lost approximately $100, plus several credit cards, a driver's license and other papers.

Two Tecumseh physicians also were victims. Dr. Harold Ocamb lost about $70, and Dr. Richard Coak, an undetermined amount.

Dr. Archie O'Conner, another Clinton physician, was relieved of $5 and a money clip.

A stranger was discovered near the doctor's locker room prior to the discovery of the thefts. He asked a nurse where the stairway was and then apparently left.

21 Youngsters Compete at MSU

Thirty-one youngsters from eight 4-H clubs in the Tecumseh area will compete with their exhibits at the 4-H State Show, which opened Monday at Michigan State University.

The exhibits have all received blue ribbons and best of class ratings at the Lenawee County Fair.

New Appointment

Dike Helms, manager of Helms Furniture, was appointed by Council Tuesday night as chairman of festivities here for next year's Michigan Week.

3 Teams To Play Thursday

Fans will get a pre-season glimpse of the Tecumseh Indians Thursday evening when Coach Tom Fagan's club scrimmages against Dundee and Jackson Northwest at 6:30.

Tecumseh needs contact work and more practice for its opener next Friday night at Willow Run. This was quite evident after an hour-long session of bumping heads last Saturday morning.

Only bright spot of Saturday's scrimmage was the defense displayed by both units. The coaches split the squad about evenly in ability and the result was a standoff, as far as the offense was concerned.

Spectators will find the Indians unusually big this fall — and unusually slow. With both offensive and defensive backfields lost through graduation, Fagan is still searching for a combination which will click.

Tecumseh will have to rely heavily on a strong defense as the offense could well be sluggish and have to grind out yardage in short hunks.

This Thursday night, the Indians will have to iron out several problems as it will be their last opportunity for a full scale scrimmage before the Willow Run clash.

Schools are limited to one scrimmage against other schools, a ruling which hurts the inexperienced Indians.

Tecumseh undoubtedly will show improvement after a couple of games, but WR and Jackson St. Johns are the first two opponents and could be the toughest on the schedule.

Magazine Drive

The annual junior class magazine subscription drive will start Sept. 24 and run for one week.

Each fall, the class seeks subscriptions from residents to help raise money for the senior class trip.

Father of Five Killed in Crash

James E. Curtis, Sr., 40, or 307 Russell Rd., Tecumseh, died on the way to Herrick Memorial Hospital, Saturday afternoon, from injuries received in an accident involving his station wagon and two pickup trucks on M-50 at Ford Hwy.

Lenawee County's ninth traffic fatality occurred when Mrs. Gladys S. Hardesty of 6843 Hendershot Rd., Tecumseh, stopped her pickup for a left turn on Ford Hwy. and was struck from behind by the Curtis car, which was traveling at a high rate of speed.

The eastbound Hardesty truck was forced across the road striking a westbound pickup truck driven by Casmere John Stec, 49, of Detroit, and injuring both Mr. Stec and his wife, Charlotte, 47.

Mr. and Mrs. Stec and Mrs. Hardesty were taken to Herrick Hospital for severe injuries.

Clinton State Police said that investigation of the accident showed that the only apparent violation was made by the victim.

Man Is Killed and Family Recovering After Accident

Mrs. Charles Beach is in critical condition but improving in the Brockville General Hospital, Brockville, Ont., following an auto accident Sept. 1 in which her husband was killed.

Mr. and Mrs. Beach with their sons, Charles, 16, and William, 14, were returning to their home with a house trailer after a trip to Nova Scotia and Newfoundland.

The head-on collision occurred on a two lane stretch of highway called "Death Alley" just off from a four-lane highway which extends from Detroit nearly to Brockville. Four were killed there the previous week.

Mrs. Beach underwent surgery for internal injuries Thursday. She also has a broken jaw from her chin to her ear.

Charles is able to be up and about the hospital. William suffered fractures of both arms at the wrists and both legs near the hips. He also has a broken ear drum and possible skull fracture.

Fifteen concerned members of the family were flown to Brockville after the accident.

Mrs. Beach is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Niblack of Britton and the sister of Stewart Niblack.

Mrs. Stewart Niblack said, "The Canadian people have been extremely kind, we have much to learn from them. The wife of the man who took the trailer away went through it and salvaged the dishes which she washed and clothing which she laundered."

"The Provincial Police were most helpful as were the doctors, nurses and hospital auxiliary members.

Bo-Mar Farms Wins Fair Awards in Two States

BRITTON — Ken Bortel of Britton and W. J. Marshall of Maumee, Ohio, owners of Bo-Mar farms, just returned from the Ohio State Fair where they showed their Corriedale sheep.

Their entries were awarded Champion Ram, Champion Ewe and the Premium Breeder for best flock of Corriedale at the fair.

They also entered two sheep in the Michigan State Fair and received the Champion Ram award.

Mothers Guests of 4-H Maidens

The 4-H Maidens entertained their mothers Thursday at a picnic at the home of their leader, Mrs. Roger Williams.

Final reports in all projects were presented by the girls who also gave Mrs. Williams a gift for her efforts with them. Mrs. Williams is retiring as their leader.

Scores 2 TDs in Pro Debut

Former Tecumseh High star, Jim Johnson, tallied two touchdowns in his professional football debut Saturday night.

The 185-pound, six-footer starred as the Pontiac Arrows swept past the Flint Blue Devils, 61-0, in a Midwest Football League contest.

Pontiac is a Detroit Lions farm team. Playing quarterback for the Arrows is Carl Sweetan, who was recently cut by the Lions.

Sweetan tossed a swing pass to Johnson that went for a 15-yard TD and Jim tallied on a wide-end run, also 15 yards.

Johnson is working at the Don Frayer Furniture store in Pontiac, practicing with the Arrows on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

All games are on Saturday eve, except the one with Milan, which will be played there on a Sunday.

Besides running as a halfback, Jim is on the punt return unit as one of the twin safeties.

★

A 1963 GRADUATE of THS, Jim was the club's top scorer in his senior year with 93 points, which included 12 TDs.

The MFL is starting its first year and has teams in Sturgis and Dayton.

'Bye Bye Birdie' Final Clark Lake Production

By DOROTHY GRIGG

"Bye Bye Birdie" tops the Clark Lake productions this season. A moving, refreshing musical comedy with numerous dance routines, it lifts the spirits of summer theater goers which is one good reason for attending.

The play will be presented Friday and Saturday with curtain time at 8:30 p.m. to conclude the season.

The opening scene is the office of Almaelou Music Co. in New York where Albert Peterson, played by Howard Treado, and Rose Alvarez, his secretary played by Peg Geiger of Clinton, are planning one last promotion of Conrad Birdie who will leave soon for military service.

Conrad, played by Eddie Spooner, is a sleek gold encrusted crooner with sideburns and a following of teen-age worshippers.

He was well cast since he recently organized his own rock and roll group called "The Rebels." His performance was flawless as the arrogant singer.

Though the story was a bit insipid, the play was continually refreshed with good dialogue and a pleasant lack of profanity. Plenty of action on stage kept the production moving enhanced by the efforts of the Sweet Apple Kids.

Mel Barger as Mr. MacAfee and Florence Cobb as Mae Peterson, Albert's mother, did superb work with the comic roles. His performance as a typical Dad singing 'Kids' was delightful.

Florence's portrayal of the determined and possessive mother of Albert was uproarious.

Peg Geiger's performance of Rose became increasingly better and was climaxed with a fine portrayal in the "The Shriners Ballet" leading several men, including the portly mayor in the cast, under, over and around a draped table. The bit was done with the ease and speed of a professional.

Mary Ann Gallagher, as Kim MacAfee, was an adept scene stealer with her lovely soprano voice. She captivated the audience as she completely dressed herself on stage beneath her duster, while singing, "How Lovely to be a Woman."

"Bye Bye Birdie" under the fine direction of Gerald Blanchard is well worth attending.

Area Obituaries

● JAMES E. CURTIS SR.

Services were held Wednesday morning at St. Elizabeth Church for James E. Curtis Sr., 40, who died Sept. 4 at Herrick Memorial Hospital as the result of an auto accident.

Mr. Curtis was a molder at Gemco Foundry, Inc., Adrian. His home is at 307 Russell Rd.

Born June 21, 1925 at Jackson, he was the son of Earl W. and Merrible Bates Curtis.

Mr. Curtis married Margaret Delaney of Philadelphia, Pa. Dec. 6, 1943 while he was in service.

He was a veteran of World War II, a member of the Hall-Slater Post, VFW, Eagles Lodge and St. Elizabeth Church.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

PAPA AND MAMA CARDINAL, AND KIDS

It all started way back in April and my, doesn't that sound like a long time ago! Anyway, it was on a sunny warm April 9 that I was [illegible] the exciting news.

Spring had shifted into high gear, the cardinals were building a nest. For years a favorite home site has been the climbing honeysuckle bush just west of the garage door. How happy we were to again be playing host to the lovely red birds.

Of course they are around all year but there is something special about being chosen to participate so closely in the family raising activity.

For many days we had watched and enjoyed our particularly bright male cardinal courting his lady love. How tender and solicitous he was, carefully feeding her the choicest sun-flower seeds and never letting her out of her sight.

★

WITH THE buds of the honeysuckle nearly beginning to show a tinge of green, the opportunity to watch the nest building was excellent.

The birds seem to work in short bursts of feverish building and then dash off for a long period of play. In a surprsingly short time however, the necessary materials were gathered and the nest was finished.

To me, it is a never ending source of amazement that birds, with only feet and bill, can build nests. The cardinal's is not especially intricate but nevertheless, with no hands, fingers or tools — well!

Mrs. C. did most of the actual work although we did see her handsome husband fly in with an occasional bill full of dead grass or weed stems.

One day Ida had the good fortune of seeing the female wrestle an unusually long stem into place. She used her bill to poke it through from the inside of the nest and then, when the end had worked clear through to the outside, she used her feet to stamp what was left of the stem into place.

★

BY APRIL 19, Mama Cardinal was setting on two red-brown speckled white or greenish eggs.

The nest hardly seemed large enough but, from past experience, we knew that somehow when the babies hatched out, there would be ample room. Because of our vacation we missed the rest of the family raising.

Ida however reports that May 10 the little brown youngsters were standing on the [illegible] nest and by noon the next day the whole family was gone.

In an interesting switch the [illegible] did most of the family responsibilities once the kids have left the nest.

During our recent sad session with the ditch-diggers across the creek, Papa C. showed unusual consideration by bringing his second family for us to enjoy.

Actually of course the supply of sun-flower seeds was the drawing card. Many times each day he would park his black billed kids in the wren tree and then sail down to the feeder for breakfast, lunch or dinner. Back and forth he flew carrying one seed per trip to the impatient and loudly chirping youngsters.

But time is running out so next week we shall continue the sags of Papa C. and Mama Cardinal and kids.

Planting Wheat?

If so, here's why J. Walper & Son recommends ORTHO "Starter Special" Fertilizer for WHEAT . . .

1. This fertilizer has a high concentration of Phosphorus for strong root development, plus the right amount of Nitrogen and Potash for a balanced feeding.
2. These uniform pellets spread evenly over your field and give plants both a fast-acting and long-lasting feeding.
3. With ORTHO High-Analysis Fertilizers you'll have less to haul and less to handle.
4. Plus, you get more "grow power" for your crops with ORTHO Unipel High-Analysis Fertilizers.

"Which button did she press to do that?" laughingly exclaimed Karle Pokorny of Istanbul, Turkey, in German to his son, Fred, after Jackie had quickly made her father-in-law's bed while he was out of the room for a few minutes.

Mr. Pokorny, a Czech who has lived the past 50 years in Istanbul, is visting here until Sept. 14.

Astonished at the many labor-saving gadgets here, the sprightly gentleman enjoys a joke with his daughter-in-law even though he does have trouble in communicating with her.

Jackie doesn't understand any of the five languages he speaks, German, Czech, French, Greek or Turkish.

Friday was a day to be remembered by the import-exporter, here on vacation, and his four grandchildren. It was the occasion of the 79th birthday of Mr. Pokorny, who has only seen Rick, the oldest Pokorny boy, before this visit.

Karle Pokorny has long wanted to come to America and has tried for nearly 10 years to get a re-entry permit to Turkey. 'Twas only recently as his family was making plans for a trip to see him, that the permit came through.

After presents and cake with the children, Mr. Pokorny was feted at dinner at Gilbert's Steak House in Jackson by [illegible], Jackie and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bowen and Mrs. [illegible]. She is the mother of Mrs. Bowen.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kint accompanied their girls, Sharon Snyder and Marjory Matzinger, to Cincinnati, O., Aug. 28, where they will attend God's Bible School. Mr. and Mrs. Kint went on to Monterey, Tenn., where they visited the Rev. and Mrs. Ben Watts and son. The Rev. Watts was formerly the pastor of the Lower Light Mission.

√

Mr. and Mrs. James Tonneberger and Mrs. James Crane, nee Carolyn Tonneberger, were at Cocoa Beach, Fla., and saw the Gemini 5 landing. Mrs. Tonneberger stated that it was just as beautiful and just as thrilling as shown on colored TV.

√

Mr. and Mrs. William Kasno spent last week at the Hill and Dale Resort at Beulah. Mrs. Kasno said that she had no inclination to cook when they returned home, the food was so marvelous at the resort.

√

The families of Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hall and Mr. and Mrs. James Barton were among those walking the Mackinac Bridge Labor Day.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Maynard have purchased the Russell Carey residence on N. Union St. and plan to move there Oct. 1.

Ruth Neidermier of Arlington, Va. spent the Labor Day weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Niedermier of 2654 Munger Rd. Miss Niedermier is employed in the office of the Navy Department in Washington, D. C.

√

Mrs. Harry M. Curry has returned to her home in Encino, Calif. after a three-week visit with her daughter, Mrs. Cal Dixon Jr. and family. Those who went to the Metropolitan Airport to see her leave were her daughter and son-in-law, Mrs. Cal Dixon Jr. and the Rev. Seal Janeway. Dinner guests during their visit were Mr. and Mrs. Cal Dixon Sr., the Rev. and Mrs. Seal Janeway and daughter, Linda, and Allen Ross of Britton.

√

Mr. and Mrs. David Patterson of Mentor, Ohio visited Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Cornell.

√

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Crossier and Lisa Rae have been visitors at the Neville Hart residence the past two weeks. They also have been guests of his mother, Mrs. Ray Crossier, in Detroit. Mr. Crossier was recently discharged from the Army at the Oakland Air Force Base.

50th Anniversary Celebrated Sunday by Glenn Kemps

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn L. Kemp of 4314 N. Adrian Hwy. celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with a reception at the Tipton Church parlors, Sunday.

Friends and relatives came from Ohio, Florida, Ypsilanti, Britton, Tecumseh, Clayton, Clinton, Adrian, Morenci and Onsted.

Diane Green, a niece, had charge of the guest book. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hardy and Mr. and Mrs. William Murphy were host and hostess of the event.

Mrs. Minnie Green, a sister of the bride and bridesmaid at the wedding, poured the coffee.

Mrs. Lewis Lent, also a sister of the bride, served the punch. Mrs. Robert Green cut the cake and Mrs. Thelma Swarts had charge of arrangements.

Many floral pieces and gifts were received by the couple along with cards and telegrams of congratulations.

Afterwards those attending in the immediate family were served dinner at the Country Kitchen.

OES Chapter 51 Holds Memorial Service Thursday

The altar of Tecumseh Chapter No. 51 OES was draped Thursday evening in memory of Mrs. Grace H. Bailey, honorary life member of Grand Chapter, Robert Manchester and Mrs. Joseph Russell.

A memorial service was presented for the deceased members of the past year.

Mrs. Frank McRae sang and a colored candle was placed before each star point on the altar. Mrs. Melvin Ruettinger presented a spray of flowers to Mrs. Kempf as Mrs. Donald LaBounty read the names of the deceased and Mrs. Robert Bonner lighted the candles.

Mrs. Henry Kempf, worthy matron, read a memorial verse and placed the spray of white carnations on the altar.

This was the first of the fall meetings after the two-month recess. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kempf presided as Mrs. Bonner, chairman of the Villa Committee of Grand Chapter and historian of Lenawee-Monroe County Association, Olive Upton of Florida and Mrs. Fern Cutler, past matron of Benfield Chapter, Medina were welcomed.

Invitations were read from Hillsdale for their 70th anniversary Sept. 20, Brooklyn Chapter for Friendship night Sept. 25 with Mrs. Dean Moore as guest officer and Lenawee Monroe County Association in Blissfield, Sept. 25.

Mrs. Katharine Hunt showed pictures of the George Washington Masonic Temple and the International Temple in Washington, D. C.

BRITTON BRIEFS

By CHRISTINE FAIRBANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Judkins returned home Monday from a five-day trip around Lake Superior. They spent a day with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Croll and family at Big Manistique Lake in the Upper Peninsula.

Mr. and Mrs. William Raeburn and son Bruce spent three days vacationing at St. Ignace last week. Their son Steven visited his paternal grandparents in Ann Arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Patterson and their children, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Patterson and daughter of Sturgis and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Patterson and sons of Adrian, spent the past week at the Glen Grigton cottage at Wamplers Lake. Labor Day weekend guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hoagland.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Benedict and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Benedict spent the three-day Labor Day weekend in the Upper Peninsula, where they visited the Copper Country and the Locks at Sault Ste. Marie.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Watson of Adrian were Labor Day dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Dunbar entertained Saturday afternoon in honor of their daughter, Lisa's seventh birthday. Ten little girls were invited to dress up like mothers and bring their dolls for a party. Mrs. Dunbar served a noon lunch to the group, following which the girls played games. The birthday table was decorated in the Red Riding Hood theme, with a Red Riding Hood doll as centerpiece, and coordinating tableware. Lisa opened many gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brown visited their daughters in Ann Arbor Monday. Their granddaughter Kathleen O'Hara, who has been visiting her grandparents for two weeks, returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bixler are the parents of a son, Robert William, born Sept. 4 at Herrick Memorial Hospital. Young Robert, who weighed in at 7 lbs., and 11 oz., will join two sisters at home. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William Rosenbaum of Britton and Mrs. Erma Bixler of Weston.

Richard Seagert of Clinton, Iowa, and Dr. and Mrs. Harry Pape and family of Quincy were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Seagert and Linda. While home, the children helped their mother celebrate her birthday.

Special Speaker Guest at Bethel Baptist Sunday

BRITTON — Special speakers at the Sunday evening services at the Bethel Baptist church were the Rev. and Mrs. Duane [illegible]. They are missionaries to the Navajo Indians at Mexican Water, Ariz. The Indian reservation they serve is located in parts of four states: Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico and Utah.

Rev. Block showed slides of their work which includes teaching release time classes at government schools, hogan visitation, Sunday services, Daily Vacation Bible School and summer youth work.

Britton Man Joins Army

M/Sgt. Elwyn R. Bailey and M/Sgt. Robert A. Luke Army recruiters for Lenawee County, announce that 13 young men and one young woman have enlisted in the "Choose It Yourself" program.

Among those who have enlisted is Robert R. Tiede, 9761 Sutton Rd., Britton, combat engineers.

2 Men Keep Jobs

John R. Thompson and Dr. Richard Coak were re-appointed to three-year terms on the Board of Appeals by Council Tuesday night.

Rain Delays Street Work

Recent rains have put city works on the streets far behind schedule, Cal Zorn, city manager, told councilmen Tuesday night.

He told officials that the county highway department will assist in the seal coating program, which includes the following streets and sections: Seminole, Brook, 300 block of N. Ottawa, Russell, Mill to Maumee, repairs on Herrick Park Dr. and S. Evans, H. W. Tuttle Co. to Patterson, and two blocks on S. Maiden Lane.

Council approved his plans to put a bituminous base on Adrian St., Murray Dr. to Russell Rd., and an asphalt sand mixture capping on the N. Pearl St. parking lot.

New Electrical Ordinance OKed But Questioned

Council passed the third reading and approved the new electrical ordinance Tuesday night, but not without a couple of dissenting votes.

Two councilmen — Don Sunderland and Mayor Harold Easton — questioned the necessity of contractors using conduit for all wiring in multiple dwellings.

Conduit is not used in little single family dwellings and Mr. Easton said an electrician told him that the requirement for multiple dwellings was "silly".

Increase in construction costs was basis for the contractors' objection.

4-H Club Hostess

Dee Ann Miller will be the hostess for the Ridgeway Sunny Rays 4-H Club meeting Tuesday at 7 p.m.

Students of All Ages Are Starting Classes

By CHRISTINE FAIRBANKS

BRITTON — School bells are ringing throughout the land this week, calling children back to their desks for another year of studies, and the Britton area is no exception.

Some students are wide-eyed five-year-olds, eager to start school for the first time, but just a bit anxious about what it will all be like.

Many are wordly grade-schoolers, ready to repeat another year of learning. They know the school and the routine, they just wonder what their new teacher will be like.

The high school students are very sophisticated — they know the whole story (they think!) Perhaps only the seniors feel that this year is different than the past 11 years for them, as they prepare for the last year of effort toward their final goal of graduation.

★

THIS PUTS a large per cent of the young people behind desks after Sept. 6, and leaves Dad with not much to do but pay the bills, and for Mom — well, there's always that washing and ironing!

Many of last year's high school graduates are suddenly finding themselves in the role of the anxious beginner again, as they depart for various colleges and universities to continue their education.

A number of last year's class who are leaving or have left for the school of their choice include:

Ginger Frazier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Frazier — Bronson School of Nursing, Kalamazoo.

Terry Auten, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Auten — Eastern Michigan University.

Sharon McCrate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCrate — Siena Heights.

Brenda Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Palmer — Cleary Business College.

Karen Harriot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harriott — Cleary Business College.

Barry Branham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Branham — Eastern Michigan University.

Robert Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fox — Michigan State University.

Margarita Trevino, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Domingo Trevino — Eastern Michigan University.

Jim Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller — Adrian College.

Linda Clement, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Clement — Ann Arbor Beauty College.

Other young people from this area who are returning to college are:

Verl Sanch, Jr., sophomore, Adrian College

Pepper Grewahn, sophomore, Adrian College

Ron Mastie, sophomore, Adrian.

Phil Benedict, sophomore, Bowling Green University

Kay Benedict, Elite Beauty Academy

Susan Rowlands, junior, Eastern Michigan University

Barbara Gillespie, junior, Western Michigan University

Priscilla Cheever, sophomore, University of Michigan

Joe Prochaska, junior, Michigan State University

Fred McCrate, junior, Eastern Michigan University

Doug Brablec, senior, Western Michigan University.

Kathleen Forsythe, junior, Taylor University

Sidney Forsythe, graduate work, Taylor University

There are many other young people from this area attending college, and we will continue the list next week. Please call the Britton correspondent, Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks, if you know any returning collegians.

Bike Subscription List Still Growing

With 100 subscribers added to the list this week, the total of new subscriptions added to The Herald in the current Earn-a-Bike drive is now 303. There have also been 79 renewals.

Entering this, the final week, 13 bicycles had been awarded to enthusiastic young sellers and one transistor radio had also been earned.

Three more bikes were given away Tuesday and several more bikes will probably be given away before the contest closes Saturday.

Ground Broken at Grace Bible Church Sunday

A ground breaking service was held following the regular morning worship service at the Grace Bible Church on M-50 at Carson Hwy. Sunday.

After prayer, scripture, and remarks by the pastor, the Rev. David M. Holly, the following participated in ground breaking:

The Rev. Holly, Donald Hammill, George Tilton, Donald Murphy, Dorman Edwards, Mrs. James Feight, Bob Pettit and Ross Fisher.

The church building formerly the Pink School was destroyed by the Palm Sunday tornado. The regular church services are temporarily being held in the Educational Building.

Plans for the new church building are being prepared by Unified Church Structures of Mt. Clemens, Mich.

THE LANSING REPORT FROM senator GIL BURSLEY

Fiscal reform, meaning a general revision of our state tax structure, is scheduled for discussion when the Legislature reconvenes Sept. 14.

There is as yet no [illegible] concensus as to what would be best for Michigan.

With almost two-thirds of the votes in both House and Senate, the Democrats will have to furnish the majority of the votes for fiscal reform if it is to be enacted into law.

★

LET ME review some tax facts on other states for your background when considering the various tax suggestions that will be bandied about in coming weeks.

Sales taxes exist in 39 of the 50 states. They range from 2% in seven states to 5% in Pennsylvania.

Six of these states also have county and city sales taxes (including New York City).

Food for home consumption is exempted from the sales tax in 11 of the 39 states. Ten states exempt prescription drugs.

Over half of the states adopted their sales tax between the years 1930 and 1935. Mississippi was first in 1930 and also has the second oldest income tax (1912). Transient room rentals are taxed in 37 states.

Chain stores are taxed in 14 states.

★

CIGARETTE taxes exist in 48 states. Only North Carolina and Oregon do not tax cigarettes. Texas and Washington have an 11 cents per pack tax. Note that neighboring Oregon and Washington thus have an 11 cents differential. New York, Wisconsin and Tennessee each have a 10 cent tax. Only 14 states have a lower cigarette tax than Michigan.

Gasoline is taxed in all 50 states. Only five states have a lower tax than Michigan's six cents per gallon.

Individual income taxes are levied in 35 states with 28 incorporating the withholding feature. Thirty-eight states have a corporation income tax.

Flat rate income taxes are found in Alaska (16%), Indiana (2%), New Hampshire (4.25%), Tennessee (6%) and Nebraska.

Most states have graduated income taxes with the low bracket usually between 1 and 2% and the high ranging between 5 and 12%. California goes from 1 to 7% and New York from 2 to 10%.

★

STATE INCOME taxes are older than sales taxes. Wisconsin had one in 1911 and Mississippi in 1912. Two-thirds of the state income taxes were adopted in the 1930s and 1940s. Nebraska has just adopted a flat rate tax that has yet to go into effect.

Many, if not most states, have a more complicated tax structure than Michigan. Mississippi, for example, has state and local sales taxes, a state income tax and higher cigarette and gasoline taxes than Michigan yet our roads, schools, universities and hospitals are infinitely superior.

Nonetheless there are serious inequities in Michigan's present tax system and the most careful legislative attention must be directed towards needed improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Gibson, of 8824 Monroe Rd. are announcing the engagement of their daughter Barbara to Jerry Dicks, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Dicks of 11107 Milwaukee Rd., Britton. The wedding is planned for Feb. 12, 1966.

Carol Sisty Weds Michael Withrow

Carol Ann Sisty of 217 N. Pearl St., and Michael Dean Withrow recited their marriage vows Saturday evening in the Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Millard Snyder of Athens, Greece, and Eugene Sisty of Tecumseh.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Pearline Withrow of 108 S. Occidental and Doran Withrow of Manitou Beach.

The Rev. Donald Porteous performed the ceremony. White gladioli bouquets graced the altar. The immediate families were present.

The bride's daytime length bridal gown of white brocaded taffeta, was styled with a fitted bodice, rounded neckline and long tapered sleeves. The softly-flared skirt was gathered into unpressed inverted pleats at the waist.

★

A MATCHING circlet of brocade held the bride's shoulder-length veil. She carried a bridal bouquet of white feathered Fuji chrysanthemums.

Walda Kettle was the maid-of-honor. She wore a two-piece sleeveless sheath dress in aqua. Her accessories were pink and she carried a bouquet of shocking pink Petite carnations centered with white Fuji chrysanthemums.

Clarence McKenzie of Springville, a cousin of the bridegroom, was the best man.

A reception for 200 guests was held immediately after the ceremony in the VFW Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Crittenden of Saline, with whom the bride made her home, were hosts for the reception.

Pink roses circled the tiered wedding cake and decorated the bride's table.

Guests were present from Florida, Detroit, Jackson, Adrian, Tecumseh, Saline and Onsted.

The bride is a 1964 graduate of Saline High School.

The bridegroom attended Tecumseh High School. Both are employed at Tecumseh Products Co. They will reside at 307 N. Pearl St.

MRS. MICHAEL WITHROW

Mary E. Wing will graduate Thursday from Grace Hospital, School of Nursing in Detroit. Ceremonies will be held at 8 p.m. in the Rackham building. Parks Need Money

LANSING — It was an old story.

The park ranger was making his midnight rounds and found the usual collection of cars with trailers, pick-ups with camp rigs, and camper-type vehicles standing at the gateway to the park, everyone asleep, in line for first crack at any campsites that might be available in the morning.

A weary-looking, five-year-old car pulling a small new camp trailer was just settling into last place in the line. The ranger walked over.

"I don't want to discourage you," he said at the car window, "but I doubt if you'll get a campsite here tomorrow. There's five cars ahead of you in line and our records look as though only two or three campsites will open up tomorrow."

A whiskered face poked out the window. "Well," he scratched, "nothing much we can do about it tonight. I tried two other state parks down the shore today, and they were both full.

"Might chase all over and still find nothing," the whiskered face continued.

"Guess I'll wait here. Seems sort of silly to buy a parks sticker, though. We haven't seen the inside of a park yet this trip."

★

THE RANGER shifted to the other foot, and noted the sleeping wife and two children in the car.

. . . . So it goes through the long summer season at state parks these years. Trouble is, the problem is growing faster than parks can handle it.

Writing in the July-August issue of the Conservation Department's magazine, Michigan Conservation, state parks chief Arthur E. Elmer explains current problems and looks into the park management future. These paragraphs are from his article.

A sizable chunk of state money is being invested in parks this year — as it has in years past. Park visitors themselves are also paying upward of $2 million per year for use of parks.

The federal Land and Water Conservation Fund, which goes into effect this year, will add more.

But the plain fact is that all these funds lumped together fall short of demands, present and projected.

★

WITH THE handwriting on the wall, the Conservation Department has asked that dramatic increases in park budgets be made for each of the next 10 years. The program that's needed would cost about an average of $13 million per year over the 10-year period.

The state park system as it exists today is totally inadequate. Land prices of highly desirable, potential park lands are skyrocketing and such lands are getting scarcer each year as suburbia expands. It is imperative that park lands be acquired now.

At present, the Department is administering 65 parks totaling about 190,000 acres of land. Based on a generally-accepted figure of 45 acres of park land needed for each 1,000 population, Michigan will need a park system of 472,000 acres by 1975.

In 1964 the state park staff issued 235,000 camp permits and turned away for lack of space another 50,000 camping families, each of which averaged about four persons per family. The number of campers who were fortunate enough to get into parks represented a 14 per cent increase over 1963, same as the increase every year since 1960.

Projecting this 14 per cent annual increase to 1970 suggests a potential camping population of upwards of 450,000 families.

★

ALONG WITH the day-use visitors, these people contributed greatly to the economy of each local community and to the state as a whole. Generally accepted figures of $2.75 per day per person for day-use visitors, and $12 per day per camping family indicate the total number of park visitors spent about $47 million in and around state parks last year.

In addition, the camper, by paying his $1.50 per day for use of a campsite, contributed about a million dollars to the state general fund last year.

Another $125,000 was paid to the state by concession operators who sold groceries, souvenirs, and other items to park visitors. The gross receipts obtained by concession operators in 1964 totaled about a million dollars.

As a result of the Park Vehicle Permit Law, these same people contributed about $820,000 in 1964 alone to pay interest and principal on the $10 million bond issue that has provided more land and facilities for outdoor recreation.

★

THESE INCOMES show how popular state parks are, and how the public is willing to support them. But to build for the future, $28 million will be needed for land acquisition over the next 10 years. These large park and recreation areas must be developed to permit the tremendous expansion in camping anticipated by 1975.

The development program alone will cost another $69 million over the 10-year period, in addition to the cost of the land itself.

Personnel needs will increase, as will the funds needed to provide security, maintenance and operation, to take care of the new facilities and lands as well as those now existing. Operational costs for the 1965-75 decade will total another $33 million.

To accomplish this program, certain taxes suggest themselves.

A tax on soft drinks, earmarked for park acquisition and development, could provide a new source of revenue. So might an excise levy on camping equipment and sporting goods.

★

A $3 INCREASE in the automobile license fee, set aside for parks, would produce a yearly revenue of $10 million, the amount currently needed.

Eliminating the annual park vehicle permit fee and instituting a straight 50c daily fee would materially increase revenue from that source.

Special tax revenues, deposited in the state general fund and earmarked for state parks, would permit faith and credit bonding, a program now in force in some of the leading recreation and tourist states.

At stake in plans to expand state park lands facilities are millions of potential new tourist dollars and recreational opportunities which are almost as vital to the people of Michigan as their health, education, homes, and jobs.

Something must be done — now.

2 Year Duty Now Possible in Marines

[illegible] Marine Recruiting Service has announced that it is now possible to enlist for two years in addition to the three and four-year enlistments.

This is part of the new recruiting criteria and includes the 120-day delay program that is in effect for the three and four-year enlistments.

The 120-day delay program allows a man time to take care of his personal business, exempts him from the draft call and lets him choose when he wants to report to active duty.

At the same time, his time in service obligation, promotional seniority and pay entry base date have started when he first enlisted.

For more information contact the Marine Corps Recruiting Sub-station, 310 S. Jackson St., Jackson or telephone 784-1933.

Federal Aid Is $1,450,000 to State Disaster Areas

A number of constituents have asked me for a report on the Federal assistance which was provided in Lenawee and Monroe Counties following the Palm Sunday tornadoes.

Lenawee Returning $200,000

The U. S. Office of Emergency Planning, which advances funds for areas stricken by disaster, is due for a pleasant surprise from Lenawee County.

About $200,000 of the $425,000 advanced for relief and rehabilitation after the April 11 tornado is going to be returned, a survey of progress has indicated.

Kenneth Nicklov, Woodstock Township supervisor and chairman of the county disaster committee, said that the clean-up is about "half done."

Chairman E. A. Skala of the board of supervisors said that $78,030 has been spent on cleaning up. Donald E. Mitchell, county drain commissioner, said $38,674 has been spent for clearing drains.

Two checks totaling $316,000 have been received from the OEP. This amounts to about 75 per cent of total authorization. The Agriculture Department approved $83,327 for removing debris from fields and restoring fences.

Other assistance was $12,862 from the American Red Cross, and $1,000 for the Tipton area.

Lenawee Countians also took pride in the self-assisting "gumption" of those stricken and in the volunteer assistance that poured in from friends an dneighbors, thus speeding the work and completing much of it before the federal funds arrived.

But the tornado did leave permanent marks. Total damage was estimated at $5 million. County agriculture took a $3 million beating.

Some 150 farmers were in the tornado area, County Agent John Comstock reported, of whom 43 have gone out of the dairy business because of loss of buildings and equipment. Many of these farmers are now raising cash crops.

The corn crop in the path of the storm will be about 50 per cent of normal. Thirteen farmers received 3,000 bushels of government-held corn because their own was contaminated.

While a large portion of the damage was covered by insurance, including a great deal carried by local companies, Federal assistance was also made available, as promised, to disaster areas.

In brief, approximately $1,450,000 has been allocated to the 14 Michigan counties. Of this total, approximately $525,000 — or more than one-third — was allocated for Lenawee and Monroe Counties alone.

Buford Ellington, former governor of Tennessee and presently Director of the Office of Emergency Planning, reporting in detail on Federal assistance.

He notes, "Under the provisions of the Federal Disaster Act, a total of $1,450,000 has been allocated for use in 14 counties. There funds are being used to assist the state and local governments in the clearance of debris and rubble and the emergency repair of essential public facilities such as roads, schools and other public buildings.

★

"Most of the eligible work in the State is being performed by local governments with their own forces or by contract. OEP is providing reiinbursement to state and local governing bodies for the cost of such eligible work," he said.

Franklin Township received $3,000.

Addison Community Schools was authorized $75,000 to replace building, furnish temporary classrooms, replace books, equipment and supplies and furnish transfortation to temporary class rooms.

Lenawee County was down for $422,183 to cover debris clearance, health measures and road repairs.

Mr. Ellington noted: "Under its disaster loan authority, the Small Business Administration has approved six long-term, low-interest rate home loans totaling $45,140 and two business loans in the amount of $12,200 for Lenawee County; and three home loans for $38,500 and one business loan for $6,000 for Monroe County."

"The Red Cross has expended relief operation in Lenawee County. This covers mass care services at the time of the disaster for 1,300 people, and rehabilitation and recovery assistance to 55 families whose resources were not sufficient to cope with the effects of the disaster," the director told Congressman Vivian.

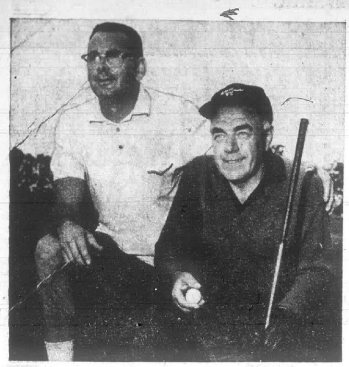
Linger, Koster Team To Win Hi-Lo Tourney



ROGER LINGER, BILL KOSTER WIN BIG TOURNEY

Roger Linger of Tecumseh and Bill Koster of Adrian fired a 130 best ball — 14 strokes under par — over a 36 hole route to capture the 1965 Tecumseh Country Club Hi-Lo Tournament.

An annual Labor Day weekend event, 32 teams competed with three-quarters handicaps applied.

Running second, two strokes off the pace, were Paul Gilliland of Tecumseh and Bob Watts of Dearborn.

Two Milan members, Herb Clark and Roger Stevens, captured third place with a 135 total, 11 blows under par.

Two teams — Fred Randall and Art Geisenhaver of Tecumseh and Ralph Dabe of Tecumseh and Bob Dickinson of Saline — tied for fourth place on 137s.

250 Help with Dinner

St. Elizabeth's roast beef dinner this year will be served buffet style — from the new $60,000 kitchen recently added to the school auditorium.

To be on Sunday, Sept. 19 and co-chairmaned by Joseph Cabla and Mrs. Glenn Forsyth, the dinner will be served from 11:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Nearly 250 parishioners fill a smoooth-functioning work roster at this 12th annual dinner, largest all-parish event undertaken annually by the local Catholic church.

Proceeds go to the support of the church and the elementary school, which has an enrollment of about 400 students, grades one through eight.

TO THE EDITORS:

We have enjoyed The Herald very much and we would like to renew it for another year.

We enjoyed our visit with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thomas from Macon. They were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rozelle in Virginia. Jean Rozelle is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thomas.

We can't wait from week to week to get The Herald to read all the news from home. Keep up the good work.
